THEOBALDI AT NELIGH.Wonderful Norwegian Violinist Pleases Big Audience at Neligh.

Neligh, Neb., Oct. 20.—Special to The News: Ole Theobaldi, the wonderful Norwegian violinist, accompanied by Madame Dorothea North, soprano, and Miss Helen Keller, accompanist, appeared at the Auditorium in this city last evening to a highly appreciative audience. Every selection on the program was given a hearty encore, and with very few exceptions was cheerfully responded to.

The most pleasing to the audience of the Theobaldi selections was "The Soldiers' March Across the Vera Bridge." This represented a roll of drums, with imitation of a whole brass band, quartet accompaniment for one violin. This piece was played with overwhelming success by Ole Bull in the years 1860-70. His last selection was played on the G string only, and was in Grand Concert in D minor.

Madame Dorothea North has a soprano voice that is far superior to any person ever appearing in this city. Her selections were beautiful, and as an encore to "Bolero" she sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," that brought forth continued applause.

Both the management of the Auditorium and Mr. Carroll, of Ole Theobaldi, received many congratulations at the close of the concert for the exceedingly high-class entertainment.

THE MONETARY COMMISSION.New Interest Shown in the Meeting at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—New interest was expected to be shown in today's session of the National Monetary commission sub-committee's meeting here, following the publication of the revised plan for currency reform suggested by Senator Aldrich, chairman of the commission.

Some of the alleged defects pointed out yesterday by Chicago bankers were covered in the revision plan of Senator Aldrich, and publication of his views was said by members of the commission here to promise a renewed interest in the sub-committee's sittings.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Former Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, today submitted to the national monetary commission, of which he is chairman, a revision of his plan for monetary legislation. The commission may use it as the basis of its recommendation to congress. The basic principles of the revised plan are substantially the same as those in Mr. Aldrich's first proposal sent to the commission last January, which he said he expected would serve as a basis for national discussion.

Important phases which were then unsettled and those which have since then evolved are treated in the recommendations now sent to the commission. Most of the questions are re-handled with great detail as the result of discussions and conferences which have been going on since the plan was first suggested.

NEW LETTER IN LORIMER CASE.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Counsel for the committee of the United States senators investigating the Lorimer case today unexpectedly produced a letter from State Senator John Broderick of Chicago to former State Senator D. W. Holtslaw, of Luka, in which Broderick specifically asked Holtslaw to keep an appointment in Chicago at 4 p. m., Aug. 29, 1909.

The letter was dated Aug. 26, 1909, and bore Broderick's personal letter-head. Broderick admitted that the letter was authentic but said he could not remember why he had wanted to see Holtslaw at that time.

Attorney Haney for Lorimer charged that the letter was in the hands of the prosecution at the time of the previous federal senatorial inquiry. "Do you know you are charged by this committee with secreting matters bearing on this investigation?" asked Senator Dillingham.

"No, no, I am not," protested Haney. "But I do want the source of the question that is being brought before the committee," he said.

THREE YEARS SHOWS CHANGE.Norfolk Boy Believes More Paving Would Make Town Boom.

Berly Beeler returned from Chicago Wednesday to spend a few weeks' visit with his father, F. A. Beeler.

"There is a great change for the better in Norfolk," says Mr. Beeler. "It has been three years since I have been here and the change is noticeable. The development of the conditions above, fearfully set forth, the other members of the committee confess that Mr. Hackler seems to be the only one who is not 'up in the air.' He is still pushing into the collar for Gregory against the world, and treats with extreme lightness the political honors sought to be thrust upon him by his friends, who on the contrary, have ease up a bit and are seriously hobnobbing over what seems to them a delicate situation."

There were about 2,000 bass given to Harry Hartford, who met the commissioner at South Norfolk by appointment Thursday afternoon.

Besides these bass there were several hundred large catfish which were large enough to eat, being 18 months old. The bass and croppies were only 2 or 3 months old. Mr. Hartford deposited the fish a mile north of town in the Northfork river.

Young Wood does not know which one of the boys shot him. It was wholly accidental, he says.

State Politics and Registration.

Gregory, S. D., Oct. 20.—Probably not many people could be induced to believe that state politics and a homestead opening would have sufficient influence on each other to effect both, or that they might possibly rush to clinch and go to the mat. Such things are, however, possible—and thus the story begins. And at the other end of the story looms the fact that during the past few days of the registration the town of Dallas has been gaining largely in the number of registrations over Gregory, her rival who formerly seemed to have every thing her own way—and thereby hangs the tale.
