HOW THEY CELEBRATED

Norfolk People Observe the Natal Day.

TOWN WAS ALMOST DESERTED.

Many People Went to Surrounding Towns While Others Enjoyed Picnic and Fishing Parties or Family Dinners—Great Day at Madison and Stanton.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Fourth passed off very quietly in Norfolk, the city, with the exception of Pasewalk park, being apparently almost deserted. Those who didn't celebrate with neighboring towns, either joined picnic parties or held family dinners.

At the park the firemen had erected a large and substantial bowery, with an excellent floor and this was filled afternoon and evening by a merry crowd of those who enjoy the dance, while hundreds of people who didn't or couldn't dance watched the spectacle from outside.

In the evening the grounds were beautifully illuminated with head lights and Japanese lanterns. The music rendered was fine and the shooting off of a large assortment of fireworks was viewed by many who attended especially for that part of the program.

It is understood that the fireboys cleared in the neighborhood of $100 as a result of the dance.

At Madison.

The largest delegation that left Norfolk to attend a celebration was undoubtedly that which went to Madison.
About 150 went down on the train, while perhaps twice that number drove down. There was a big crowd and the celebration was a good one. The parade and speaking in the morning were fine, while the afternoon sports were very interesting and warmly contested. One of the very best features of the day was the music rendered by the Newman Grove military band, everybody speaking in warmest terms of its splendid music.

Three bowery dances were run all day and evening, besides baby and cane racks and other side attractions.

In the evening an excellent naval display of fireworks was made on the mill pond, taking the form of the sham battle.
The contest was very realistic and thrilling.

The usually commendatory manner in which the U. P. trains run on time was the cause of a good many getting left last evening, as many remained too long at the fireworks display and were compelled to either remain all night at the county seat or drive home.

Madison's guests were well pleased with their treatment and the enterprising and patriotic citizens of that city were undoubtedly well repaid for their expense and trouble, by a good day of trade and advertising.

Several fights occurred during the day, one of them resulting in a participant having a portion of his ear chewed off.

Among the Norfolk delegation to Madison were: W. M. Olmsted and family, W. H. Law, Mrs. Pilger and daughter Bertha, Mrs. A. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Slawter, Mr. and Mrs. H.
C. Truman, Misses Frances Sharpless, Nellie Schwenck, Lottie Sidler, Maude Dingman, Anna Killen, Wilde, Miller, Loescher, Benning, Zuelow, Mueller, Harvey, Lyndell, and Messrs. Frank Davis, Harry Hull, Eugene Austin, Ira Austin, George Killen, Perry Truelock and Tom McNeal.

Stanton Celebrates.

A good delegation of Norfolk people also went to Stanton and enjoyed a very pleasant day with the people of the sister city on the east.

The parade, speaking, music and other exercises in the morning were very pleasing while the afternoon was given over to sports of various kinds and the evening to the fireworks, of which there was a fine display.

The ball game between the Stanton team and the one from Wisner was very interesting, the home team winning by a score of 4 to 3. In the bicycle race Arthur Ahlman took first prize and Ira L. Hungerford second.

Among those who went to Stanton were Dr. C. S. Parker, Misses Elizabeth Davenport, Ada Butterfield, Frances Johnson, Nellie Seymour, Hattie Sem-miller, Anna Lobnow, Effie Ball, Ada Ogden, Messrs. J. B. Barnes, jr., Russell Thompson, Paul Karo, Ira L. Hungerford, Arthur Ahlman, Storrs Matthewson, Fred Lobnow, Frank Masters and Chris Anderson.

Fishing Party.

One of the most enjoyable occasions was the fishing party which picnicked beside the Northfork near the old college building. The time passed most pleasantly to all, with amusements of a character customary to the time and place.

Those who composed the party were:
Rev. J. J. Parker and family, Dr. H. J.
Cole and family, Geo. L. Hes and family, Burt Mapes and family, A. J. and C. E. Durland and families, the Misses Durland, Mrs. Rutenber, J. B. Maylord, Dr. Salter and Sol G. Mayer.

Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Day were among those who fished and picnicked yesterday.

Members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. enjoyed a picnic at the home of Comrade J. W. Bovee, northwest of the city yesterday.

It is said that in spite of all the fishing parties held yesterday no one is reported to have caught even so much as a bull head.

M. C. Walker and family, Sidney Robertson and Miss Anna Seymour composed a fishing party that went to Bohee's lake and enjoyed a picnic.

The B. B. lodge of young folks of South Norfolk held a basket picnic at Taft's grove. The Sunday school of the Second Congregational church participated as invited guests.

A neighborhood picnic was held at Taft's grove and the Fourth duly observed by the families of W. H. Butterfield, Rev. S. F. Sharpless, O. J. Johnson and Dr. H. T. Holden.

W. H. Bridge, C. S. Bridge, Judge Powers and Robt. Utter and families enjoyed a picnic party in Edgewater park yesterday. It was as enjoyable as all such events are when no calamity is met with.

A team of Norfolk boys went to Columbus to play ball with a home team yesterday. They were beaten by a score of 15 to 8, but think they did remarkably well considering the fact that they had men, and professionals at that, to deal with. Ed Stephens and Carl Davenport were Norfolk's battery.

COST OF BRICK WALKS.

Mayor Simpson Has Been Investigating.
Brick Walks Cheaper Than Board in the End.

In view of the fact that many walks throughout the city will have to be rebuilt during this and summers following Mayor Simpson has interested himself in looking up the cost of brick walks, it being a well known fact that they will outwear board walks by many years and in fact, with a few repairs from year to year are almost a permanent thing, especially in the residence portion of the city. He finds that the cost for putting in brick walks is but little more than that of board walks. He hopes to see many walks of a permanent character laid during the coming summer.

The following is a result of his investigations:
A. Karo laid 276 feet of brick walk at a cost of $90.

W. H. Bucholz has 150 feet of walk made of vitrified brick which cost him $60.

Col. S. S. Cotton has built 80 feet of brick walk at a cost of $20.

Dr. H. J. Cole has 90 feet of brick walk in front of his residence which cost him $30.

It will be seen that these figures are not much in excess of the cost of laying board walks and it undoubtedly would be the part of economy for property owners to hereafter lay brick rather than board walks.

ENDEAVORERS TROOP IN.

Delegates to the Detroit Convention Arriving by the Thousands.

DETROIT, July 5.—More than 1,000 Christian Endeavor delegates have arrived in Detroit, the forerunners of thousands of other Endeavorers now en route to the international convention, which opens tonight. At the grounds the final decorations are being put in.
The red and white and C. E. monograms are everywhere in evidence as welcome adornments of down town business houses.

The annual business meeting of the United Society of Christian Endeavor and the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the United society will be held today. The first convention gathering will assemble in Tent Endeavor.

Belgian Troubles Continue.

ANTWERP, July 5.—At a meeting of the provincial council yesterday a councillor belonging to the left proposed a resolution in favor of the rejection of the new electoral bill. A rightist councillor protested that the resolution was a censure of the government. The remark was the signal for an uproarous outburst in the public galleries, where there were shouts of, "Down with the government," "Down with the thieves," "Down with the priests," and the "Marsillates" was also sung.

ARBITRATION IS OPTIONAL.

German Delegate Insists on Leaving Option in Hands of Powers Concerned.

THE HAGUE, July 5.—At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the arbitration committee the question of whether arbitration should be obligatory or optional was raised and drew a categorical declaration from the German delegate to the effect that he had received formal instructions not to accept the principal of obligatory arbitration otherwise than by special conventions.

In view of this statement article 20 of the Russian proposal was struck out and replaced by a provision declaring that arbitration would be optional, except in case of conventions between the powers. All the delegates adhered to this. M. Bourgeois, head of the French delegation, declared he accepted it only as a compromise.

WAR ON RUSTLERS.

Leaders of an Organized Band Arrested at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, Neb., July 5.—The capture here by the sheriff of this county of J.
R. Crittenden and John Davis, alleged cattle rustlers, is believed to be the beginning of a general war upon the bands of stock thieves which infest this district. The men were arrested at the instance of the Western Nebraska Stock Growers' association, and it is claimed they are at the head of an organized band of thieves operating in this part of Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming.
The charge upon which they will be tried is that of stealing horses. Sheriff Sweeney, who has had them under surveillance for some time, says this is only one of a number of deprecations committed by the Crittenden and Davis gang.

Pullman Road Race.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The fourth annual Pullman road race was run in a drizzling rain over wretched roads, which, with other unfavorable conditions, precluded the smashing of any records.
Frank A. Davis carried off the time prize, making the 14 miles in 40 minutes 47 1-5 seconds. S. Y. Bender, handicapped by 2 minutes 45 seconds, was the first man in, making the distance in 41 minutes 38 seconds.
