Fremont Herald: C. D. Marr is a candidate for the position of postmaster at Fremont, and is circulating a petition with the view of soliciting the appointment. The document is being very numerous signed. Postmaster Swanson, some time ago, sent to Congressman McCarthy a petition containing over 150 signatures, and his application for reappointment. Considerable lively interest is liable to develop in this forthcoming controversy, for both the leaders in it are known to be fighters, and neither will surrender as long as there remains a single hope of victory.

Nebraskans were disappointed in the result of the Kansas-Nebraska football game in which Kansas won by a score of eight to six. Poor judgment on the part of Quarterback Cooke, who had been struck in the head during the first half, was responsible for losing two chances to score by the cornhuskers. The two teams are old time foes, and had not met for years owing to a controversy over a game. The Princeton-Yale game resulting in no score was a disappointment to Princeton supporters and the decisive victory of Pennsylvania over Michigan, 17 to 0, was a hard blow for the west.

There had been talk of paying Dr. Young from the cash fund of the Lincoln hospital.

HUGHES DOES NOT RETIRE

ERRONEOUS REPORT WAS ISSUED FROM SIOUX CITY.

BRADEN SUCCEEDS WALTERS

New Assistant General Superintendent Comes to Norfolk, Though Permanent Headquarters Are Not Yet Determined—Other Appointments.

Considerable consternation has been occasioned in Norfolk railroad circles by a report sent out from Sioux City stating that Charles G. Hughes, general superintendent of the Northwestern railroad west of the Missouri river, would retire and that his place had been filled by the appointment of Stanley M. Braden. General Superintendent Hughes will not retire. He remains in his present position with headquarters at Norfolk. Stanley M. Braden has been appointed assistant general superintendent to succeed Frank Walters, who was recently made general manager.

The position of assistant general superintendent has been vacant since Mr. Walters was promoted to the position formerly occupied by Mr. Bidwell.

Comes to Norfolk Now.

Assistant General Superintendent Braden has not yet arrived from Chicago. He will come to Norfolk at first and will make his headquarters here but where his permanent headquarters will be has not yet been determined. Mr. Walters, when he was appointed assistant general superintendent, came to Norfolk and later established headquarters at Fremont.

Mr. Braden has been superintendent of the Galena division of the Northwestern.

The following appointments are made as a result of the promotion of Mr. Braden to the position of assistant general superintendent:

It is said that trains will probably be running out to Herrick within a few weeks, depending on the weather.

WORK BEGINS ON GUND BUILDING

G. Hilliker Arrives and New Headquarters and Cold Storage Goes up.

G. Hilliker has arrived in the city to start work on the new cold storage and headquarters building for the Gund brewing company. The work began Monday on the site, just north of the union depot. Mr. Hilliker has just recently completed a similar but smaller building at Mitchell, S. D., for the firm.

The cold storage and office building to be erected here is of the largest type which is put up anywhere by the Gund brewing company. It will be ninety-six feet in length and will be modern in every particular. The building was secured for Norfolk through the efforts of Manager Charles Groesbeck, who has built up the business for his firm until the headquarters and distributing building was needed here.

M. V. Avery has arrived to accept the position of bookkeeper for Mr. Groesbeck and, besides these, drivers and other employees will be given work in the institution.

PET SPANIEL FREEZES TO DEATH

Dog That Had Been Lost and Was Advertised For, Found Dead.

"LOST"—Small white fox terrier with round brown spots on center of back. Return to Charles Gerecke. Reward.

This was the substance of a want ad. inserted last week in the "lost" columns by Charles Gerecke of this city in the hope of recovering his pet dog. It was too late for human aid to restore the pretty spaniel, though it has been found. Its frozen body was discovered, life extinct, after the ad. had appeared. The pet had been lost and, lying down to sleep, had frozen to death.

NELIGH TO BE BETTER LIGHTED

Six Lights of Seventy-two Candle Power Will be Added.

Neligh, Neb., Nov. 19.—Special to

The News: At a recent meeting of the city council it was decided to add six lights of seventy-two candle power each. Three are to be installed in the east end of town and three in the west end. With this addition of lights to Neligh we will have one of the best lighted cities of its size in the state. The Neligh high school football team will play the Albion boys on the latter's ground Friday next. The return game will be played in this city at Riverside park on Thanksgiving afternoon.

J. P. Penne Sent to Asylum.

Neligh, Neb., Nov. 20.—A short term of district court was held last week by Judge Boyd, although little business was transacted of general interest. Mrs. Emeline Griffiths was granted a divorce. Court adjourned sine die. The regular term will begin December 17 and the jury will report on that day. The docket will consist of about sixty cases.

Two cases were before the board of insanity recently. Mrs. W. O. Decky of Grant township was ordered confined in the Norfolk asylum and on Thursday morning John P. Penne was convicted of being an inebriate. He lives east of Elgin and during one of his recent regular sprints drove his family away from home and upon their return some time after again drove them away. This led to his arrest and filing of the charge. He made no defense, but said he had better go to the asylum and admitted drinking to excess.

A young man who has been around Neligh for some time and known as Ed Smith, was engaged by the Glanditz Bros., living three miles north, to pick corn and went out Sunday night to begin work the next morning. During the forenoon of Monday he came to the house and soon after surrendered his job, apparently not having much ambition for work. He came to town and visited several places of business and then disappeared. Tuesday evening a roll of money, the proceeds of collections of threshing and amounting to $280 was missed by the Glanditz boys. It was in a pocket of a coat left hanging upon the wall of their house.

NORFOLK BRICK WORKS.

Every industry in Norfolk which employs labor and thus maintains a part of the city's citizenship, is a factor in the upbuilding of the community. A plant which gives work to one man is a help, and the plant which gives employment to between fifteen and thirty-five men at certain seasons of the year, is a bigger help. The Norfolk Brick works, operated by H. E. Gerecke, is therefore an important factor in the constructive process of making Norfolk a bigger city than its mere agricultural environment would warrant, for the Norfolk Brick works gives work to between fifteen and thirty-five men during a large portion of every year.

This industry is one along productive lines. From the raw earth, aided by the hand of man, building bricks are turned out for use in all lines of the building trades. And Norfolk, because the profit is not distributed to eastern jobbers, reaps all the benefit of the production, in one way and another.

The Norfolk Brick works are conveniently located on the Chicago & Northwestern's Bonesteel branch, facing Prospect avenue on the south between Seventh and Eighth streets, two blocks north of Norfolk avenue. The works were originally established as a hand yard in the early 80's. In 1888 the Norfolk Brick and Tile company was incorporated. The plant was in charge of Herman Gerecke as manager. About 1893 the corporation was dissolved and the name was changed to the Norfolk Brick works, and the management has retained the name. The plant has usually run from May until the latter part of October each season.

From fifteen and thirty-five hands are employed and from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 of brick have been made. The demand has usually been largely above the supply, and a great many brick have often been shipped into this market.

ANNEXED BY LOS ANGELES

ASCOT PARK AND OTHER TERRITORY ADDED TO CITY.

AND POOL SELLING WILL STOP

Strip of Land Sixteen Miles Long and a Mile and a Half Wide Will Belong to Los Angeles, Connecting It With San Pedro, the Harbor.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 17.—By the close vote of six in its favor, the plan to annex a large territory lying between this city and San Pedro was approved in a special election by the voters of the city and county districts. The annexed territory includes Ascot Park, the racing plant of the Los Angeles Jockey club, and by the election the park is brought under the jurisdiction of the city ordinances, which prohibit pool selling.

When the returns of yesterday's election are properly certified and passed on by the state authorities, a strip of one-half mile wide and about sixteen miles long will become a part of Los Angeles city, making San Pedro and Los Angeles adjoining cities. This is the first step in a plan to annex San Pedro harbor to the city of Los Angeles.

GET THEIR WAGES RAISED

NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD GIVES A VOLUNTARY INCREASE.

TO TELEGRAPH AND DEPOT MEN

An Increase in Salaries Which Will Amount to About $100,000 Per Year, And Which Brings $18,000 More a Year Into This Division, Announced.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] According to a report around the railroad yards in Norfolk, the Northwestern railroad company has voluntarily increased the wages of every telegraph operator, every station agent and every station cashier on the system. All of this class of employees in the Nebraska & Wyoming division are affected by the raise and will, it is understood, receive material increases in salaries.

The increase went into effect November 1. All telegraph operators, all station agents and all cashiers will receive on an average of $5 per month more than they received before. Some of the same line of workmen, higher up, will receive $10 increases.

Estimating the number of such employees who are working for the Northwestern system, the amount of increased salaries to be paid by this voluntary increase in wage will amount to more than $100,000 per year.

There are about 300 men in the Nebraska & Wyoming division who will reap a benefit from the new order of things, meaning $1,500 per month or $18,000 per year paid into this channel in this division alone during the year than heretofore.

Northwestern Pays Well.

Among the railroad men on the Northwestern system there is always content in their work. The Northwestern pays its men well, gives them a square deal and in return gets the best men available and gets the best work possible.

There has not been a collision in the North Platte portion of this division within the memory of man. Good wages and good men are believed to be the cause.

EXPRESSMEN GET RAISE.

Norfolk Employes Have Not Yet Heard of the Increase.

The American Express company, through a dispatch from New York, announces an increase in the salaries of all workmen who are now getting less than $200 per month and who have been in the employ of the company for more than a year. The raise will be $5 to $10 per month. The Norfolk employes have not yet heard of the order, but anticipate it with joy.

NEW LINE IS OPEN.

Omaha Road From Hartington to Crofton Will Help Norfolk.

It is announced that the new extension of the Omaha road from Hartington to Crofton, thirteen miles, will be open and ready for traffic next week. This has been one of the important extensions in Norfolk's tributary territory during the past year and will help manufacturing and jobbing industries in this city materially.

Stanton Briefs.

Stanton, Neb., Nov. 19.—The past two weeks has been very bad for the farmers, as the wet weather kept the corn from drying. The severe freeze of last night was hailed with delight as it will help the corn a great deal. It was thirteen above this morning with the chances of reaching zero tonight.

There are probably twice as many feeding cattle this year as there have been in former years. The low price of corn and the reasonable price of steers gives the feeders hopes of increased profits.

Louis Lehman, one of Stanton's most respected citizens is seriously ill. His son, Henry, arrived here from San Francisco yesterday to see him. Mr. Lehman is over 70 years old and is one of the pioneers of Stanton county.

Bert Haynes Injured.

Neligh, Neb., Nov. 19.—County Treasurer Nies, who has been in Lincoln under treatment by a specialist for pen paralysis, returned home a few days ago. He says he is considerably improved, and is led to believe there are grounds for hope of final recovery from the complaint.

Bert Haynes was seriously injured by the falling of a horse he was riding Friday evening, while caring for stock on the upper Huffman & Rollins ranch. He was taken to the M. L. Freeman farm where Dr. Beattie attended to his injuries. Yesterday afternoon his parents brought him to their home in Neligh, and he is doing as well as could be expected.

H. M. McIntyre has sold his grocery store to Messrs. Rapp & Duncan of this city, and gave possession yesterday. Mr. McIntyre and his wife will take a vacation for a year at least.

Attorney F. L. Putney of Tilden, while trying to board a freight train at this place seriously sprained his ankle.

Obituary.

Ezekiel Rowlett was born August 23, 1824, in Bucks county, Pa., died November 10, 1906, aged 72 years, 2 months and 17 days.

The relatives, and the entire community around Warnerville as well, were shocked when they learned of his sudden demise, occasioned by a cold and heart failure.

His parents being Quakers, he married his first wife in that church, she dying the same year. He again married in 1856 to Susan McHugh. Two children were given to this union, Catharine Morgan of Portland, Ind., and Thomas of Tryon, Okla. After the death of his second wife he married his present wife, Amanda J. Perry, in 1864, who with their children, two sons and three daughters, all living, mourn his departure.

He enlisted in the 100th Indiana regiment and was honorably discharged the following year on account of disability.

He came to Nebraska in 1876, locating for a few years in Seward county. In 1882 he came to Madison county, living on the farm known as his until his death.

Mr. Rowlett endeavored to hold firm the faith of his fathers. Being a Quaker, and doing extensive pioneering, he labored among the different families of God's kingdom as an exhorter and local preacher, doing excellent work for the Master. For some years previous to his death he became a member of the M. E. church at Warnerville, where heroic work was done the past year in building a new church edifice.

The funeral services were held at the house on Tuesday, November 13, at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. H. Sterner. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a large company of friends attended, extending their sympathy to the bereaved relatives, after which the remains were taken to Madison for interment.

"He now rests from his labors. The quiet sobs of his household told the story of their sorrow, but their positive and sturdy vision set toward the future witnessed their joyous anticipation of the resurrection morning."

Sure and Safe Cure for Croup.

When a man finds a good thing it is natural that he should wish to share his good fortune with others. Mr. Henry Holz, of Hillsboro, Iowa, is not an exception to this rule. He says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years. As a croup cure it has no equal. I am satisfied that it saved my boy's life, and take pleasure in recommending it."

CUT DULUTH-SIOUX CITY RATE.

Slight Reduction is Made by Great Northern Affects Nebraska.

A reduced Duluth-Sioux City freight rate by the Great Northern railway will have some effect upon Norfolk and other Nebraska points, according to a dispatch from St. Paul, which says:

The Great Northern railroad yesterday issued its new freight tariff sheet, announcing the changes in effect November 15, in accordance with the general reduction order of the state railroad and warehouse commission. The changes affect traffic not only in Minnesota but in Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska as well. Not wishing abrupt changes in the rates at the state boundary line, the company has made reductions in the rates in those states to meet the rates in Minnesota.

The new rates include a reduction on merchandise hauled from Duluth to Sioux City, Iowa, the reduction being 3 cents on first-class gradually diminishing for lower classes. This reduction is the result of considerable negotiation between the Great Northern and the roads hauling merchandise from Chicago to Sioux City.

"For a long time past the rate on merchandise from Duluth to Sioux City has been exactly the same as the rate from Chicago to Sioux City," said a Duluth shipper today, "this arrangement being made on the theory that the Duluth and Chicago jobbers were thus placed on an equal footing. The haul from Chicago to Sioux City is, however, considerably longer. At the same time, the lake rate on merchandise from New York and other eastern points is higher to Duluth than to Chicago, the difference ranging from 6 cents per hundred pounds on fifth-class merchandise.

"Evidently, the arrangement in rates has been considerably in favor of the Chicago jobbing houses, and the complaints from Duluth have been numerous and frequent. The matter has been taken up with the Great Northern on many occasions by the Duluth jobbing interests, and as a result many conferences on the subject have been held by the Great Northern officials with the officials of the Sioux City-Chicago lines.

"The Great Northern officials some time ago expressed a willingness to reduce the rate from Duluth to Sioux City to make up for Duluth's disadvantage in the lake rate. They wished, however, the consent of the western lines, fearing that a rate-cutting war would result from any independent action on the part of the Great Northern.

"At length the matter was adjusted, the Western lines leaving their rate from Chicago to Sioux City as it was, and the Great Northern making a sufficient reduction to overcome about one-half the disadvantage Duluth has been suffering by reason of the difference in the lake rate."

BOYD COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Hold a Convention at Lynch—Elect Officers for Ensuing Year.

Lynch, Neb., Nov. 19.—Special to The News: The Boyd County Sunday school association met here yesterday and the day before. Prof. Stiedly, state field secretary of Lincoln, and Miss Mamie Haines, state superintendent of primary work, were present and
