EVANGELIST STUMPED.

Dared by Rival Soul Seeker to Drink Acid to Test Faith in Sermon.

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 13.—"Have a drink," said A. M. McVey, of the Church of Christ, as he passed a bottle of carbolic acid to F. J. Ebeling, of Willoughby, O., of the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints, in a debate on church matters, Mr. Ebeling declined to drink the poison which was offered as a test of Ebeling's faith in the doctrine he was preaching.

conducting a series of debates in South Sharon. At the close of the debate Mr. Ebeling set forth the miraculous powers spoken in the 16th chapter of St. Mark, as a part of the new testament church. He had just repeated St. Mark, xvi. 18: "They shall take up serpents; and
