Indiana Presented Petition to New York University Senate.

Much discussion has centered about the probable choice by the New York university senate of the name of Poca bontas in the Hall of Fame. The senate has received a petition from indians in support of placing her name among the illustrious women. The In-

"We American Indians shall be pleased to know that the future rising generation shall be properly reminded of the parts our aboriginal ancestors took in the history of the American settlement. It is a more proper channel through which the juvenile American shall learn and read of real Amerleans than through prejudiced books and other sensational wild west literature which have been the cause of racial indigestion. The general and popular 'history' that has been imbibed in regard to Indians has been one sided, to the detriment of our future Indian citizens."

This is signed by Red Eagle and White Fawn

Pocahontas received ten votes five years ago for a place and by reason of this is in nomination for a place this

A Costly Client. Bayley told me that Mr.

Phipps the oculist, told a gentleman, who told her, the following anecdote of the late Duchess of Devoushire: Mr. Phipps was sent for to Chatsworth to operate upon the duchess' eye. He stayed there some time and at parting received from the duke a fee of £1,000. Just before he stepped into his carriage a message from the duchess brought him to her chamber. She hoped the duke had done what was handsome by Mr. Phipps. The gentleman protested:

"Yes, and more than handsome." "It is an awful thing," continued her grace, "to ask, but really I am at this moment in immediate want of such a sum, and if you could, Mr. Phipps."

What could the oculist do? He produced his £1,000, took his leave and never heard of his money from that day to this.-From "Recollections of a Long Life," by Lord Broughton (John Cam Hobbouse).

USE 20,000 BALLS A YEAR.

Big League Clubs Get Away With That Many Each Season.

Twenty thousand balls are used annually by the major league clubs during the training trips and championship campaigns. John Arnold Heydler, secretary-treasurer of the National league, reports that last year the teams in his organization called on the manufacturers to furnish them with 800 dozen spheres. The Cincinnati Reds used the most balls, and then came the Pittsburg Pirates, the Chicago Cubs, the New York Giants, the Phillies, the Boston Doves, the Brooklyn Superbas and the St. Louis Cardinals.

The watchdog of the National league treasury will not tell what price the clubs pay for the official balls, but one closely as sociated with one of the manufacturers insinuates that persons who guess that a major league club spends about $1,000 a year for spheres are not far out of the way. Each ball, therefore. costs probably 80 cents. The price of the spheres varies from 2 year to year. haaaagaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

NEW ACADEMY PROPOSED.

England Wants One Devoted to Literature-Mr. Shorter's Comment.

There is much discussion at present in England over the academy of literature which those interested in literary affairs desire to found. Maurice Hewlett has written to an English periodical that the business of the selection of members is to be the work of himself and Douglas Freshfield.

The difficulty of selecting members that would be accepted unanimously by author and book lovers is manifest. The story of Zola is recalled. The French author after having been received in England with considerable enthusiasm said with regard to the French academy: "Now I am safe. I shall drop into it as easily as a sou into a slot." But M. Zola was never elected to the academy.

There is one literary organization in London which is doing much practical and needed work-the Royal Literary fund. "Poverty is hardest to bear when it is accompanied by imagination in the victim," writes Mr. Shorter, "and I have known many cases where the Royal Literary fund committee has helped struggling authors whose penury must seem almost incredible to the ordinary literary clubman, or, indeed, to the Fleet street journalist. In the literary life prosperity and merit have absolutely no kinship."

The First Pantomime. The first pantomime introduced to the English stage was "Tavern Blikers" and was by John Weaver. This was in the year 1702. It was produced at Drury Lane. The great institutor of pantomime in England was, however, John Rice, who devised this form of entertainment in 1717. His first emphatic success was in 1724, when he produced "The Necromancer; or, History of Dr. Faustus." So successful was Rich with his pantomimes that Garrick, Quin and others became exasperated. Rich lived to see pantomimes firmly established at Drury Lane and Covent Garden. He died in 1761.-London Stage.

More Fish at Valentine.

Valentine Republican: George L. the hatchery at this place to the the rest.-Harper's Weekly.

POCAHONTAS IN HALL OF FAME | Streams east and west of Valentine. the Minnechaduza mill pond. By the end of the week he will have disposed of most all of the 200,000 fish hatched at the state hatchery here.

"FRET NOT THY GIZZARD."

That's How Dr. Pearsons Has Lived

Happily to Be Ninety. Dr. D. K. Pearsons' nineticth birth day was celebrated quietly at his Hinsdale home near Chicago the other

"It might as well have been my fortieth," said the philanthropist when asked how he felt. "I never felt bet ter in my life. How do I do it? Well, ever since I was a young man I have followed out a plan of life that I think Is the best if you want to be happy.

"There's a well known German motto which says, 'Mensch, aergere dich nicht.' Literally translated it means 'Man, do not fret.' I make it 'Fret not thy gizzard.' Be contented. Make those around you happy and you will be happy as a matter of course. Every man should marry young and be contented.

"Mrs. Pearsons, who died four years ago, married me when I was twentyseven years old. We lived together fifty-nine years, and I can say truth fully that during all that time I never had opportunity or occasion to fret.

"Young men should remember to exercise a lot. Automobiles and horses are useful in their way, but your own feet will prove your best friends if you walk them around enough. never fail to take my daily walks Also I believe in the early to bed. early to rise adage. Go to bed at 7 p. m. if possible and get up at the same hour next day - earlier if you want to, but never later."

Dr. Pearsons said that he had no further gifts to announce to his forty seven children, as he terms the col leges in twenty-four states which he has assisted by gifts of money.

MILK AS A PRESERVATIVE.

Chemist Announces Remarkable Re sults From Skimmed Variety. That skimmed milk freed of bacteris is a perfect preservative is the discovery recently announced by Dr. O. Henry Novak of Austin, Ill., who has been a chemist forty years and has been employed by the United States and Austrian governments.

Basically the theory is that dipping articles of food in skimmed milk coats them with an almost invisible film that absolutely keeps out germs, air or water and is indissoluble and impervious to acids. The thin film will preserve fresh meats, eggs, fruit or other edibles subject to decomposition without regard to temperature, according to the chemist, who is corroborated by other scientists and professional men.

The temperature since then had been around 65 or 70, but these articles had the appearance and odor of perfectly fresh pieces. An egg which had been dipped on Jan. 9, 1909, was opened. Those who saw the egg say it could not have been distinguished from an egg laid the same day.

Dr. Novak says nothing should be dipped which is not fresh. After germs have developed the film is worse than useless.

Making Men's Hats.

Men's hats, stiff or soft alike, are made from the fur of the rabbit. A copper cone, whose very top is more or less the shape of the crown of a derby hat and whose sides are covered with minute holes, is revolved very swiftly over a suction fan. The fur is fed on to the cone, and the suction and the swift revolution draws this against the cone in the form of a fur cone very far in shape from the finished hat, but which rapidly becomes a finished hat by sizing, shrinking, shaping and trimming. Individual skill of a very high order counts for ring in the first eight rounds and have everything.-Argonaut.

A French Joke. Two tramps on the banks of "How can we raise the wind?" "I have it. You throw yourself in, and I'll jump in after you and take you out. Then I'll get the reward from the Humane society.' "Good! Here goes!" He jumped into the water, and after floundering about to fall back on if I had needed it. But these old pieces. for some time he was getting tired it happened that I always won with out. "Well," he asked, "how long are something considerable to spare, you going to remain sitting there? Why don't you come in and take me out?" "Because I think I might make more Journal.

Light and Dark Cigars.

A striking example of the ordinary smoker's ignorance on the subject of smokes is the popular superstition that a dark looking cigar is stronger than a lighter colored one. Some strong cigars | eral over for good measure he'll get have dark wrappers, but the dark wrapper does not by any means indicate a strong cigar. Dark, gummy tobacco, if thoroughly cured, is the mildest form. Of course if dark tobacco is not thoroughly cured it will be strong, but so will light tobacco, for that matter. Any cigar man will bet you that the dark color is usually, though not always, a sign of a ripe, well cured leaf, which is therefore milder nine times out of ten than the lighter hued leaf. But when it is known that every manufacturer makes both dark and fight cigars and that he uses exactly the same blend of filler in both and that the wrapper only constitutes a small fractional part of the cigar it is clearly seen that the shade of the wrapper has little to do with the structed that they may be screwed O'Brien, state fish commissioner, was strength of the cigar Ask the dealer into any parasol stick. Those screw here with his car this week and dis- for a strong cigar. He hands out a handles are fitted with emeralds, rutributed several thousand fish from dark one, and the imagination does bies, topazes, diamonds and pearls and and teams are at work on the roadbed his opportunity to give Norfolk a ba-

BILLIARDIST'S GREAT NERVE.

Win Game or Lose Life, Threat Made to the Late Jake Schaefer. Jake Schaefer, the billiard wizard of game than when he was out in the lead. One incident will illustrate this and show his wonderful nerve. It was in a game Jake played and won in Eureka, Nev., under circumstances that would put a player with less nerve clear out of the game.

He was matched with Tony Kraker. well known billiardist and after was in 1875. Kraker was, of course, a much inferior player, and a news- too. paper man named Chantz, who knew this, posted some of his winning friends about it. They were the typical miners of the day, a rough and ready lot and ready to bet freely. They covered every dollar put up by gamblers.

Bill Meelick, a big, burly miner, was selected as one of the three judges and the game was on. The miners were much elated as they saw Schaefer forge slowly to the front, But Schaefer began to lose some of his accuracy after passing the 300 mark, and Kraker took the lead. The game was 500 points, and Schaefer had 310. The judges were called on to see that the miners got fair play, and the suspicion was aroused that Schaefer had been bought off to lose. Bill Meelick was equal to the emergency. He whipped out his big six shooter and spoke these cheerful and reassuring words to Schaefer: "Youngster, you have the balls in a good position, and if there's any more monkey work I'll blow the top of your head off. You win this game." He looked as if he meant it, and Jake got busy. It was a squally period, as the room was full of men representing opposing factions. A shooting scrape was in the air, and it all depended on Jake's accuracy of play. Any other man would have collapsed under the strain, but steadily he continued and never missed until the game ran out a run of 190 points. He was all in at the finish. Jacob Schaefer was born of German parentage on Feb. 2, 1855, at Milway kee, Wis., and when only a youngster attracted attention when playing in his father's billiard room. He quickly jumped into the limelight of the bil when quite young the title of "the wizard," and it clung to him through the remainder of his career.

JOHNSON SURE OF VICTORY.

Negro Champion Says He Will Beat

Jeffries In Twenty Rounds. Jack Johnson, the world's heavyweight champion pugilist, says that he will not allow his grudge against Jim In his laboratory in Austin the other Jeffries to interfere with his style of afternoon Dr. Novak exhibited hang- fighting in his coming battle in Caliing pieces of beef, a leg of lamb and fornia on July 4 for the heavyweight a fish which were subjected to a bath championship of the world. "Perhap in skimmed milk four days previously. you think I'm kidding," he said recently to an interviewer at Chicago, "but what I'm going to say is in dead earnest. As sure as the sun shines on us today I expect to knock out Jim for, but not a minute over twenty, and that goes.

"I wouldn't be foolish enough to take a chance and try to rush an opponent off his feet just because I felt sore and wanted to beat him up in a hurry. So don't imagine that I'm talking about stopping Jeffries in eighteen or twenty rounds because of any such reason. If I thought it was wiser to make a long drawn out scrap of it I'd

"In my opinion a great part of fighter's success lies in having a pretty good idea of what he may expect his opponent to do, as well as having his own plans made a bit in advance. I know that Jeffries figures on taking the heart out of me early in the game. He thinks he can bull me all over the me hanging on for dear life, and that's the idea a good many of his friends have too. Where do some of these dopesters get the hunch from that I'm a chicken compared to him?

"It's the truth that never yet since have I been fully extended. I never had to bring every pound of punching I've always had plenty of reserve force Therefore I don't think it's boasting when I say that nobody has ever got a complete line on what I can do. This time I mean to let out every link in out of you in the morgue," - Paris my body, and there'll be some astoned faces at the ringside when they see me going my full gait. "Jeffries won't be able to feaze me in the opening round, as he hopes to. When he finds that he hasn't got me scared to death and I am getting back at him with punch for punch and sevsome discouraged. Then is when I mean to do some rough mauling myself. I'll set him the fastest pace he was ever up against in his life, and, believe me, he won't be able to stand it. You often hear folks who think they know it all say that I lack punching power. The fact is I've never been obliged to cut loose with all there's in me up to date. When I do you'll hear something drop, and drop heavy."

Jewels For Parasols.

Jeweled parasol handles will be the rage this summer in London, but only those of the well to do class will be able to purchase the best variety. A set of six detachable jeweled parasol handles comes in leather cases so conare in much demand by Americans.

A PINLESS HAT.

Comes From Paris and Is to Baffle Theater Men Too.

Can you beat a woman? No sooner a few years ago, who recently died at do we have agitation over stiletto-like Sioux City and will lay heavy stee. Denver, always played a better uphill hatpins in Chicago street cars than thereon, making this branch as good along comes a woman with a hat a piece of roadbed as they have in which doesn't need a pin at all. And any portion of the state. not only that, but to get around those inconsiderate theater managers who insist that the women remove their millinery creations, no matter how pretty or new or costly, this same woman has a hat which wouldn't atward a resident of Los Angeles. This | tract the attention of the most zealous head usher. It's the same but, demonstrated the absurdity of any of such a minute thing.

This young woman is Miss Mary of the French capital.

"Yes, I purchased it in Paris. It is called a theater hat, and, as you see, It is made of gold cord with an aigret and fits closely to the head. I never thought it would cause so much comment, and I never will visit Europe again if I know that my return will cause so much comment, Before I left the steamer in New York some photographer had taken my picture, for, although the hat is to be worn at the play, I just couldn't wait and had to wear it while we landed.

Miss Glenn related how another woman objected to her wearing it in a New York theater.

"She objected." said the owner, "but I was not required to remove it."

NOT A MISER, BUT ALMONER.

Spinster Who Pretended to Be In Poverty a Philanthropist Too. That true philanthropy had in late years of her life vied with an eccentricity for hoarding gold in odd places about her home developed recently during the investigation of the affairs liard world. He earned for himself of Miss Elizabeth A. Hays of Burlington, N. J., who died suddenly the other night at the age of eighty-six years, supposedly poor, but since found to have left a $100,000 estate. Close friends of the aged woman who were in her confidence except as to the extent of her wealth said that she had given away thousands of dollars in the last twenty years among Miss Hays continued to profess poverty before those to whom she openly gave assistance, and they believed un poor as she professed to be and was making a heroic personal sacrifice to aid them. The old farmhouse has been closely guarded since a lawyer and heirs the other day found fifteen different lots Jeffries within eighteen rounds, or you of gold coin and banknotes hidden in may make it twenty to be exact. It | books, cupboards, old boxes, beds and may take a trifle longer than I look in many odd places. It is asserted that approximately $10,000 in cash was found, with mortgages for $20,000 and deeds for $50,000 worth of property. Neighbors say that search of the old house since the death of Miss Hays has revealed an odd assortment of heirlooms and valuable antiques. They say that eighteen old spinning wheels were found covered with dust in the attic. Several of these are of solid mahogany. Much old mahogany furniture, most of it given her by deceased relatives. is stored in the rooms on the second floor of the old house. Many old silk gowns and a seemingly unlimited supply of rare old laces and embroideries, most of them yellow with age, have been among the discoveries resulting from the second search. Old gold coins and banknotes are said to have been hidden even among these heir looms. It is likely that a fortune will be gained from the old coins alone. Hundreds of these of rare mintage, both domestic and foreign, were found mixed in with modern gold eagles and I passed my novice days in the ring double eagles State Senator Griffith W. Lewis, president of a local bank and coin collector and expert, has power in my muscles into play, and been called into consultation by Executor Branch to pass upon the value of > Feather Flowers to Delight Women. "Feather blossoms" are the newest nor practicable. We will not make Invention in millinery to appeal to we any change in our train service at men's eyes. Artificial flowers are made the present time."-F. Walters, genof feathers and will soon be placed or eral manager of the Northwestern, hats. They have an exquisite coloring west of the Missouri river. and are so nearly perfect in form that they cannot be detected from the real flowers at a distance of a few feet ager of the Northwestern railroad, Feather flowers cannot be spoiled by has no grievance against Norfolk. rain, as their delicate tints are due to No, no, no, no, no, the natural color of the birds. They And of course F. Walters has nothare made in Brazil and are obtained ing to do with determining whether from birds of brilliant plumage. Wild trains shall be run uptown at Nordaisies, honeysuckies, apple blossoms, folk. Oh No! Nay, nay. Not! rich flowers of tomato red and others are turned out by the peculiarly talented artists.

Memorial to Penobscot Indians.

Members of the tribe of Penobscot Indians who fought in the colonial army during the Revolutionary war are to be honored by a statue that will be erected in their memory in the cemetery on Indian island, in Maine. In this graveyard lie the remains of near. the face, ly all the red men of Maine who fought with the colonists. Plans are under way to place a block of Maine granite hands it out cold to the Norfolk Comwith a tablet on it relating how the forces.

Graveling O'Neill Line. between the Burlington station an their gravel pit northwest of town. They expect to have the work completed and the track laid in about four weeks. As soon as the track is laid to the gravel pit they will commence ballasting the road between here and Terrorized Gross People. Butte Gazette: T. C. Courtney and wife and Mrs. Long were up from the east end of the county as witnesses in the case against the stranger who was adjudged insane by the board of insanity at Butte last Friday after noon. The fellow who gave his name as Charles Johnson, had been terroriz-Glenn of Evanston, Ill. The hat she ing the neighborhood of Gross by brought along with several others walking into houses unannounced and from Paris. Miss Glenn recently re- acting very peculiar. When question turned home after a six months' tour ed he said his mother was dead and of Europe, not the least important that his father's business seemed to Kraker's friends, who were mostly stop of which was the millinery mart be booze-fighting, and he owned that he did considerable such business him-"No hatpins, and they just can't self. He pleaded very earnestly to be require me to remove it in the the- turned loose and addressing the board ater," said Miss Glenn as she donned said: "If you sweethearts will only her treasure. She placed it upon her let me go I will be a good boy and head without the aid of a mirror and leave immediately for St. Paul and Minneapolis, and go on my way retheater manager requiring the removal joicing. Won't you please let me go? This seemed to be the burden of his song all the time. As there is not room at Norfolk or Lincoln for more subjects of the asylum he is in the iail here for safe keeping until there is room for him at the asylum. It is thought by some that the fellow

An Egg Worth Cackling Over.

s wanted some place by the authori

Charles Ellis of North Plainfield, N. J., has a hen that laid a freak egg the other day, the like of which has never been seen in North Plainfield before. The egg was of the shape of a dumbbell. The two bulbs were connected by a solid part. Each bulb was soft shelled. In one was the yolk, and in the other was the white, Palace of Stone Resembling Amber. The czar's new palace at Livadia, in the Crimea, Russia, will be a wonderfully beautiful building. It will be amber, giving buildings of which it is depot. And it would have killed the constructed a fairy-like appearance, town but for the fact that the Union The palace will be completed in 1912.

GIRL BASEBALL COACH.

Miss Bragdon Anxious to Get "Slab

Artist and Backstop." The first young woman baseball and football coach in the United States has been found at Revere, Mass. She is Miss Annie E. Bragdon, principal of Wolcott school. She turns out nothing but champion teams. She is getting needy families in Burlington county. the boys ready for the baseball season. She said the other day:

give them all a tryout and then pick out the best players for the different positions. I'm looking particularly for a good slab artist and a backstop.

MOVE TO LIMIT FUR HUNTING.

Siberian Traders Ask Government to Help Save Trade. The greatest market in the world for undressed furs, beld at the Irbit fair, Siberia, where hunters' guilds and traders and buyers' associations meet annually, recently took an important step. In view of the threatened depletion of Russia's fur supply a pe tition was unanimously adopted asking the government to proclaim a close season for all furred game and to prohibit absolutely the hunting of sable for two years.

Turks and Animals. In the matter of kindness to animals It is said that the Turk cannot be surpassed. Thus at Stamboul the wandering dogs are treated with great gentleness, and when puppies come into the world they are lodged with their mother at the side of the street in improvised kennels made out of old boxes lined with straw and bits of failed. carpet And frequently when a young Turk happens to be flush of money be goes to the nearest baker's shop and buys a quantity of bread, which he distributes among the dogs of the quarter, who testify their gratitude by jumping up at him with muddy paws and sniffing muzzles

Has No Time for Norfolk.

"It is absolutely out of the ques tion to run our trains uptown at Norfolk. The plan is not feasible

Of course F. Walters, general man-

The News was assured of all this some weeks ago. The question of running trains uptown would have to go to the directors.

Walters Slaps Norfolk But it is a singular fact that

Walters is the man who, the minute the request of the Norfolk Commercial club is brought up to him, takes it upon himself to slap Norfolk in Without asking anybody "higher up," Mr. Walters right off the bat mercial club committee that there's Penobscot tribe aided the American nothing doing. The request is silly It's childish. It isn't feasible, Piffle! Fudge!

It was really not surprising that O'Neill Frontier: A force of men Mr. Walters should take advantage of

A Storekeeper Says:

A lady came into my store lately and said:

"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost."

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now-she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the light of the control of the store of the control of the co nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

Every dealer everywhere; if not at yours, write for Descriptive Circular to the nearest agency of the prising that the Northwestern has orable means to get these trains upattempted to end the matter by this town, and the business men of the urt reply. Mr. Walters always has town have backed up that instruction built up the Elkhorn valley. Road Tried to Kill Town. At that time the railroad tried to built entirely of Balaklava stone, kill Norfolk and move it a mile and anyhow. which when polished resembles pure a half, so that it would be near the Pacific built in and put its depot up-

Standard Oil Company (Incorporated)

The Northwestern bought the F. E. road and, refusing to take account of the fact that a city has grown up here where a village formerly existed, perpetuates that old quarrel by declining to even consider a request from Norfolk and the traveling public of this territory for an improved service which has been pronounced feasible by just as capable railroad men as Mr. Walters. Norfolk isn't entitled to considera-"During the ball season I will be on tion at the hands of the Northwestern. through the new towns of Winner the field during practice and watch apparently. The people of this territil her death that she was actually as and direct the work of the boys. I'll tory-well, the people be damned, as and Jordan and the terminus will be ome other railroad official once said.

Walters' Grouch an Old One. Mr. Walters' grouch is an old one. He disliked Norfolk the first time he ever came to town. He's hated it ever stayed in the town about four weeksand cussed it all the time he was here. He never came uptown, choosing to remain in autocratic seclusion at the Junction. He didn't deem it desirable to even get acquainted with Norfolk business men. He didn't care to mix

-not with Norfolk. Tried to Move Headquarters. And he went further than just cussing the town. He tried to move the division headquarters to Fremont. And he did succeed in moving his own headquarters to that place! He failed to get the road to change the division headquarters because the road wants its headquarters at Nor-

That's one reason why the Northwestern official's bluff in a Fremont paper recently-that threat to move the headquarters - was such a joke. Walters had tried that once - and Then Walters became general man ager-and the grouch against Norfolk moved up a peg in officialdom. And it's stuck there ever since.

Walters Only a Side Issue. its request to Mr. Walters would bear want to carry over. fruit. He's only a side issue in this members of the United Commercial Travelers, sent to the Northwestern, was originally addressed to Marvin Hughitt, president of the Northwestern railroad. It was altered so as to a address Mr. Walters, as a matter of courtesy to his position. But nobody expected Mr. Walters yould do anything to benefit Norfolk. All his official career in this territory he has been doing what he could to Brunswick, where he operated a harhurt the town. And he'd like to have ness shop, was slain with an axe about the Northwestern keep right on giving December 7. He apparently was chop-Norfolk a black eye by running an in- ped down as he sat in a rocking chair adequate and abbreviated train ser- at his house. Then the body was vice to a depot located a mile and a dragged to the cellar and with it the half from the town. On Up to Chicago Now.

instructed the directors to use all hon- McKay's home.

had a grouch against Norfolk and the with a big petition. Norfolk is in ear-Northwestern is apparently seeking nest about wanting these trains. The to perpetuate the old quarrel started town wouldn't consider that the Comwhen the F., E. & M. V. railroad was mercial club directors had used all honorable means to get these trains if they stopped with Mr. Walters, for nothing was to be expected of him

The committee who made the trip to see Mr. Walters consisted of George D. Butterfield, president of the Ne braska National bank; A. L. Killian, president of the Commercial club, and L. P. Pasewalk, secretary of the club.

On From Dallas.

The Northwestern railroad will extend its Norfolk-Dallas line on through Tripp county to Carter, S. D., immediately.

Contracts for building the extension have been let and grading will begin at once. The work will be rushed. Contractors and engineers will be on the ground this week. The line will extend west from Dallas

This is the information which comes to The News from what is believed to be an absolutely authentic source. It confirms the reports print since. He came here some years ago Tripp county extension would be ed in this paper last fall that the built in time to haul this summer's

This announcement will be welcome news to the thousands of people who have settled Tripp county. It has been mighty expensive pioneering out there with such long freight hauls over the prairies, and that territory will receive news of the coming extension with enthusiasm. The extension will place that territory more directly in touch with Norfolk than ever.

Snow Falls in North Nebraska.

Neligh, Neb., May 2.—Special to The News: The rain which began here last night turned to snow this morning and the ground was covered with whiteness. The ground had become very dry. A cold rain fell in Norfolk all Sunday night and Monday forenoon.

Yes-this is a good time to sell real estate-but it ought to be advertised. not merely placarded.

The stores, just now, are "taking So Norfolk really didn't expect that their losses" on goods they do not campaign for uptown trains. He's just a water tank that Norfolk stopped at out of courtesy to his official job—and by request.

The petition which 593 business men and citizens of Norfolk, including 159 the state of the courter of the last is years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all and citizens of Norfolk, including 159 the last is years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all and citizens of Norfolk. and citizens of Norfolk, including 150 business transactions and financially tble to carry out any obligation made able to carry out any obligation made by his firm.

Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken inter-nally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free, Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for consti-

The Murder of Brown. Brown, an aged bachelor living at bloody axe. On December 8 the body was found.

Mr. Walters' blunt answer will be McKay was arrested a few days lateported to the Commercial club di- er. He had assisted at the death ectors at their meeting Tuesday noon. watch, sitting up with the body of the And it is presumed the directors will man whom he is charged with murmerely go on to Chicago to the men dering. Robbery was supposed to igher up, with their request. The have been the murderer's motive and mass meeting of the Commercial club money was found under the bed at

FISTULA—Pay When CURED operation. No Chloroform, Ether or other general aneasthetic used. CURE GUARANTEED to last a LIFE-TIME. GERAMINATION PREE. WRITE FOR BOOK ON PILES AND RECTAL DISEASES WITH TESTIMONIALS