

Norfolk Wins the First Game.

Norfolk won the first game of the regular baseball season at home, Tuesday afternoon, from Stanton by a score of 16 to 3. Many spectacular plays were witnessed by a crowd of about 3000 fans, made up of Norfolk and Stanton business men and a large following of regular baseball roots.

Notwithstanding the fact that Stanton came to Norfolk with the avowed intention of beating the Norfolk team easily, the local players seemed at no time in danger of defeat. In every inning, except the last three, when Norfolk put in substitutes to replace a few of the regular men, they fell to score. The Stanton team went to bat first without a score and were followed by Norfolk with three straight hits and three scores. Hoffman, who played a feature game all the way through, started the batting for the locals with a hit and a score. Krahn and Glessman did the same as Hoffman in this inning but Seidel puzzled Miller, Lucas and Wilde with his fast curves.

In the second inning Carl Martin, the little telegrapher from Pilger, who seemed to be a backstop for Norfolk, was hit and his fast base stealing netted Stanton their first run. Norfolk in this inning batted Seidel out of the box, Schelly and Krahn both knocking out home runs. In this inning Norfolk brought in six scores with Wilde finding Seidel's curves for a one-bagger. Seidel was replaced by Atkinson, who tried out with Fremont, but this leaguer was also easy for the locals and Martin came to the rescue and tried his hand with good effect in the pitcher's box.

Hopper played the game all the way through and when Keleher substituted Denton, he brought in a three-bagger, and a score for Stanton. Mayor Al Pont, the veteran player, played an errorless game but it did not help matters. All through the game it looked like Stanton was just beginning the game and a few more games will put them in tiptop shape for a close game.

All Earn Honors.

The entire Norfolk team came in for honors. Denton pitched an excellent game and could have worked through the contest but Capt. Glessman, on recommendation of Hoffman, retired him to hold him for future work. Keleher succeeded him in the fifth inning and made good.

When it was tipped off to Stanton that a high school boy was to pitch against them, they considered themselves the winners of the game, but after a few times at the bat they found they were up against a mystery. Even Keleher, another high school boy, showed them that Norfolk has some very good talent.

Hoffman played the game in an errorless manner all the way through and it was his excellent work which held the visitors down to such a low score. "Skeet" was well played out when the game was over. Martin on second, in missing a ball, struck Hoffman on the back of the head knocking him out for a moment. An off ball injured his unglued hand and he received other minor injuries.

Glessman starred on first and no errors were checked against him. Chris is playing the fast game he played last year, and as a captain he is making good. South saved the Norfolk team at times by his high leaps in the air, one bringing down the ball from the sky onto the bag with a sensational double. Miller had an off day on second but although he erred twice, made good otherwise. Lucas was spiked and received a wrenched ankle, having to retire from the game. He was replaced by Clark who featured once more in base stealing.

Krahn played a fine game at short but because of the heat found it necessary to retire. Secretary Hulac went into the field for a few innings but sufficient opportunity was not given him to exhibit his skill. He did miff one high one, but because of the lack of necessary equipment. Schelly, who knocked the second home run for the locals, was in the game to win and played strictly first-class baseball. Wilde retired near the end and Klug played for him for a few innings. In all the regular Norfolk team showed good team work and for the time Umpire Persons called the game they played together almost like a professional team.

If Norfolk keeps up this team work and cuts out the seasawing they will easily be the north Nebraska champions this season.

Autos and Band in Parade.

Stanton came up with five automobile loads of fans, not counting those who came up on the train. The parade was formed at the Winter hall where the Norfolk band commenced the march up Norfolk avenue. In the line of march were twelve automobiles carrying first, the members of the Stanton and Norfolk teams, Commercial club members, members of the city council, Norfolk business men and the ladies from Stanton.

The money which was to be expended for an out-of-town pitcher was confiscated by Capt. Glessman, whose idea of constructing bleachers for the fans was approved by Manager Stafford and other officers. The bleachers were built on rush orders and by the time the fans arrived, they had been stretched along the sidelines and behind the bleachers were constructed. There are plenty of seats on the side lines now to accommodate a larger number of fans. The wire keeps the crowd from interfering with the game and at the same time gives an opportunity to the fans in the grandstand to see all of the game.

Hoffstot is Acquitted. Pittsburg, May 17.—Frank N. Hoffstot, the banker-manufacturer of New York city, was acquitted on the charge of bribery in connection with the bank depository ordinance exposed in the councilmanic graft crusade. A week ago a jury disagreed in a case of conspiracy against Hoffstot. The bribery case went to the jury late yesterday afternoon and the verdict was returned in little more than an hour. The case has been on trial two days and after the failure of his attorneys to have the court instruct the jury to return a verdict finding him not guilty, Hoffstot went on the witness stand in his own behalf. He denied that he had any knowledge of the bribery of councilmen to pass the bank depository ordinance until after the exposure of the councilmanic scandal.

Eagle Pass, Tex., May 17.—Reinforced by 100 federal cavalrymen who came during the night, the federal garrison at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz crossed the river from this place yesterday, prepared to fight if the two bands of rebels reported within twelve miles of the town attack them. The predicted rebel attack did not show a sign of materialization last night but refugees streamed into Eagle Pass until now there are 2,900 of them there. The Mexican cavalrymen galloped in from Las Vacas early today, declaring Ciudad Porfirio Diaz would not fall to the rebels without a battle. Col. Hena, commander of the federal garrison, who yesterday said he would abandon the city with his handful of troops and twenty musicians, announced this morning with the reinforcements he would make a fight.

Saloon Ordinance is Left Untouched. Unless the city council gets busy, Norfolk will be out of a fire team driver and also a fire team. The contract of E. S. Monroe, the present driver, expires on June 1. Three bids were rejected for the position by the council Monday night because they believed the bids were too high. J. W. Rice was the lowest bidder, agreeing to furnish team, driver, harness, etc., for $1,650 per year. E. C. True lock came next with a bid at $1,700 per year, and A. W. Finkhouse $1,800 per year. The men claim it is worth that money to furnish horses, do janitor work, feed, and remain on duty twenty-four hours. The council declared that the city should buy a team and employ a driver. The matter is now in the hands of the fire and police committee and more bids are to be advertised for.

The expected saloon ordinance amendment did not get a hearing. The mayor being absent, the councilmen believed it best to hold matters until the entire council could be present.

Need Chain Gang. The city is to inaugurate a chain gang, according to a statement made by Councilman P. J. Fuesler, who was not in favor of loaning to the Christian church 150 feet of chain owned by the city.

"We should either give the church the chain or decline to give it to them. I am not in favor of loaning it to them," said Mr. Fuesler, when discussion of the question came up. "It is only a matter of a short time when the city will have use for this chain. We need to purchase some iron balls and start a chain gang. Fremont has one and it is a good thing."

DECISION DISAPPOINTS BRYAN. Court Has Done What Trusts Have Been Trying to Accomplish. Toronto, Ont., May 17.—"The decision is disappointing," said William Jennings Bryan today, referring to the supreme court's Standard Oil decision. "At first appearance, it would look as if the government had won a victory, but the decision will bring great joy to the trusts, because it reads into the law a word which to a large extent nullifies the anti-trust law."

"The trusts have been trying for years to secure an amendment to the anti-trust law, which would limit the law to 'unreasonable' restraint of trade.

"The dissenting opinion of Justice Harlan points out very forcibly the far-reaching effect of this decision. "It will now be necessary to secure an amendment to the anti-trust law to make it worth anything."

D., May 17.—Special The News: George Combs, 14, adopted son of Valentine Peter, a farmer near here, was drowned while bathing with a half dozen smaller companions in Vnousek's pond Sunday afternoon. Gregory Baseball Tour. Gregory, S. D., May 17.—Sporting Editor News: Leaving Gregory

Wednesday noon and returning Sunday evening, the Gregory high school baseball team made one of the best and most successful tours in several seasons. The trip was made overland, two autos being engaged to carry a part of the team, while Prof. Cline took the remainder in his new Ford car. They took in four towns, Geddes, Platte, Armour and Academy, beginning with Geddes and ending at Academy. Being unable to get a game at Geddes, on account of the team being disorganized, they hurried on to Platte. At Platte the boys put up one of the hottest games of the season, defeating them by a score of 7 to 3, with Schudell in the box, doing some of the finest pitching in the history of the team. Arriving at Armour on Friday, the Gregory boys cleaned the Armour nine in a nine-inning game by a score of 9 to 4. Ray Mann, who accompanied the ball bunch, represented the Gregory high school in the district oratorical contest at Armour in the evening. Saturday morning the team left for Academy, where they were defeated by a score of 3 to 7. Their defeat was due to the fact that the two games Thursday and Friday and a sixty-mile ride before the game, had gone hard with the players. Moreover, Schudell's arm was all in from the hot work in the two preceding games and Lezotte took the box during the latter half of the game, where he proved himself a coming pitcher.

The Gregory team is one of the tastiest teams west of the river, and came near gaining the championship east of the Big Muddy. They have won eight out of nine games this season, defeating all the teams in the northwest section of the league. A series of three games in Nebraska will wind up the baseball season for Gregory. The boys expect to have a crackerjack of a football squad this fall.
