THE NORFOLK NEWS: FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1906.

The Norfoik Weekly News-Journal minutes."

The News, Established, 1881. The Journal, Established, 1877 THE HUSE PUBLISHING COMPANY

N. A. HUSE Secretary W. N. HUSE President

Every Friday. By mail per year, $1.50. Entered at the postoffice at Norfolk, eb., as second class matter.

Telephones: Editorial Department, to 22. Business Office and Job Rooms, No. 12. 1 No. H 22.

Cuba is a spolled child, and can not be good. It looks as though Uncle Sam would have to spank the island cheering, but through the place passed and not let it out of his sight in the future.

Although much time was taken to make it effective, President Stickney of the Great Western road declares that the new railroad rate bill is not being lived up to in important details. The ears of the interstate commerce commission ought to be burning.

Government ownership of railroads is an idea that has been taken from the socialists. The socialistic theory has always been for the common ownership of all industries producing president of the United States. articles used by the public.' And now the socialists are beginning to claim Mr. Bryan as their own lost child.

It was intimated by democrats of ty Attorney Koenigstein requested announced that teachers under them Judge Boyd to summon a grand jury for the purpose of looking into the hospital here, that Judge Boyd was "in a hard place." It was hinted that may select. Could one imagine more he would put it off until after his cam- of a tangle? With half the children attained by his hardworking parent. paign for congress. He surprised the of a family spelling on way, and half democrats by promptly summoning the grand jury. He did not shirk his will he shirk his duty in congress.

trict after the party had failed in its years. It is pointed out that he has attempts to thrust the nomination on not the moral right to thus alter the not be elected. It is not every man is also said now that the reform who will take a nomination when he spelling is not legal, because congress knows defeat stares him in the face, years ago adopted Webster's dictionbut this is a republican year in Nebraska and, besides, Mr. Randall is country. "Punch," the English paper, a candidate who would win in spite cartoons Mr. Roosevelt as chopping of a handicap. Mr. Mattheson must down the tree of English language. be given credit for acknowledging The English speaking world is reprethat he can not be elected.

county commissioner ever held a position in the Madison county board ing world. than Burr Taft. He is wide awake and a hustler. He sees defects and he fixes them. He never hesitates a moment about doing things that ought work. He was appointed to fill an be worked out in Norfolk, has been unexpired term and he has done it successfully maintained once a week so well that the people of this county at Watertown, Wis., for many years.

But the "wild cheering" is not accounted for by other papers. One, for instance, which is considered reliable, said

"While Mr. Johnson was speaking, there was a sudden stir at the other side of the auditorium, right opposite the platform. A little group of men and women were seen to make their it is true, being supplanted largely way to one of the boxes on the lowest was standing up, craning their necks and staring in that direction. There even things up of more of them would was no outburst of applaus or of it up. one of those peculiar guivers, eloquent of some stirred passion. And from lip to lip passed a single word. "Hearst," The sensational report in Mr. white collars at their work and nobby suits of clothes, with fancy vests. Hearst's paper concerning this meet ing is in line with his other newspaper There is too much of a tendency work. Mr. Hearst plays only to the among the young men of today, just gallery in journalism, and publishes growing into their majority, to preonly the rankest rot at that. It is not serve pretty white hands with well unfair to judge Mr. Hearst by the polished nails, and to run and hide perpetuate these two men in office style of newspapers that he runs, and from work that is manual-or, for the for the purely selfish reason that the this evident misrepresentation may be matter of that, from work that is republican candidate for mayor had taken as a pretty clear example of the work.

sort of man he is. Surely such a man is not fit to be or even to aspire to be have an idea that life is easy and railway."

at all. With him it is only a question The city superintendent and county superintendent of schools at Fremont up when once he gets out of college. as large a majority as the present one and in Dodge county, have expressed And all of that as a reward for his was unless a large percentage of the themselves as passively in favor of brains. the new reform spelling, and have The young man of the present day can instruct in either system they off where his father began, making in the city Monday night, is traceable ner: In the First ward, Gow, repub- ligh, poured in so fast that it made a choose. Each teacher is permitted to his start at the bookkeeper's desk of to church people and The News-teach whatever method of spelling he an industrial plant, and, bossing the the christians and the newspaper bethe other, a dignified result may be looked for. President Roosevelt is to change the English language or for ary as the standard for spelling in this down that tree. Teddy says he did No more aggressive and progressive it with his "litl ax." "Well, boys will be boys," answers the English speak-

The young man of today seems to MARKET DAY FOR NORFOLK. The bargain day, or market day, suggested in these columns repeatedly as to be done. He is all business, all a practicable and beneficial idea to "bulldog" pipes, talking about fra- last year. are wishing he would remain on the The Germans of that community are highly enthusiastic in their support hearty reception, which lasted two perous and they are not compelled to very foundation. And he will, it is porting the democratic city ticket, violate the home industry priciple in learn to work at a trade. In the predicted by bakers, make a fortune does it? Again, if The News had sup any particular, if he would have Nor-good old days, everybody learned at the industry. some sort of a trade, and a trade Any young man could go into a never handicapped anybody. Over in Norfolk bakery, learn the business would have been a party to cancelling with home protection as its motto. Germany the boys work for years at and, in a short time, become com- an agreement that had been in force an apprenticeship without pay, while petent to establish a small bakery in in this city for years on the matter of city printing, cutting out one of the here conditions are more favorable to a small town, where he could make them. The work of the tradesman is, $2,000 or $3,000 per year.

There is nothing repulsive about the contemporary might have more? by machinery, but there is still ample bakery business. It is hard work, but tier. In a moment the whole audience need of young men in all lines of it is scientific work. It requires judgcity election a little and see if the constructive industry and it would ment and intelligence. matter of the street closing had per-

Many a young man who is undestick to a reputable trade and follow cided today as to what he shall do, would be wise to take an apprenticeship in a Norfolk bakery. There is too much of a tendency among young men of today to wear

THE RESPONSIBILITY.

"John Friday was just as bad a mayor last April as he is today. Bill Uecher was just as bad a policeman ast April as he is today. The News and the men who fraternize with it knew this, yet that paper helped to "Three-fourths of the people of this that making a living is no problem of how many millions he shall pile city administration can be elected by religious people voted for it.'

definite purpose and not merely for As a matter of fact the gentleman ahead of his ticket, but it was not on duty, as they seemed to hope. Neither being blamed by many prominent men the sake of a diploma and several who makes these statements is so the issue of street closing, for the of the country for assuming authority years of slang. And, after all, if it prejudiced that he has failed to look must be a choice between learning up the truth of his assertions. So Mr. Mattheson, nominated by demo- changing the style of spelling used in to work at a trade which will give far as The News is concerned it is measure. In the Third ward, Halvercrats of the Eleventh senatorial dis- the government records, even for two the youth some idea of constructive able to contradict each and every alprocesses and which will give him an legation made. Not only did The depot proposition, received 97 votes, while Pasewalk received 101 votes. In the Fourth ward no comparisons On March 30, the Saturday before community and who will lican colleagues, except in the Second sented as asking who tried to chop coming out of college without knowing election, the following appeared in the candidate for councilman ran the first rudiments of making a liv- these columns: ahead of him. The votes in this ward ing; without the slightest particle of "Next Tuesday will be election day might at first blush be considered as knowledge of how to do anything of in Norfolk. There will be three separate elections, the city ticket, the members of the board of education and the sewerage bonds. The city think keeping in touch with the foot- ticket and the board of education will candidates for councilmen were in ball scores, "jollying" the girls, wear- be elected along party lines. This favor of closing the street, some other ing dress suits to the dances, smoking year but two tickets in each case have cause for the result in this ward must been put up, where there were three The republican party is be sought. ternity pins, and incidentally select- entitled to the election in Norfolk this ing enough "snaps" in the college year for many reasons. In the first religious people of Norfolk are hypo- never advance as fast as their neighcourse to slide through without much place the republican ticket is comcrits and not sincere in the religion bors. actual study, for four years, ought to posed of clean, honest, honorable business men who are respected in the which "they profess," and the unjust

Let us analyze the vote of the last of the city last spring. Perhaps the nearest approach to party strength was shown in the vote on city treasurer, an office upon which the street ported the democratic administration, folk grow to its full size. The town does it stand to reason that the mayor ought to form a "bigger Norfolk" club, Pender Republic: Chris. Slinger was in town the first of the week. He is now working for the U. P. as opportions that had been coming to The erator at Norfolk. Chris. is all right News so that its republican-democratic and he can come as often as he wants to. We all know how it is-we were young once ourselves.

There could be no better argument ceptible influence on the result. There for a good road between Norfolk and is no means of determining the nor. the Junction, than the roads today. mal party vote of the various wards The mud is so deep that it takes a long time and an enormous pull for horses to drag a buggy from the Junction up town.

A certain denizen of the sea has a proposition could not possibly have habit of protecting itself from the apbeen made an issue. In the First proach of strangers by throwing out ward, Friday received 90 votes, Pase. an inky substance which befouls the water for a great distance around, thus obscuring its own presence. This kind than Friday, and Schorregge received of a beast has human imitators.

Eleventh district democrats had a ticket. In the Third ward, Schorregge dall, They tried to get two different community belong to the churches and received 89, Pasewalk 101, running candidates from Wayne county, but make a profession of religion. No twelve ahead of his normal strength, without success. The man who finally In the Fourth ward, Schorregge re- was forced to accept the nomination, ceived 30, Pasewalk 36, again being declared he could not be elected.

> We are glad that ball game at Oakdale is over. The announcements that a game would be played, coming from To analyze the vote in another man- Oakdale, and the flat denials from Nelican, for councilman, known to be person dizzy. Either one town or the in favor of street closing, received other had to be right, and the neigh-

٠

The political side of a newspaper is a strange combination. When its party candidate is elected, it is because he is poplar with the people; reason that Craven and his opponent when he is defeated the newspaper is were both figured in favor of the blamed on the ground that if it had given him more support he might stein, republican nominee for the have been elected. The newspaper recouncil, known to be in favor of the ceives no credit if it wins, but is abundantly blamed if its loses.

The man who sold his influence to the opposition at a critical time, who can be made with the vote on coun- has surrounded himself with democilman, for the reason that the repub- crats, whose interests and hopes are licans had no candidate for that of identical with those democrats, who is fice. Thus it will be seen that Pase- an ardent admirer and liberally quotes walk received in each of the wards from democracy's chief, who is not more votes than either of his repub- now giving one iota of support to the republican candidates, is hardly in position to speak as a republican in criticism of the acts of a republican.

An errand boy in a Norfolk establishbearing out the theory that the street ment was asked to go an errand yesclosing proposition cut some figure, terday. He replied that he couldn't but when it is remembered that both go for a couple of hours, but that he would do it then. This was the reason he couldn't go right away: "I am very anxious to finish a letter that I'm writing," Too many of that kind of boys grow up into that kind of The shameful insinuation that the men. Then they wonder why they

Judge Eisley's friends want it dis amounting to $75. Judge Lamber sees no reason why he should be ashamed judge was omitted in the news re-

Now and then you hear people say that the government has never ventured into competition with private business. It is a mistaken idea. The

You are wasting time if you are waiting for nature to do all the work.

Everybody needs a little help, so does nature; assist her by taking a course of Hollister's Rocky Mountain

Tea. Tea or tablets, 35 cents. Ask

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

she buys Ben Davis apples.

An Atchison woman is so charitable

It is as certain that a law suit is man's enemy as that whisky is man's local printers. It is unfair.

87, while on treasurer, Haase, democrat, received 94 votes, four more had the termity to stand up against 81 votes, six less than Pasewalk. In making a gift of one of the principal the Second ward, Schorregge received hard time yesterday to find a man The young man of today seems to streets of Norfolk to the Northwestern 137, Pasewalk 138, one more than his who would make the run against Ran-ahead six votes. Pasewalk's total vote was 362, while that of Schorreg-The foregoing arguments are used to show that the responsibility for ge was 337. sincerely believes that he can leave the double murder which took place job, far surpass the success that was ing joint partners in sin, as it were, $4 votes, while Pasewalk, known to boring towns are glad the point is setresponsible for the election of Mayor be against the proposition, received tled. Education is all right enough, but Friday and through him responsible 87. In the Second ward, Craven, reeducation should educate for some for the tragedy. publican, for councilman, ran away asset upon which he may always fall News oppose the re-election of Mayor Wayne county, admitted that he can official records of the government. It back for his living, and learning to Friday, but its editor voted for his read Latin and to dance well, the opponent, H. A. Pasewalk, the repubtrade, as a concrete, tangible, serious lican nominee. It is not a difficult business, should have the preference. matter to prove that The News sup-There is too much of spending the ported the republican ticket at the third of one's life at books and foot- city election last spring, as reprints ball these days, with a study of which from issues published during the camcolor of neckties should be worn, as paign will show. the summer's occupation; and then board forever. He will be elcted this fall by an overwhelming majority.

grand jury. The complaints charge neighbors. manslaughter among attendants at the Norfolk insane hospital. The jury Koenigstein, it must be conceded, has given the complainants every chance tory surrounding Norfolk. to make good their charges. He has strength of his record.

of the plan, as is shown by the fact that every Tuesday finds hundreds of County Attorney Koenigstein is them in town with hundreds of various probing into complaints filed with the odds and ends to "swap" with their

The market day could be developed once a week in Norfolk, with just as will probably bring in no true bills as much success, and it would prove a a result of the evidence which promises benefit to the merchants and business to be introduced, but County Attorney men of the city as well as to the farmers and the people living in terri

Whether it were once a week or shown this same spirit of willingness once a month, the same plan could be to investigate any alleged crime, and put into effect. Excursion rates could to protect any citizen of the county. be secured on all railroads for the ever since he was first elected to of purpose of bringing people into the fice. He has served but one term, and city; merchants of the city could give he is entitled to another on the bargains in various lines on that day, as attractions to the mercantile estab lishments of the city; and the people

The address of Mr. Shaw may be from a vast territory could bring in taken as the administration's reply to on those days, all of the old articles the government ownership idea pro- which they wanted to trade off, with pounded by Mr. Bryan. Mr. Shaw the result that many a satisfactory expoints out that the idea is un-Ameri- change would be made. The day can and atterly incompatible with our would prove popular to hundreds of representative form of government, people who would come to Norfolk. He points out the fact that service Special amusements, a band concert, would become inferior to its present a street show, or something of that standard, and shows how the great sort, could be worked in well as an political machinery would corrupt the added means of entertaining and amussystem. He makes a strong point ing the visitors.

it is believed that the merchants when he says that, though Mr. Bryan, yielding to the pulse of the democratic and business men of Norfolk would leaders, declares he will not insist on be glad to support such a plan to having this plank in his platform, yet co-operate in making it a success. he will unquestionably talk the scheme Organized effort would be needed, of and act upon it after he is elected, if course, to direct it and get it going. Organization is to be found in the given the presidency. Commercial club, which was formed

HEARST IS UNRELIABLE.

William Randolph Hearst has the presidential bee buzzing in his hat. He through. would have the people of this country believe him to be a philanthropist. His stock has been ascending down in New York, both in city and in state A little while ago he was considered dangerous to other people's presidential ambition. But Mr. Hearst does not ring true.

William Randolph Hearst owns a number of newspapers in this country. In New York he has the American After the Bryan reception, his newspaper came out with this paragraph in big type:

"W. R. Hearst arrived while Chairman Tom L. Johnson was addressing the meeting. A ringing cheer followed the recognition, and the next instant the entire audience arose, and, waving flags and hats, gave Mr. Hearsi a trades. Perhaps times are too pros- to learn the whole business, from the side the men who have been devoting for the purpose of promoting just such plans as these, and carrying them

The Commercial club has no secre-

at all can be accomplished by the

To develop this plan would, it is generally conceded, be a help to Nor-

BACK TO THE HANDS.

organization.

folk.

Norfolk.

arrange the details.

republicans, when they have been in years and years to learning the details office before, have given creditable ad of a trade-industry which is just as ministrations for Norfolk. This fact deep and just as complicated as a be said for all of the democratic adgame of football ever dared to be. ministrations in this community. Many a young man comes out of col-"The men who are making the re lege in a pair of balloon shaped publican race this year are conserva trousers, all ready to lift the world's live, upright and reliable. The city burdens, but as helpless, so far as knows that their election will mean good government, conducted along libhaving any practical ideas or any eral lines, and in accordance with the skill with his hands, as a babe in the laws of the state and town. People of cradle. It is argued that they are bet-Norfolk well know that if the republican ticket is elected as it stands toter prepared to learn then the way of practical work, but the argument day, there will be no need for blushactual value on earth.

give him a place in the world along-ing at conditions which exist in the does not always work out in practice city. because these young men insist on "As officials of our city, we want superintending things, without knowfidence in but whom we can also reing the elementary details that must spect. And men of this type have be known to a superintendent.

been nominated by the republican par-Higher education, taken with a ty to stand for election next Tuesday "There are no vital issues at stake on the surface why democrats should definite object in view, is a handy as there are in some elections. It is thing with which to complete the edulargely a matter of men. But the recation of the hands. But the people publicans are willing to go on record who really make the wheels of the world go around are the people who elected, the administration will stand Friday was not so well known then know the details of some industrial for advancement, progress, civic pride as now, neither did the depot question trade and who can, with their hands, the welfare of Norfolk.

build and make the things that society "The following ticket has been placed in the field by the republican party:

Education must have a place in "For mayor, Herman A. Pasewalk, rounding out the minds of growing "For city clerk, Julius Hulff. men and in enlarging their spheres, "For city treasurer, E. J. Schorbut, after all, for the fundamental regge. "For city engineer, W. H. Salmon. education and the fundamental power "For members board of education, to earn a living, in case of any emer-W. H. Johnson and W. H. Bridge, gency, we must go back to the hands.

needs.

"For city council: First ward, C. C. Gow: Second ward, Dan Craven; Third ward, Gay Halverstein." The bakery industry in Norfolkand, by the way, that is an important On the day before election, the factor of the city's upbuilding-could following items, among others, were increase its output of loaves with published in the editorial column: "The republican ticket is made up which to feed northern Nebraska and southern South Dakota, if more bakers of clean men. Republicanism means could be secured. This shortage of progress and advancement." "The police department during the tary at the present time, and it will be bakers all over the country is one of last year has not set the world afire necessary to elect one before anything the drawbacks to the industry right by its activity. This will have some influence in tomorrow's election." now and the shortage is due to an "A vote for the republican ticket toapparently ungrounded cause. It is morrow will be a vote for a police desaid that young men are not anxious partment that will have the courage to do its duty, and not one that will to learn the baker's trade because it wink at crime and vice in the very savors of the kitchen, and because heart of the city." It is a plan that can be developed it is not a good clothes job. But for "Norfolk has been a quiet city durwithout the expenditure of large funds. all that, young men who are starting ing the past year, so far as the police Market day is a winner in other out and want to learn some trade court records are concerned. Judge places. It can be made a winner in which will make them a good living Westervelt, who is the democratic poice judge, told of some things that and something besides, would do well have been going on when he took occasion to address a peculiarly ob-

It only remains to set the dates and to investigate the bakery business. noxious character in public some lit-In Chicago the other day a young tle time ago. A vote for the demoman surprised his friends by starting cratic ticket tomorrow means a vote into a big bakery as greaser of pans, There is too much of a tendency just after he had graduated from Haramong young men of today to shirk the vard university. He was determined breath.'

This does not look much like sup- No Norfolk citizen can afford to cents. Ask your druggist.

make good attempt to create an impression that religious people of the city are tinctly understood that he was not officials for this municipality. The morally responsible for the duel of the justice who, last week, fined a Monday night, is as malicious a false- prisoner $1 and costs, the costs can not be denied. As much can not bood as is the statement that Pasewalk was sacrificed by republicans that it was he. The name of the because of the depot question. The election last spring did not hinge on port of the affair. It is mentioned now religion, but upon party politics and for the purpose of keeping the record no one has the temerity to claim that straight.

all church members are republicans, though it is admitted they ought to

The facts about the election last spring are that it was a democratic government is right now engaged in time in Norfolk, and the republicans the printing business, competing with were simply out numbered. The ad- the printers of every town in Amermen whom we can not only place con- ministration of Mayor Friday had ica. Not a day passes but that dozens been good from a business and civic of orders for printed envelopes go to standpoint, it was at the end of his the government, which ought to go to first term, and there was no reason not support their candidate. The moral phase of the question did not enter in predicting that if their ticket is largely into the campaign, because and for all things that have to do with eut any figure, as is shown by the cold your drugigst.

facts produced by the returns.

AROUND TOWN.

When your neighbor's chickens trespass on your lawn, have you a right to chop their heads off or have you not?

We are sorry for the county fairs billed for this week. We hate to men-We can understand how men become tion it, but we told them not to set their dates for equinoxial week.

Mormons, but how can women accept the doctrine? Men who eat at chop houses in Boys and dogs are always trying to ities get in the habit of wiping off give satisfaction; the trouble is, they " their plates and spoons and knives and have such queer tastes. forks with their napkins, before ever enemy.

No trouble to raise boys; but girls attempting to eat. must have their hair combed and wear What has become of the man who white dresses. And white dresses said, with a long face, four months don't do a thing to the washing. ago: "This is starting out just like

When a baby gives a shrill cry, evthe old fashioned drouth years. Crops ery one in the house runs to it, and will be burned up this year, all right." when it keeps it up every one runs Talk about luck: Dr. Bear never from it ellcept its mother.

shot a prairle chicken in his life but The main trouble with apples this when he came home this morning from Elgin, he had a couple of them danghave friends.

Automobilists are displeased with this weather, because they don't like to run their machines in the mud. It is said that all machines in Norfolk for a police force that has acted as came with this guarantee: "You can officer, judge and jury all in the same run it in the mud-if you want to."

year is they are too big to eat. Whethling at his side. That's what it is to er you take a hig bite or a little one, you are bound to either rub your chin or your nose on the apple.

> Bad breath, coated tongue, a languid feeling, is entirely unnatural. Your lazy liver and bowels need a tonic. The best soothing tonic to every organ is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or tablets, 35

