Pilger Saloon Man in Trouble. Stanton Picket: A saloon man at Pilger by the name of Krueger will have to appear before Judge Cowan on the 21st of this month to answer to bras the charge of selling intoxicating liquor to minors. The case grew out of the recent case wherein two young men became intoxicated and broke out a number of school house windows. It is charged that the liquor was purchased from Krueger. Sol Denney, the father of one of the boys, is the plaintiff.

Stolen Team Recovered.

Stanton Picket: A week ago last Saturday a team was stolen from Jack Hicks, a liveryman at Foster, and driven to Stanton, where it was put up at White Bros', barn. A reward was offered by the sheriff of Dixon county, but the team could not be located. The village marshal here re ceived a notice, but by the poor description given he decided the team here was not the one wanted, but the fellow who stole the team wrote to Hicks from St. Joe that his team was in Stanton and the owner came down Tuesday and recovered his property.
