GAINS STATE HONORS.

Clyde Hayes Wins First Prize at the Nebraska High School Declamatory Union Contest.

From Saturday's Daily: The seventh annual contest of the Nebraska high schools' declamatory union was held at Gehling's opera house, Falls City, last evening.

There were ten contestants, three in the oratorical class, four in the dramatic and three in the humorous.

Norfolk was especially interested as one of its boys was a contestant.

At 8:40 o'clock this morning Ray Hayes received a telegram which read: "Culver, Esmay and myself won out. CLYDE."

It is remembered that this is the trio which secured the prizes before the Northeastern Nebraska Teacher's association contest held in this city in April. The medals before the State Declamatory Union last evening at Falls City were thus awarded:

Dramatic—first, Harry Esmay, Fremont, whose declamation was entitled "Swore Off," second, Miss Minnie Reed, Falls City, "The Honor of the Woods," Oratorical—first, Eugene Culver, Albion, "Toussaint L'Overture," second, George Schedler, York, "Universal Liberty."

Humorous—first, Clyde Hayes, Norfolk, "A Yankee in Love," second, Miss Ina Gittings, Superior, "A Naughty Little Girl's Views of Life."

Clyde Hayes has won the first prize in three successive contests, the local, the district and the state. Not only his school mates but the people of Norfolk generally have a right to be proud of the meritorious honors that he has won.

He returns this evening and it is understood that he will be met with a royal welcome and the high school yell at the depot.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Commander to remove from our ranks to the Grand Encampment beyond the river our comrade John M. Bondurant.

Therefore be it resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who will one day release us his comrades from the toils and disappointments of our earthly campaign by the same orders which were patiently obeyed by our deceased comrade.

Resolved that we will ever cherish the memory of Comrade Bondurant, and while we shall miss his presence in our Post meetings, we will remember his sacrifices which he freely made in his youth for the preservation of this great republic of ours.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased comrade, and that the same be given to the local papers for publication.

AN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN

The City Council Grant Vlazney a Liquor License.

REMONSTRANTS OFFER OBJECTIONS

C. S. Hayes Summoned as a Witness. This Does Not Vote—Balance of the City Fathers Unanimous on Final Vote—Case Will Now go to the District Court at an Early Date.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening the city council again convened for the further consideration of the Vlazney case which has held the boards for the greater part of the time during the past two weeks. Public interest in the matter has evidently waned, there being fewer spectators present than during any previous session since it was up for discussion.

Although the meeting was called for 7:30 o'clock it was after 8 o'clock before Mayor Simpson rapped for "the gentlemen to come to order."

City Clerk Stitt's roll call showed present, Councilmen Brummond, Bucholz, Bullock, Degner, Dexter, Uhle and Vile.

Prior to the taking up of the special work for which they had assembled, the council passed upon two labor bills and ordered them paid. One was for $8.50 by Ernest Marshall, the other for $7.50 by David Signor.

It was moved by Alderman Brummond that $150 be allowed on the bill of J. H. Shaw, the well contractor. This amount is just half of what is due him to date. Alderman Dexter objecting, the payment was deferred and its consideration laid over until the next regular meeting.

The bill of the Crane & Churchill Co. for pipe sold the city met the same fate and was not passed on.

The consideration of the Vlazney case was then continued.

C. S. Hayes was sworn and testified that he had been a resident of Norfolk for the past 18 years and was acquainted with Joseph Vlazney and knew his place of business.

Attorney Whitam asked if he could tell whether there were screens at the door of Vlazney's saloon.

J. B. Barnes, attorney for Vlazney, objected to the admission of such evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and not the proper way to try a case.

The evidence of the records of a competent court of jurisdiction showing the conviction of the party on the charges alleged, was admissible.

It was moved by Bullock and seconded by Vile that the objection be overruled.

On roll call Brummond, Bucholz, Degner and Dexter voted no, Bullock and Vile, yes. Motion was lost.

Dexter moved that objection be sustained; seconded by Brummond, Brummond, Bucholz, Degner and Dexter voted aye, Bullock and Vile no. Objection was sustained.

The remonstrants filed an exception to the ruling, stating that they offered to prove by witness that during the last year Vlazney had violated the provisions of chapter 50, Nebraska state laws, obstructing his doors and windows by screens, blinds and other articles.

This was objected to by Judge Barnes on the same grounds of his former objection.

The objection was sustained by council by a vote of four to two.

The witness, Mr. Hayes, testified further that he had been in Mr. Vlazney's saloon but had never seen him sell liquor to minors.

It was agreed by counsel representing both parties that Vlazney was found guilty in the city police court, of selling liquor to William Kirley, a minor, on or about March 1, that an appeal was taken to the district court which is still undetermined.

The remonstrants offered in evidence ordinance No. 137 and also ordinance No. 236 to which no objection was raised.

August Brummond then gave additional testimony as to the signature on Vlazney's petition of the name "Aug. Brummond" stating that it was signed by him for his wife Augusta, who signed her name that way.

The remonstrants by Attorney Whitam then filed an objection to the granting of a license to Joseph Vlazney for the reason that the ordinance that was in force at the time of application and remonstrants—ordinance No. 137—relating to sale of liquors has been repealed since that time, and for the further reason that there is no ordinance of the city of Norfolk now in force providing for the sale of liquors in Norfolk.

Objection was further made to Oscar Uhle and August Brummond sitting on council during the consideration of the case and voting upon final question of granting license for the reason that they have prejudged the case and signed the application of Vlazney to sell liquors and are petitioners therefor.

It was moved by Brummond and seconded by Bucholz that the objection be overruled and license be granted.

On roll call Brummond, Bucholz, Bullock, Degner, Dexter and Vile responded aye, Uhle not voting.

The remonstrants gave notice to the mayor and council that at the earliest practical moment, the case would be appealed by them to the district court.

On motion the council adjourned.

H. B. Hobbs of Madison spent the day in the city.

Miss Cora Wigton is visiting friends at Madison.

Dr. Frank Salter was called to Hopkins this morning.

Judge Hayes returned from Omaha on the noon train.

F. A. Dearborn of Wayne was a Sugar City visitor today.

Rev. F. P. Wigton will, at the request of the people there, again supply the Presbyterian pulpit at Osmond next Sunday.

Hon. S. A. Ramsey, a prominent attorney of Woonsocket, S. D., was in the city yesterday. He was on his way to the Black Hills.

Certificates of indebtedness up to No. 544 outstanding against the city of Norfolk can be redeemed by parties holding them with cash warrants upon presentation to the city clerk.

"Blind Boone," the celebrated blind negro pianist, is starring in Nebraska with a company of musicians. His playing is most remarkable and attracts applause and favor wherever he is heard. The music lovers of Norfolk will be pleased to know that the Baptist church people have secured him for one evening here. The date named is June 22nd.

In the absence of Judge Hayes from the city Justice Chester A. Fuller presides over the destinies of the police court and renders justice. Yesterday a disorderly who gave the familiar name of John Doe was fined $2 and costs and allowed to pass out among life's usual scenes once more. Herman Kidentz, another disorderly, was arrested last night and is awaiting trial.

The committee on streets and alleys—Messrs. Degner, Dexter and Uhle—together with Street Commissioner Spaulding and City Engineer W. H. Lowe, were on a tour of inspection about the city yesterday. The grading of Tenth street from Elm avenue to Koenigstein avenue, thence east to Seventh street is contemplated. The improvements will begin at once. They will be made for the purpose of diverting the water flow. The surveys will be made by the city engineer tomorrow.

Dun Craven, senior member of the firm of Craven & McCoy, proprietors of the Norfolk steam laundry, left for Fairbury today to bring back his family and expects to return the last of the week. Under the management of the new firm the Norfolk steam laundry is undergoing much needed repairs and improvements. New and the latest improved machinery has been purchased, which increases the facilities for doing work quicker and better than heretofore. The firm expects to branch out and secure an increased patronage from out of town, and in order to do this will put a man on the road.

The heavy wind that prevailed last evening and the black clouds that hung so low and threatening in the northeast were indications of a severe storm. The clouds were watched with much solicitude for some time but a sudden change in the wind to the north and the rapid falling of the thermometer relieved the minds of Norfolk people of any further tension in that direction. But other communities were not so fortunate. Mail Clerk Roe says that when the evening train came through Emerson it was raining heavily and a severe hail storm followed. During the night a cloud burst brought further disaster to that section of country and caused numerous washouts. The one nearest here is between Wayne and Wakefield where over two miles of track are washed out. Further damage is reported between Emerson and Sioux City and Sioux City and Omaha. No trains have run over the M. & O. since last night and there is no promise of any until tomorrow. The Omaha Bee came in over the Elkhorn this noon and this evening's train will probably bring the belated and transferred morning mail. Reports concerning the extent and damage of the storm are still meagre but it was undoubtedly cyclonic and swept over a large area of country. The wires were down along the M. & O. this morning. At Emerson half the window lights of the town were smashed in and broken but no loss of life is thus far reported.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.
