nine years and was acquainted with her husband during the latter's life. Mr. and Mrs. Drummond have left London on an automobile trip.

She Can't Give Groom Money. The bride now receives an income from a $1,000,000 trust fund left for her, above $500,000 outright, from the estate of Marshall Field, sr.

The only money that she could leave Drummond upon her death, would be the $500,000 mentioned, above what she can save from her income from the million dollar trust funds.

By provision of the Marshall Field will, the trust fund set aside for her at her death will revert to the Field

Candidate's Train Makes Many Stops in Minnesota and Iowa.

Sloux City, Sept. 3 .- Addressing a monster Democratic rally here last night, William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for the presidency, in the course of a speec, on the tariff, guarantee of bank deposits, the labor and trust questions and governmental reforms, denounced Coleman Dupont of Delaware and Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania, members of the Republican executive committee, as not being expected to become reformers because, as he charged, of their affiliation with the trusts. Especial attention was given to the reform and trust questions.
