Pleasures of the Week,

Mrs. H. J. Cole entertained on Fri day and Saturday afternoons of this week. Fifty guests were invited for each day to enjoy delightful programs. The home was most attractive in deco rations of red and white hearts that would delight St. Valentine himself. On Friday afternoon the guests enjoyed readings by Miss Elizabeth Hale, violin solos by Miss Marian Gow and plano solos by Miss Ruth Shaw. On Saturday afternoon an added pleasure was the vocal solos by Miss Marian Cochran of Crete, Neb. At the close of the afternoons the hostess assisted by her three daughters served a dainty refreshment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Weatherby and Mrs. Warrick entertained a small company at a 6:30 o'clock dinner on Mon day evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs N. A. Rainbolt who left on Tuesday for a trip to Cuba. Places were laid at a prettily appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. Rainbolt, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Davenport, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mathewson, Mr and Mrs. Jack Koenigstein and Mrs. J. Baum. Wilhelmine Koenigstein assisted the hostesses in serving the dinner. Bridge followed the dinner. Mrs. J. Baum made the high score for the ladies, and F. E. Davenport won the gentleman's prize.

Nine old time neighbors took their suppers and went without invitations to help Mrs. George Spear celebrate her birthday anniversary on Wednesday. A social evening followed the supper and the guests had a thoroughly good time. Mrs. Spear was presented with carnations by the visitors, who were, Mrs. H. E. Warrick, Mrs. Weatherby, Mrs. A. Morrison, Mrs. O. L Hyde, Miss Mason, Mrs. C. J. McNamee, Mrs. C. A. McKim, Mrs. C. E. Thew and Mrs. A. H. Kiesau,

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Ramer gave a small dinner on Wednesday evening to celebrate the birthday of the host ess. The large dining table was very attractive with decorations of pink and white carnations. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John Koenigstein, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blakeman, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenigstein and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Koenigstein. In the game of bridge which followed the dinner the honors went to Mr. and Mas. Ludwig Koenigstein.

Mrs. Mary Davenport, Mrs. Oldfield and Mrs. Chaffee were hostesses at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon on last Wednesday, in the home of Mrs. Davenport on North Ninth street. Small tables were placed for thirty-six guests and a delicious lunch was served in
