

DR. MACKAY IS MARRIED

MISS ALICE MULLEN OF NORFOLK IS THE BRIDE.

WEDDING IN MADISON TUESDAY

Prominent Practitioner of This City is Quietly Married by County Judge Bates at Madison—A Surprise to Friends.

Madison, Neb., March 17.—Special to The News: Dr. James H. Mackay and Miss Alice Mullen, both prominent residents of Norfolk, were married this afternoon in Madison. The wedding ceremony was performed by County Judge William Bates in his office in the county court house.

The wedding took place on Miss Mullen's birthday. Dr. Mackay is a former resident of Madison, having practiced medicine here for a number of years before leaving Madison to become superintendent of the Norfolk hospital for the insane under Governor Holcomb. Dr. Mackay also edited the Madison Reporter, now the Newman Grove Reporter.

Only a few friends had been informed here of the prospective wedding at Madison.

Dr. Mackay since he retired from the superintendency of the Norfolk hospital has practiced medicine in Norfolk. He has also written extensively for various publications, especially for magazines featuring sports and out-of-door life.

Miss Mullen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mullen of this city. She returned recently from a visit at Fremont and Denver.

WEARING THE GREEN.

St. Patrick's Day Observed in Norfolk.

Tuesday a fair portion of Norfolk's population, Irish and otherwise, paid homage to the patron saint of the Emerald Isle. But Norfolk people who delight to fly a bit of green ribbon though their name has no tinge of Irish can find cheer in St. Patrick's day for it is known that that good man was half Scotch, half French, with no drop of Irish blood. The story of the man whom the world knows banished snakes from Ireland is wrapped in a good deal of mystery and dispute but the day formally set aside for the celebration of his birth anniversary gives Norfolk with the rest of the world a chance to turn a dark lantern onto ancient family history in the hopes of finding some trace of Irish lineage. Norfolk's good citizens who have the advantage of being truly Irish made the most of the day.

St. Patrick's Day at Hospital.

About fifty Norfolk people were guests at a St. Patrick's day dance and leap year party given Tuesday evening at the Norfolk hospital by the ladies connected with the institution. The ball room was decorated in green with the ever present shamrock the prevailing feature of the decorations. The programs were green and in the shape of the three-leafed shamrock. Green-colored punch was served during the evening. A very pleasant evening was passed.

SCHOOLS INSPECTED.

About Fifty in Chicago Were Found to Be Without Fire Protection.

Chicago, March 14.—Inspection of the 250 public and 200 private and parochial school buildings in Chicago were completed yesterday by captains of the fire department and inspectors for Acting Building Commissioner Robert Knight. Out of the whole number, about fifty schools were found to be unsafe and instructions were given that changes be made immediately.

Want Hose Donated.

One committee, patrons of a private school at Fifty-first street and Prairie avenue, when orders to place hose and other fire apparatus in the building were made, appeared in Fire Marshal Horan's office yesterday.

"We want the fire department to provide us with the hose Commissioner Knight told us to put in," said the spokesman.

"I'm sorry," replied the chief, "but we have no hose to give away. Our hose costs the city $1 a foot."

"But we must have hose and other fire apparatus," said another member of the committee.

"You couldn't use our hose, anyhow," said the chief. "It is too heavy to use in school buildings. You will have to buy hose, and the kind that will suit you won't cost more than 20 cents a foot."

Word from the Roseland is that Gregory and Tripp county hunters are getting the finest kind of duck and goose hunting. The northern flight was heavy and the ducks and geese are not only plentiful but they are being found in the fields where the hunters get good shots by using cows and horses as shields.

When Norfolk elects Ed Harter city clerk next month she will have secured one of the most competent city clerks that the city has had in years. Harter stepped into a Norfolk business house yesterday to consult a colleague on the republican ticket. He found the bookkeepers straggling over a complicated trial balance that wouldn't balance. Harter turned to him and had the trial balance straightened out in a comparatively short time. It wasn't a bit of campaigning, for Harter had every vote in the house "cinched" the night he was nominated.

Governor Sheldon has given his official permission to the management of the Creighton band to call the same the "Nebraska State Band." In return for being recognized as the official band of the state this musical aggregation has promised to furnish music on all state occasions. It is probable the first duty of the band will be to go to San Francisco with the governor and his staff and play at every station. This will cost the members not to exceed $300 each. Whether the governor will call the band down to play at his reception to members of his staff has not been announced. The band agreed to play without compensation.

BOCHE BOY WITH CIRCUS

TO BECOME TIGHT WIRE WALKER AND SKI SKATER.

HE IS AN EXPERT AERIALIST

If He Makes Good Before a Crowd With the Stunts in Which He Has Become Proficient at Home, He Receives $50 a Week.

Julius Boche, one of the three sons of Herman Boche, leaves the Boche farm on the Elkhorn river south of Norfolk this month for Georgia, where the Madison county boy who has been practicing sensational circus acts in the woods of the old home farm will begin what promises to be something of a career in the carnival and circus world. If Julius Boche can make good with the engagement he has secured in Georgia, if in the noise and turmoil of the city crowd he can duplicate the feats and circus acts he has schooled himself in out on the Boche farm, he is promised $50 a week.

The Boche boy will be exploited as a tight wire walker and as a ski skater. Last fall when Julius Boche in Norfolk saw Captain Hendrickson, a ski salter, heralded as the great attraction of the greatest show on earth he watched the brave captain shoot down the inclined plane and then high again into the air and resolved to become a ski slider himself. Out among the trees he built an inclined plane, first sixteen feet high, then higher and higher. He finally got it up forty feet in the air. He shot down the smooth boards swiftly, swerving neither to right nor to left.

Julius has always been something of a high wire walker. Last summer with Oswald Reiche, a cousin, he made a tour of the western country. Reiche is a musical prodigy, playing dozens of different musical instruments. The feature of the performance was the "one man band" where Reiche played six instruments at one time. A moving picture show was combined with the musical program. Julius Boche furnished the free exhibitions to attract the crowd, doing various high wire stunts.

This year Oswald Reiche has deserted the show business for a South Dakota homestead while Julius Boche is turning to the east to develop his talents for aerial "stunts," the delight of the circus man's heart.

Lamro News Notes.

Lamro, S. D., March 18.—Special to The News: The fine weather during the past week has started grass to growing, ducks and geese are plentiful and the hunter is once more heard in the land.

There has been a large immigration to this country this spring, principally farmers who have leased Indian lands. As there is a great deal more to lease it is expected that many more will locate this spring. The Indians are leasing their lands on very liberal terms.

There are several new enterprises here in Lamro this spring. W. H. Bridgeman has opened up a new lumber yard. Dick Webster is erecting a livery and feed barn. J. Kellekson has started an implement house and E. E. Hurlbert will open up a new general store early next month.

Twenty-five new families have located on farms near Lamro this spring.

BOCHE IN SUPREME COURT

WRIT OF ERROR WAS GRANTED WEDNESDAY MORNING.

BOCHE'S BOND FIXED AT $10,000

The Effect of the Proceeding is to Suspend Sentence Pronounced by the District Judge, Pending Review of Case by Supreme Court.

Lincoln, Neb., March 18.—Special to The News: The supreme court has granted a writ of error in the Boche case. Herman Boche's bond, pending the review of the case by the supreme court, was fixed at $10,000.

A writ of error is issued by the clerk of the supreme court upon the filing of a "petition in error" and the transcript of the record of the proceedings of the district court where the prisoner was tried. The effect of the "writ of error" is to suspend the execution of the sentence pronounced by the district judge until the supreme court can pass on the appeal.

The Boche case now goes to the supreme court, which will be asked to pass on the merits of the points raised by the defendant's attorneys. The appeal will probably be heard within the next few months. Pending this appeal Herman Boche will be released on furnishing the $10,000 bond required by the supreme court.

THE MERCHANTS WHO WALK.

The Pedestrians Get There By and By—But Not so Fast.

A little while ago Mr. Edward Payson Weston, the pedestrian, walked from Portland, Maine to Chicago in about thirty days. It was a great feat of endurance and grit, as all the world knows.

But it ought not to make it a popular way for people to get from Portland to Chicago. And it will not.

While Mr. Weston was trudging on his weary way the history of the world might have been changed—ships have explored the remotest parts of a continent—business successes have been made and unmade.

Mr. Weston beat his own record of an average life-time ago—but he could not make it either wise or popular for people to walk from Portland to Chicago.

The Portland man who started to Chicago by express train on the same day that Mr. Weston started afoot reached there—transacted his business, went home, took a trip to Europe on business, and arrived home again from London on the day Mr. Weston reached Chicago.

The contrast shows a phrase of modern business life. An occasional merchant tries, figuratively, to walk from Portland to Chicago—to compete on foot with express trains. He tries to "walk" his store to success—by, perhaps, a little of the sort of "advertising" which is afforded by fence-signs and dead-wall posters. Or, he takes the "local train" by planning a great many "stops" in his newspaper advertising. In this case while his store will eventually "arrive," it will have failed to match the pace set by the stores that adopt the express-train idea of modern aggressive newspaper advertising—pace-making publicity—with few if any stops on the schedule.

Incidentally, it costs more in money as well as in time, to walk from Portland to Chicago than it does to travel in a Pullman car.

And it costs more in money to make a store "walk," than to have it ride on the publicity special maintained by this newspaper. Figure it out—you're "good at figures!"

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CHAUTAQUA IN NORFOLK

COMMERCIAL CLUB CONSIDERS PROPOSITION FAVORABLY.

MEETING HELD HERE IN JULY

Club Agrees to Guarantee the Sale of Five Hundred Tickets But Declines to Furnish, Light and Police the Grounds.

A chautauqua will be all probability held in Norfolk next July for the ten days beginning July 21, the date being advanced a week to avoid bringing the chautauqua and the race meeting too close together.

The directors of the Commercial club Tuesday afternoon by a unanimous vote agreed to sell 500 season tickets at $2 apiece for the chautauqua if it was brought to Norfolk. The directors objected to certain parts of the contract presented to them, believing that they would be required to furnish, light and police the chautauqua grounds. This they declined to do. A communication from W. B. Swayard of Albion has since stated that the people of Norfolk would be asked simply to have a suitable piece of ground for the chautauqua management to rent.

The chautauqua project has been quite favorably received in Norfolk this time and the indications are that the chautauqua will be brought here. The place offered Norfolk in the chautauqua circuit was held last year by Wayne but the train connections being poor between Wayne and Albion it was proposed to substitute Norfolk.

A man who harbors malice is liable to commit murder. A man who hates another a long time is sure to get into a fight with him sooner or later, and when the fight finally comes there is likely to be mischief done. Men wait for years for the first blow, and the first blow is liable to be with a deadly instrument. Don't waste your energy in hating people; such a course will make you wretched and finally get you into trouble.

KEEP MARRIAGE SECRET

ROY GLINE AND MISS MARTHA WOLF WEDDED.

THEY WERE MARRIED MARCH 7.

A Norfolk Couple Have Thus Far Succeeded in Keeping Their Marriage of Almost Two Weeks Ago a Pretty Close Secret From Friends.

The marriage of Roy Gline and Miss Martha Wolf of this city, which took place in Omaha a week ago last Saturday, has been kept a secret until the present time and even now is only leaking out to friends of the couple.

The groom and the bride were both employed at the Rome Miller eating house at Norfolk Junction, prior to the marriage. Since the wedding the bride has been staying at the home of her step-father, August Meleher.

It is said that the couple went to Omaha and returned on a Union Pacific train in order that their friends at the Junction might not learn of the plan. But both the bride and groom have admitted to close friends of their marriage, though it is still formally denied.
