

Allen Did Not Try Scott Case. Madison, Neb., July 18.—Special to The News: Senator Allen's attention being called to the remarks of Henry Weygint appearing in Saturday's News to the effect that the late Barrett Scott was tried before him when judge of the ninth judicial district, and was sentenced to only five years in the penitentiary, said: "I do not have the honor of a personal acquaintance with Mr. Weygint. I have never met him to my knowledge and only know who he is after inquiry. Of course Weygint is entirely mistaken. I was not judge of the district court at the time Barrett Scott had his trouble and was in no manner connected with the case as judge or counsel. I have no knowledge of the case except as I have read of it. My understanding is that Scott was never tried. The venue in his case was changed from Holt to Antelope county and he applied to Judge Robinson, then on the bench of this district, for a habeas corpus which was refused and the supreme court affirmed Robinson's decision. Scott was then admitted to bail, as I am told, pending his trial, and before he was tried was taken by a vigilance committee and hung. I never met Scott at any time in my life and that was at the Pacific hotel at Norfolk about twenty-five years ago when some acquaintance introduced me and we merely exchanged the courtesies of a casual meeting of strangers, and I never saw him afterwards and would not have known him in an hour from that time. Mr. Weygint's enthusiasm has outrun his judgment and discretion."

Real Estate Men Meet. Denver, July 18.—The fourth annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate exchanges with representatives from many parts of the country and each incoming train bringing more into the city, began the first of the four days' meetings by its hundreds of delegates and visitors turning out today to witness Denver's industrial parade. Preceding the parade was the reception of delegates at the Brown Palace hotel. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the convention will be called to order by President Alexander S. Taylor of Cleveland, Ohio. Gov. John F. Shaffroth will deliver an address of welcome to Colorado and Harry A. Lindsey, city attorney of Denver, will deliver an address of welcome to Denver. Following the opening address routine affairs will be taken up.

National Editorial Meeting. Detroit, Mich., July 18.—Editors from all parts of the United States and a considerable part of Canada are in Detroit to attend the annual convention of the National Editorial Association, which began this morning. During the three days' session there will be papers and discussions on all parts of editorial and news writing and the relations of newspapers to the public. One of the important questions to be decided is a proposition to reorganize the association so as to include in its membership business, advertising and circulation managers of newspapers, as well as editors.

Lightning Kills Golfer. Government Official Playing on Taft's Links, Meets Death. Washington, July 18.—While playing golf on an open field on the Chevy Chase Links, the links used by President Taft and members of his cabinet, Tristan Johnson, recently appointed solicitor for the navy department, was killed by a bolt of lightning. Mr. Johnson was far from any tree when struck, and it is supposed by some that the iron which he carried attracted the bolt.

Tinner Falls, Back is Broken. Theodore C. A. Warnstedt, 418 South Third street, a tinner employed at John Friday's hardware store, was fatally injured at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the result of stepping backward from the roof of Mrs. Fred Schelly's residence, 109 North Seventh street. He died this morning at 7:30.

The man's back was broken and four ribs and his skull were fractured. Warnstedt was putting on new gutting around the roof of the two-story house at the time. His statement regarding the accident was made to Mr. and Mrs. John Friday. "I made a misstep and fell off," he said. "No one saw the accident, although about five men were working around the place at the time. His body was terribly mangled and the lower part of the trunk from the waist down was paralyzed. John Schelly, proprietor of the Schelly Bottling works, discovered the injured man and he was the first to call a physician. Warnstedt suffered much pain. He leaves a wife and four children, the oldest being a boy 16 years of age. Nails in His Body. Four ribs were broken, many of them were torn loose and the spine was fractured. The lower part of the body was instantly paralyzed. The man's body was full of nails caused by his falling on shingles which were previously torn from the roof that was being reshingled. Warnstedt fell in a sitting position, which was the cause of his spine breaking so badly. Warnstedt was putting on a new gutting on the Schelly house and by his side was working Ed Schelly, who believed Warnstedt had just walked around the roof of the house. Schelly's first intimation that anything had happened came to him by the cries of his older brother John Schelly, who a few moments after Warnstedt's fall came up to the house. He saw Warnstedt sitting among the old shingles and inquired what was wrong. Warnstedt could not speak and Schelly, thinking only of a minor accident had occurred, telephoned for Dr. Verges, who took Warnstedt's symptoms to be a fractured skull. On close examination he found several ribs broken and in assisting Warnstedt to his feet discovered the spine was also broken. He said that Warnstedt would live but about six hours. Dr. Tashjian, city physician, also examined the injuries and declared there was little hope for his recovery. He recommended that the injured man be moved to his home at once. Mrs. Friday preceded the ambulance to the home. She was met by Mrs. Warnstedt, who is a very small and frail woman. "I knew you would come," she said. "The doctor telephoned to me that my husband was hurt and his injuries serious." Mrs. Friday assured Mrs. Warnstedt that there might be hope, but her appeals to the little woman to be brave were hardly spoken when the ambulance arrived. One glance at her husband, and Mrs. Warnstedt was overcome by mental grief. She did not faint but remained silent for nearly an hour and the ghastly color in her face showed the terrible mental agony she was undergoing. Is Told He Cannot Live. Not long after his removal to his home Warnstedt requested that Mayor Friday should be sent for. The mayor came and the injured man, speaking in much pain, told his employer where certain tools could be found, and that everything was in its proper place. Warnstedt asked Dr. Verges, during the physician's visit at the home, whether or not he would live. "Only a few hours, Teddy, you are badly injured," the doctor said. The injured man did not seem to mind this bad news and requested that his children, who were away visiting, should be sent for. Warnstedt carried no life insurance. He has been employed as a tinner by Mayor Friday for some years. Last year a heavy ice box fell on him and he was laid up for several months. He complained of heart trouble to many of his friends and on one occasion, when in company with Mail Carrier Boehnke, he was attacked by this trouble. Mr. Warnstedt was born in Germany on May 19, forty-seven years ago. No funeral arrangements have yet been made, but his sister living at Millard, Neb., near Omaha, arrived in the city with the Warnstedt children at noon. She will attend to the funeral arrangements. Warnstedt is a member of the St. Johannes Lutheran church.

Garfield will be behind Senator La Follette for the presidential race in 1912, according to Representative Norris, republican from Nebraska, and the progressive leader in the house. Second U. S. Gunboat Sent. Washington, July 18.—At the request of the American minister at Port Au Prince, the United States will send another gunboat to Haiti waters to protect Americans and their interests now seriously threatened by the revolution against President Simeon. The second warship will go to Port Au Prince, the capital. The gunboat Petrel is already at Port Libertre on the north coast.

Mr. Furniss regards the situation acute and fears that the government cannot control conditions if the movement continues to grow. The revolutionists captured Hinchu and Malsade on Sunday and yesterday gave releases fell into their hands. The rebellion previously had been largely confined to the northern part of the republic, but now seems to be making inroads toward the south, where the capital is located. The principal danger lies in the possibility of an uprising in Port Au Prince. President Simeon has been at Fort Libertre for several days directing the government operations. He has now chartered a German vessel to take him from that port to either Cape Haitien or Port Au Prince.

Steer Clear of Italy. Washington, July 18.—Because of cholera in Italy, Secretary MacVeagh today telegraphed orders to the revenue cutter practice ship Itasca at Marseilles to strike the port of Naples from its itinerary. The Itasca has on board thirty cadets from the revenue cutter school at Fort Trumbull, Conn. The Itasca will proceed from Marseilles to Gibraltar and then home.

Train Robber Gets a Bullet. Belle Plaine, Ia., July 18.—A lone bandit who attempted to hold up the occupants of a Pullman on eastbound Northwestern passenger train No. 8, at an early hour today, lies in a local hospital with a bullet wound in his side. He gave his name to the police as William Morris and said his home was in Plainfield, N. J. The bullet wound was inflicted by A. B. Morris, train brakeman, who subdued the bandit after a hard struggle. When the train was between Tama and Belle Plaine, the occupants of the car were awakened by William Morris, as he calls himself, who demanded in loud tones that they surrender their money and other valuables. While the surprised passengers were hurrying to comply with the order the brakeman slipped into the car and got the drop on the bandit. The latter resisted and the brakeman fired one shot, which entered the outlaw's side. He was brought to Belle Plaine and placed in a hospital, where his condition is pronounced dangerous.

FRANCE ASKS EXPLANATION. Demand Reason for Arrest of M. Boisset, Consular Agent. Paris, July 18.—France today asked Spain to explain the arrest of M. Boisset, the French consular agent at Alcazar, Morocco, by Spanish patrol, the report of which incident is confirmed in official advices.

A dispatch yesterday from Alcazar said M. Boisset, the French consular agent, while returning from a ramble in the country, was stopped by a Spanish patrol which attempted to take his carbine from him. Finally the patrol conducted the consul across the city, followed by an Arab crowd to the Spanish barracks. The officer in charge of the barracks said a mistake had been made and allowed the consul to depart, but made no apology for his arrest.

DISCRIMINATION IN ALASKA. Charge Against Humboldt Steamship Company is Made in Congress. Washington, July 18.—Discrimination by the Alaska syndicate against the Humboldt Steamship company of Seattle, was charged by Charles D. Drayton, counsel for the company, before the house committee on expenditures in the interior department today. The White Pass and Yukon railroad controlled by the Guggenheim interests, he said, annulled an agreement with his company at the behest of the syndicate steamship companies and assessed excessive wharfage charges and excessive railway rates from Skagway to points in the interior against it.

"Is there any way of limiting the charges demanded by the Yukon company or is that company a law unto itself?" asked Chairman Graham. "No," said Mr. Drayton. "The secretary of the interior has for some time been doubtful of his authority to modify rates in Alaska." "So doubtful that he would not attempt it?" "No attempt has been made recently."

He declared that the Alaska syndicate had coerced witnesses for the Humboldt company in court proceedings and that witnesses had frankly told them they were afraid to speak on behalf of the Humboldt company because they would get no business from the syndicate if they did. "If the Humboldt company was put out of business," asked the chairman, "would the syndicate lines have any opposition?" "I think not."

"THE SAVAGE LANDOR." Australian Paper Recounts a New Russian Invasion. A recent copy of the Melbourne (Australia) Times contains the following news dispatch under a St. Petersburg date: A savage landor got into St. Petersburg yesterday, and the people of the city were terrified. After considerable difficulty the beast, which came from Tibet, was captured, taken to a remote place and there dispatched to the coast. It is the first animal of the sort ever seen in Russia. How he reached the city after his fights with the natives of Tibet, which is a comparatively unknown country, is a mystery.

A copy of the Manila Bulletin shows the bald telegraphic dispatch from which the foregoing was developed to have been as follows: "Savage landor arrived Petersburg from Tibet suffering handicapped natives." Exchanges received from London contain the information that A. Savage Landor, the explorer, had arrived at St. Petersburg from Tibet after suffering greatly at the hands of the natives.

Ramsdell to Defend Sprinting Titles. "Texas" Ramsdell, the University of Pennsylvania sprinting star, will very likely defend his 100 and 220 yard dash titles at this year's English championships.

Eastern Girl Likes Indians. Miss Cleveland Howard of Warren, O., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Parish of this city, has returned from the Winniebag reservation, where she was escorted by her friends a week ago. Miss Howard, who is an excellent musician, has pleased many Norfolk people with several musicals. She was very anxious to learn more about Indians, their habits and at the same time to get some original ideas of their music.

Miss Howard has secured all of this information and at the same time has received a bit of experience which she declares she will never forget. For almost an entire week she lived among the Indians on the Winniebag reservation, where a big pow-wow was being held a few days ago. Hundreds of reds from other reservations visited Winniebag and Miss Howard was delighted with what she saw. She made a second visit to the reservation, going by train from this city alone. An old Indian squaw whom she presented with some pretty eastern trinkets on her previous trip, met the eastern girl at the station and escorted her to the reservation where a little blue tepee was set up in honor of the pretty "pale face." The old squaw's tepee was not far from that of Miss Howard and the eastern girl spent almost an entire week among the Indians all by herself. Many of the redskins became fast friends with the eastern girl who sang so beautifully, and at an Indian dance one evening she was requested by a chief to sing. She complied with the request and in return she asked for some Indian songs and dances, which the Indians rendered with much satisfaction.

Miss Howard's stay among the Indians was greatly enjoyed by her. She was given the great privilege of taking pictures of the bucks, squaws and chiefs, and before leaving she was given a number of gifts by many of her Indian friends whom she only became acquainted with so short a time. Miss Howard made a special trip to the reservation with photographs of the dancers and the red captives to whom she presented snapshots of themselves. The Indians were highly pleased and made their pleasure known to the girl from the east with satisfactory results. Miss Howard on returning to Norfolk declared she had the time of her life and reports that at no time was she one minute afraid.

South Side News. Miss Martha Evans is ill. Art Ward is enjoying a fishing trip at Birch Lake, Minn. James Lee of Tilden transacted business here yesterday.

Miss Mayme Raasch of Atkinson was here on business at noon. General Superintendent of Motor Power Quale and General Storekeeper J. H. Conroy, and S. C. Graham, master mechanic of Missouri Valley, were at the shops here yesterday on business.

Firemen to Attend Humphrey Tourney. Norfolk firemen decided last night to send a running team of eighteen men to Humphrey on July 26 to participate in the firemen's tournament to be held in that town July 25 and 27. The Norfolk department will stand the entire expense of the local team. Chairman McCune of the running team committee is getting busy and will have his men on the driving park track each evening. He promises that the Norfolk fire fighters will give a good account of themselves at the Humphrey meet.

The firemen were enthusiastic over the coming tournament and the team which took part in the Tilden celebration was strengthened by a number of recruits. It was declared at last night's meeting that the state firemen's association does not approve of local tournaments, but the Humphrey fire fighters have secured a permit from the state association. This permit has taken down the ban which handicapped Norfolk and other cities in going to Humphrey, and a large attendance at the tournament is expected.

Unique Match Next Friday. Only the balance of this week and their next week remain for finishing the first round of the golf tournament in the play for the Burton cup on the Country Club, and thus far only one match out of the thirty-two has been reported. Roy Carter beat Thorpe in their match. The names of the players who are to meet one another, have been published and are posted at the clubhouse. The rules of play are also posted, together with a schedule showing how to figure the handicaps. The handicap is based upon a player's four best scores of the year. And three-fourths of the medal handicap are permitted in this match play by holes.

Every match should be at once reported to Chairman George B. Christoph of the sports committee. All matches must be played off before August 1, when the second round starts. On Friday of this week a "tombstone" tournament will be held at the Country club, in which every golfer is urged to participate. This tournament will have nothing to do with the Burton cup matches. Each player will be given a certain number of strokes—Bozey plus his handicap—and when he has taken that number of strokes, he must plant a flag at the point where the ball rests. The player getting the greatest distance with his allotted strokes, will win a golf ball. The match is called a "tombstone" because the flag marks the spot where the player "dies."

Bryan Roasts Omahans. Omaha, July 18.—When William J. Bryan was asked for a statement on the action of the Douglas county (Omaha) democrats Saturday in denouncing him for bolting Dahlman last year, and also for a statement regarding their endorsement of Judson Harmon for president, he said: "It is not often that any crowd of men will openly admit their insincerity, but these people do in finding fault with me, but endorsing Mr. Harmon. If they were as honest as they are angry they would admit that they place their above democracy and that their objection to me is not that I bolted the ticket, but that I am not willing to help them in debauching the party in this state as they have done by putting above everything else the financial interest of the brewers."

"I am glad to have the issue made so plain. I shall be interested in seeing whether the democracy of Nebraska, which has stood in the front rank for twenty years, is willing to announce that it has no other interest than to be the mouthpiece of liquor dealers. The Douglas county convention does not represent democracy, it represents booze, booze, booze."

TUESDAY TOPICS. Chester Slaughter of Dallas was in the city. H. F. Barnhart went to Foster on business.

John A. Ehrhardt of Stanton was here on business. August Braun returned from a business trip to Ponca. Douglas Coves of Pierce was here transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kelsey of Neligh were visitors in the city. R. G. Rohrke and son of Hoskins were in the city visiting with friends. A. H. Viele is at Lincoln attending a meeting of the state normal board. Miss Inez Viele returned from a few weeks' visit with friends at Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lackey of Stanton are here visiting with their son, R. S. Lackey. Miss Della McBride of Denison, Ia., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. E. Rudd, on North Ninth street. There will be a meeting of the Degree of Honor in the G. A. R. hall Wednesday evening. C. W. Potter, formerly a popular Norfolk railroad man, has returned to this city and established a real estate agency. Joe Fox and Ed Harter made a business trip through Madison county Monday. The section damaged by "oil" was visited and it is reported that small grain was seriously affected. Corn is looking very good. A regular meeting of the Commercial club directors is scheduled to be held in the office of Secretary Hawkins this evening. Chris Glesman played with the Stanton ball team at Wisner Monday when the Stanton team defeated Wisner by a score of 10 to 3. The rate for the Nebraska Publicity League trip to Boston and return, from Omaha, will be $45.10. The train leaves Omaha on the night of July 27. Any Nebraska booster is entitled to make the trip. Tom Barrett, the Chicago lightweight who has recently returned from Europe, is being communicated with and will probably be with Dick Green De Chicago, the champion of France, who will give several exhibitions here during the race meet. At a recent meeting of the U. C. T. lodge, a committee was appointed to select prizes which will be given to the citizens who have the best kept lawn, yard or alley. The prizes will be given at some future date when the Ad club names another clean-up day for Norfolk. At a meeting of the purchasing committee of the board of education last night it was decided to purchase the Victor desk for the Norfolk schools. Blackboards and other material have already been purchased. A number of representatives of desk concerns met with the committee. A justice case which has caused some interest in Judge Eiseley's court was finally taken out of the local courts and appealed to the district court. Justice George C. Lambert and Henry B. Russ are suing John F. Klug for $100 which they allege is due them as commission for a bargain in land in Boyd county. Mr. Klug filed his appeal bond Tuesday. Secretary C. C. Gow of the local chautauqua committee reports that C. L. Gose, representative of the Midland Chautauqua circuit, will be in the city to take active charge of the chautauqua affairs within a few days. The chautauqua grounds are in splendid shape this year and a record number of campers are expected. The first of the campers on the grounds are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hayes. There is much activity on the driving park track today. M. Johnson, who has the contract to repair barns and the grandstand, started a force of men at the repair work yesterday. The barns which were blown over the fence into the road are being put back in place to accommodate the race horses which will take part in the coming Norfolk race meet. Additional temporary barns are to be constructed as soon as Secretary Hawkins finds this necessary. The grandstand will get a general overhauling. There was no meeting of the city council last evening. Mayor Friday and a number of the councilmen were present but a quorum could not be had. The councilmen present adjourned. That there was to have been important business to be transacted by the city dads was very evident in the anxiety of the mayor to have a quorum. Councilman Kauffman was accused of staying away on purpose, but he explains this morning that he believed Mayor Friday would not hold a meeting when one of his employees was at the point of death. City Attorney Barnhart, who is anxious to go to Pennsylvania to attend a family reunion and to address citizens of his native town, which he has not visited within thirty years, declares his trip will have to be called off on account of his meeting being held last night. The petition for the $65,000 municipal lighting bonds, say a few councilmen, has enough signers and it was this business that was to have been brought before the council.

Has List of Peers Ready. London, July 18.—There is much curiosity on the part of politicians over the cabinet's list of potential peers. That a list has been made and is awaiting the possibility of its use in the event that this is necessary to obtain the passage of the veto bill in the house of lords, there is no doubt. The government's spokesmen have said repeatedly within the past week that Premier Asquith was prepared to meet all contingencies of the situation in all details, which is taken to mean that he has hidden up his sleeve a leading source of supply, these being the eldest sons of liberal peers and members of parliament. Uncle Ross is Here. F. A. Secord, editor of the Omaha World-Herald's children's page and manager of the Union Pacific telegraph headquarters at Omaha, is in the city visiting with relatives. Mr. Secord is well known in Omaha and throughout Nebraska as "Uncle Ross," and his stories and poems of children have won for him a place in the hearts of many. Uncle Ross is on a few months' vacation and is now spending part of the time with relatives in this city and at Stanton. He will return in a few days to his home in Omaha and then go east to spend the remainder of his vacation in eastern cities. Mr. Secord is one of the best telegraphers in the country and besides this is one of the most expert wire testers in the service of any telegraph concern. In his idle hours he spends time writing stories of interest to children as well as stories of children which are of interest to the grown-up people. Mr. Secord is one of the officers of the Elks lodge at Omaha and while here visited a number of his "Bill" brothers.

Ed. Conley Loses Foot. Snyder, Neb., July 18.—Special to The News: Ed Conley, formerly of Norfolk, while putting on his shoes this morning, knocked over a shotgun standing in the corner and the gun was discharged. The load entered one of his ankles and his foot was amputated at the ankle. Mr. Conley was once marshal of Snyder, but he is now engaged in the creamery business at Ames. He is the nephew of George Williams of this city. Mr. Conley was formerly chief of the Norfolk fire department and was proprietor of the food store now being conducted by A. Low. Mr. Williams received a telephone message from his nephew's physician at Snyder. The physician gave no particulars as to how Conley received his injuries. He declared he had no time to explain and that he must amputate the leg immediately.

He Resigns From Senate. Washington, July 17.—Senator Terrill of Georgia ceased to be a member of the United States senate at 11:02 a. m. today. Hoke Smith qualifies as his successor.

Is Saved From Drowning. A swimming party given by a party of young ladies employed at the Nebraska Telephone company and other offices in this city came very near to grief Saturday evening when Miss Myrtle A. Rawhouser, chief operator of the local Nebraska telephone office, was rescued from the water by District Traffic Chief Walter Jones. The party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, Mr. Hyde's sister, Georgia and Margaret Austin, Elsie Johnson, Birdie Kuhl, Bessie Sterner, Edith Evans, Florence Bell, Harry Sterner, Alzie Hight and John Lynde, left the city in a carryall and intended to spend the entire evening at Taft's grove, where the near-drowning took place. The entire party were in bathing and the chief sport of "ducking" each other was at its height. Suddenly Messrs. Jones and Hyde noticed Miss Rawhouser fall into the water and go under. They succeeded in pulling the young woman to her feet and bringing her to shore, where she was revived. She was placed in a buggy and hurriedly taken to her boarding place, 1090 Norfolk avenue. Miss Rawhouser does not feel any ill effects from her experience. A similar occurrence was experienced by her on July 4 last, when she was attacked by a dizzy spell. The "ducking" is said to be responsible for her last uncomfortable experience. The water was not deep where she went in.

More Light On Lorimer. Washington, July 17.—More light on the part played by Edward Hines of Chicago, who has been charged with having asked for a $10,000 contribution to a Lorimer election fund, was expected today from witnesses before the senate Lorimer committee. It was planned to call William Burgess, Herman H. Hettler and Henry Turrish in this connection. After them it was expected that James Kelley, editor of the Chicago Tribune, would take the stand.

Hurt in Runaway. Mrs. I. T. Cook, a resident of Edge-water Park, was thrown from a wagon Saturday afternoon, when a span of mules attached to the wagon in which she was riding, became frightened and started to run away. Her hip is badly bruised. The animals became frightened when a woman dressed in white, and driving a horse, crossed the road immediately in front of the mules.

TRIPP COUNTY LIVE STOCK. Eighty Pigs Born to Nine Hogs On Tripp County Homestead. William Blatt, a Tripp county homesteader, is in the city with great stories about good crop conditions and prospects for that country as a stock producer. Mr. Blatt reports that nine of his hogs have recently given birth to eighty pigs, all of them living and enjoying life. "It's a great country," says Mr. Blatt. "The corn is the best I have ever seen."

Larkin Operated Upon. Councilman J. C. Larkin of the Second ward was operated upon for trouble in one of his legs Saturday morning at Hot Springs, S. D. The operation was successful and Mr. Larkin is feeling as well as could be expected. He is expected home soon.

Corruption In Election. Washington, July 17.—"A law that simply requires a man to report what money he spent to get into the senate virtually indorses his right to buy his election," declared Senator Heyburn of Idaho, when the senate took up the campaign publicity bill today. Senator Lodge declared the whole purpose of a publicity law is to let the public know exactly what money is spent and how it is handled; that the "theory is that money publicly accounted for is properly spent."

The bill as it passed the house requires publicity of campaign expenditures, not after election as at present, but also during the nineteen days before election. The senate committee's proposed amendment would extend publicity to primary elections and force candidates to publish their promises to their campaign supporters. Senators Sutherland and Burton secured adoption of an amendment broadening the proposition so that candidates must report all promises made by anyone who had been given authority to act for the candidate.

All Know of Corruption. Senator Root of New York said all senators knew there had been much corruption in elections throughout the country. "We knew not only through the newspapers," said Mr. Root, "but through what had occurred and we heard and saw. We need a law against campaign corruption, so that honest men may not have their rights taken away from them by corrupt men."

"One candidate for the senate spent $2 for every vote he got in the primary elections," remarked Senator Reed of Missouri. "The law of Wisconsin requires candidates to file statements of their expenses," added Mr. Reed. "Yet one of them sits in this body today who admitted having spent $107,000 to secure votes in the primary election. If that is not a bar to his holding a seat in the senate it ought to be."

A Rap at Stephenson. This reference was to the statement of campaign expenditures filed by Senator Stephenson against his recent election. Senator Stephenson was in his seat in the senate today for the first time since the filing of the request of the Wisconsin legislature for an investigation in the manner of his election. He consulted a number of his senatorial friends relative to the prospects of an inquiry.

Mrs. Goodrich's Husband is False. Fremont Tribune: Claiming that J. H. Hockett, who was married a short time ago to Mrs. Mable Goodrich of Fremont, already had a wife and four children at Wichita, Kan., the police at Wichita have asked the Fremont authorities to assist them in locating Hockett, a former Fremont piano salesman. Hockett, who was known to be in Ogden, Utah, with Mrs. Goodrich and her children up to a short time ago, evidently got wind of developments at Wichita, for he has down, leaving Mrs. Goodrich in destitute circumstances at Ogden. It is alleged that he took with him $650 belonging to Mrs. Goodrich. The situation of the abandoned woman is made the more distressing by the fact that she is under quarantine on account of scarlet fever, which has afflicted her children. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rhoden of Missouri Valley, Ia., are well-to-do. They left yesterday for Ogden. Hockett and Mrs. Goodrich became acquainted last spring in Fremont, where they were married. The authorities state that she was employed as a saleslady in a Sixth street ladies store. Mrs. Goodrich is a most charming young woman. Hockett came to Fremont from Wichita, Kan., to act as a piano salesman for the J. C. Acton piano house. He is a pleasant appearing young man who possesses splendid salesmanship abilities. For two months Hockett and Mrs. Goodrich were much in one another's company. About May 1 the young woman gave up her position in Fremont and returned to Missouri Valley, Ia., whence Hockett followed shortly after. It is claimed by Mrs. Goodrich's parents that Hockett induced their daughter to go to St. Joseph, Mo., where they were married. The authorities claim that the union must have been a mock ceremony, as no record of it appears. Hockett and his newly-acquired wife went to Ogden, where it was understood he had been engaged as a piano salesman. The couple are said to have settled there and gone to house-keeping. The first intimation received in Fremont of Hockett's treachery came in the form of a letter from Mrs. J. H. Hockett of Wichita, who wrote to J. C. Acton to ascertain what had become of Hockett. She wrote that she and her four children were in destitute circumstances. Mr. Acton furnished the woman such information as he had at the time and developments indicate that she communicated promptly with the Wichita police. Mrs. Goodrich while in Fremont roomed at a home on North C street. She formerly resided in Norfolk with her husband, who was a railroad mail clerk running out of that place. Goodrich went to Austin, Tex., where it is said he secured a divorce from his Nebraska wife and remarried. Mrs. Goodrich's maiden name was Mabel Rhoden and she was a niece of the late Dr. R. H. Rhoden of Fremont. She was only 16 years of age when she was married to Goodrich at Missouri Valley, Ia.
