A WILEY EXPERT DISMISSED.

Floyd Robinson, Holding Wiley's Views, Is Cut Off From Job.

Washington, July 18.—Floyd Robinson, an important member of the staff of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, it has developed was dismissed from the bureau June 30, on charges of insubordination. Although his dismissal was important, it was not considered sufficiently noteworthy to bring to the attention of Dr. Wiley. Robinson was a member of Dr. Wiley's staff of experts in New York City. He came originally from Michigan.

Dr. Wiley said that Robinson had been dismissed but he did not know officially why or when he had been discharged.

Dr. F. L. Dunlap, assistant chemist, declined to discuss the matter except to say it had been done within the last two months.

Secretary Wilson said Robinson had been relieved of service because of insubordination. The insubordination was a refusal to carry into effect an order of the secretaries of the departments of agriculture, treasury and commerce and labor to prohibit the use of benzoate of soda mixed with food, which had been determined was deleterious to health. The order was "that container or package of such food is plainly labeled to show the presence and amount of benzoate of soda." This dismissal of Robinson, the secretary said, had nothing to do with the recommendation of Dr. Wiley's dismissal by the departmental board.

It is known that Robinson took the same view of the deleterious effects of benzoate of soda as Dr. Wiley took. They were turned down by the referee board of consulting scientific experts appointed by President Roosevelt.

When Robinson was dismissed Dr. Wiley knew nothing about it. He was not consulted concerning the matter, he said.

Lightning Kills Cattle at Ewing.
Ewing, Neb., July 18.—Special to The News: During quite a heavy wind and rain storm Saturday afternoon lightning struck and killed four head of steers for Antony Dzwieckki. The animals were all in a pasture and were all registered stock.

During the same storm M. R. Barr, living five miles east of Ewing, had two horses killed by a bolt of lightning. A third horse was knocked down and stunned, but finally recovered and is apparently all right again.

Lewis Alexander, who resides a short distance west of Orchard, had his barn struck by lightning in Saturday's storm and burn to the ground. A calf in the barn at the time was also burned. Mr. Alexander was not at home at the time, but a neighbor, seeing the flames, succeeded in getting there in time to rescue a fine span of mules.

Brown County Wants Rain.
Ainsworth, Neb., July 18.—Special to The News: Brown county would be glad to have a good soaking rain. The corn is not yet suffering—that is, not the field corn. The early sweet corn is a practical failure. But the field corn will soon need it, and the potatoes are really suffering. Early potatoes are not setting on and late ones will not unless a good soaking rain comes soon. As have faith, and hope that it will come before it is everlasting too late. There are plenty of local showers that measure all the way from .05 of an inch to .10 and .11. These are better than a hot wind from the southwest, but they do not improve the condition very much.

Another thing that this freaky season is showing is that in many cases the ground that has been cultivated least is suffering the least from drouth. The writer dug into a spot on his ground the other day where there had not been one bit of cultivation during the season, and he found moisture within an inch and a half of the top of the ground, while in the garden where he had put in his best ticks with the hoe, the ground was as dry as powder down for five to eight inches.

Creates Panic Among State Fair Visitors at Fargo, N. D.

In making his escape he made for a church booth, where he seized one of the small girls and threw her to the ground but did her no injury. He then returned to the tables in the place and proceeded to the roof. Here he tore off shingles, drove away four carpenters and then climbed down and made for the country. He was captured by armed keepers in an automobile after a two mile chase.

FIRE RUMOR DISCREDITED.

Toronto, Ont., July 18.—Government officials here believe the report of a serious fire near the Hudson Bay post at Fort Matabechan is merely a belated report of last week's destructive fires in that vicinity. CHOLERA HELD IN CHECK.

Vigorous Precautionary Measures Will Bear Fruit, It Is Thought.

New York, July 18.—Fear of a cholera invasion has been considerably allayed here by vigorous precautionary measures. The governments of the United States and Italy are co-operating with the New York health department. Italy has detailed surgeons of her navy to all ships bound to America from plague infected ports to prevent the spread of infection among passengers and to aid the quarantine officers when ships arrive.

The federal authorities have sanctioned a ten-day quarantine for such vessels and have sent here several medical experts including assistant Surgeon General Lecofer from the Pacific coast and Dr. Von Emdorf who is in charge of the United States marine hospital at Mobile. Since no ship is scheduled to arrive here from the Mediterranean for two days the health officers of the port were able to devote all their attention today to the bacteriological examination of some 600 passengers of the steamer Moltke and Perugia still in quarantine. The sixth victim of cholera died yesterday.

The state investigation of quarantine officer Doty's management of quarantined resumed here today has gained unexpected importance through the cholera situation.

SENT GIFTS TO PRISONER.
Prosecution's Chief Witness in Camorrist Trial, Is Flattered.

Viterbo, July 18.—Gennaro Abbattamaggio, who is hugely enjoying his role of informer against the camorrist charged with the murders of Gennaro Cuocolo and his wife, has been further flattered with gifts from abroad. He has received from parties in New York a check for $160 and three shares of stock. The laws of Italy do not, however, permit a man to receive presents while he is a prisoner and accordingly the director of the prison sequestered those intended for the prosecution's witness.

The interrogation of Cap. Fabroni, who was detailed by the ministry of justice to run down the murder of the Cuocolo when the police had failed, continued today. He is a captain of the Neapolitan carabinieri and his detective work has been assisted by Marshals Capuzzi and Farria.

The questioning aimed chiefly at establishing the complicity of Giovanni Rappi, the alleged treasurer of the camorra, in the crimes with Ciro Vitozzi; the priest Enrico Alfano, the alleged real head of the camorra, and the other accused men.

INFANT PARALYSIS.
Asney Wilder, 12 Years Old, Dies in Few Hours Near Central City.

Central City, Neb., July 18.—The community was somewhat alarmed by the appearance of a case of anterior poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis, which resulted fatally in a short time.

The victim was Asney, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilder. The boy had been working in the fields and was apparently in the best of health, when he was attacked by the malady, and in less than four days was dead.

There was an epidemic of this disease prevalent in this part of the state two years ago, particularly in Polk and Hamilton counties, with some cases here, and the people dreaded its reappearance. As soon as the nature of the disease was known the county board of health convened, ordered that no public funeral should be held over the body and placed the family and the premises under the strictest quarantine. No new cases have appeared.

MORE SUGAR SECRETS.
Government's Investigation of Sugar Trust, Is Resumed.

New York, July 18.—Further details of the fight between the American Sugar Refining company and its rivals will be revealed at the government's investigation of the so-called sugar trust, resumed here today after adjournment in Washington. Some of the prospective witnesses before the special congressional committee are John Arbuckle, Claus Spreckles, W. B. Thomas, president of the American Refining company; John E. Parsons, its attorney, and Arthur Donner, for many years its treasurer.

Mr. Arbuckle, who was unable to attend the hearings in Washington on account of illness, was head of the Arbuckle interests which long waged war with their larger opponent. Mr. Spreckles is president of the Federal Sugar company, another important concern which has its plant at Yonkers.

In addition to the manufacturers the committee expects to hear employees of the customs service-review charges of fraud practiced by the sugar interests upon this branch of the federal service. Among these employees is Richard Parr, deputy surveyor of customs, who received a large reward for revealing the trick scales by which the alleged trust defrauded the government of more than a million dollars in duties on sugar imports. The hearing is held at the customs house.

Representative Hardwick is chairman of the committee. The other members here are Representatives Baker, Garrett, Malby, Jacobway, Hinds, Sulzer and Madison.

Do you favor tariff for revenue only?

Do you favor free raw material and the placing of a revenue duty only on manufactured goods?

Do you believe that in the revision of the tariff the element of protection should be given consideration?

Do you believe that the three branches of government are coordinate and that each one should keep within its constitutional sphere?
