

WILL TRY SEVERAL CASES

FEDERAL COURT UNDER NEW LAW NEXT SEPTEMBER.

JUDGE MUNGER WAS IN TOWN

One More Farce is Added to the History of Federal Court in Norfolk. Officials Arrive, Convene and Adjoin Again in Silence.

"It is probable that several cases will be tried before the federal court in Norfolk next September. The court session in Norfolk may last from a week to ten days," Judge W. H. Munger of Omaha is quoted as having said while in Norfolk. Judge W. H. Munger, Clerk George H. Thummel and United States Marshal Warner, officers of the United States circuit court, were in Norfolk for the purpose of formally "opening" the March term of the court.

Judge Munger and party arrived in the city during the afternoon and were here for several hours. The formalities at the federal court house occupied only a few minutes. No attorneys were present and no motions or cases were up for hearing. Judge Munger's words in Norfolk, however, indicate that the next term of the federal court in Norfolk, falling under the new law, will be a "real" term with federal cases up for trial.

FRIDAY FACTS.

R. H. Reynolds is in Stanton. M. D. Tyler went to O'Neill at noon. William Pickert went to Hadar yesterday.

Alex Peters returned yesterday from Lindsay.

Miss Edna Loucks is visiting relatives at Pilger.

Henry Seidel of Stanton was in the city yesterday.

H. P. Mason has returned to Norfolk from West Point.

Mrs. C. F. King and daughter, Miss Pearl, left today for a visit with Mr. King at Casper, Wyo.

Miss Stella Luikart has returned from visit in Lincoln.

C. H. Townsend of Bonesteel spent Friday morning in Norfolk.

Roy Luikart, Oliver Utter and Harold Gow, Norfolk students at the state university, are home for the Easter recess.

Miss Cora Luikart and Roy Luikart have arrived in the city from Lincoln, where they are attending the state university, to spend the Easter holiday vacation with their mother.

William Barnuey of Spencer is in the city.

G. M. Phifer was in from Plainview yesterday.

W. McCarkle was up from Columbus today.

C. H. Vauden of Osborn is in Norfolk today.

Willie Schenck of Chadron is in Norfolk today.

Ed Hughes of Randolph was in the city yesterday.

H. Hempey of Pierson was in Norfolk over night.

Mrs. M. E. King of Pierce spent today in Norfolk.

C. A. Reed was a Stanton visitor in Norfolk yesterday.

Louis Sommer of Randolph was in Norfolk over night.

Frank A. Bryner of Wayne was in the city last evening.

William Brown of Winside was in Norfolk this morning.

Miss M. S. Bechwick of Imperial was in Norfolk yesterday.

Mrs. P. H. Barrett of Lodge Pole was in Norfolk yesterday.

A. Hanson and M. Kahlund of Tilden stopped in Norfolk yesterday.

J. C. Mink of Battle Creek spent several hours in Norfolk yesterday.

Will Anderson of Fremont was in Norfolk between trains yesterday.

W. H. Stocker and daughter of Orchart served yesterday in Norfolk.

Mrs. George D. Butterfield will leave tomorrow for a visit with her father, A. P. Doe, in Davenport, Iowa.

Mrs. Jack Koenigstein and Miss Mattie Davenport visited friends in Sioux City.

Mr. Nelson of Battle Creek was here on business yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Linerode and daughter, Miss Hattie Linerode, returned home from Omaha last night.

Engineers B. W. Caldwell and Jack Welsh have bid in runs 117 and 118, between Norfolk and Missouri Valley.

Fireman Pete Riordan has taken runs 117 and 118, between Norfolk and Missouri Valley.

Ten large engines of the Q class are going to the Black Hills division this week to work in the gravel service.

A. R. Beaton returned from Niobrara yesterday. He had been up there setting up the large steam shovel that is working in the rock cut there.

Engineer N. L. Owens has been assigned to runs 39 and 40, between Norfolk and Omaha.

Conductor Ed Fisher, who has been working on the South Platte division, was in Norfolk last night.

The Ladies Aid society of the Second Congregational church met at Mrs. H. G. Bain and made Easter bonnets.

George Schiller, owner of the Oxford hotel, returned last evening from a trip to Central City. While in Omaha Mr. Schiller saw Miss Isabel Irving and her company in "Susan in Search of a Husband," which comes to Norfolk Saturday evening. Mr. Schiller says that the play was a most delightful one and the company extraordinarily clever.

John Schukey, who takes coal and

SCHOOLS CLOSE FOR WEEK

VACATION BEGINS IN ALL NORTHERN NEBRASKA.

TEACHERS COME TO NORFOLK

Vacation Week Will be Enjoyed in This City by 500 of North Nebraska's Teachers—Exercises Are Held in Local Schools.

The West Side Whist club will meet Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Weatherby.

Mosaic Lodge No. 55, A. F. & A. M., will hold a special meeting Friday evening for the purpose of conferring the M. M. degree.

Good Friday, which dawned with clear skies and a crisp cool air in Norfolk, was the occasion for church services in most of the churches of the city. The services began at an early hour.

William M. Green of Norfolk, a Northwestern fireman, and Miss Lilly B. Appleby of near Ewing were married Tuesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Appleby, four miles north of Ewing.

The bride and groom passed through Norfolk Thursday noon on their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Green will return to Norfolk from Omaha the first of next week and will make their home here.

A telegram to the Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Slisson of Omaha announced the arrival of a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Riddle at Point Pleasant, W. Va. Mrs. Riddle was formerly Miss Hildreth Slisson of Norfolk.

Easter Sunday will be a fair day, according to the weather man's forecast. There will be no rain on Easter morning and consequently the old superstition that rain on Easter means rain for seven Sundays afterward will have no chance to work out.

The Edwards-Brown lumber company has purchased a lot on Norfolk avenue adjacent to their lumber yard in the rear. The lot is the second lot west of the Oxnard hotel and was purchased from Mrs. B. S. Martin. The purchase of this Norfolk avenue property was thought to indicate the erection of a new office building by the company together with the rebuilding of the company's yards destroyed by fire some months ago. Local representatives of the company say that no announcement can be made at this time.

Mont Robb of Murray, Neb., has been appointed by Governor Sheldon as steward for the Norfolk hospital for the insane. He will arrive in the city to assume his duties next Tuesday. Alex Peters, who had served in the capacity of steward for a couple of years, has returned to his home in Stanton. Mr. Robb was formerly manager of the Morton grain elevator at Murray, a town fifteen miles from Nebraska City. He has been in the mercantile business and also has been a farmer. He was one of several applicants for the position. Governor Sheldon has not yet made announcement regarding other offices at the hospital. As soon as the legislature has finished, the governor is expected in Norfolk for an inspection of the hospital.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the herds then being ready for the market. A number of Mr. Berry's friends have asked that they be notified when the shearing season begins and Mr. Berry through The News wishes to announce to those interested that the process is now on and that he will be glad to be visited by any who are interested in the work.

Sheep shearing is now in progress at the ranch of George Berry, west of

Norfolk, and the operation will continue for the next ten days. In all 3,300 animals will be shorn of their wool, the