

FRIDAY FACTS.

Miss Bryan, at the Junction, is very sick. Mrs. Priestly of Oakdale was in the city yesterday. Attorney A. A. Welch of Wayne was a visitor in Norfolk yesterday. Mr. Vail has opened up a lunch counter at the Palace of Sweets. Mrs. W. H. Bacholz is entertaining the Kaffee Klatch this afternoon. County Superintendent C. W. Crum was in the city over night from Madison. Ed Cropper and A. O. Caplin of Warmersville were in the city last evening. W. E. Bishop of New Haven, Conn., is in the city looking after property interests. H. C. Matraux returned last evening from a two-weeks' trip to Chicago and other points east. Messrs. Geo. Weatherholt, P. L. Ransdell and Andrew Leaf were in the city last evening from Hoskins. M. Zimmer of Neligh brought his daughter down yesterday for surgical treatment at the Salter sanitarium. The Wayne Republican styles the class of work done on the new court of that county as "generally bunny."

An operation was performed on Otto, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Koehn, this morning, for appendicitis. A party of young people from the city attended the regular weekly entertainment at the hospital for the insane last evening. Dr. Peters, veterinarian at the experimental station of the state university, is in the city attending the farmers' institute. C. H. Murphy of Omaha, superintendent of the electric clock service, is in the city improving and extending the service in Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harding and children are home from Middletown, New York, where they have been visiting about a month. J. Chauncey Childs will go to Lincoln tomorrow to enter the state university. His friends tendered him a farewell reception last evening in Orr's hall. The Woodmen of the World are planning for an invitation ball to be given in Marquardt's hall on the evening of Washington's birthday, February 22nd. Foreman Stapenhorst would be pleased to have the lantern returned that was borrowed from the hook and ladder truck during the fire at the foundry last night. Supt. D. C. O'Connor went to Wayne yesterday on business connected with the coming session of the North Nebraska Teachers' association in that city. Will Hayes of Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting his uncle, Col. S. W. Hayes of this city. He is interested in telephone extension work in several of the Rocky Mountain states. Dakota City Eagle: Dr. Sisson delivered his lecture on "Plus" at the M. E. church to a large gathering of people Monday evening. The lecture is strong and logical and well worth going a long distance to hear. A fellow who gave his home as St. Edwards was picked up in a very much intoxicated condition yesterday, but was given his freedom on the promise that he would quickly avail the opportunity of gaining his destination. One of the newscasters in Wayne beat the train service several hours Sunday by driving to Emerson and getting a supply of Omaha dailies for his patrons. Norfolk hopes to have a train service in this particular that "can't be beat."

Julius Winkel celebrated his 33d birthday last evening at his home on Bransden avenue. The party was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors, refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening was passed. Henry Wallace, editor of Wallace's Farmer of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city to attend the session of the farmers institute which is in session today and tomorrow. He is an old time friend of H. M. Roberts, whom he met on the street this morning and chatted with about old times. Marcus T., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reynolds, celebrated his ninth birthday yesterday afternoon and evening with the hearty assistance of a number of his young friends, all enjoying a very pleasant time. The young man was materially assisted at entertaining his guests by his father and mother. A recent illustrated souvenir edition of the North-Western Catholic, published at Sioux City, Iowa, contains three likenesses familiar to Norfolk people. One is that of W. C. Davenport, sheriff of Woodbury county, another is of Ira L. Hungerford, editor and compiler of the paper, and another that of A. A. Ahlman, solicitor and collector for the paper. The edition is full of excellent cuts and business like write-ups. Madison Chronicle: The Stanton County Breeding farm has lost four head of valuable heifers this week by black-leg. One of the animals, we are informed, was valued at $400, two of the others at $250 each, and the fourth was probably worth $50. It has been the policy of Mr. Mortimer to have all the stock inoculated with black-leg virus, for some years past and as these are the first cattle he has lost with this disease, it is supposed that from some cause or other they did not get a full dose when vaccinated. The board partition on the east side of the cupola at the foundry caught fire last evening between 7 and 8 o'clock and from there communicated with the roof, through which it burned several holes. The fire was discovered by Geo. Stapenhorst, who notified Foreman Crook of the foundry, and an alarm was turned in. The department responded very promptly and meantime Messrs. Crook and Stapenhorst, with the assistance of others, kept the blaze under control until the department arrived and it was then quickly subdued with a few dashes of water. The gable end of the main building was somewhat damaged and the roof over the cupola shed was quite badly burned. Mr. Crook set his men to work the first thing this morning to repair the damage and figures that this will be done at a cost of about $9.50 for lumber and $6 for labor which will show that the loss was slight. The partition has caught fire a number of times before and has been put out with a few pails of water. Mr. Crook thinks an alarm would have been unnecessary this time had his force not all been to supper. The troublesome partition will now be replaced with sheet iron and another such blaze averted. Mrs. B. Harrison, mother of Mrs. H. J. Cole, died at the residence of her daughter in this city at 5 o'clock last evening in the 82nd year of her age. She had been enjoying her usual health until about an hour before her death, when she informed her daughter that she thought she would not live long. She had made similar statements so often that this would have occasioned no surprise, but for the fact that she seemed very much in earnest and used a different tone of voice than usual. She was conducted to her bed where she rapidly grew weaker and quietly went to sleep, clasping her daughter's hands, at the hour stated. Her aged husband survives her and, besides the one daughter, there are two sons, one living in Missouri and the other in Duluth, Minn. These have been notified of the occurrence by telegraph and it is hoped that they can be heard from before the funeral takes place. Father Harrison is very much affected by her death, he and she having been the veriest chums during their old age and the separation is touching. They have been married about 50 years. The funeral will take place from the residence at 10 o'clock tomorrow unless word from the sons should cause its postponement. Rev. G. H. Main of the M. E. church, assisted by Rev. J. J. Parker, of the First Congregational, will have charge of the services. MONDAY MENTION. J. D. Sturgeon made a business trip to Wayne today. J. M. Cherry of Wayne was a city visitor yesterday. Miss Helen Sprecher is reported quite sick with tonsillitis. W. E. Bishop of Pierce had business in the city Saturday. Geo. A. Marshall of Arlington was a city visitor yesterday. Born, Sunday January 28, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Fuller, a girl. Earl Taylor of David City visited with his cousin, C. S. Hayes, yesterday. Miss Clara McFarland of Stanton visited Miss Nellie Schwenk over Sunday. Arthur Pilger, deputy county treasurer, spent Sunday with friends in the city. L. C. Mittlestadt went to Laurel this afternoon to look after his business at that place. C. T. Blackburn, representing Burk's Uncle Tom's Cabin company, was in the city Saturday. It is said that Fred Schwede and Miss Gall are to be united in marriage on Wednesday, February 7th. The household economic department of the Woman's club meets with Mrs. C. H. Reynolds this afternoon. Sam Stikes, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Schwefeger, returned to his home in Ewing last evening. Mrs. W. W. Persons leaves this evening over the Union Pacific for her home at Pocatello, Idaho, accompanied by Miss Julia Grant. W. B. Hight and wife went to Osmond Saturday, where Mrs. Hight will visit her parents while Mr. Hight makes a business trip to Denver. Geo. Dentler and Miss Lizzie Ogden, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sidler, returned to their homes in Council Bluffs, Iowa, this morning. A quartet of Pierce young ladies, consisting of Eva E. Mixer, Alice E. Coffey, Emma M. Scherwin and Mamie Wallace, visited in the city Saturday afternoon. Rev. E. E. Hosman of Plainview occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church yesterday, in exchange with Mr. Main, who is in Plainview conducting a series of meetings. Miss Lottie Sidler resumed her duties behind the counters in the Johnson Dry Goods company store this morning, her health being very much improved by her month's vacation. Clyde Williams successfully entertained a number of his young friends Saturday evening at the home of his parents on North Ninth street. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time was had. A union meeting of the Anti-Saloon league was held at the M. E. church last evening and was attended by a large audience. The principal speakers

Men who are always in a hurry, and most men are, want a soap for the toilet that will lather quickly and freely in hot or cold water. Other soaps than Ivory may have this quality, but will likely contain alkali, which is injurious to the skin. Ivory Soap is made of pure vegetable oils, no alkali, produces a white, foamy lather, that cleanses thoroughly and rinses easily and quickly. Money cannot buy a better soap for the toilet.

Do you take cold with every change in the weather? Does your throat feel raw? And do sharp pains dart through your chest? Don't you know these are danger signals which point to pneumonia, bronchitis, or consumption itself? If you are ailing and have lost flesh lately, they are certainly danger signals. The question for you to decide is, "Have I the vitality to throw off these diseases?" Don't wait to try SCOTT'S EMULSION "as a last resort." There is no remedy equal to it for fortifying the system. Prevention is easy. Scott's Emulsion prevents consumption and hosts of other diseases which attack the weak and those with poor blood. SCOTT'S EMULSION is the one standard remedy for inflamed throats and lungs, for colds, bronchitis and consumption. It is a food medicine of remarkable power. A food, because it nourishes the body; and a medicine, because it corrects diseased conditions. SHE WAS BLIND. A blindness comes to me now and then. I have it now. It is queer—I can see your eyes but not your nose. I can't read because some of the letters are blurred; dark spots cover them; it is very uncomfortable. I know all about it; it's DYSPEPSIA. Take one of these; it will cure you in ten minutes. What is it? A Ripian's Tabule.
