possibly the best progressive meeting the club has ever held. Charles H. Kelsey and O. A. Williams gave expressions on road improvements. The former stated that about $1,500 would be necessary to complete all main roads leading into the city. It was finally moved and carried that the road committee of the Commercial club solicit funds to the amount of $1,000 for road improvements. The additional $500 will be obtained by a tax levy of 2 mills.

The members present of the club unanimously voted to reject the plans and specifications as submitted some time ago by Supt. C. H. Reynolds for a remodeled depot. It is expected that a hearing before the state railway commissioners in regarding the mat ter will be held in the near future. The sewer proposition was talked of at length and a vote taken by the members plainly demonstrated that all
