Just Put That in the Paper, So the Fellers'll Know It. "Say, Mister Reporter, I was swimming last night and the water's fine. You better put a piece in the paper so as the fellers will know it," a red headed, freckled face boy said today.

To Give up Profession.

Dr. T. H. Waters of Atlanta, Ill., has succeeded Dr. T. H. Holden in his medical practice in this city. Dr. Waters also takes possession of the office now occupied by Dr. Holden and has purchased the Holden home, corner of Norfolk avenue and Thirteenth street. Dr. Waters will take possession on May 15. Dr. and Mrs. Holden and family will leave Norfolk for their future home at Omaha on June 1.

Dr. Waters came here several weeks ago direct from Atlanta, Ill., where he has been practicing medicine for the past twelve years. Previous to his Atlanta practice, Dr. Waters practiced medicine in the Illinois state hospital at Elgin, Ill., and the Hahnemann hospital at Chicago. He is a graduate of the Hahnemann Medical college and Hospital of Chicago, the same college of which Dr. Holden is a graduate, and has also graduated from Chicago Eye, Ear and Throat college.

Dr. Holden has practiced medicine in Norfolk for the past fifteen years. Upon leaving the city he will give up the medical profession to enter the life insurance business. He is secretary of a life insurance company whose home office is in Omaha.

Six Weeks to Complete Survey.

Fremont Tribune: Surveyors for the interurban line who staked out the route through the city last week are now working about twelve miles northwest of Fremont, up through the Maple creek valley. Another party of surveyors is working out of Omaha toward Fremont. A third group is at work near West Point. It is said that it will take about six weeks' time for the surveyors to complete mapping out the course of the lines to Madison and to Norfolk.

Managers Baker refuses to say when work of throwing dirt for the grade between Omaha and Fremont will be started, but says his company will be operating cars by January 1, 1912, the time limit set in the franchise granted by the city council.

Aeroplanes Fly at Omaha.

Omaha, May 9.—Two sustained flights of fifteen minutes each were the features of the opening day of the mid-west six-day meet which opened yesterday. Rene Barrier, in a Bleriot monoplane, soared 500 feet in the air and made a cross-country flight and Rene Simeon also using a Bleriot, displayed his skill in maneuvering. The latter thrilled the crowd with his sharp turns and gliding sweeps. Both Frenchmen declared the condition perfect. Today Frible, the Irish aviator, and Douglas Staples of Mexico with biplanes will have places on the card.

Bruises On Head.

Neligh, Neb., May 10.—Special to The News: About half of the witnesses of the state in the Gregorson murder trial now on in this city had testified at the closing hour last evening at 6 o'clock. The 12-year-old son Hans Pederson, was on the stand when court adjourned until this morning at 8:30. Charles Button, the first witness of the state, who found the dead body of Mr. Pederson in the bedroom on the evening of August 12, was recalled several times during the day.

The main witness for the state, and upon whom depended the most important testimony, was that of E. Arthur Carr of Lincoln, he being last year secretary of the state board of health. It was Mr. Carr who was testified on the stand yesterday afternoon, to come to Elgin and hold an autopsy and ascertain if possible the probable cause of the death of Nels Pederson. His statements were remarkable in every degree, declaring that the entire head of the dead man was one mass of bruises and blood clots. In answer to the question by Attorney O. A. Williams: "You may state what caused his death, in your opinion." "In my opinion it was the blood clot on the brain, back of the head."

Not Hinted at Heretofore.

The coroner's jury failed to find any such bruises, nor did the three prominent physicians and surgeons of this county, who performed the first autopsy, declare any of the wounds of a nature that would cause death.

The cross-examination of Carr was conducted by J. W. Rice. He testified that he did not, nor did he attempt at any time, to communicate with the county coroner or the authorities of Antelope county in regard to his findings at the autopsy he conducted. He stated that he left the findings with the committee, and also testified that he had been reimbursed by these men. In answer to the question by Attorney Rice:

"Who had you come to Antelope county?" "It was the committee." "Was it Minor S. Bacon?" "Yes, Mr. Bacon's name was signed to the telegram."

The questions were intended to show that the entire autopsy matter was a framed up affair.

Little Son Testifies.

The story as told on the stand by little Hans Pederson appeared to be straight in every particular, citing all the details that took place during the breakfast hour and at the time that the fight between his father and Gregerson took place. On cross-examination conducted by Attorney Kelsey his story was but little changed from that given on direct testimony.

County Attorney Kilbourn stated last evening that all of today would be consumed in concluding the witnesses for the state, which number about twenty.

In connection with this case Mrs. Nels Pederson has brought suit against Saloonkeepers T. A. Yearshaw and John Maybury of this city and their bonding companies, in the sum of $10,000 for selling liquor to her husband during his life time.

CUT OUT IMMUNITY CLAUSE.

Efforts in Ohio to Whitewash Legislators Guilty of Bribery.

Columbus, O., May 10.—Aroused by what they termed an effort to conduct a whitewashing investigation by a senate committee, members of the house received and passed the Greaves bill, by which immunity is taken from members of the assembly who testify before a legislative probing committee.

A short time before the senate had come counter to the wishes of Gov. Harmon in providing for the appointment of ten to make inquiry into graft charges. Gov. Harmon had advised against the action because of the immunity from prosecution which under present laws is extended to witnesses in such inquiries.

New Lincoln Police Chief.

Lincoln, May 10.—Ernest Hunger was appointed chief of police of Lincoln by Mayor Armstrong, and Pat O'Shea was appointed chief city detective.

Hunger has been a bailiff of local justice courts and was a deputy game warden under George Carter during the Sheldon administration.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Wisconsin Man Kills Two Women and Himself.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—Emma Nelson and Mabel Gilmore were shot and instantly killed and Joseph Unger was seriously wounded at a resort here by Charles Yance, a stationary engineer of Racine, who then killed himself. A quarrel between Unger and Yance over the Nelson girl caused the shooting.

When Yance suddenly drew two revolvers and shot Unger through the breast, the Nelson girl threw herself between Yance and him and was shot, dying almost instantly. Mabel Gilmore tried to escape but Yance shot her also and she fell, dying as Yance killed himself.

At the emergency hospital it is said Unger will probably recover.

ENJOINS A LOUD BRAYING MULE.

Potomac, Ill., Man Prays Relief from Nocturnal Solos.

Pontiac, Ill., May 10.—An injunction against a loud voiced mule is the latest novelty in litigation here. B. D. Wise of Potomac is the plaintiff in the case and Frank Deamude is the owner of the mule. Wise alleges that the incessant braying of the mule keeps his father awake nights. Judge Kimbrough granted a temporary injunction against the animal.

Rev. Dr. Johnson is Ill and Missing.

Tecumseh, Neb., May 10.—Rev. H. C. Johnson, D. D., of Tecumseh, chaplain of the Nebraska penitentiary, is lost in Lincoln.

Dr. Johnson, who is 77 years of age, suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy at the close of the Sunday morning service in the prison. He wrote his wife in Tecumseh a letter from the prison Sunday.

Dr. Johnson left the prison Monday to take a train home, made one stop down town and since that time no trace can be found of him.

The prison authorities and his friends in Lincoln are making diligent search for him.

Flege Gives Bonds and Is Out of Pen.

Lincoln, May 10.—William Flege, serving a life sentence for the murder of his sister, Louisa, in Dixon county, was released by the supreme court from the penitentiary on a $25,000 bond furnished by Fred and Henry Flege, his brothers, and Herman Frevert, his brother-in-law.

The admission of Flege to bail was vigorously opposed by County Attorney Kingsbury, who said that he felt certain that if Flege were allowed to return home the people there, who feel strongly about the matter, would regard it as a partial fulfillment of his boast that his money would free him and that a lynching would follow. He said that fears were also entertained that Flege would kill Albert Eichtenkamp, the boy who accused him and his former sweetheart, Miss Hendricks who had repudiated him after his arrest. Flege's attorney, former Congressman McCarthy, declared that these fears were idle and said he was willing to pledge his money and property that no one would raise a hand against Flege, nor would he harm anyone.

The court consulted but a few minutes before reaching a conclusion. It has invariably fixed bail for all persons convicted of second degree murder, and as Flege had made no trouble and no demonstration was made against him when he was out on bail before conviction, no exception was made in this case.

Omaha Youth Meets Death.

Colorado Springs, Colo., May 10.—Staggering into the half-way house on Pike's Peak Sunday night, blood-stained and with his clothes in tatters, Alva Bruner, 17 years old, whose family is believed to live in Omaha, declared that he had been struck down by a rock hurled from the darkness. The lad was rushed to a hospital here, where he died.

A stab wound, which might have been self-inflicted, was discovered above the boy's heart, and an autopsy discloses traces of sulphuric acid, but Bruner stoutly maintained to the end that he had not attempted his own life.

Officers are searching the slope of Pike's Peak for evidence to corroborate the boy's story.

Bell Defeats Wayne.

Wayne, Neb., May 10.—In a first game of baseball here the Wayne amateurs were defeated by the Bell Sluggers, 3 to 0. Ralph, for the Sluggers, allowed but one hit and struck out eleven. The only hit came in the seventh, which was the only inning that the Amateurs were able to get a man on a base. The Sluggers played errorless ball, while the amateurs made four bobbles. Score by innings:

R. H. E. Sluggers .0 0 0 1 1 1 0 0 0—3 4 4 Amateurs 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 4 4 Batteries—Ralph and McKittren; Miller, Cress and Lerner.

GIRL CLAD ONLY IN PAJAMAS.

Omaha Conductor Protects Pretty Somnambulist from Gibes of Passengers.

Omaha, May 10.—Clad only in pajamas and bedroom slippers, Miss Sadie Allen, a young society woman, rode three miles in her sleep on a midnight owl car.

She boarded the car and dropped into a seat with eyes half closed, and was the object of the mirth of four young men passengers and the protection of the alarmed conductor until the car reached a down town hotel. Here the conductor called a policeman, and a moment later Miss Allen was awakened with a dash of water. She was taken home in a taxicab.

EVERY PASTOR A CONFESSOR.

That's What Dr. Charles M. Sheldon Would Like to See.

Topeka, May 10.—The Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, pastor of the Central Congregational church, author of "In His Steps," and several other widely read books, believes that every pastor of a Protestant church should have a confessional, where the members of his flock could go to his pastor and pour their troubles into a willing ear and receive wholesome advice. He does not intend that this confession should be in the nature of that followed by the Catholic church, where forgiveness of sin is given by the father confessor. It should be a place where those heavily laden with cares and trials and tribulations could unload their burdens.

"The relations of the minister to his congregation," Dr. Sheldon said, "should be such that the members would be free to go to him and confess their troubles and receive advice. I do not in the least advocate the doctrine of the forgiveness of sins, but it seems to me that the minister, in order to fulfill his full duty to the church and to his flock, ought to make himself so useful that the members would feel free to confide in him about anything that concerns them. The Baptist Emmanuel church of Boston is carrying out this idea now. I have been working along this line for many years.

"The confessional is not entirely a spiritual matter. It is a place where people can carry their troubles of whatever kind or nature, business, spiritual and religious, family affairs and purely personal matters. It is the working out of the plan to give more help to the congregation. Some ministers work with the idea that their connection with the affairs of the congregation ends with the preaching of the sermons and the calls and the perfunctory routine followed by all. There is much other good work that can and ought to be done.

"The Roman Catholic church has understood human nature for centuries. The Protestants have not had this understanding. The Catholic confessional contemplates the forgiveness of sins, but its chief hold has been in aiding the members of the church to bear the burdens they have to carry. Human endurance will wear up under certain troubles to a certain extent and then it snaps. If one is able to tell his troubles to another in whom he has confidence and who may be able to give advice and aid the troubled one feels better and stronger after the telling, although the trouble may not be solved or lightened in the least. That is human nature."

Negro Johnson Must Hang.

Lincoln, May 10.—Thomas Johnson, an Omaha negro convicted of the murder of a Chicago cattleman named Frankland a year ago last December, must pay the penalty with his life on May 19, next. Governor Aldrich refused to interfere with the execution of the sentence. The governor issued a long statement in which he says he failed to find a single missing link in the chain of evidence. He concludes by saying: "If there ever was a case where circumstantial evidence demanded the death penalty this is one of them."

MAYOR FRIDAY ILL.

So Expected Amendment to Saloon Ordinance Is Not Taken Up.

Mayor John Friday is reported quite ill. For the past three days the mayor has been complaining of illness and Tuesday morning his condition was such that he had to leave his place of business and is now confined to his bed. City Physician A. B. Tashjian is in attendance. Typhoid fever is feared.

Because of the illness of the mayor and the absence of several of the councilmen, no quorum could be obtained by the city council Tuesday evening, and the five councilmen who waited patiently for the arrival of a few more members decided to adjourn without doing any business. An amendment to the saloon ordinance to increase the number of saloons was expected and a large number of visitors made their appearance in the hall.

Victor L. Phillips, representing the Standard Asphalt and Rubber company, of Chicago, interested the five councilmen present on paving material topics and, using his samples as illustrations, he gave an interesting talk on paving. Most every councilman present was favorably impressed with the paving material presented. It is known as the Sarcio little or mineral rubber—several inches of ordinary concrete paving for a base and a heavy coating of about three inches of the Sarcio material for the top, which makes a soft and excellent pavement. Mr. Phillips is to confer with the property owners who are expecting to pave this year.

With other improvements at the Norfolk state insane hospital, is the installation of a complete cold storage and ice manufacturing plant. T. B. McKenzie of the Baker Ice Machine company of Omaha, has charge of the installing. An entire car of machinery for this plant has arrived. Ice will be manufactured in this plant for the use of the entire institution. Mr. McKenzie declares the plant, which is a combination ice manufacturing and cold storage, is one of the most modern systems he has installed in any institution of this kind.

After the formal opening of the Fremont Country club by the directors at a special meeting held this forenoon, being Memorial day, it will be a legal holiday, and it was thought a better attendance could be secured than for the afternoon events. Complete arrangements for the opening have not been completed. Several golf events are being planned for the afternoon and a dance in the evening. The ladies will probably have a social hour at their club house in the afternoon while the men are playing golf.

A VOLCANIC MONUMENT.

Wonderful Old Balancing Rock Near Portland, Ore.

One of the most remarkable rocks in the world is that known as the "balancing rock," which stands on the bank of the Willamette river a short distance above the city of Portland, Ore. Rising from a broad base is a small column roughly round in shape. Just above this is a huge mass of rock bearing a tree on the summit, the total height of rock and column being about a hundred feet.

Although a great deal larger and heavier than the pillar on which it stands, the big rock is very accurately balanced. For how many centuries this old freak has stood not even the wisest scientists are able to determine, but it has evidently been there for a very long period.

The entire rock is of a volcanic nature, and the most singular thing about it is the fact that the knob and pillar are entirely disjointed from one another. Wind and weather no doubt are slowly wearing the "balancing rock" away, but the process is so imperceptible that, falling some unforeseen catastrophe, the monument will probably endure for many centuries.—Wide World Magazine.

Word was received from Emerick by County Commissioner Taft to the effect that the bridge construction gang will arrive in Norfolk in one week to put up the big steel bridge which will span the Northfork on North First street. It will require about thirty days to complete the work.

S. H. Bauman of Mt. Vernon, Ia., for many years publisher and editor of the Mt. Vernon Hawkeye, is in the city, visiting his longtime friend and former college classmate, John R. Hays. They attended Cornell college, at Mt. Vernon, together. Mr. Bauman recently turned his newspaper business over to his son, retiring from active work.

Out of the nineteen bidders for the $25,000 Norfolk public school district building bonds, the Norfolk National bank of this city was the highest and luckiest bidder. This bank's bid was on 5 per cent bonds, par and accrued interest and $525 premium. The work of considering these bonds kept the board of education busy for a good part of last night. No other business was taken up. The meeting was held in the high school building.

Among the day's out-of-town visitors in Norfolk were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Crook, Meadow Grove; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anall, Dallas; James Brooks, Stanton; J. B. Fichter, Meadow Grove; Nellie S. Brooks, Stanton; Evelyn Nicholas, Stanton; Mrs. Kurt Moritz, Stanton; M. R. Dutcher, Pierce; F. G. Dutcher, Plainview; A. H. Lau, Niobrara; Z. K. Doan, Fairfax; H. W. Baumann, West Point; Leona Hans, Mabel Brechler, Battle Creek.

Hopes are now entertained for the recovery of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chambers. Dr. Gifford of Omaha who, with Dr. P. H. Salter, performed a second operation on the child Tuesday afternoon, declared last night before leaving for Omaha that the child might recover, but that she had only once chance out of a hundred. It was thought during the night the child was dying, but at 5 a. m. she regained consciousness for a moment, for the first time in three days.
