The outside precinct is also scheduled to hold a caucus in the city hall tonight to nominate members of the school district. The democrats are to name a candidate as councilman for each ward of the city. Republican caucuses have not yet been called. Thirty-one years ago today, according to Father Buckley's story to Norfolk friends Monday, Ireland experienced the worst snow storm in its history. The snow was so deep that all business was suspended. Many died and the bodies were deposited in snowbanks for several days before it was possible to dig graves. The wind did not blow enough during the night to hinder traffic in any way. Will Simlich, who was struck in the face by a stone thrown by another man near Winner a few days ago, is a cousin to Mrs. A. C. Stear

New York, March 12.—"Votes for women" was the battle cry of a delegation of 200 or more women who left here this morning on a special train for Albany, where they will try to persuade the legislature to act favorably on the equal suffrage amendment bill. The bill comes up before assembly judiciary committee tomorrow. MICHAUX HIT WITH A HAMMER. Individual at Witten Takes Bump at Colored Ranchman. Dallas News: Oscar Michaux, the well known colored ranchman of the Rosebud, now living on a homestead near Witten has caused the arrest of one H. R. Rainey, on the charge of an assault with a dangerous weapon. Rainey is alleged to have struck Michaux on the head with a clawhammer. According to the statement of Mr. Michaux and of several witnesses, the assault was entirely unprovoked and due entirely to a prejudice that this Rainey holds against colored people. Rainey was put under bonds of $500 to appear at the hearing of the case to be held before Justice Donohoe at Witten today. Mr. Michaux owns a half section of land in Gregory county, near the Old Dallas townsite, and during the past couple of years has been assisting some of his relatives to acquire land in Tripp county. In this section he holds the reputation for unusual industry and for attending strictly to his own business. He was never known to provoke trouble with any person. Bitten in Leg, Dies. Columbus, Neb., March 12.—Peter Zumbur, a gardener farmer living on Lovers' Lane, adjoining this city, was bitten by a dog and died within thirty minutes. Mr. Zumbur was hauling manure from a livery barn and got close to a vicious dog tied to a fifteen foot chain. The dog tore a large lump from the calf of his leg. Mr. Zumbur walked half a block to the front of the livery barn, where he dropped dead. An artery had been cut in the leg by the dog's bite. Ewing. Pat Coyne of O'Neill was an over-Sunday guest of his brother, Marshal Coyne of Ewing. James Stanton, whose 30th birthday occurs on March 28, was noticed Monday shoveling the heavy bed of snow from off his sidewalk. Mr. Stanton has the record of being the first to shovel the snow from the sidewalk despite his advanced age. Richard Droulow, wife, and children of Stanton, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner, 9 1/2 latter being a sister of Mrs. Droulow. Conditions being more favorable Monday, Rev. Father Rose and M. T. Sanders, the inventors gave their autoleigh another tryout. As on the first trial, the machine worked splendidly and glided over the snowy surface with much ease, and great satisfaction to its originators. J. N. Trommershauser of the Pioneer bank is off on a week's business trip to Dixon, Ill. A card party was held Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burk Wood in honor of Miss Follie McDermott of Iuman. Benjamin Otter, aged 23 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Otter, near Little, last week. The deceased was just recovering from an attack of inflammation of the stomach when an abscess formed which was the immediate cause of his death. The young man bore an exemplary character and was very highly spoken of by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Charles E. Utterback, from near Clearwater, is moving this week to the farm he recently purchased from Mrs. C. A. Newman, north of Ewing. C. E. Churchill and William Jones of Hartington Neb., were looking after their land interests here Saturday. John Berigan, jr., who has been at a hospital in Omaha the past two months, is not making the improvement that his friends would like, although his condition thus far is not considered dangerous. T. P. Smith, a piano tuner of Omaha, was playing his business in Ewing last week. He tuned up about twenty instruments. Mrs. M. A. Grady of O'Neill was visiting friends in Ewing last week. A. D. Bonham of Beaver City, who owns lands up near Page, was looking over it last Friday. Mrs. Katherine Stohl of Omaha is a guest of Miss Pearl French. Charles Chace of Stanton shipped in two cars of cattle Monday from Pierce and took them to his ranch southwest of town. Want a Town Moved. Winnipeg, March 12.—A special government committee ordered the whole town of Frank, Alberta, to be moved as a protection against rock and snowslides. It has 3,000 inhabitants. Nine years ago in a slide 84 lives were lost. For several days rock and snow has been tumbling down the side of Turtle mountain at whose base the town lies. Taft Back Home. Washington, March 12.—Tired, but apparently satisfied with the results of his three days' visit to Toledo and Chicago, President Taft got back to Washington last night. The next trip now arranged for the president begins next Sunday night and will take him to Boston and New Hampshire. COL. ROOSEVELT DISPLEASED. Mineola, L. I., March 12.—Theodore Roosevelt was drawn as juror No. 7 today in the damage suit of Michael Carmody against the New York Central railroad, but was quickly eliminated by John J. Graham, counsel for the plaintiff, who challenged the colonel peremptorily. Why he exercised this right the lawyer did not explain. Col. Roosevelt was plainly disconcerted when he stepped down from the box. "I am ready to do my duty," he said, "but I don't see why I should have to come here day after day if nobody wants me as a juror. I don't see what the boy (Carmody) has afraid of, for I certainly would have given him a square deal." Mr. Graham had approached the colonel so quietly that for a moment or two there were few that were aware he had been challenged. "Humanity Needs Him Elsewhere." "You are a busy man, colonel," the lawyer said, "and we will excuse you." Explaining later why he had challenged the colonel, the lawyer said: "He is a busy man and I think he would be conferring a greater boon to humanity by serving it in other ways than by sitting in this case for three or four days." Thirty Breeders Here. Thirty horse breeders, representing three states—Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota—attended the breeders' institute held in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday. The morning session was given over almost entirely to demonstrations, which took place at the Beebe barns on East Norfolk avenue. Chart work and exhibitions of instruments also took up a large part of the day's work. Dinner was taken in the Oxford hotel and the breeders settled down to actual work during the afternoon. G. L. Carlson had charge of the institute and the breeding of the horses by scientific methods was thoroughly discussed. 6,500 People Now Live Here. Norfolk has an estimated population within the city delivery limits of 6,500, as compared with 4,625 given by the federal census of 1910, says John R. Hays, the local postmaster, in his report to the postmaster general. The week's rest by four carriers of the city ended last Saturday night, but the report was assembled Tuesday. The report shows that the carriers each average 322 possible places of delivery each day. Eighty-five percent of the residences are supplied with mail receptacles and each carrier works an average of eight hours per day. Over nineteen pieces of mail per minute were handled in the local post office on Wednesday, March 6, says the postmaster's report. Four carriers, U. J. Boehnke, E. J. Phillip, substituting for George Meister, E. H. Truax and Charles Riche, took part in the test for the special report. A walking meter was used and an average of nineteen miles per day was made by each carrier. Each carrier handled about eighty-one pounds of mail daily, numbering approximately 675 pieces of mail each day. Each carrier made an average of 315 stops daily. The report shows that there are no auxiliary or temporary carriers employed in Norfolk. Burrell Enos Reed. Burrell Enos Reed was born on a farm near Stanton, Pa., on Dec. 21, 1841. At the age of 19 in 1861 he enlisted in the Fifth regiment from Pennsylvania and served until the close of the war. In 1866 he came to Vinton, Ia., and in 1870, Feb. 3, was married to Miss Minerva Ransdell. Twelve children were born to their union. In 1871 he came to Nebraska and took up a homestead six miles south of Norfolk, and in 1883 moved to their present home. In October 1911 he suffered a stroke of paralysis and on March 6 passed away. The funeral was held from the family home March 9, the sermon being preached by Rev. Mr. Melmaker of the Baptist church. Internment was in Prospect Hill cemetery, the pallbearers being old soldiers and old settlers—A. N. McGinnis, George Dudley, S. N. Parks, W. H. Widaman, Norman Barney, J. T. Funk. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, five sons, one daughter, one sister and one brother. The children are: Frank Reed, Raifden, Wyo.; Burt Reed, Reno, Nev.; Mrs. Ida Murphy, Elrod, S. D.; William Reed, Harrison Reed and Charles Reed of Norfolk. The brother, Steve N. Reed, Wiota, Ia., and the sister, Mrs. Mina Capwell of Scranton, Pa. Third Trial for Trussett. Independence, Kan., March 12.—Work of selecting a jury for the trial of A. A. Trussett, charged with the murder of J. D. S. Neeley, an oil promoter of Lima, O., was resumed here this morning with the prospect that twelve men would be obtained and the taking of evidence begin before the day was passed. Trussett shot Neeley in Caney, Kan., in January, 1911. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment but the supreme court granted him a new trial. The second jury disagreed. The defense has said a plea of temporary insanity will be made. Wounded in three Battles. Wisner, Neb., March 12.—Special to The News: Alton Parady, an old veteran of the civil war, living five miles west from here, died at 3:35 Sunday p. m. at the age of nearly 74 years. He leaves a widow and two sons—Frank and Bradley, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Crawford, all of whom reside near Pilger. Mr. Parady came to Nebraska in 1858 and settled on the farm where he died. Mr. Parady's first enlistment was April, 1861, in the Second Wisconsin infantry and the Second Wisconsin cavalry. He was mustered out in February, 1866. He served with the First Brigade, First Division First Corps, Army of Potomac. He was wounded at the battle of Bull Run, July 21, 1861; at Gettysburg, July 1, 1863. The funeral was held this afternoon under auspices of Fimmin Post, G. A. R., Wisner, of which he was a member. Internment was in the Pilger cemetery. An O'Neill Man Puts Hat in Ring. O'Neill, Neb., March 12.—Special to The News: J. A. Donohoe, an attorney of this place, filed yesterday as a candidate on the democratic ticket at the primaries for congressman from the Sixth congressional district. Donohoe has served one term as state senator. J. M. Hunter of Star, Neb., has filed for the office of state senator from this district. Mr. Hunter has been chairman of the Holt county board of supervisors and made one of the best chairmen the county has had for years. He filed on the republican ticket. M. P. Kinkaid will be Donohoe's opponent on the republican ticket. He will be renominated without opposition as his efforts in behalf of the district have been strongly endorsed and approved, as is shown by his election for several terms with increased majorities. Lively Time at a Caucus. Democratic caucus results: For councilman, First ward—H. W. Winter. For councilman, Second ward—C. H. Krahn. For councilman, Third ward—P. J. Stafford, sr. For councilman, Fourth ward—John C. Koegler. For members board of education—H. C. Matrau, F. W. Koerber. During the stamped to file votes in the First ward corner of the democratic caucus in the city hall last night the lie was passed between Councilman C. J. Verges and Constable John Flynn, who had to be held apart by fellow democrats lest they might come to blows. Verges charged Flynn with writing the name of a candidate on a ballot and handing it to a voter to cast. Flynn admitted the charge, but declared vehemently that it was not against the rules to do so. Verges insisted otherwise. Flynn called Verges a liar. Verges returned the compliment. The men rushed toward each other, but were stopped before any blow could be struck. They continued the argument while the voters counted a sixteen-vote majority in favor of H. W. Winter as democratic councilman candidate for the First ward. Kauffman had been the only opponent. The vote stood 47 for Winter and 31 for Kauffman. Winter was declared nominated. After the caucus was over Flynn and Verges met again on Norfolk avenue and Fourth street, when Verges attempted to further explain his side of the argument. Flynn still insisted he was on the right side and to prove it he missed again with a right jab, Frank Flynn, son of the constable, again interfered and acted as a peacemaker. A moment later, however, Flynn made his way back to where the councilman was loudly protesting that he was right and again a jab was missed. Patrolman O'Brien then interfered and threatened to arrest both men. Mayor Friday Starts Battle. The First ward had the attention of every democrat in the city hall the moment the doors were thrown open. Both candidates were busy among their friends and it was evident that a "split" existed. Art J. Koenigstein was elected chairman and Thomas Hull secretary. Immediately after it was announced that

had insufficient knowledge of tactics and that state organizations were not up to the standard which should be sought by the federal government. Nine million dollars, the estimated cost for a paid militia under the Hay bill, could be expended much more economically in the maintenance of five cavalry regiments and a reserve of 50,000 of the regular army, in the opinion of Secretary Stimson. Smith to File at Neligh. Neligh, Neb., March 12.—Special to The News: It has been officially announced that J. B. Smith of this city will file for county attorney on the democratic ticket. Since the time that Mr. Smith has resided in Neligh he has affiliated with republicans and was a candidate before the primary election last year for county judge, but was defeated by J. Q. Ingram. Freight Conductor Killed. Rochester, N. Y., March 12.—In a rear-end collision between two freight trains on the New York Central, two miles north of Macedon, early today, the conductor of one of the freight trains was killed in his caboose. Want a Town Moved. Winnipeg, March 12.—A special government committee ordered the whole town of Frank, Alberta, to be moved as a protection against rock and snowslides. It has 3,000 inhabitants. Nine years ago in a slide 84 lives were lost. For several days rock and snow has been tumbling down the side of Turtle mountain at whose base the town lies. Taft Back Home. Washington, March 12.—Tired, but apparently satisfied with the results of his three days' visit to Toledo and Chicago, President Taft got back to Washington last night. The next trip now arranged for the president begins next Sunday night and will take him to Boston and New Hampshire. COL. ROOSEVELT DISPLEASED. Mineola, L. I., March 12.—Theodore Roosevelt was drawn as juror No. 7 today in the damage suit of Michael Carmody against the New York Central railroad, but was quickly eliminated by John J. Graham, counsel for the plaintiff, who challenged the colonel peremptorily. Why he exercised this right the lawyer did not explain. Col. Roosevelt was plainly disconcerted when he stepped down from the box. "I am ready to do my duty," he said, "but I don't see why I should have to come here day after day if nobody wants me as a juror. I don't see what the boy (Carmody) has afraid of, for I certainly would have given him a square deal." Mr. Graham had approached the colonel so quietly that for a moment or two there were few that were aware he had been challenged. "Humanity Needs Him Elsewhere." "You are a busy man, colonel," the lawyer said, "and we will excuse you." Explaining later why he had challenged the colonel, the lawyer said: "He is a busy man and I think he would be conferring a greater boon to humanity by serving it in other ways than by sitting in this case for three or four days." Thirty Breeders Here. Thirty horse breeders, representing three states—Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota—attended the breeders' institute held in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday. The morning session was given over almost entirely to demonstrations, which took place at the Beebe barns on East Norfolk avenue. Chart work and exhibitions of instruments also took up a large part of the day's work. Dinner was taken in the Oxford hotel and the breeders settled down to actual work during the afternoon. G. L. Carlson had charge of the institute and the breeding of the horses by scientific methods was thoroughly discussed. 6,500 People Now Live Here. Norfolk has an estimated population within the city delivery limits of 6,500, as compared with 4,625 given by the federal census of 1910, says John R. Hays, the local postmaster, in his report to the postmaster general. The week's rest by four carriers of the city ended last Saturday night, but the report was assembled Tuesday. The report shows that the carriers each average 322 possible places of delivery each day. Eighty-five percent of the residences are supplied with mail receptacles and each carrier works an average of eight hours per day. Over nineteen pieces of mail per minute were handled in the local post office on Wednesday, March 6, says the postmaster's report. Four carriers, U. J. Boehnke, E. J. Phillip, substituting for George Meister, E. H. Truax and Charles Riche, took part in the test for the special report. A walking meter was used and an average of nineteen miles per day was made by each carrier. Each carrier handled about eighty-one pounds of mail daily, numbering approximately 675 pieces of mail each day. Each carrier made an average of 315 stops daily. The report shows that there are no auxiliary or temporary carriers employed in Norfolk. Burrell Enos Reed. Burrell Enos Reed was born on a farm near Stanton, Pa., on Dec. 21, 1841. At the age of 19 in 1861 he enlisted in the Fifth regiment from Pennsylvania and served until the close of the war. In 1866 he came to Vinton, Ia., and in 1870, Feb. 3, was married to Miss Minerva Ransdell. Twelve children were born to their union. In 1871 he came to Nebraska and took up a homestead six miles south of Norfolk, and in 1883 moved
