BRIDEGROOM IS MISSING has been looking after property interests. Mrs. Smith and children from Win-

INTERRUPTED WEDDING AT VAL ENTINE IS MYSTERIOUS.

LEFT RAPID CITY DECEMBER

Started for the Home of the Bride Early in the Month but Since That Time No Trace of Him Can be Found-A Mysterious Affair.

Valentine, Neb., Dec. 21.—Special to The News: Yesterday was to have been the wedding day of Miss Sard Simpson of this city to Mr. S. D. Bedel of Rapid City, S. D. Everything was in readiness and a sumptuous re past prepared, but for some unexplainable reason the groom did not arrive. in residue to a legram to Rapid City a reply was received stating that Bedel had left for this place on December 8. All further efforts to ascertain the cause of his disappearance have proven fruitless.

FRIDAY FACTS.

J. Cross of Creighton spent the night in Norfolk. Geo. Menhoft of Creston was in Nor folk last night.

Guss Berry of O'Neill spent Thurs day in Norfolk

Fred Remender of Wayne spent the day in Norfolk.

Ross Nicolls of Madison spent last night in Norfolk.

Adam Pilger of Stanton was a city visitor yesterday.

H. M. Coleman of Lynch was in Norfolk over night. E. M. Miller of Randolph was in Norfolk last night. Hon, A. A. Welch of Wayne spent the night in Norfolk. The new paraphernalia for the Odd ent, Fellows has arrived. Nick Horn and Ed Hunter returned from Hoskins today. C. G. Whipple of Niobrara was a city visitor yesterday. William Hardow is in town from near there.

Madison on business. Mrs. Hershide of Winside was a Norfolk visitor yesterday.

Attorney George Boyd of Oakdale is in Norfolk on business.

Clyde Bullock is home from the university for the holidays.

H. F. Barnhart was a passenger for Omaha Friday morning. Gottlieb Benning of Battle Creek was in the city yesterday. Mike Fisher and Joe Girse of Lynch spent the night in Norfolk. Dr. Matzen of Columbus spent yesterday with friends in Norfolk.

Banker E. W. Zutz of the Norfolk National is in Tarnov on business.

John Weatherholt of Hoskins transacted business in the city yesterday.

Mr. Howard of Exeter is visiting at the home of F. J. Russel of this place.

Norfolk looking after business inter- rounds can be furnished by messen-Alvin Reed, James Cross and Claude

Brown were Creighton visitors in the J. Duncan went to Chicago on the relatives

folk looking after his property interests in this place. City to visit with friends at that place during the holidays for her home in Neligh. Miss O'Connor, Seventh grade teacher, has gone to Wood River to spend demoralized but the passengers feel Christmas with her parents.

Miss Mae Johnson is home for the holidays from Omaha, where she is was talking about when he gave his attending a business college.

to Sioux City on the morning train. Miss Thorngate, high school teacher, left Friday afternoon for her home in and the entertainment was certainly North Loup to spend the holidays. Herbert Zutz has returned from Watertown, Wis., where he has been attending the Northwest university.

S. Overocker Roy and Marion Hibben left at noon

uncle and aunt. Carl Shultz of Pierce passed through on the noon train on his way home from Scribner, where he has been visiting for a few days. grade at the Lincoln school, leaves ing the carnival grounds, went to Oma home of her brother. Mrs. L. S. Overts, who has been visiting friends in Norfolk for a few days, returned to her home at Clearwater Mich., Friday morning. Leo Kinko, former chef at the Oxnard, went to Mitchell, S. D., where he has accepted a position in the Equib-erson hotel at that place. Alex Docken of Osmond, who is rebeen with two cars of cattle, is visit ing his old friend Henry Hasenpflug.

The family of A. Kunitz, manager of the Fawcett-Carney-Hager company will arrive in Norfolk the coming is to have the refusal of another fiveweek and will make this their perma have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Rish, returned to their homes at noon.

Attorney J. A. Williams of Pierce his way home from Neligh where he and E. B. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Weatherby and Mrs. H. E. Warrick have gone to Omawith Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shoemaker, L. J. Anderson, a prominent stocknan of Pierre, S. D., passed through Norfolk on his way to Kingston, Jamaica, where he is interested in the orgar business. Henry Fricke of Lander, Wyo. prother of Mrs. O. W. Rish, arrived in Norfolk at noon, and leaves in the morning for Winnetoon to spend thristmas with his parents. Mrs. Frank Russell came home from Exeter last evening. She was accomcanled home by her mother and sister. Mrs. Bert Taylor and two sons went to Abilene, Kansas, yesterday, where hey will spend the holldays. Dave Diefenderfer returned home rom Woodriver, Neb., yesterday noon, where he had been to attend the fuieral of his uncle.

Will Dean took the morning passenger for Missouri Valley.

Ed Dixon, one of the jolly Northwestern fire boys, left today for Superior to visit friends during the hol-

Mrs. John Quick received a beautiful Christmas present of a Japanese tea set imported from Japan. The present was from her son Harry, who lives in California.

Mrs. A. Pratt, who has been very dek for the last three weeks, has re covered sufficiently to take her post tion at the eating house again.

The pupils in the fourth grade at the Washington school presented their teacher, Miss Brush, with a beautiful glass ink stand as a Christmas pres-

Ed Apfel went to Meadow Grove today on business.

Engineer Charley Hill went to Elgin today to spend the holidays with his family who are living on a farm

A. Diefenderfer, who has been visiting his son Dave here, left on the noon train yesterday for his home in Pennsylvania.

The Nortolk Business college and public schools close tonight for vacation until after New Year's.

Carpenters have begun the remodel ing of the reading room and parlor of the Oxnard hotel, and soon will have it finished and up to date in every way.

Little Marie Livingston, while play ing on the ice near the Lincoln school yesterday afternoon, slipped and fell, causing her to become unconscious for a time. She was taken home and put to bed. It is not thought her injuries are serious. Manager Metcalf of the Western Union telegraph company received a message last evening as follows: "At To-Misses Marie and Annie Pond went nopah, Nev., January 1, Joe Gans and to Pierce on the early morning train. Kid Herman will contest to a finish M. F. Wakelle of Creighton is in for the lightweight championship of Norfolk looking after business interthe world and a purse of $20,000. The contest is scheduled to take place at Christmas. Ed Henderson of Wakefield is in 3 p. m. Pacific time. Service by or wire. Advise if wanted Raasch Bros.' team indulged in a lively runaway shortly after 7 o'clock last evening on South First street, resulting in a broken buggy but no broknoon train to spend the holidays with en bones. Ernest and Darius Raasch and their sister Leona were driving to Cuy Willberger of Anoka is in the the Northwestern train to meet ancity on his way to Battle Creek to other sister, and when they came opposite the lights strung along the new E. G. Godesall of Chadron is in Nor- sewer ditch the team became fright ened and started to run. Near Shaffer's meat market the tongue and neck Mrs. A. B. Stone has gone to Kansas yoke snapped off, checking the team momentarily. Ernest, who was driving, succeeded in holding them back Miss Harnish has resigned her po- while the occupants climbed out of sition at the hospital and left Friday the carriage, and the team passed on, running into a fence north of the depot. The carriage was considerably thankful that no one was hurt. Manager Pedersen knew what he personal guarantee that the "College Miss G. W. Griswold, who has been Boy," with Ralph Riggs as the "boy visiting Mrs. C. W. Fossits, returned was all right. The appearance of this company at the Auditorium Thursday evening was greeted by a good house in Norfolk this season. As a "boy" for Fairmont in the morning to spend have unusually good support and the one of the very best that has appeared Ralph Riggs is himself a whole show, while the girl of the piece, Miss Rose Misses Lena and Jennie Mills leave Stillman, is a very close second. They the holidays with their sister, Mrs. H. play is evenly balanced, bright and atractive from start to finish. It would seem that Manager Pedersen has finalfor Wabash, Ind., to spend the holi-ly succeeded in obtaining a quiet days with their grandparents and an house, there not being a disturbing noise during the evening, and if there were any boys present they were cer tainly well behaved. Tilden Citizen: The committee appointed to wait upon John A. Creigh Miss Cowan, teacher in the Sixth ton for the purpose of buying or leas-Saturday for Beatrice to visit in the ha Monday and had an interview with the count and his secretary. Mr he would put the proceeds into bricks and mortar in Omaha, and that he would prefer to keep the money in the 80-acre tract near Tilden. Eventually a five-year lease was agreed upon, at tives. the annual rental of $240. Additional agreements provide that if the land is of the lease, the carnival association is to be given the preferred right of purchase; also that, if the ground is not sold at that time, the association year lease. The members of the committee who transacted the business for

ON FARM OF H. F. BARNHARDT NEAR CREIGHTON.

Supposed to Have Caught in the Kitchthe Evening at a Neighbor's-Loss $2,500, Partly Insured.

Creighton, Neb., Dec. 21.—Special to The News: The house on Mrs. H. F. Barnhardt's farm, two and a half miles southeast of Creighton, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The the next two weeks with relatives, house was one of the best farm places in this community and was new the which was in the wreck near Ainsover $2,000. The farm has been in loaded on one car, the tank on another has been laying off on account of his Bovee, who had raised a fund for its the hands of a renter, Collie Cohee, and the rest on a large coal car of but the family was not at home when scraps the fire started, so the origin is a mystery, although it is supposed to have started in the kitchen flue. The renter's family were spending the evening at a neighbor's. The first that was noticed of the fire was when a farmer passed and saw an unusual light in the kitchen windows, which he quickly decided was a fire. Summoning help the neighbors went to work with a will and succeeded in removing the furniture from three rooms down stairs, but everything in the kitchen and on the second floor was consumed with the house. The Barnhardt family live at Norfolk.

A call at the home of H. F. Barnhardt in this city found that gentleman out of town, but Mrs. Barnhardt, whose property was destroyed, answered. She refused to believe the report of the fire which came to The News until she had telephone Creighton and verified it. She said that two years ago she erected a large new addition to the old farm house, at a cost of over $2,000, and that the whole was insured for $1,500. The loss on renter, but she was unable to place any value upon it.

MONDAY MENTION.

L. Whalen of Madison was here Saturday night.

Charles Nenow of Gordon is home for the holidays.

E. W. Tucker of Winside was in Norfolk Saturday night. Charles Verges is home from Chi-ago to spend the holidays. Miss Mamie Ward is home to spend the holidays with her parents.

Mrs. W. S. Fox left for Columbus today where she will spend Christmas. Miss Lul Johnson goes to Winside in the morning to spend the day at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Warner of Warnerfriends. Miss Marguerite Klentz is expected

Carl Austin came down from Bone-dinner at home. will spend Christmas with their parents in Winside.

Arthur and Chas. Ward left this morning for Nehawka, where they will spend the holidays. Miss Ella Buckendorf came home from Newman Grove yesterday where she is teaching school. R. E. Williams went to Omaha Sunlay, where he will remain until after Christmas with his mother. R. C. Smith has gone to Burlington and Fort Madison, Iowa, to spend his many ate goose who had planned original Christmas holidays. He expects to be gone for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Max Wilde of Creighton spent Sunday in Norfolk, on their way to Battle Creek where they go to Junction which was to have been held spend Christmas.

E. G. Schoregge went to Wakefield Saturday, Mrs. Schoregge and daugh. dren was very well rendered as was ter Emma will go in the morning to the music by the choir. Preston Ogspend the day with Mr. Schoregge's den sang two solos. A Christmas tree mother. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Loucks and daughter, Edna Mrs. F. Kenny and two daughters, Ben Loucks and mother and Leon Tompkins left for Inman last night, where they go to attend a famlly reunion on Christmas day at the Tompkins home.

Miss Bessie William is the happiest girl in the Junction on account of receiving a fine lady's gold watch for a Christmas present.

William Ellenwood went to Sloux City yesterday noon, where Mrs. Ellenwood and two children are visiting.

and Mrs. W. C. Roland returned home been shopping.

Long Pine Saturday night to attend ing assault was sworn out, the wedding of I. W. Walling and Miss Nellie Oliver. Mr. Walling is one of Creighton objected to selling the land, Oliver is one of Long Pine's belles.

> Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durham went o Lynch this noon to visit Mrs. W. H. Shippee went to Beaver City to spend the holidays with rela-

> South Fourth street. Harold and Roy Beck went to Ne> igh Saturday night to visit and returned home this noon audience of parents and friends. The rogram was excellent.

Mrs. Clarence Hedrick went to St Joe, Mo., to spend a couple of weeks visiting.

George Case is home to spend the holldays from Missouri Valley, where he has been working.

Miss Ethel Luke has returned home ha, where they will spend the holidays BEEN BUILT ONLY TWO YEARS from Sloux City to spend Christmas HEART DISEASE THE CAUSE with her parents.

> Mrs. Geo. Roseberry and three children left Sunday for Chicago, where en When the Renters Were Spending they will spend the holidays with relatives and attend a family reunion.

Engineer Frank Girard of Fremont formerly of Norfolk, was here saying hello to some of the boys Saturday.

A. R. Beaton and family left Sunlay noon for Ames, lowa, to spend Engine 1323, one of the engines arger part of the building having been worth, passed through here Saturday rected two years ago at a cost of going to the shops. The boller was Train No. 1 is carrying three baggage cars which are loaded every trip vith Christmas presents.

The pupils of the Sunday school of he Second Congregational church, gave a program Friday evening to a large audience. After the program Santa Claus presented each with a present from the Christmas tree: Among the numbers was an oration rendered by Ed Fisher entitled, "A Convict's Christmas," and two solos by Preston Ogden, which were loudly applauded. Leo Williams, who has been at Inman working, came home this noon to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Pippen.

Frank Potras, who has been at Fre mont attending school, is home to spend Christmas with his parents.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Adolph Nenow to Miss Lena Wagner, both of Norfolk. The wedding will be January 3.

The Nye, Schneider, Fowler company of Fremont are following the Valley and going with the F. E. & M. building was worth fully $2,500. It new Northwestern railroad extension V. as engineer. His last run was on right on out into the Rosebud reservafurniture falls upon Mr. Cohee, the tion with an extension to their line of and Long Pine, which place he has

The Wayne Herald has again changed hands, Elmer Lundberg, formerly editor of the Carroll Index, having purchased the plant on Saturday. were no children but a little girl was Mr. Lundberg is a Wayne county man adopted, who is now Mrs. Miller Mathand a good newspaper man.

ated at towns on the new extension of of a true man, the Northwestern. At St. Charles there are said to be three cars of flax tian church and had been working hard and two cars of wheat ready for shipment. The Elks of Norfolk lodge, 643, will give their regular annual birthday ball on Friday evening, January 25, 1907. ular member of the Brotherhood of Arrangements are being perfected toward making this one of the prettiest parties of the season and an effort will be made to induce as many outville spent Sunday in Norfolk with side members of the lodge to be pres- Moore of Omaha, sister of Mrs. Teal.

ent as is possible. ciation will be held, as provided by the constitution, on Saturday, January 12. noon, and will be held under the auspurpose of electing officers for the en-Misses Martha and Lizzie Podoll suing year. The constitution provides for a meeting on the first Saturday after the first Monday.

Turkeys have been scarce for Christmas eating in many parts of northern Nebraska, and what there was was sold readily at twenty cents per pound. At West Point, where there were turkeys in abundance at Thanksgiving, the supply suddenly gave out for the Santa Claus festivities, and birds had to be imported. The supply was not equal to the demand in Norfolk, and inally for turkey meat. On account of so many of the railroad people being out on their runs Monday the Christmas service at the Christmas eve was given Sunday night. The program given by the chil-

W. P. Dixon of this city takes excepthat his thirteen-year-old son was creejected by Manager Pedersen. Mr. tion. He says that his boy left the building for a moment, during which interval the youth whom he left in to the pastor, Rev. Mr. Vallow, who boy, he says, was blamed for this by Patent No. 838,887, has just been isthe Northwestern brakemen and Miss gel of Brunswick, on an improved plans had been made. They anremarking that if a sale was affected, They will make their home in Norfolk, by the U. S. patent Office Gazette: A be on hand at 10:30 for a funeral and Some evil disposed person stole ing of upper and lower cylinder-heads ome of Tom Hight's finishing lumber and intermediate cylindrical sections, turning from Chicago where he had put upon the market at the expiration from the building he is erecting on both the upper and lower sections beair-chamber and vacuum-chamber respectively, the lower pendent tube be The pupils of Miss Boyd's and Miss ing provided with an upwardly-opening Brush's rooms, the primary, first, sec- valve at its bottom and a piston fitond, third and fourth grades of the ting in said tube and having an upthe association were C. H. Sibley, Pat Washington school, gave an entertain- wardly-opening valve and a piston-rod stopped between trains in Norfolk on Stanton, E. H. Luikart, Frank Carson, ment Friday afternoon, consisting of extending up through the delivery in the church and gave incentive to songs and recitations, to a large sized pipe.

POPULAR ENGINEER TAKEN SUD-DENLY FRIDAY MORNING.

Shortly After Getting Out of Bed He Suddenly Collapsed and Fell to the Floor Dead-Had Been With Northwestern Twenty-five years.

[From Friday's Daily.] Andrew Teal, one of the best known ngineers on the Northwestern system, dropped dead at his home in this city The cause of his death was heart dis Mr. Teal had been ailing for some health. For the past few days he has part of the time. This morning he Christmas gift by church members. thought he was able to get up, and had only just arisen and was being assisted by Mrs. Teal to a chair, when he suddenly collapsed and fell dead on the floor. For twenty-five years Andy Teal had been an engineer on the Northwestern railroad, going with the old Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley in 1880 and continuing with the Northwestern when that company took over the road, and he was personally acquainted and popular with more than half the people living between Missouri Valley and Long Pine. Mr. Teal was born at Geneva, New York, April 13, 1846, and removed with his parents to western Iowa when he was but a boy, continuing on the farm of his father until he was twenty-five. At that age he began with the Chicago & Northwestern at Missouri Valley as fireman. Afterwards he went to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he was round house foreman for the Union Pacific for six years, returning to the Missouri trains No. 1 and 2 between Norfolk years ago until taken sick.

In 1874 he was married to Miss Mary Mandeville of Missouri Valley. There er, and who, with her foster mother, Export business is already being credeeply mourns the sudden taking away

Mr. Teal was a member of the Chris lately toward the construction of a new church building for that denomination, which he hoped to see completed in the near future. He was a pop-Locomotive engineers,

He was a brother of F. A. Teal, for many years master mechanic of the F. E. & M. V. at Missouri Valley. Mrs. was visiting at the home at the time The annual meeting of the North the end came, the manner of which home tonight from Albion to spend Nebraska Live Stock Protective asso- had been forecasted by his physician. The funeral will be Sunday after-steel this morning to eat Christmas in the city hall at Norfolk, for the pices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers. Interment will be in Prospect Hill cemetery. Mrs. Teal will continue to live in but recently completed.

Norfolk, where they have a nice home

COLORED MOURNERS TOOK POS-SESSION OF SERVICES.

t Was a Surprised Congregation at the Methodist Church Sunday Morning, When Colored Funeral Was Found in Progress.

[From Monday's Daily.] Christmas services were not held in the Methodist Episcopal church of with Ray Hyde acting as Santa Claus Norfolk Sunday morning according to afforded the children much amuse original plans. It was a colored funeral instead that occupied the hour When the congregation assembled, extion to the story from the Auditorium pecting to hear the joyful music of the Yuletide, and in happy anticipaating any commotion when he was tion of the presentation of a beautiful new flag to the church, they found to Dixon says that his son had been of their very great surprise that among fered a ticket to help clean up the the assembled throng were a large theater and that he was attending the number of colored people and that at door merely as additional accommodal the altar was a casket instead of a new flag.

charge of the door allowed several lads had announced the annual Christmas Mrs. Pat Crotty, Mrs. Jim Johnson to enter without tickets. The Dixon services and the flag service for the morning hour on Sunday. Indeed he from Omaha last night where they had the manager, who seized and choked tried in vain to carry out the program him, later kicking him out. This, says as originally announced, but the Mr. and Mrs. William Beck went to Mr. Dixon, is why a complaint charg- mourners insisted even more aggres sively and they finally had their way about it. It was not a matter of argusued to Henry Nagel and John E. Na- ment with them, nor did it matter that pump, which is described as follows nounced to the pastor that they would pump comprising a suction-pipe and that he would preach the sermon for delivery-pipe arranged coaxially and it. He protested vehemently but in an intermediate casing between the vain. Hastily the choir music was resuction-pipe and delivery-pipe of larg- arranged from Christmas into funeral er diameter than said pipe and consist- strains, but it was too late to announce to the public the change in plan. And so members of the church attended the funeral at 10:30 and went again ing provided with pendent and con- in the evening to listen to the Christcentric tubes forming a compression mas program. The new flag was not presented and will come later.

How the Plans Clashed. The death of Mrs. Gaines, a colored woman who lived east of the Junction, and who succumbed on Friday to a cancer, caused the disarranged plans the colored woman's family and relatives from out of town to take possession of the church just at the hour when the members had planned to use it. It was said that a number of colored people from Omaha were in town for the funeral and that they must return on the noon train. Therefore, they argued, the funeral must be held at 10:30. And it was,

It was late Saturday that friends of the dead colored woman came to Mr. Vallow to tell him that they would hold their funeral service at the church Sunday morning. He argued and pleaded, but to no avail, and Mrs. Gaines' friends carried the day,

Strange expressions of confusion and surprise overspread faces of the church goers when they found the situation. There was no complaint, but at about 7 o'clock Friday morning merely wholesome surprise. And accordingly, the regular Christmas service was held in the evening. The new flag will be presented to the time and during the past two months church through the efforts of J. W. purchase. It is a beautiful banner and been confined to his bed the greater is considered a highly acceptible

FIREMAN HUFFMAN OUT.

Northwestern Man Who Was Cut Badly on Foot and Head.

Ainsworth, Neb., Dec. 21.—Special to The News: Fireman Huffman, who was cut on the head and foot in the Northwestern freight wreck some days ago near here, left the hospital yesterday on crutches and has gone to Chadron. He will later visit his family at Auburn, Iowa,

FIRE AT STANTON.

Blaze in Home of C. M. Gamble-Fire

Department Checks It. Stanton, Neb., Dec. 22.-Special to The News: Fire did damage to the extent of $300 in the home of M. C. Gamble here last night. The loss was covered by insurance. It might have been a very serious fire. The flames were discovered at 11:20 p. m. coming up through the pantry. The fire had burned through the floor. The fire was just heading into the stairway. The Stanton volunteer fire department, headed by Chief Al Marks and Foreheld since that train was put on two man C. E. Stucker, responded quickly and by excellent work extinguished the blaze.

> "Money is money's brother"-and a want ad. can introduce you into the family.

Hoarseness Quiskly Cured.

"Not long ago I was taken with a severe cold, and was so hoarse that I could only speak in a whisper," says Ernest Sherman of Butler, Tenn . " I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and after taking two doses of it, could speak out plainly." Singers and public speakers will find this remedy especially suited to their use. It is most widelyl known, however, as a cure for co'ds. For sale by Leonard thed ruggist.

Notice to Creditors, The State of Nebraska, Madison

In the matter of the estate of Gottfried Kiesal, deceased: Notice is heregiven to all persons having claims and demands against Gottfried Kiesal, late of said Madison county, deceased, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 2nd day of January, 1907. All such persons are required to present their claims with the vouchers to the county judge of said county at his office in the city of Madison, in said Madison county, on or before the 3rd day of July, 1907, and that all claims so filed will be heard before said judge on the 3rd day of July, 1907, at 1 o'clock p. m. It is further ordered that notice to CHRISTMAS PROGRAM CHANGED all persons interested in said estate be given by publishing a copy of this order in the Norfolk Weekly News-Journal, a weekly newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county, for four consecutive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

Witness my hand and seal this 22nd day of December, A. D. 1906. [Seal] Wm. Bates, County Judge.

OSTEOPATH. Office, Cotton block, Ash 541, residence, 109 North Tenth street, 'phone Ash 542.

O.R. MEREDITH, D.O.

You Must Not Forget We are constantly improving in the art of making Fine It was something of a surprise even Photos.

> Newest Styles in Cards and Pinish. We also carry a Fine Line of Mouldings. I. M. MACY.

MUNN & CO. 361Broadway. NEW YORK