There is little or no prospect that the Norfolk high school will be represented on the football gridiron this fall. Last fall local football enthusiasm lost much of its force after the accident to Carl Austin in Sloux City. Another obstacle in the way of the organization of an eleven lies in the fact that much of the available football material was represented in the class of 1907 which left the high school

The withdrawal of Miss Mary Odi orne from the Norfolk high school for the purpose of attending school in Boston during the year, reduces the senior class to a membership of ten. This class entered the high school with an enrollment of sixty-seven.

States is about forty per cent lighter As a provision against cold weather stoves were installed Saturday in the this year than in ordinary years and the usually reliable Missouri crop is Olney building, the temporary high almost a total failure, the territory school quarters.

Pending the arrival of the new high around Norfolk has come forward with school janitor the first of the month the boys in the senior class are acting as janitors.

High school pupils have been busy the past week on account of monthly tests and Friday rhetoricals.

The Two Judges.

Ainsworth Star-Journal: James A Douglas of Bassett and Daniel B. Jenckes of Chadron were in town last Friday. They are the republican nominees for judges of this district-nominated by the people-the first instance of the kind in the history of the state. No clique in the back room of a down town office or place of business forced them upon the peoplethey were named by the people in their primary capacity.

Of these candidates, indivually it well, perhaps, to say a word.

James A. Douglas is a neighbor. He is well known in Ainsworth and in Brown county. He is known both for his ability and his acgressiveness. He is known for the fact that whatever he undertakes to do, he does with all his might and main, and does it well.

In being a candidate for this judgeship and in accepting the nomination at the hands of the people, he has raisers. undertaken to serve the people and no one else. If the history of Mr. Douglas is to be taken as any guide
