

John O'Neill.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: John O'Neill, one of the old settlers of Antelope county, died at his home in this city Wednesday evening of old age.

Shi Kai May Leave Peking.

San Francisco, Feb. 23.—Yuan Shi Kai, now at Peking, has agreed to come to Nanking, the republic capital, at the request of the Chinese republican assembly.

Three Mobs After Him.

Bardwell, Ky., Feb. 23.—State troops arrived here today to protect William Richardson, whose life has been sought by three different mobs since he killed James Violet at Millburn, Ky.

House Investigating Ainsworth.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The house today called on Secretary of War Stimson for all correspondence and letters bearing on the charges of insubordination for which Adj. Gen. Ainsworth recently was relieved from duty from the army.

Dynamite Arraignment March 12.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 23.—Arrangements were completed by the government today for the arraignment on March 12 of the men indicted in the dynamite conspiracy cases.

TO PAY HUSBAND'S THEFTS.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—With one-half million dollars in her possession, a woman, old and ill, is on her way from Reno, Nev., to New York to pay back the losses suffered through the misdeeds of her husband, who died in Sing Sing penitentiary in 1907.

Widow of a New York Banker Convict Will Spend Half Million.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—With one-half million dollars in her possession, a woman, old and ill, is on her way from Reno, Nev., to New York to pay back the losses suffered through the misdeeds of her husband, who died in Sing Sing penitentiary in 1907.

SHOULD PUNISH INDIVIDUALS.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson Speaks to Democrats in Kansas. Topeka, Kan., Feb. 23.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey addressed the Kansas Democratic club on "The Relation of Business to the Government."

WILSON ADDRESSES STUDENTS

He Tells Kansas University Something of Cost of Living. Lawrence, Kan., Feb. 23.—It was as a university man that Gov. Wilson addressed the students of the University of Kansas here today.

Battle Creek.

Mrs. William Cassairt of Bonesteel, who was badly burned Monday, is a daughter of Mrs. Ross Avery of this place and a sister of Howell Avery of Tilden.

to the people in the field of politics must prevent the movement away from monopoly back to free opportunity. Business can be free only when the nation is free.

Sell Telephone Stock.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: J. C. Jenkins and W. W. Cole of this city have disposed of their interests in the Northwestern Telephone company to O. A. Williams, who assumed their stock.

To Form New Ball League.

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 23.—A committee of local baseball enthusiasts have been appointed to take up the matter of forming a new league to be known as the Southwestern Nebraska league.

Newborn Babe in a Lawsuit.

Ainsworth, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Papers have been filed in the district court by John Roach, administrator of the estate of his son John, who was killed on the railroad track on the night of July 4 last.

WOMEN'S KISSES SPREAD ILLS.

Health Officer Finds Cause of Disease Attacking Bridge Party Guests. Cleveland O., Feb. 23.—Health Officer Friedrich announced that he had completed his investigation of the curious assortment of diseases that attacked a score of women guests following a bridge party given by Mrs. Meyer Kaskulek on Feb. 10.

Forest Fire Victims Here.

All the way from Montana in vehicles drawn by ordinary milk cows, is the experience of Mrs. Hendrix, a Montana forest fire victim, and her son, aged 29, who arrived in Norfolk Monday and are now stopping temporarily with the Charles Morton family north of town.

Wilson's Hat in Ring, Too.

It Was "There First" and "My Head Was in It," He Declares. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.—"My hat was in the ring first and my head was in it," said Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey here today when his attention was called to Theodore Roosevelt's statement made last night to W. F. Erick at Cleveland.

Simson-Wheeler.

Miss Hazel Bell Wheeler and Adelbert G. Simson were united in holy matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, five miles south of Norfolk, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Rebels Approach Chihuahua.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 23.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez today received a telegram dated Columbus, N. M., and signed by Col. Demetrio Ponce of the Vasquist army.

THURSDAY TIDINGS.

Theodore Meyer went to Battle Creek. Burt Mapes went to Emporia, Kan., on business.

Three Forged Checks.

Vernon Gill, the 17-year-old boy arrested for forgery, will be prosecuted by County Attorney Nichols today.

Man Slain in Row Over Hogs.

Elgin, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Frank Mason shot Orville Beeson twice yesterday morning on Phil Cummins' farm eleven miles west of Elgin, in Wheeler county.

Locked Up the Hogs.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Meager details have been received concerning the murder. It is said a bunch of hogs belonging to Mason had been locked up by Beeson and that this was the immediate cause of the tragedy.

William Wagner Called by Death.

William Wagner, one of Norfolk's oldest pioneers, died at his home three miles south of town at 7:30 Wednesday evening as the result of a week's illness from rheumatism which last night attacked the heart.

Houston's Loss $6,500,000.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 23.—The total loss in Houston's great fire was $6,500,000, with total insurance of $1,000,000. These figures were taken from nearly complete compilations today of local insurance men.

Rebels Approach Chihuahua.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 23.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez today received a telegram dated Columbus, N. M., and signed by Col. Demetrio Ponce of the Vasquist army.

THURSDAY TIDINGS.

Theodore Meyer went to Battle Creek. Burt Mapes went to Emporia, Kan., on business.

Three Forged Checks.

Vernon Gill, the 17-year-old boy arrested for forgery, will be prosecuted by County Attorney Nichols today.

Man Slain in Row Over Hogs.

Elgin, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Frank Mason shot Orville Beeson twice yesterday morning on Phil Cummins' farm eleven miles west of Elgin, in Wheeler county.

Locked Up the Hogs.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Meager details have been received concerning the murder. It is said a bunch of hogs belonging to Mason had been locked up by Beeson and that this was the immediate cause of the tragedy.

William Wagner Called by Death.

William Wagner, one of Norfolk's oldest pioneers, died at his home three miles south of town at 7:30 Wednesday evening as the result of a week's illness from rheumatism which last night attacked the heart.

the widow, he leaves to mourn his loss five sons—Roy, Martin Wagner of Cologne, S. D.; Louis, William F., John and Arnold, all of Norfolk; three daughters—Mrs. Louis Lehman, Stanton; Mrs. Otto Pitke and Mrs. Adolph Nenow of Norfolk.

Mr. Wagner was one of the most prominent and progressive farmers of this vicinity. He was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in and around Norfolk.

Ainsworth, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Papers have been filed in the district court by John Roach, administrator of the estate of his son John, who was killed on the railroad track on the night of July 4 last.

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 23.—A committee of local baseball enthusiasts have been appointed to take up the matter of forming a new league to be known as the Southwestern Nebraska league.

Ainsworth, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Papers have been filed in the district court by John Roach, administrator of the estate of his son John, who was killed on the railroad track on the night of July 4 last.

Health Officer Finds Cause of Disease Attacking Bridge Party Guests. Cleveland O., Feb. 23.—Health Officer Friedrich announced that he had completed his investigation of the curious assortment of diseases that attacked a score of women guests following a bridge party given by Mrs. Meyer Kaskulek on Feb. 10.

All the way from Montana in vehicles drawn by ordinary milk cows, is the experience of Mrs. Hendrix, a Montana forest fire victim, and her son, aged 29, who arrived in Norfolk Monday and are now stopping temporarily with the Charles Morton family north of town.

It Was "There First" and "My Head Was in It," He Declares. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.—"My hat was in the ring first and my head was in it," said Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey here today when his attention was called to Theodore Roosevelt's statement made last night to W. F. Erick at Cleveland.

Miss Hazel Bell Wheeler and Adelbert G. Simson were united in holy matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, five miles south of Norfolk, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 23.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez today received a telegram dated Columbus, N. M., and signed by Col. Demetrio Ponce of the Vasquist army.

Theodore Meyer went to Battle Creek. Burt Mapes went to Emporia, Kan., on business.

Vernon Gill, the 17-year-old boy arrested for forgery, will be prosecuted by County Attorney Nichols today.

Elgin, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Frank Mason shot Orville Beeson twice yesterday morning on Phil Cummins' farm eleven miles west of Elgin, in Wheeler county.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Meager details have been received concerning the murder. It is said a bunch of hogs belonging to Mason had been locked up by Beeson and that this was the immediate cause of the tragedy.

William Wagner, one of Norfolk's oldest pioneers, died at his home three miles south of town at 7:30 Wednesday evening as the result of a week's illness from rheumatism which last night attacked the heart.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 23.—The total loss in Houston's great fire was $6,500,000, with total insurance of $1,000,000. These figures were taken from nearly complete compilations today of local insurance men.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 23.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez today received a telegram dated Columbus, N. M., and signed by Col. Demetrio Ponce of the Vasquist army.

Theodore Meyer went to Battle Creek. Burt Mapes went to Emporia, Kan., on business.

Vernon Gill, the 17-year-old boy arrested for forgery, will be prosecuted by County Attorney Nichols today.

Elgin, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Frank Mason shot Orville Beeson twice yesterday morning on Phil Cummins' farm eleven miles west of Elgin, in Wheeler county.

Neligh, Neb., Feb. 23.—Special to The News: Meager details have been received concerning the murder. It is said a bunch of hogs belonging to Mason had been locked up by Beeson and that this was the immediate cause of the tragedy.

here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Amarine. G. A. Kuhl is at Maurice, Ia., where his mother is reported very ill.

Members of the G. A. R. met at dinner when members of the W. R. C. entertained them. The dinner was patronized by many business men.

Mrs. Charles Sweet continues to be a regular caller by telephone at the police station where she reports daily her wants. She declares that she needs immediate help in securing food for her family.

Committee of Norfolk business men have been appointed in every block on Norfolk avenue for the purpose of ascertaining what Norfolk business men want to do about the electrical system of lighting Norfolk's main street.

Sam Ostrom, a freight handler, surprised Judge Eiseley this morning by appearing before him on a second charge of being drunk.

The men were kept in the guard room for several hours, during which they were put through a severe examination by the officers on duty.

Gov. Wilson laughed heartily at his own epigram and was cheered effusively by a group of members of the Wilson-for-President club.

While Capt. Anderson is hesitating in making public some of the secret details which are included in the reports, it has leaked out that sealed orders are to be received by the local company, as well as by every company in the state.

When here several weeks ago, Gen. Phelps told local officers that he had very little official advice on any exciting rumors concerning the Mexican revolution.

Julius Lehman protests against another Police Court fine. Julius Lehman paid a $5 fine in Judge Eiseley's court Wednesday afternoon for being disorderly.

George W. Smith will take notice that on the 29th day of January, 1912, T. V. Norvell, a Justice of the peace for Norfolk precinct, Madison county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $61, in an action pending before him.

Order For Hearing of Final Account. In the matter of the estate of Philip Schimer, deceased.

Notice to Creditors. The State of Nebraska, Madison county, ss: In the matter of the estate of Amelia Wegener, deceased.

HELP WANTED. WANTED—All parties interested in the Gulf coast, Texas, country to write us for information.

FIRST QUALITY REISTLE'S PLATES ARE RIGHT REISTLE'S RATES ARE RIGHT FRANK REISTLE ENGRAVER AND ELECTROTYPED

OUR CUTS PRINT FAIR PRICE 60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE PATENTS TRADE MARKS

Anyone sending a sketch and description of quick or accurate or original work will receive a free estimate. Send sketches to Scientific Form Co., 200 N. 3rd St., St. Paul, Minn.

Legal Notice. George W. Smith will take notice that on the 29th day of January, 1912, T. V. Norvell, a Justice of the peace for Norfolk precinct, Madison county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $61, in an action pending before him.

Notice to Creditors. The State of Nebraska, Madison county, ss: In the matter of the estate of Amelia Wegener, deceased.

HELP WANTED. WANTED—All parties interested in the Gulf coast, Texas, country to write us for information.