MADISON COUNTY DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES GO TO OMAHA.

CONVENTION CALLED THURSDAY

It is Expected That Every Madison County Man on the Delegation Will be in His Seat in the Convention Hall Shouting for Bryan.

The final line-up of Madison county's delegation to the democratic state convention at Omaha Thursday was announced on the eve of the delegation departure for Omaha. Most of the delegates left over the U. P. passenger Wednesday morning.

Madison county, entitled to twentyone delegates in the state and district convention both meeting Thursday in Omaha, will be represented by the following democrats: Dr. A. Bear, C. S. Bridge, Alex Morrison, John F. Flynn, S. G. Dean, E. B. Kauffman. Norfolk; W. F. F. Winter, Nofolk precinct; J. B. Donavan, W. E. Reed, Carl Reineccius, S. C. Haskins, Madison; Pat Stanton, E. W. Luikart, Tilden; E. Hans, George W. Losey, Battle Creek; John Hughes, Deer Creek; Ed Bressler, Meadow Grove; Willian Hartwick, UU Newman Grove; John O'Brion, Emerick; E. A. Craig, Valley.

The Norfolk delegates were selected at a mass convention at the city hall. The rest of the delegation was chosen by members of the county central committee. One of the principal aims of this committee was to have twentyone delegates who would be in Omaha. For this reason the personnel of the delegation was not finally known until the last moment, changes being made where some of the outside delegates found themselves unable to attend. The Madison county delegation is of course a Bryan delegation.
