

FRIDAY FACTS.

Mrs. H. Ackerman of Stanton is a city visitor.
 C. H. Willey is a visitor in the city from Fremont.
 Chas. Crouch of Blair is a visitor in the Sugar City.
 Mrs. A. J. Durland went to Madison this morning to visit friends.
 Mrs. W. W. Riley and mother were Norfolk visitors from Pierce.
 Surveyor W. H. Lowe went to Battle Creek this morning on business.
 J. S. O'Malley of Plainview was a visitor in this metropolis this morning.
 Miss Sullivan of Columbus is visiting with Miss Keating at the hospital for the insane.
 N. Slothower of Sioux City is visiting his sister, Mrs. Lewis Johnson, and other friends.
 Dick Richards, formerly of this city, is reported to be sick with typhoid fever at Crawford, this state.
 Harvey Beebe of Stanton, a former member of company L, passed through the city yesterday on his way home.
 Fred Sidler has treated his dray to a new coat of paint and he hitched to it for the first time since it was completed, this morning.
 Mrs. Henkel and daughter Bertha left Wednesday for Oshkosh, Wis., where they will make their future home with Rev. Wm. Henkel.
 B. S. Wyatt was in the city yesterday from Grand Island attending to Singer sewing machine business and greeting old acquaintances.

The business men along main street this morning had the rubbish and litter along the street swept up and the city marshal, Widaman, had it hauled away.
 Miss Winnie Gibson returned last night from Quincy, Ill., where she has been attending the Gem City business college. She has been absent since last March.
 The partitions are being removed from the third floor of the Marquardt block which will considerably enlarge the capacity of the hall, and make it more suitable for the purpose for which it was intended.
 Chester A. Fuller left on the morning train for Chicago to give his evidence tomorrow before the industrial commission concerning the alleged discrimination of freight rates against Norfolk by the C. St. P. M. & O. road.
 The new addition to the Congregational church will be completed by next Thursday night and the ladies will give an opening sociable to which all members of the church and congregation and their friends are cordially invited.
 After settling all expenses incurred by reason of the entertainment for fellow dealers who visited here two days this week, the local saloon men had the amount of $25 left, which was contributed to the band that furnished music during the convention.
 A letter from Bishop A. L. Williams says that in some way his date for the visitation to Norfolk next Sunday was mixed up, and as a result he cannot be here until December 3. The reception to be tendered him will therefore be postponed. There will be lay services in Trinity church Sunday morning and Sunday school at the usual hours.
 W. S. Pardonner and family arrived at noon today from Chino, California, and are now guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reynolds. Mr. Pardonner comes to take the management of the sugar factory during the absence of F. Wietzer, who left today for southern Colorado, where the American Beet Sugar company is erecting a new factory.
 By staying away from the building yards women aid in making ships. No feminine visitors are allowed to go through the great Cramps' ship yards in Philadelphia, because every time a woman passes through the shops every one of the 7,000 workmen raises his eyes from his work, and in one minute one man's work for a fortnight is lost to the employers.
 A new rule went into effect on the

C. St. P. M. & O. road yesterday, it being to the effect that all passengers for Sioux City from points between Norfolk and Emerson must change cars at the latter place. It has heretofore been the custom for the morning train to go through to Sioux City without a change while the afternoon train changed a car or two at that place.
 The painters who have been putting the large signs for yeast foam on the various buildings of the city, this morning put a large and noticeable sign for the Star Clothing store on the roof of Davenport's livery barn. They also painted a sign for Hoyer on the front of his photograph gallery. They handle the brush with remarkable deftness and attract considerable attention.
 A horse hitched to one of the hacks caused considerable excitement on the streets last evening, his action being quite out of the ordinary. He kicked and reared and plunged in quite a senseless fashion for a time and endangered the safety of vehicle and harness but was finally quieted without any great amount of damage being done. What caused the animal's strange action was not definitely ascertained.
 Two additional brick-masons were put to work on the new opera house this morning and the increase in force has a noticeable effect on the movement of the work. The two men who started on the work this morning were E. N. Messick of Wayne, who has been working on the new court house of that place, and Ben Ayers of this city. Another mason is expected from Madison to begin work tomorrow morning. A portion of the walls of the building have now reached a height within a few feet of the top of THE NEWS office.
 The ladies of the Heights participated in a progressive party yesterday afternoon an evening which resulted in a most enjoyable time. The first meeting place was at the home of Mrs. J. E. Maylard where the first course of a series of refreshments were served. From there they went to the home of Mrs. H. L. Snyder and were served additional refreshments. Later in the evening they were joined by the gentlemen and the company was again served with light refreshments, the ladies acting out a charade during the serving of the course.
 F. H. Beck has returned from Sioux City where he made arrangements for a 50-light dynamo which will be placed in the Sugar City Cereal mills to furnish the light required for night work. This arrangement is not only expected to be more satisfactory than the old method of producing more and better light, but it will lessen the danger from fire considerably. The mills are rapidly assuming the place of a leading industry, not only in Norfolk but in this entire section of the state and the people will note with pleasure this new evidence of progress on the part of the management.
 The ringing of the Congregational church bell about 11 o'clock last night was the cause of many people appearing on the streets and at doors and windows inquiring the why and wherefore. Many thought it was the signal announcing the appearance of the meteors in the heavens, but a searching glance failed to reveal the expected display. About 15 or 20 persons, including the mayor appeared at the church but could not ascertain the reason for the unusual occurrence. It is supposed, however, that some hilarious youngsters climbed into the belfry and rang the bell.
 Yankton Press and Dakotan: J. M. Duns will ship a carload of beer to his brother A. M. Duns in Le Mars, Iowa, thereby paying an election bet. The car was on exhibition at the American State bank. It is 18 inches long, 9 inches high and 6 1/2 inches wide and it will hold just a dozen pint bottles of beer. The car was made by John T. Coxhead and is a perfect model. It is painted yellow, with black trucks and a red roof and rests upon a section of railway track in miniature. It is marked "Yankton, Norfolk & Southwestern railway," and is the first car bearing the label of that road, ever constructed.
 J. W. Rose has been appointed traveling auditor for the American Beet Sugar company, and will have his headquarters at Oxnard, California. Mr. Rose has been with the Sugar company for four years, first as bookkeeper at the Norfolk factory, and this year in the same capacity at the Chino factory. He is an expert accountant, careful, painstaking and exacting, and is eminently fitted to have supervision over the books of the company at its various plants, being right in line with his ability and training. He will visit each of the factories once or twice a year. THE NEWS joins his many Norfolk friends in congratulating him upon his promotion, and is glad that his duties will bring him to Norfolk occasionally, where many will be happy to greet him.
 At the adjourned meeting of the five department held last evening an executive committee of 13 members, consisting of the chief, president, secretary and treasurer of the department and foreman and secretary of each company, was named to have charge of the arrangements for the annual meeting of the state association which meets here in January. The committee is to meet each Wednesday evening hereafter and seven members of the same will constitute a quorum. It was also decided to give a dance on the night of December 29, Messrs. Pasewalk and Kern being appointed a committee on procuring a hall and music for the dance and report to the executive committee on November 22. On motion exempt certificates were voted to W. R. Hoffman and W. H. Dexter. The meeting also decided that in the future fireman's hall should be closed to all public and private meetings except to those of the city council and firemen and the janitor was instructed to have the doors connecting with the city clerk's and police judge's offices barricaded. C. Lehrman was authorized to build a locker for the firemen's uniforms.

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

 Mr. and Mrs. F. Metschke of Pierce are visiting at the home of M. B. Singer.
 Miss Edith Bachelor went to Wayne this morning to visit friends over Sunday.
 Miss Grace Dunn and sister of Pierce are in the city today doing some shopping.
 Jesse H. Neal of Omaha, freight solicitor of the M. & O., was in the city yesterday.
 Architect J. C. Stitt returned this morning from a business trip up the M. & O.
 The J. J. E. club met last night with Miss Mae Durland at her home in the Heights.
 H. C. Quick has returned from Omaha where he has been employed for some time past.
 Henry Huebner, the Hadar merchant, was attending to business in Norfolk yesterday.
 Geo. Zeigler and wife, H. C. Platt and O. B. Clements of Fairfield, Iowa, are in the city.
 It is reported that the Baker livery barn at Battle Creek was destroyed by fire yesterday.
 Mrs. Geo. L. Iles left for Sioux Falls, S. D., this morning to spend Sunday with her husband.
 Mrs. T. J. Morrow is entertaining a party of ladies at an afternoon today, at her home on the Heights.
 The post office at Newman Grove has been raised to the presidential class and the salary of the postmaster increased to $1,100.
 Mrs. Geo. D. Butterfield came down from Creighton today and Mr. Butterfield will also come in to spend Sunday with relatives.
 The residences of Rev. J. J. Parker and L. C. Middelstadt are being improved in appearance by the application of paint.
 Miss Ada Butterfield gave a 1 o'clock luncheon today to a number of her lady friends, the guest of honor being Mrs. W. S. Pardonner.
 Mrs. A. K. Shurtleff and sister, Miss Lake, have departed for their home in Kansas City, Mo., after a pleasant visit with Norfolk friends.
 A number of young people of the city have organized a whist club and held their first meeting last night at the home of Miss Garlinger.
 J. H. House has completed his dwelling at the corner of Eleventh street and Nebraska avenue and expects to move into it the first of next week.
 A club of ten young ladies, styling their organization the M. Q. M., visited the sugar factory last evening and viewed its workings by electric light.
 Miss Laura A. Gregg, one of the organizers of the National American Woman's Suffrage association, will speak at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.
 D. D. Hall, representing the Omaha World-Herald, has moved here from Council Bluffs, and will occupy the house owned by A. J. Darland, north of C. S. Hayes.
 F. Horschaw, who is employed in the Davenport livery barn, held ticket 48, the lucky number that drew W. O. Holl's driving horse, which was raffled off last evening.
 J. R. Barnes, jr., and Guy Alexander departed for Lincoln this morning to witness the football game which takes place today between the teams of the Nebraska and Kansas universities.
 There being no out of town arrivals to attend the shooting tournament yesterday, day, a match was made between Glissman and Nethaway for 50 birds. It resulted in Glissman killing 45 and Nethaway 42.

 A few intimate friends gathered at the home of Conductor Fox last evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Walsh of Columbus, who have been visiting there for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh departed for their home this morning.
 The Union Pacific pay car came in yesterday and distributed that which goes to make the hearts of the railroad employes light and their pocket books heavy. Superintendent R. W. Baxter and Assistant Superintendent C. W. Chapman were occupants of the car.
 Oharls Shelby, a railroad man, who was confined in the city jail on the charge of fighting, twisted the lock off the outer door a few hours after he was incarcerated and regained his liberty. The police have not yet ascertained his whereabouts and are of the opinion that he has left town.
 T. B. Kail, who travels for the Rock Island Shoe company of Rock Island, Ill., has returned from a trip in the interests of his house and will spend Sunday in the city. Mr. Kail states that it is probable that he may again make Norfolk his home. He and his wife have many friends in the city who would be pleased to have them return.
 Bixby, in the State Journal, has these complimentary words to say of the people in this county: "Nebraska republicans will always look with favor upon the people of Shell Creek precinct, Madison county, where a republican gain of thirty-three over the vote of a year ago gave evidence that the public conscience has not entirely surrendered to the unhallowed influence associated with fusion for the spoils of office."

The annual convention of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association will be held in Lincoln, November 28 and 29. Delegates to this convention will be entertained, and those expecting to attend should write to Miss Helen Goff, Lincoln, stating the time of their arrival. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, Miss Mary G. Hay of San Francisco, Rev. Ida C. Hultin of Illinois, Mrs. Evelyn H. Belden of Iowa, and other national speakers, will be present.
 E. Warrant, supervisor of the new opera house, has addressed notices to subscribers for seats notifying them that the pledges are now due and payable to G. A. Luikart. He requests prompt attention to the matter in order that the building may be completed. Mr. Warrant has faithfully performed his portion of the contract and he now relies upon the assistance of those who have pledged themselves to take seats to hurry the work of completion. The balconies are now up to a level with the balcony and the interior carpenter work is being completed as far as possible. That the building is worth the price to subscribers, anyone who has examined the work thus far done, can testify to.
 P. F. Panabaker, president of the Northeast Nebraska Teachers' association has issued the following notice to members: "At a conference of northeast Nebraska teachers at Norfolk last April, time of the North Nebraska association meeting, it was recommended that there should be no meeting of the association this November and that all should put forth the best effort to have a strong meeting at Wayne next April. Accordingly no program has been arranged, and it is recommended that all make an effort to insure an excellent meeting at Wayne, in April, 1900. A business session of the Northeast Nebraska teachers will be held at Wayne in April, to arrange for the following November meeting."

When the practice of economy is a necessity, the cost of the soap used in a year is an important item. The grocer who has an eye to larger profits, may not suggest Ivory Soap, but you insist on having it. Ivory Soap is pure soap, through and through. That makes it the most economical and best.

 It is now very proper and the correct thing to have a cold and the person who is not sneezing or wheezing or coughing or grunting is decidedly in the minority. If you want to be "it" get a cold at your first opportunity.
 Rev. Helzel, the new pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran church, preached his first sermon to his congregation yesterday. It is said that his remarks were

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

will generally correct this difficulty.
 If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.
