WHO'S WHO IN NORFOLK (Continued from first page.) farm that the late Daniel J. Koenigstein was born. Mr. Koenigstein was left a widower two years later and in 1859 he was married to Miss Magdalen M. Behrens in St. Claire county, Ill. From Illinois he moved to Watertown, Wis., and engaged in the drug business. In 1873 he sold his store and moved to Norfolk, opening a drug store on Norfolk avenue between First and Second streets. He remained there until 1880, when he built a drug store on the corner of Fifth street and Norfolk avenue and two years later he built the Koenigstein block at a cost of $20,000. Four years afterward the block was destroyed by fire and in 1887 he rebuilt the block as it now stands.

Bristow, Neb., June 14.—Special to The News: John Heber, a saloon keeper, while driving with his wife in their automobile Sunday, when going down a hill near Gross in some manner lost control of the machine and it turned completely over. Mr. Heber was thrown clear of the machine and escaped injury, but Mrs. Heber was very seriously if not fatally injured and has been unconscious most of the time since the accident. It is feared that she may be injured internally.

THE VOUCHER UNEXPLAINED (Continued from first page.) diplomatic work of agreeing on the line through Passamaquoddy bay," said Mr. Knox. "When he failed to reach an agreement with Great Britain, the matter automatically went to arbitration. Congress then appropriated $15,000 for that work, but Mr. Bryce and I sat in my office one day and settled the matter, not regarding it of enough value to go to the expense of arbitration. We reduced our agreement to writing, it became a treaty between the United States and Great Britain and as such was ratified by the senate."

THE VOUCHER UNEXPLAINED (Continued from first page.) As to the voucher signed by Albert Rosenthal, the portrait painter, calling for $2,450, of which sum Rosenthal got but $850, Mr. Knox could give no new facts. A week ago, said Mr. Knox, Mr. Carr, chief of the consular bureau, brought the voucher and papers to him, saying that they had been found on the floor of Disbursing Clerk Morrison's office. "Did you make any inquiry to find out why they got there?" asked Chairman Hamlin. "I did," said Secretary Knox, "and could learn nothing."

PLEADS GUILTY TO FRAUD. Jerusalem, June 14.—The sheiks and other officials of the mosque of Omar were sent under armed escort today to Beirut, where they will be tried before a special court on charges growing out of the operations of the English explorers, who it is alleged were permitted to violate the mosque while excavating for sacred relics.
