

LAST DAY FOR SEWER WORK

TIME LIMIT FOR O. P. HERRICK'S CONTRACT ARRIVES.

AND WORK IS NOT YET BEGUN

Kansas City Pipe Firm Writes to City Clerk Stating That Herrick Has Ordered Pipe—No Extension of Time Has Been Asked—Council to Discuss

Thursday, November 15—the day set in the contract for the completion of the new Norfolk sewer system by O. P. Herrick—dawned without even so much as a beginning having been made on the work. After today, according to the contract terms, a forfeit of $25 per day for every day until the sewer system is completed, is due the city from Mr. Herrick. No extension of time has been asked for by Mr. Herrick nor granted by the city council. Mr. Herrick wrote to W. A. Witzigman several days ago stating that he had ordered one-inch pipe from the Dickey Pipe company of Kansas City and that three cars would be immediately shipped with one car a day henceforth. No word has been received by any of the city officials from Mr. Herrick in regard to this shipment. In that letter Mr. Herrick also asked Mr. Witzigman how the city council would feel about extending the time of contract and stated that he would be in Norfolk about November 15 to begin laying the one-inch pipe and that he would finish the work next spring. The 15th has arrived but Mr. Herrick has not put in an appearance. Word has been received by the city clerk from the Dickey Pipe company of Kansas City confirming the story of Mr. Herrick, as written to Mr. Witzigman, that pipe has been ordered by him. The pipe company stated in the letter to the city clerk that the material would be shipped as soon as cars could be secured.

A freight agent for the Northwestern railroad, who was in Norfolk yesterday to learn what he could of the shipment of the pipe to this city, states that that railroad has received no hint from Kansas City that several carloads of material are to be transported.

Frank S. Perdue of Madison was an afternoon visitor in the city between trains.

Miss Opal Coryell will visit over Sunday with Miss Ada Chivers at Pierce.

Mr. Jamison of Idle Grove is in the city stopping at the home of C. F. Shaw. Mr. Jamison has come to Norfolk to look at the farms around here and if he finds one to his liking will come here to locate.

The new temporary bridge over the Norfolk avenue gulch in the west end has been built and is being used for crossing the ditch.

The J. N. Club spent a very pleasant evening with Miss Beattie Richey last night in work and reading, after which refreshments were served.

L. C. Mittelstadt and Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Mittelstadt entertained a second company of friends at the home of the former last evening at a dinner party.

The Neligh high school football team will clash with the Norfolk high school team on the local gridiron this afternoon. The rivalry is intense, as a tie game, with no score, was recently played between the two clubs at Neligh.

Roy and Harry Best husked 220 bushels of corn on their farm west of Norfolk Thursday, or 110 bushels apiece. This new husking record was started in the morning in a friendly contest between the two brothers, who undertook to see which could do the most work. At the close of the day it was found that each had scored 110 bushels, and both considered that they had done a big day's stunt. The average man will husk in the neighborhood of 70 bushels of corn a day.

A pretty wedding yesterday was that of Matt Schaffer, jr., and Miss Angie Wilkinson at the home of the bride's parents in Malvern, Iowa. They are now settled in their new home on Third avenue, recently purchased by Mr. Schaffer. The groom is foreman of the yard supply gang for the C. & N. W. railroad and the bride will be remembered as a popular saleslady in the Johnson dry goods store for almost two years. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Schaffer, sr., one of the most prominent families of the community, and his many friends as well as the many friends of the bride, have united in extending their very best wishes to the young couple.

Milo D. Perry and Miss Frieda Dietz were married yesterday at the home of the groom's uncle, F. D. Perry of Stanton. They returned last evening to their home, which Mr. Perry has recently purchased and furnished at the corner of Lincoln avenue and Fourth street, to find that a large crowd of friends and relatives had gathered and prepared an elaborate wedding dinner which was in waiting for them. It was a complete surprise to the young married couple to find that things were so nicely arranged for their reception. Mr. Perry is one of the well known brakemen of the C. & N. W. railroad and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perry.

A wedding which took place in Norfolk Junction last evening was that of J. D. Taylor and Miss Loree Huebner of Lynch, Neb., at the home of the groom's parents on Omaha avenue. Mr. Taylor is one of the well known brakemen of the C. & N. W. railroad and expects to make his home here in the future. Friends of the young couple joined in extending greetings, after the ceremony.

Pearl Beymer, who had his ankle quite badly sprained about two weeks ago, has again resumed his work as call boy at the C. & N. W. telegraph office.

BOYS LOSE $22 ON GAME

Expenses of Neligh Gridiron Contest Over Run the Receipts.

The Norfolk high school football team is about $22 in the hole as a result of the Neligh game. The home team paid the Neligh fares, amounting to about $25, and also paid for two meals for the visitors, so that the expenses of the game were high. The attendance was not as large, owing to the drizzling rain, as it would have been under fairer skies. E. B. Kauffmann advanced the $22 necessary to meet the expenses.

As the deficit would tax each player $2, a number of the business men have urged the players to start out with a subscription and make up the funds. If each business man would contribute a quarter, the fund could easily be raised. This will probably be done.

Warnerville.

Ed. Creamer came down from Wheeler county Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. Geo. Wheeler.

Mrs. Guy Warner and children returned to their home at Spaulding Wednesday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. Warner.

E. D. Daniel, living two miles south of town, was thrown from the horse he was riding Saturday and severely injured.

Mrs. Oliver Cunningham, who has been seriously sick for two weeks past with lung fever at her home in Maple Grove, is reported better.

Geo. Wheeler is going on crutches.

NORFOLK BEATS NELIGH

LOCAL HIGHSCHOOL TEAM WON, 12 TO 0, ON GRIDIRON.

AN EXCITING PIGSKIN CONTEST

In a Drizzling Rain and With the Gridiron in Bad Condition, the Two Rival Teams Which Had Played Tie Game at Neligh, Fought Out Battle.

[From Saturday's Daily.]

Norfolk and Neligh high school football teams met yesterday for gridiron honors at the race track grounds north of this city in a very exciting game, the score resulting 12 to 0 in favor of Norfolk. The whistle blew at exactly 4 o'clock and the teams lined up, Neligh choosing the west goal for their defense. Neligh had all odds in their favor the first half but could not make a touchdown. Although Neligh's punts were well carried by the wind Hoffman was usually found gathering the ball in and advancing it a few yards. Though Neligh held Norfolk down fairly well they were unable to keep them from scoring a touchdown just four minutes before the time was called in the first half. Tyndal kicked goal, making the score 6 to 0.

The whistle blew at fifteen minutes to 5 for the second half, Norfolk choosing the west end as their defense this time. Here Norfolk's punts effectively placed with the wind in their favor took ball very near the Neligh goal several times until Neligh weakened and the home club carried the pigskin well across the line again. Norfolk kicked goal, making the score 12 to 0 in favor of Norfolk.

With eight minutes remaining to play nothing more was done in the way of scoring. Time was then called, making the score 12 to 0 in favor of Norfolk.

The applause was deafening for a few moments after the game. Neligh did not even make their distance once and lost on nearly all of their trick plays. Norfolk attempted no trick plays on account of the bad condition of the grounds, the mud and water making it almost impossible to play. Miller and Bulmer played the game for Neligh while all of Norfolk's men held their opponents well.

The game was played in a drizzling rain but before a good sized crowd. The Antelope visitors were made of the right stuff and put up a plucky fight. The rivalry was intense on account of a former tie game.

The line-up was as follows:

Neligh	re	Norfolk
Kryger	le	S. Erskine
Thompson	rt	Larkins
Cox	rg	L. Gildea
Getchel	rg	Tyndal
Housh	c	Hibben
Winn	lg	Anderson
Leonard	ft	Weaver
Miller	qb	Blakeman
Bulmer	rh	Hoffman
Plickerel	lf	Hauptli
Coker	fb	Austin

Substitutes: Neligh, Cole and Bennett; Norfolk, J. Gildea, Durland and Stafford; umpire, Housh; referee, Weigand; timekeepers, Thompson and Hyde; halves, 25 and 20 minutes; score, 12 to 0.

OTHER GAMES.

Nebraska Clashes With Old Time Kansas Foe—Princeton-Yale.

Other games of interest on Saturday were the Nebraska-Kansas game at Lincoln, a revival of an old time rivalry which had been declared off some years ago by a misunderstanding, and the Yale-Princeton game, the biggest of the day.

RAN HUGGING WILD CAT.

Iowa Farmer Grips Attacking Animal Close and Runs for Help.

Lake City, Iowa, Nov. 15.—John Sieh, a middle-aged farmer of the vicinity of Grant City, ran four miles through heavy timber with a full-grown, ferocious wildcat hugging close to his chest, and is alive to describe his remarkable experience. Sieh was hunting quail in a plum thicket, when his dog flushed game. Sieh did not know what kind it was and approached cautiously. He soon found out, for a wildcat leaped at Sieh's throat. The claws of the cat did not do much harm, on account of a heavy coat worn by Sieh, who dropped his gun and hugged the cat close to keep it from clawing him. One arm was close below the animal's head, which prevented its biting him.

In this death grip hunter and cat traveled four miles before assistance was obtained.

Then two farmers procured a gun and shot the animal in the head while claspied in Sieh's desperate embrace.

Sieh was nearly exhausted when released from the animal's clutch. He says he never wants to look into such flaming eyes again. It has been many years since an account of a man's being attacked by a wildcat in this part of the state has been reported.
