

SOCIAL EVENTS OF WEEK

THERE HAS BEEN SOMETHING DOING IN TOWN.

IN SPITE OF THE HOT WEATHER

A Number of Farewell Dinners Have Been Given for Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt—Wednesday Club's Annual Supper is Given.

There has been something doing in Norfolk social circles during the past week despite the heat. The Wednesday club supper given by Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Butterfield, a number of informal family dinners for Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt, who are to make their future home in Omaha, and other informal events, including parties for little people, were features.

Pleasures of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Butterfield on Thursday evening pleasantly entertained members of the Wednesday club and their husbands at supper. The supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, after which an old fashioned "spelling bee" afforded much amusement. Five hundred was a feature later in the evening, prizes being won by Mrs. C. H. Reynolds and Mr. W. H. Butterfield. The new program for next season in the Wednesday club work was given out.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynn Mack Rainbolt pleasantly entertained a company of friends in their home on Kensington avenue last Saturday evening. Six-hand euchre afforded interest during the evening and a delicious lunch was served at 11. At cards Mrs. John R. Hays and Mr. D. Mathewson were most successful, Mrs. Hays receiving a dainty brass vase and Mr. Mathewson an ash tray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt, who leave for their new home in Omaha, were entertained at dinner in the home of Col. S. S. Cotton and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Mathewson, Wednesday evening.

The young ladies of Queen Esther circle of the Methodist church enjoyed a lawn picnic Thursday afternoon, spending the hours from four to eight on the George Evans lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Baum entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt at dinner Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mathewson entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rainbolt at dinner last night.

Hymenial.

Invitations have been received in Norfolk to the marriage of Miss Eleanor Marquise Coffeen, the daughter of Mrs. Henry Coffeen of Omaha, to Mr. John Neathery Harrell, the ceremony to occur in Omaha on next Wednesday evening. Miss Coffeen was formerly of Norfolk and is well known in the city.

Hinds-Hare.

Cortland (N. Y.) Standard: A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Thomas Hinds on Wednesday, August 7, when his elder son, John M., was united in marriage with Miss Mabel R. Hare of Plainfield, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Gurney in the presence of forty of the immediate relatives and friends.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the couple took their places in front of a beautiful bank of ferns. The bride was attended by Miss Bessie L. Hinds, sister of the groom, and the groom was attended by Zinah P. Hare, brother of the bride.

The bride was very attractively attired in white and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, while the bridesmaid was very becomingly dressed in white and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

After the impressive ceremony was solemnized and congratulations had been extended a bountiful wedding breakfast was served in the rooms which were tastefully decorated with ferns and sweet peas.

Mrs. Lonnelle Walker, cousin of the bride, rendered some beautiful selections at the piano after the ceremony and while the refreshments were being served.

The bride was the recipient of a fine assortment of linen, china, silver, cut glass and gold pieces.

The contracting parties are very well known in this part of the state. The bride, originally from Georgetown, N. Y., was graduated from the Cortland normal school in 1900 and has since taught in Plainfield, N. J. The groom finished his academic course in the normal in '99 and graduated from Amherst college in 1903, after which he entered Yale divinity school and having completed his professional work in 1906 was called to Norfolk, Neb., where he was ordained December last.

The married couple will long remember the enthusiastic showers of confetti and the picturesque appearance of the back as they started on their wedding trip which will be of short duration. They will spend the remainder of their vacation at the homes of Thomas Hinds and Mrs. Lurinda Hare, mother of the bride.

Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Hinds, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glegg, McGraw; Mrs. Lurinda Hare, Zinah P. Hare, Herkimer, N. REUNION OF ODD FELLOWS

SECOND ANNUAL PICNIC AT AINSWORTH YESTERDAY.

THE ATTENDANCE WAS GOOD

Parade Was More Than Eight Blocks in Length—Addresses by Prominent Members of the Order—Atkinson Won at Base Ball.

Ainsworth, Neb., Aug. 16.—Special to The News: The second annual reunion and picnic given by the Odd Fellows of this city was held here yesterday. The attendance was good, though not so large as it would have been but for the fact that so large a number of the farmers were obliged to be in their fields to take care of their grain. The trains from the east and west brought many.

The parade which took place at 10 o'clock was more than eight blocks in length and there were many exceptionally fine floats, the most notable being those of Burwell & Beatty, the Golden Rod pharmacy, Munson & Howe and J. D. Rose & Co.

Addresses were made by Grand Master Morrison, Rev. J. F. Poucher of Omaha and Judge Wolcott of Valentine.

The ball game in the afternoon between Ainsworth and Atkinson was an interesting one and was won by Atkinson by a score of 3 to 2.

Bassett and Ainsworth ladies' teams played basket ball, the score resulting in favor of Bassett, 18 to 12.

The ball game was between O'Neill and Neligh and while many errors occurred on both sides and the score ran high, there was some fancy playing and withal a good game. O'Neill won on a score of 5 to 14. The O'Neill boys have won two out of the three games.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life.—William H. Stroiling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. AN AFFLICTED COMMUNITY

SERIES OF CALAMITIES THAT IS REMARKABLE.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEAR NELIGH

People Living Within a Prescribed Territory Have Had More Than Their Share of Tragic Troubles Within a Short Period of Time.

Neligh, Neb., Aug. 16.—Special to The News: A comparatively small neighborhood east of Neligh has been afflicted with a series of calamities that is remarkable. Starting with the tragic death of Miss Thlossen in the Elkhorn river but a short time ago, Mrs. Fred Hansen and infant child died last week and was buried in Laurel Hill Sunday. Almost immediately after, it was reported that a child of Mrs. Hansen had drunk coal oil and died. Later reports, however, showed the child to be out of danger.

Monday while visiting a neighbor Mrs. H. L. Hopkins ruptured a blood vessel of the stomach and died the same evening. While preparing to attend the funeral on Tuesday Mrs. Denney, a neighbor and friend, died suddenly of heart disease.

The same day A. Warner's farm residence in Elm township caught fire and was totally destroyed.

Battle Creek.

It is a fact that we all like the moonshine. We have one man in our town who has more friendship connections with the moon than the rest of us human creatures. He would like to have the moon shining every night. He—we think—takes more interest in the visage of the moon than he would in one of a prima donna. Remember, we did not get this story from the Norfolk News correspondent at the moon, or from the "man in the moon." This gentleman is nobody else than our city marshal, F. K. Cornett, because, when the moon shines he doesn't have to fill up, clean up and light up the two dozen street lamps, and it does not interfere with his salary.

Everybody works now. W. E. Hoover is painting the new Catholic parsonage and John Schacher is doing the plastering. Bernard Risk is painting and decorating the inside and outside of Howard Miller's residence in Highland park, Henry Habekost is treating L. B. Bakers' residence to a new coat of paint, W. A. Sutherland just got through painting Henry Borchers', John Aldag's and Wm. Nicolay's buildings on their respective farms and has the contract for painting the new Lutheran branch school, and Ben. Marshall is plastering Fred Neuwert's large new residence on his farm, and every nail-driver in this vicinity has his hands full. The improvements in buildings, etc., in Battle Creek and vicinity will amount to at least $100,000 this year. Let us wait till New Year.

Shelby Moffett and Chas. A. Martin returned Monday from a sporting tour at Stuart and other places in Holt county. The News scribe made a careful investigation of the population of Battle Creek this week and found the following figures: Original town, 573; Highland park addition, 109; and North Battle Creek (not yet incorporated), 68; total, 750.

"Doc" Wells, now living on John Magner's place in Kalamazoo precinct, has rented Frank Maurer's farm in Fairview precinct, near the Woodman hall, for the coming year. Little Miss Irene Carrabine of Norfolk is visiting here about two weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Risk, and other relatives.

Geo. Simmons, who was visiting one month with his aunt, Mrs. A. D. Willberger and family at Anoka, returned Friday. He was accompanied by his cousin, Master Golden Willberger, who will visit here about two weeks with relatives.

Lambert Kerbel started out with his large threshing outfit Monday and commenced at the Chas. Praeuner ranch south of town. E. E. Cartney will assist in Mr. Kerbel's saloon during threshing season.

Wm. Lowe and A. C. Daniel of Norfolk were here on business Saturday. Mrs. Ralph Simmons and three youngest children arrived home Saturday from a month's visit with relatives at Stanwood, Iowa.

Rev. J. H. Tegeler of Beemer was visiting here from Sunday till Tuesday at the home of his brothers, Fred and Frank Tegeler. Tuesday night he and Prof. M. G. Doering went to Norfolk to attend the sessions of the Missouri synod of Lutherans of Nebraska. The picnic of the Women's union of the Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon was a grand success. The weather was fine, and a large crowd was in attendance. Besides an impressive address by Rev. J. Hoffman, the ladies served a delicate free lunch. The Battle Creek brass band and the country string band were rendering some sweet music.

Oliver Miller of Orchard was visiting here Sunday and Monday at the W. H. Stocker home. Carpenters Herm. Werner and John Rector are working this week in the high school. Several class rooms are changed and partitions moved.

Henry Reif, Jr., who was working several months at Florence, near Omaha, on a farm, came home Monday to find out again how mamma's bread is tasting.

R. C. Hedman and family of Pierce were visiting here Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hedman and other relatives.

Joseph Krivanek and family of Emerick and Herbert Ferguson were visiting relatives here Monday.

Rev. J. Hoffman and Chas. Praeuner, laymen of this place, and Henry Stoltenberg, layman of the Lutheran church at Buffalo Creek, went to Norfolk on the early passenger Wednesday morning to attend the sessions of the Lutheran synod of the state.

Burt Crowell went to Tilden last week where he got employment in the roller mills. Arthur Pratt, who was working at Neligh, came home Monday.

Sheriff J. J. Clements was here Tuesday and served summonses on E. F. Hans, Lambert Kerbel and Henry Walter and Co., our three saloon keepers. The plaintiff is Mrs. Minnie Pilkins, whose husband, James Pilkins, got killed about two months ago by the evening passenger from the east. She claims that he got drunk in the saloons and demands $10,000 damage. W. V. Allen of Madison is her attorney. The case is set for the September term in district court at Madison.

M. L. Thomsen, who is the proprietor of the roller mills at Platte Center, went there Tuesday on business.

Ernest Hoffman went to Stanton Tuesday to witness a ball game at that place.

Mrs. Rose Krivanek and daughter, Miss Agnes, were here from Meadow Grove Tuesday visiting relatives.

Barnhardt Lankhook, Jr., arrived here Tuesday from Hartington for an extended visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Warnke, and other relatives.

EXTEND CITY BOUNDARY

ONE SECTION WOULD BECOME A PART OF CITY.

SOUTHWESTERN PART OF TOWN

Appreciating the Benefits of Being a Part of the City in Which They Live, First Movement Starts to Extend the City Limits.

A movement has already been started in one section of Norfolk's unorganized territory to have several blocks of city property incorporated within the city limits of Norfolk.

The part of Norfolk where the first movement has started to make the city limits conform somewhat to the real boundaries of actual Norfolk is the strip of territory beginning about half a block south of Norfolk avenue and extending south between Thirteenth street and Higgins avenue to either Taylor or Hayes avenue.

The city council was approached Thursday evening to ascertain what steps would have to be taken to have this territory incorporated into Norfolk. It was pointed out that the section was to all outward appearances a part of Norfolk and that it was bounded on three sides by territory that has been added to Norfolk.

A number of the residents of the strip have reached a point where they want to be added to Norfolk legally as well as physically. The matter is now in the hands of the city attorney, who is to map out the proper course to bring this piece of land into the city.

In other parts of what to all outward appearances is Norfolk there are several hundred other people residing, who are as much residents of Norfolk as any citizens of the city who in point of law are neither residents of the city nor listed in Norfolk's population. And many of these like the residents of South Thirteenth street are beginning to realize the advantages of being brought within the city limits.

DROWNED BOY WAS FOUND

Caught in Woven Wire Stretched Across the River.

Wisner, Neb., Aug. 16.—Special to The News: Carl Beemer, the young lad who was drowned in the Elkhorn on the 12th, was buried from his father's home in this city yesterday. After a search of two days, the body of the boy was found about half a mile down the stream from where he sank, caught in a woven wire mesh that had been placed in the stream for the purpose of preventing the escape of the body. The wire was weighted to the bottom of the river.

THINK NORFOLK MAN MURDERED

Homan Huth, Credited to This City, Killed in Wisconsin.

A report from Ladysmith, Wis., was sent out yesterday telling of the finding of the body of a man named Huth, said to be from Norfolk, Neb., thought to be murdered. No man of that name can be located here and the city directory fails to give such a name. The dispatch is as follows:

The body of Homan Huth of Norfolk, Neb., lies in the undertaking rooms of D. Ingle & Son here. Hugh Trimby and August Bauer are in the county jail awaiting the verdict of the coroner's jury which will be rendered today.

The men were employed on the Duluth extension of the Wisconsin Central about eight miles north of this city. They reported to the camp boss that while coming up to camp on a hand car Monday night about 12 o'clock Huth fell off the car and died from his injuries. Blood was found on the car and on the men's clothing. Their story is not believed.

NO BUSINESS FOR POLICE

EVERYTHING WAS QUIET AND PEACEABLE AT O'NEILL.

SECOND DAY OF RACE MEET

An Immense Crowd at Fair Grounds to Witness the Truf Events—Sports Were Not So Good as the First Day of the Meet.

O'Neill, Neb., Aug. 16.—Special to The News: The second day of hilarities closed without any business for the police court, although the town has been overrun with fun and frolic makers and seekers and devotees of the race track. An immense crowd was at the fair grounds yesterday, but somehow the sports did not quite come up to those of Wednesday. The horse men didn't half drive the nags, and the baseball score ran a little too high to make an exciting game.

The race results by heats follows: 2:27 trot—First heat: Jack Robbins, entered by T. E. Gelsell of Guthrie Center, Iowa, first; Lady V, entered by J. H. Friend of Quincy, Ill., second; White Wings, entered by George McLeod of O'Neill, third. Time, 2:29 1/4.

Second heat: Lady V, first, Jock Robbins second, White Wings third, time 2:30.

Third heat: Lady V first, White Wings second, Jock Robbins third; time 2:27 1/4.

2:25 class trot or pace—First heat: Storm Cloud, entered by M. D. Lockwood of Kenesaw, Neb., first; Van S, entered by C. Schemehorn, second; Hastings Girl, entered by Mrs. J. Young of St. Edwards, Neb., third; Edith F, entered by J. H. Friend of Quincy, Ill., fourth. Time, 2:24 1/4.

Second heat: Edith F first, Van S second, Storm Cloud third, Hastings Girl fourth, time 2:22 1/4.

Third and fourth heats: Edith F first, Storm Cloud second, Van S third, Hastings Girl fourth, time 2:21 1/4.

Running event, half-mile dash, Holt county horses: Regine first, Tony second, Sailorboy third.

The special train from Norfolk brought three people from the starting point and gathered up about 150 more at Tilden, Neligh and Ewing.

"MAD" DOG SCARE HERE

Little Brown Canine Bites Another Dog and is Shot.

The summer's first "mad" dog has been killed in Norfolk.

Saturday afternoon the dog, an undersized brown dog dashed into the Lowe feed store on Norfolk avenue. Once in the store the madened animal attacked another small dog owned by Burrell Reed, who was in the store. In a moment the dog was off again, rushing toward Mr. Reed, snapping at his leg but embedding its teeth in the wood of the chair. Then toward the open rear door the dog darted, falling in a fit just outside.

After the dog had run under several store buildings it was cornered under the Karo meat market and shot by Ed Conley.

The dog was in and out of the Lowe feed store so quickly that little opportunity was given to note its actions, "and if he wasn't mad," says Mr. Lowe, "he at least was in a mighty bad humor."

PLAYED FOURTEEN INNINGS.

Norfolk Brownies Lost Battle Creek After Almost a Victory.

Three safe hits by Battle Creek in the fourteenth inning lost a fast base ball game to the Norfolk "Brownies" at Battle Creek Sunday afternoon. The final score was 5 to 2 for the Battle Creek players.

The Brownies held the game two to one until the ninth inning and Norfolk maintained that the man who made the tie score in the ninth inning was dead on second by two feet. But the umpire ruled against them and the game went on for five more innings.

After the first inning Haak for Norfolk pitched his game of the season. No one walked. Richardson, the Battle Creek pitcher, was also in on the honors.

The Norfolk battery, Haak and Glissman, was strong and Brownie support was good. Double plays were made by Queener to Brueggeman and by Schelley to Brueggeman.

NOON EASTBOUND TRAIN LATER.

Black Hills Train Headed Toward Omaha Runs on New Time.

One of the most important changes of the new Northwestern timetable which went into effect Sunday night, is the change in running time of the noon eastbound mainline passenger train from the Black Hills. This train, No. 6, has been arriving in Norfolk at 12:15 but on the new time arrives a half hour later, at 12:45. It leaves for Omaha and Chicago at 1:05, instead of 12:35 as before.

DALLAS CELEBRATES.

First Passenger Train in the Town Took Many Visitors.

People arriving on the first passenger train from Dallas shortly after noon spoke in high terms of the treatment accorded visitors in Dallas Sunday night. With the first passenger train that ran into Dallas were a crowd of people from Fairfax, Bonesteel, Herlick, St. Charles, Burke and Gregory. The Jackson brothers at Dallas extended a cordial welcome to the visitors and everything in town was free. Editor Rose of the Dallas News made a speech of welcome and Mr. Jefferies of Bonesteel and Mr. McDermott of Herlick responded. Engineer Oltman and Conductor Leach drew the first train into the town.

DUNN IN TROUBLE.

Man Employed in Restaurant Here Cashes Bad Checks.

William Dunn, said to be once of Pender but more recently behind the counter of a local restaurant, is held in the city jail on the charge which Chief Flynn says will be filed, of cashing worthless checks. Dunn is said to have cashed a $10 check in the Hasenpflug saloon and a $4 check at the Fair store, all without having the necessary deposit in the Pender bank on which the checks were drawn to render the little pieces of paper of any value. William Stokes endorsed the Fair store check and the loss in that instance falls on him. Dunn told the police that drink was the cause of his trouble and that he had passed three of the checks. He did not know who had the third check. Dunn is a young man.

CARBOLIC ACID IN STOMACH

DR. STOCKWELL OF BASSETT FINDS POISON.

ENOUGH TO HAVE CAUSED DEATH

Internal Organs of Mrs. McLaughlin, Who Died at Ainsworth Under Suspicious Circumstances, Reveals Unnatural Condition.

Bassett, Neb., Aug. 16.—Special to The News: Dr. Stockwell has finished the analysis of the stomach sent to him from Ainsworth, taken from the body of Mrs. Mary A. McLaughlin. He found a large quantity of phenol (carbolic acid) had been taken, sufficient to have caused her death. It had been supposed by the officials of Ainsworth who commenced the investigation into the cause of the death of Mrs. McLaughlin, which occurred the latter part of last week under circumstances which seemed at least suspicious, that some narcotic poison had been given or taken.

Take a Vacation.

Now is the time to take a vacation, get out into the woods, fields and mountains and visit the seashore, but do not forget to take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy along with you. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained on railroad trains or steamships. It is too much of a risk for anyone to leave home on a journey without it.
