Teachers Plan Summer.

Members of the senior class of the high school and the school faculty in a body will attend the evening services at the First Methodist church Sunday evening where Dr. Tindall will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. This sermon, a farewell discourse to the graduating class of the high school, is being looked forward to with much interest by the students and teachers. And what are the teachers going to do after June 3, the last day of school?

The question cannot be fully answered, but from reports now received many of the teachers whose homes are in other cities will go back to spend the summer while others have taken up work in public schools in other states and some are even on the road toward matrimony.

What the Teachers Will Do. Miss Amy Leigh Paine, principal of the high school will spend the summer vacation at her home at Fayette, Ia. Miss Georgia Austin will probably remain in Norfolk, her home being Miss Nelie Putney will probably go to her home at Lincoln.
