

The Norfolk News

The Louisiana sugar crop is suffering from drouth. The Nebraska sugar crop isn't.

The harmony that is prevailing among the fusionists of this state is simply painful.

The executive council of Hawaii will put into effect in July a rule limiting the number of Japanese on the plantations so that they will not exceed any other nationality.

Nebraska patriots at home can be depended upon to stand by Nebraska heroes in the field. At the earliest opportunity they will elect a governor who does not misrepresent them.

Admiral Shibley has added new laurels to his crown of fame by capturing the entire west without firing a gun. Everywhere he is greeted by enthusiastic crowds eager to do him honor.

Edgar Howard in the Papillion Times charges Governor Poynter with a lack of backbone. This is the more significant since Judge Howard has always been a strong friend of the governor's. There is trouble ahead in the fusion ranks.

Mr. Bryan hasn't as much to say about expansion as he had a few months ago but is now whacking away at trusts. A man who is constantly chasing up new issues and abandoning old ones, is hardly of the right calibre for the people of the United States to trust as their chief executive.

The post office department has been overwhelmed with applications from all parts of the country to have their post offices named "Dewey." Already twenty-eight different post offices in as many states have been given the name of the hero of Manila Bay and over 300 applications are on file. The United States will surely be very Dewey.

There has been a general impression that the Indian was passing away and that not many years would elapse before the "noble red man" would be known no more in America. While it is true that many tribes show no increase of births over deaths and some tribes have become extinct, it is quite certain that the census will prove that as a race the Indians are increasing and not diminishing.

The men of business, the professional men and the men whose means will not permit of their hiring a team and making a tour of the county are to be pitted. It is perhaps true that the newspaper man takes the most comfort and best appreciates what he sees and hears. The man of wealth measures up the farmer by the cash value of his surroundings and estimates everything he sees from the standpoint of a dollar. The newspaper man sees a finely improved farm; good house; good barn; shelter for the farmer's stock; a bunch of cattle and another bunch of hogs; chickens around the barnyard; a fine orchard; a well kept garden and other things which are always visible on the well regulated farm and he estimates their value from the standpoint of comfort, contentment and happiness. The newspaper man realizes that only the contented farmer plants trees and establishes orchards for future use. He believes that the discontented man does not ornament his front yard with rose bushes, lilacs, snowball bushes and other flowering shrubs. It is the contented man who took a Nebraska farm for the purpose of making himself and family a home and it is the contented man with a contented family who strives to make that home as pleasant as possible.—Hastings Record.

What is believed to be the greatest crime against justice in modern civilization seems in a fair way to be righted. The court of cassation of France, which is equivalent to our supreme court, has at last granted Captain Dreyfus a new trial. The world applauds this verdict, as the published accounts of the trial of Dreyfus leave no doubt in the minds of people who love justice and fair play, that he was made the victim of a horrible plot to shield the guilty. A captain in the army, arrested on the charge that he had sold secret information to enemies of his country, he was court-martialed and found guilty of treason, without being given a chance to defend himself, and was kept in ignorance of the charge against him until the day of his trial, which was conducted behind closed doors in utmost secrecy. During the four years since that time he has been in exile, a guarded prisoner upon the Ile du Diabie, an arid island off the coast of French Guiana in South America. The friends of Dreyfus have never believed that he was guilty, and for four years they have been trying to have the case reopened. The affair which on the face of it is a disgrace to army methods in France, has stirred up intense feeling in that country and has excited the keen interest of the civilized world. Every possible technicality has been taken advantage of in France to prevent the case from being reopened, but finally the court of cassation yielded to public sentiment and admitted that there was evidence which warranted the granting of a new trial.

NORFOLK MARRIAGES.

Asa K. Leonard and Miss Ada Gerecke This Morning.

THE O'KEEFE-CAREY WEDDING.

Dr. Fred W. Kiesau is Over in Iowa After the Girl of His Choice—J. W. Rose, formerly of this Place, Succumbs Before the Bright Eyes of an Indiana Young Lady.

At the handsome home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerecke, at 9:30 this morning, a very quiet wedding took place, Rev. Van Fleet performing the ceremony which joined Mr. Asa K. Leonard and Miss Ada Gerecke together as man and wife. The house had been beautifully decorated in white for the occasion, and the ceremony used the impressive service of the Episcopal church. Only the relatives of the family and immediate neighbors and friends were present, who, after extending congratulations, were served with a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

At 11 o'clock the happy couple entered a carriage and started upon their wedding trip, showered with rice and good wishes, and accompanied by numerous old shoes which had been tied to the wheels and other convenient places about the vehicle. The wedding journey consisted of a drive of 15 miles to Ole Lowe's lake, where they will camp, fish and hunt during the next week or ten days. The camp had already been established with a colored man in charge, who will look after the wants of the couple during their outing. When they return they will board with Mrs. Desmond a few weeks, and will go to housekeeping in their new home on Madison avenue as soon as it is completed, which will be about July 1.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in Norfolk. Mr. Leonard has been a resident of the city about 12 years, during which time he has built up a large drug business, has erected one of the finest brick blocks in the city, and has forged his way to the front until he is now one of the most prominent business men of town. Miss Gerecke claims Norfolk as her birthplace, where she has lived and grown to womanhood. She is an attractive young lady of bright attainments and genial disposition, who will preside over Mr. Leonard's new home with dignity. The News joins many other friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity through life.

O'Keefe-Carey.

In St. Mary's church at 7:30 this morning Mr. Ed. O'Keefe and Miss Kate Carey were united in marriage, Rev. Father Walsh officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. At its close the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ann Carey, where a delicious breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe left over the Union Pacific at 10:40 for Denver, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. O'Keefe was formerly express messenger on the U. P. between here and Columbus, and during that time he made many friends in this city. The bride has lived here about five years and is a popular young lady among a large circle of acquaintances. Mr. O'Keefe now has a run on the main line between Council Bluffs and Ogden, and they will make their home at the former place.

Kiesau-Deppé.

Dr. F. W. Kiesau will be married this evening at Baxter, Jasper county, Iowa, the name of the bride being Miss Emma Deppé. Miss Deppé was bridesmaid at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Kiesau. The newly wedded couple will go to Chicago and other cities, and be absent four weeks. When they return they will occupy Dr. Wm. Kiesau's new house on the Heights.

The Marriage of a Former Norfolkian.

The Martinsville, Ind., Daily Reporter of last Thursday contains an account of the wedding of J. W. Rose and Miss Mable Sherley, which is published in full because of Mr. Rose's wide acquaintanceship in this community, where he lived for many years, and where he still has many friends who will wish him and his bride an abundance of health and prosperity through life. Following is the story of the wedding as presented by the Reporter: "A marriage that unites two of the oldest and most prominent families in the city took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sherley, 477 N. Jefferson street, on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Mabel Conduitt, was wedded to Mr. Jacob Walter Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Rose.

"The coming of the bridal party was announced by ever sweet strains of Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Edward Kriner, sister of the bride. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Wilber E. Rose. Miss Bernice Sherley, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, preceded the bride who entered with her father, Rev. George H. Murphy, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated, and with the ring ceremony beautiful and impressive, the fortunes of the young couple were united 'till death do part.' The bride, whose wedding gown of white silk was veiled in French embroidered gauze, carried an arm bouquet of the white sweet pea and asparagus fern. The maid of honor wore a sheer white organdie, with shirred white satin ruchings trimmings, pink liberty silk sash, and carried pink bridesmaid roses. Immediately after the ceremony, the serving of luncheon in the dining room began. The color scheme of a pink and white wedding was carried out from the carnation favors to the Neapolitan cream, cakes, bonbons, followed by the bride's cake and coffee. After the luncheon, the guests met the bridal party in the parlors to exchange happy greetings as they said good-night. At a late hour, Mr. and Mrs. Rose were driven to Rose Place, home of the groom's parents, where the Rose family are today holding a happy reunion.

"The Sherley home was beautifully decorated for the wedding under the supervision of the visiting young friends of the bride, Misses Bollinger, Wingate, Sherley, Mesdames E. D. Bailey and Carrie Barrett. The reception hall and front parlor were fragrant with rose peonies massed with palms and ferns, while garlands of smilax were gracefully suspended from the windows and over the mirrors. From the grille in the doors connecting the parlors hung ropes of myrtle. In the back parlor, where Misses Margaret Neeley, Leafy Branch, Jeanette Brenton and Daisy Grubbs served at the punch bowl, were marguerites, peonies and pink roses with ferns, feather foliage, palms and begonias to bank the mantel. The dining room was decorated with ropes of myrtle, feather ferns, marguerites and brides roses.

"Mr. and Mrs. Rose will leave on Friday for Chino, California, to remain for several months, where Mr. Rose will combine with the wedding trip a season of business with the American Beet Sugar Co., with which he was pleasantly connected for five years at Norfolk, Nebraska. The high esteem in which the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rose both in and out of the city, regard them, was manifested in the large number of rich and costly gifts, telegrams and letters that were liberally showered upon them. The tribute is a fitting one to the sterling business qualities and the personal attractions of the groom, and to the fair young bride whose sunny disposition has so brightened the home, the church and social circles, that her departure even for so brief a time is deeply regretted.

"Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. John Boyd and son, Allen, Mrs. Mary Wilt, Miss Marie Wilt, Miss Jessie Berg, Indianapolis; Miss Bertha Bollinger, St. Paul, Minnesota; Miss Mary Sherley, Louisville, Kentucky; Miss Eva Wingate, Shelbyville; Mrs. Allison Breedlove, Monrovia; Mrs. Iro Conduitt, Miss Jessie Conduitt, Mooresville; Messrs. Mark and Daniel Welty, Brooklyn; Mrs. C. D. Rose, son and daughters, Mrs. J. L. Green, University Place, Nebraska; Miss Harriet Redmond, Logansport; Mr. Ralph Parker, Indianapolis; Miss Louise Taylor, Miss Mary Powers, Muncie."

City Council Proceedings.

Regular meeting of the council held June 1, 1899.

Present, Councilmen Brummond, Bucholz, Dexter, Degner, Uhle, Heckman and Ballock. Absent, Viele.

Too Many Tramps.

From Monday's Daily: A gang of tramps struck the town Saturday, and immediately thereafter the police force of the city had something to do. About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon Chief of Police Spaulding met three of them, and although they attempted to scatter he succeeded in rolling two into the cooler. They were placed in the corridor of the jail, and while the policeman was out looking after the third they undertook to dig a hole through the brick wall of the jail. He returned in time to head that off, but not before they had removed one course of brick. The tramps were then locked up in the cages, but during the night they succeeded in sawing the lock and walking out. Late in the evening Marshal Kane discovered that there were about 20 more tramps in Edgewater Park indulging in a beer picnic. The gang was too big to be tackled single handed, so he waited for that which he knew would follow. When the liquid began to run low two of the gang were sent over to town for more beer. These were nabbed and locked up. Soon two more were sent over to see what had become of the first two. They were also locked up. Then two more came and met the same fate. Thus they continued to come until 11 had walked into the marshal's trap. They were kept in jail until this morning when they were escorted to the city limits and admonished to depart for other fields.

Dances are being arranged in the Philippines for the insurgents. It remains to be seen whether those provided by the peace commission will prove any more effectual than the dance Gen. Otis has been leading them.

During the last six months of 1898 there was issued in postal money orders $10,526,400, in excess of the amount issued in the same period a year before. This is only another of the many evidences of an indisputable prosperity.

Drink Grain-O after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthy, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about 1/4 as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25 cents.

Cheap Rates South. On the first and third Tuesdays of each month, up to and including October, the Southern Railway offers to homeseekers and settlers the advantages of cheap one way and round trip tickets to practically all points in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Florida.

Homeseekers' tickets will be sold at the rate of one fare plus $2 for the round trip, tickets good 21 days from date of sale in which to return.

The southeastern territory offers to the prospector and settler more advantages than any other part of the United States, and the Southern Railway has arranged for the sale of tickets on the dates mentioned above at low enough rates to enable any one to go South and investigate the opportunities offered in that territory.

Beautiful Women

There are few women as beautiful as they might be. Powder and paint and cosmetics don't make good looks. Beauty is simply an impossibility without health. Beautiful women are few because healthy women are few. The way to have a fair face and a well-rounded figure is to take

Bradfield's Female Regulator

This is that old and time-tried medicine that cures all female troubles and weaknesses and drains. It makes no difference what the doctors call the trouble, if there is anything the matter in the distinctly feminine organs, Bradfield's Female Regulator will help and cure it. It is good for irregular or painful menstruation; for leucorrhoea, for falling of the womb, for nervousness, headache, backache and dizziness. Take it and get well. Then your old-time girlish features and figure will be restored.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. ATLANTA, GA.

Attention Farmers. Do you desire to secure hundreds of sample copies of agricultural journals, magazines, newspapers, books, catalogues and circulars of the latest improved farm implements and machinery, and be kept posted on improved seeds and stock, for two years or more? If so, send us your name with ten cents in silver and we will insert the same in the American Farmers' Directory, which goes circulating all over the United States to publishers, merchants and manufacturers. You will get more good reading matter than you could purchase, for many times the small cost of ten cents. We want every farmer's name in the United States in our directory at once.
