One but the family with a dozen children will be welcomed with open arms. It Is the first apartment house of its kind In the United States, and it will rise between two large and fashionable houses which forbid children.

S. D. Lederer, a real estate broker, is the originator of the idea, and he found ready backing for the scheme. He has a whole chain of novelties. With every girl born in the house he will present a receipted bill for one month's rent to the parents. Lederer places twice as high a value on boys, as every boy born will mean to the parents a receipted bill for two months' rent.

The building will be of eight stories, and there will be fifty-four apartments. Each apartment will have a specially equipped playroom. In addition there will be a large playroom proposed to establish a kindergarten.
