

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

Mrs. Warren of Tilden was in Norfolk. William Carroll went to Dallas Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eberly left for Dallas, S. D. P. H. Baker of Tilden was in Norfolk on business.

M. C. Hazen is in Center attending district court. J. E. Haase has been in Omaha on a business trip.

Miss Lillian Fox returned at noon from Rochester, Minn. W. H. Tackett of Gregory, S. D., was in Norfolk Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denish and their two children have gone to Dallas, S. D.

P. F. Bell left last evening for a ten days' visit to his brothers' ranch near Lusk, Wyo.

Mrs. F. E. Barnum and children passed through Norfolk from Bonesteel to the old home at Stillwater, Minn.

Seymour Miller, a Northwestern conductor, has purchased two lots on South Third street from L. P. Pasewalk and will erect a nice home on the property.

J. H. Conley has received further word from Fremont to the effect that his mother is doing well. A few days ago it was feared that Mrs. Conley could not recover but her condition is now encouraging.

At a meeting held recently at Bristol, by representatives of the Fairfax Mutual Telephone Co., the Spencer Independent Telephone Co. and the Bristol Mutual Telephone Co. it was decided to build a copper toll line from Lynch to Bonesteel, and later extend to Dallas.

Mrs. Peter Unruh and Miss Sophia Unruh, wife and daughter of the Tyndall, S. D., man who is at Madison waiting trial on the charge of defrauding the Mennonite Aid society, were in Norfolk over night, returning to Tyndall after a visit with the accused man at Madison. Unruh has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia and is confined in the Madison hotel under guard.

Mrs. Carl Wilde left this morning for New Ulm, Minn., to be present at the funeral of her uncle, Jacob Pfenniger. Mr. Pfenniger, who was a wealthy man, donated large sums of money to charitable institutions and to the upbuilding of his city. He was one of the pioneers who settled in early years at New Ulm and one of the few who escaped the slaughter and massacre in the great Indian uprising which was in its worst aspects around New Ulm.

Plainview Republican: The board of education met on Monday forenoon and bids for the new school building were opened. The contract was awarded to the firm of Beckenhauer & Pruten, of Norfolk. W. M. Pruden lives at Randolph at present and W. H. Beckenhauer resides at Norfolk. Their bid was the lowest, $20,724. They allowed $500 for the old school building which brings the cost of the new building down to $20,224. Work on the excavation will begin next week. Mr. Beckenhauer informed us that he will employ as many Plainview men as possible while building and we have always known him to be a man who keeps his word.

As had been feared for several days, Mrs. O. F. Ewing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. McLaughlin of West Point and niece of Mrs. M. A. McMillan of Norfolk, was unable to rally from her weakened condition resulting from long illness and an operation, and she succumbed in San Antonio, Tex., yesterday. The remains will be brought to West Point for burial and the funeral will be held Friday of this week. Mrs. Ewing was well known in Norfolk and her friends here will be very greatly grieved over announcement of her death. She was prominent in the social life of Sioux City and was a leader there in the First Presbyterian church. She had been a chronic sufferer from a comparatively minor complaint for years. Recently she was taken south in the hope that the change of climate would prove beneficial. She underwent an operation and for a time hopes seemed justified that she would completely recover. Last week she became weaker and failed rapidly. The very best of medical attention and nursing failed to avail. Mr. Ewing was a prominent commercial traveler on this territory for years, but recently left the road for Mexican real estate business. Besides the parents, Mrs. George Korb of West Point, a sister, survives Mrs. Ewing.

C. H. Groesbeck left Wednesday for Colome, one of the new Tripp county towns.

Among the day's out of town visitors in Norfolk were: L. A. Hansen, F. Hansen, Tilden; F. Soppe, Osmond; Otto Huebner, Hoskins; J. R. Nelson, St. Edward; M. C. Beck, Dallas, S. D.; N. P. Jeppson, Plainview; Wilford Standford, Gregory, S. D.; G. W. Holmes, Foster; S. O. Campbell, Creighton; J. P. Bayne, Verdigris; J. M. Bayne, Gross; Mrs. F. W. Glick, Verdigris; R. Perrin, Wayne.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. C. J. Lindstrom at 3 o'clock.

Woods Cones, the Pierce banker, who recently went to Texas, is now in Excelsior Springs, Mo., for his health.

J. L. Lough is preparing to let the contract for the erection of a two-story dwelling on South Eighth street.

Rev. F. M. Sisson, formerly of Norfolk but now pastor of the Methodist church at Nebraska City, closes the Nebraska City lecture course at the Overland theater by delivering a lecture entitled, "Plus."

Superintendent R. I. Elliott of Chadron, a former Norfolk boy, has been elected to the superintendency of the Broken Bow schools at a salary of $1,500 which is $200 more than has ever been paid to a superintendent in that city.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. C. J. Hibben Thursday afternoon instead of at the home of Mrs. H. T. Donner.

Fred Hellerman will not trade his place with the Star Clothing company for a Tripp county farm. He drew No. 1,748 in the land drawing. He is back from a visit to Gregory, having passed up his chance to file after looking over the country.

A letter has been received in Norfolk from Mrs. M. S. Jessup of Webb City, Mo., asking for details of the murder of the stranger near Plainview March 16. She has lost a son, Jeremy O. Jessup, and as it was at first thought the murdered man's name was Jessup, the woman saw a dispatch leading her to believe that it was her son whose body was cut to pieces under a Burlington train. The man killed, however, is believed to have been Tobias Jasek.

Campbell Brothers' circus, an annual visitor to this city, is in Kansas City for the entire week, playing in Convention hall and drawing good crowds. The circus was brought to Kansas City for the benefit of the Kansas City Zoological society. "The canvas tent," according to the Kansas City star, is all that is lacking to make of it a regulation summer circus. There's plenty of red lemonade, elephants to spare, and everything to satisfy the circus "bug" which wakes up this time of the year.

close with something definite accomplished for the good of the city. Pat Dolin "jollied up" the crowd with a little of his past political history. He said that he had been elected to the council two years ago on the republican ticket but that the republicans apparently not being entirely satisfied with him he had run for re-election on the democratic ticket. It was intimated that he would be elected on the prohibition ticket two years from now. He declared that he made no promises. James H. Conley, a former deputy grand president of the order spoke on the Eagle motto, "Liberty, Truth, Justice and Equality" and gave an eloquent address of some length. Former Mayor Clint Smith of Madison, C. H. Groesbeck and many others present made brief remarks.
