

Come in and See LEONARD The Druggist, and inspect the Latest Line of Medicines Put on the Market.

Newton's Female Regulator and Tonic, Nature's Great Emmenagogue. Every lady suffering with Female Troubles should try a bottle.

Newton's Sarsaparilla and Celery Compound is one of the finest Blood, Kidney and Liver Preparations on the market.

Hu-Con Hair Tonic! If your Hair is falling out or you have Dandruff or any kind of Scalp Disease, be sure and try HU-CAN, strictly guaranteed.

Leibig's Beef, Iron and Wine is too well known for a Tonic. Each fluid ounce contains the strength of two ounces of fresh, lean beef.

Irene's Cottonroot, Tansy and Pennyroyal Pills, Safe and Sure. We can save you 50 per cent. on Prescriptions.

LEONARD THE DRUGGIST NORFOLK, NEBRASKA. Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

H. C. TRUMAN, WALL PAPER! From 10c a Double Roll up. Window Shades Room Mouldings Paints Oils Glass Brushes, Etc., Etc.

TREES AND PLANTS! A full line of Best Varieties at Hard Times Prices. Small fruit in large supply.

The Gentlewoman OF NEW YORK CITY, Wants an agent in your town. It gives premiums of Cameras, Bicycles, Sewing Machines, Desks, Sets of Dishes, Kings, Watches, Shot and Silk Wares, Handkerchiefs, etc.

MONDAY MENTION. W. D. Mixer was in the city yesterday from Osmond. Atty Fred Free was a passenger to Madison today. Harry Torpin of Oakdale was a city visitor yesterday.

Miss Lena Siegler is spending this week with Stanton friends. F. H. Arts and wife of Petersburg were city visitors Saturday. Dr. Frank Salter made a professional visit to Winside this morning.

Chas. Cunningham was in the city Saturday on his way home to Tilden from the reunion. Mrs. W. J. Gow and children are visiting Mrs. Gow's sister, Mrs. S. B. Reed of Monroe, Nebr.

Watts C. Valentine of West Point will sail for Manila on the 22nd to take a first lieutenantcy in the army. Miss Knebel returned to her home in Winside today after a visit of a few days at the home of Geo. B. Christoph.

Miss Anna Lohnov departed yesterday noon for Fremont to accept a position in the telephone central station. The Missionfest of the Battle Creek Lutheran church will be held at Tomhagen's grove near that city next Sunday.

Miss Maggie Morrow returned Saturday from Plainview where she was picknicking and visiting friends several days. Mr. and Mrs. M. Roots returned Saturday from their summer vacation trip. They will board with Miss Valley Garlinger.

Rev. S. F. Sharpless has announced his intention of occupying the Presbyterian pulpit at this place once a month hereafter. Mrs. Carl Wilde returned this morning to her home in Madison after a visit of several days with Norfolk relatives and friends.

NATURE'S REMEDY Compound Oxygen For the cure of all chronic and acute diseases—a life-giving principle free from all drugs—Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Consumption, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Nervous Prostration and General Debility cured by inhaling.

Max Asmus and Curtis Stitt started at an early hour this morning on their bicycles on a trip to Concordia, Kansas, and other places. They expect to be absent about two weeks and anticipate a great deal of pleasure from the trip. Lizzie Kennedy, the 15-year-old daughter of William R. Kennedy, whose home is near Bega schoolhouse in Stanton county northeast of the city, died yesterday of consumption.

Bishop Scannell has made a number of ecclesiastical changes in the diocese of Omaha. Rev. J. G. McNamara, who has been assistant pastor at St. Mary's Catholic church, this city, has been appointed assistant to Jackson. Rev. C. J. Petlach has been appointed as assistant here. These are the only two changes that affect Norfolk.

Battle Creek Republican: Rev. F. L. Cox arrived Saturday night from Liberty, Mo., where he attended college. He occupied his old place in the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday night. On Monday he departed for Richmond, Va., to attend the national B. Y. P. U. convention and after its close he will visit his old home in that state.

W. A. Hemleben will start his fifth car of chickens toward San Francisco this evening. It contains 1,000 head and will be filled at Madison, Humphrey, Platte Center and Columbus. He expects to start a car every two weeks. He has succeeded in building up quite a poultry trade here and as he pays a good cash price, succeeds in drawing business from a long distance.

The insurance adjuster of the Nebraska Mercantile company was here this morning and in company with Chester A. Fuller, representing the Grand Rapids company, adjusted the loss by fire recently sustained by Mrs. Esther Barnett. The two gentlemen thoroughly examined into every phase of the loss and settled by giving $430 of the $450 for which the policies called. The settlement was very satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The Missionfest of the Stanton Lutheran church held in the grove of Herman Newman west of that city yesterday was very largely attended, a big delegation of Norfolk people helping to swell the crowd. Speaking by various pastors of the church organization, singing, instrumental music and a sumptuous dinner, were the leading pleasures of the day.

Geo. B. Christoph received a large invoice of drugs for the hospital for insane this morning and the same are being properly placed in that institution's laboratory. H. C. Matrau is enjoying a visit from an Iowa cousin, Mr. Parsons. He speaks very highly of his impression of Nebraska and especially the crop outlook for this year.

Mr. Jones bring her to Wisner and turn her over to the authorities. She was placed in the calaboose and the asylum authorities notified at once. She was taken back to Norfolk by attendants from the asylum the same evening. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gall and daughter, whose home is on Philip avenue, were the victims of quite a disastrous runaway yesterday.

August Schulz came down from Creighton this morning to visit his parents. Judge Powers and wife will leave this evening for Hot Springs, S. D., for an outing of several days.

Mrs. H. A. Pasewalk and children will go to Sioux City tomorrow to visit Mrs. Pasewalk's parents. Carl T. Seely and wife, accompanied by Miss Maud Steen and Miss Stella Bauch, were in the city yesterday from Madison.

Mrs. F. J. Wallis, one of the teachers in the Wayne Normal school, was in the city yesterday returning to Wayne after a visit to her home in Madison. Misses Isabelle and Anna Hoffman were in the city today from Plainview on their way to Colorado Springs, Col., where they will remain until the latter part of October.

Frank Yost, state inspector for the Nebraska Telephone company was in the city on business and incidentally greeting his numerous friends. He departed for Schuyler this morning. The graders are now at work on South Thirteenth street building up the middle of the road and making waterways on each side.

Mr. Lanchoff and family of Fremont stopped at the home of Charles Flores yesterday and today. They are on their way to Battle Creek to make a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Lanchoff's folks. Simon Straight of Hoskins was in the city yesterday and unloaded a new steam thrasher and engine. Ray Gleason was the engineer who manipulated the engine. They departed this morning for Hoskins.

Burglars entered the house of Otto Egerman east of the city last Saturday evening while the family was absent from home. They secured some dress goods, a shaving outfit and $150 in money. No clue to the marauders has yet been discovered.

Four new telephones will be added to the exchange this week. One will be in Dr. D. W. Green's rooms in the Mast block; one each in the residences of Chester A. Fuller and W. H. Cooley and No. 150 will be in Dr. F. W. Kiesau's residence. Miss Mary Schelly departed today for Council Bluffs where she will visit for a time and then go to Chicago.

Washington dispatches state that Supervising Architect Taylor will do nothing concerning the Norfolk and Blair sites for government buildings until he has received modified bids, for which he has asked. There is a big fight on over the selection of the Hastings site and the choice will probably be considerably delayed.

About 2 o'clock this morning would-be burglars attempted to gain entrance into the house of Jas. Davies on South Fourth street. Mrs. Davies was alone with her children and listened to the noise, which sounded like someone tampering with the screen door, for quite a while and then gave an alarm, which was answered by Dr. H. L. Scoggin, a near neighbor. He made a search for the individual who had been causing the disturbance, but was unable to discover anyone.

phone exchange, with his daughters, Beth, and Theo., and Chas. Hagey, returned yesterday noon from their trip to Omaha. Mr. Sprecher states that the company has decided to add another section to the switch-board at the central station and make other improvements in connection therewith. When this work is completed, it is expected that the telephone force here will be increased by the addition of an assistant day operator, who could well be used at the present time and will be a necessity when this work is completed.

Four gentlemen from Springfield, S. D., were in the city this noon. They are taking a trip through the country on their bicycles. Their route passed through Running Water, South Dakota, where they crossed the river, then through Knox and Pierce counties to this city. From here they will proceed south to Monroe and thence east to Omaha where they will cross into Iowa.

They will ride through that state as far as Des Moines and will then return home to Springfield. The names of the gentlemen composing the party are H. M. Davison, W. G. Mead, H. J. Hill, and R. G. Stevens. They compose a jolly quartet and are extracting much pleasure from their outing. H. S. Frambes, representing the Swarth Illustrating company of Chicago, is in the city endeavoring to interest advertisers in the latest method of attracting the attention of readers.

The motto of his company is one that will meet the approval of all experienced advertisers: "Advertising, like making love to a widow, cannot be overdone." This company is largely patronized by advertisers of the cities, who get very satisfactory results from the advertisements furnished. The company does its advertising in the local newspapers, which is conceded by all to be the best means of reaching patrons.

They know that the newspaper reaches the class of people wanted by the advertiser and are always confident of the result when it is employed as the medium. Don't Stop taking Scott's Emulsion because it's warm weather. Keep taking it until you are cured. It will heal your lungs and give you rich blood in summer as in winter. It's cod liver oil made easy.

IMPORTANT! Cut this out and send to us and we will sell you the best quality of Binding Twine. Wholesale: Prices. Sisal or Standard, 9c; Manila, 9 1/2c. Free on cars, Omaha. Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded.

The Western Mercantile Co. 16th and Farnam Sts., Omaha. "The House that Saves You Money." Attention Farmers. Do you desire to secure hundreds of sample copies of agricultural journals, magazines, newspapers, books, catalogues and circulars of the latest improved farm implements and machinery, and be kept posted on improved seeds and stock, for two years or more? If so, send us your name with ten cents in silver and we will insert the same in the American Farmers' Directory, which goes whirling all over the United States to publishers, merchants and manufacturers.

You will get more good reading matter than you could purchase for many times the small cost of ten cents. We want every farmer's name in the United States in our directory at once. FARMERS' DIRECTORY CO., Department 112, Birmingham, Ala. Get Away a Couple of Months from BAD WEATHER and visit Asheville or Hot Springs, N. C. Aiken, S. C., Augusta or Savannah, Ga. or the many FLORIDA RESORTS. Tourist tickets on sale via Southern Railway by all Ticket Agents. For schedules or further information write or call on Wm. H. Tayloe, A. G. P. A., Louisville, Ky. J. C. Bram, Jr., N. W. P. A., 80, S. 2d St., Chicago.