JAMES NICHOLS, Chairman.
DAVID WHITE, Secretary.

Even South Omaha wheeled into line for the republican ticket this spring.

The fusionists are finding very little to rejoice over in the way the municipal contests resulted in Nebraska. There appears to be nothing to encourage them in the belief that a republican administration is so distasteful to the people as they had fondly anticipated.

Bryan should lose no time in hurrying back east to the enemy's country. Men of his party are planning his overthrow in the national convention. They believe that "a man of brains" can carry New York this fall and their opposition to Bryan is an insinuation that he is not the man.

Admiral Dewey says he has changed his mind about the presidency and signifies his willingness to accept the highest office in the land should the people insist upon it. He now thinks that the president has little to do except to enforce the laws passed by congress. If the admiral has formed the opinion that the office of president is a sinecure he would be quite apt to change his mind again after a term or two in the chair.

The destruction of Kansas City's mammoth convention hall yesterday afternoon by fire should at once be added to the list of Mark Hanna outrages. It was known that the democratic national convention was to meet in that hall on the 4th of July and Mark probably thought that by destroying the building he could prevent the meeting. His precipitate action was taken, however, without consulting the commercial club of that city which has begun immediate steps to have the auditorium rebuilt in time for the meeting.

Bryan's home town, Lincoln, again asserted its republicanism at the municipal contest just closed. This is most disheartening to the fusion cause. Those people should know better than to vote the republican ticket by this time if they know enough to know anything. They have not only had Mr. Bryan and his teachings constantly before them when he was not away from home—but for a number of years now they have associated with reform state officials, beheld their spotless purity in public as well as home life and received impressive lessons in regard to the manner of handling railroads, trusts and corporations. Surely they must be a dense lot not to understand which is the true people's party.

Where the anti-saloon league came out in an open fight against the saloons in the various towns of Nebraska they were almost unanimously defeated by large majorities, which would certainly have been the case in Norfolk. They have yet to learn in many places that the liquor traffic cannot be brought up standing with a round turn. Their point can best be obtained by a process of gradual and untiring education. Where they do succeed by radical methods there is usually a revolt at the end of a year or two and a town or city sinks lower than the depth from which it was temporarily lifted. They can no more convert a saloon town into a prohibition community in one year or a few months than a saloon can overthrow the sentiment of a prohibition town, that has been so for many years, in the same length of time.

THE NEWS did not refer to the stand taken by Mr. Westervelt in the majority contest, as its contemporary states. It did, however, refer to the stand taken by the saloon element in his favor which was not a difficult conclusion to arrive at. This paper does not know what Mr. Westervelt's policy would have been but from its knowledge of him he would have given a conservative administration of affairs. If there was anything more than another that conducted to his defeat it was the support given him by the Times-Tribune and the open and active efforts made in his behalf by the saloon people, who were of the evident opinion that they could again run a wide open town, should he be elected, and should their hopes have been realized there is no question but that the anti-saloon folks would have seen to it that the laws were enforced.

BUILDING AND LOAN BILLS.

Two Measures Governing Companies Passed in Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, April 4.—Two building and loan measures passed yesterday. One is the senate building and loan committee bill passed by the upper body last week. It provides greater restrictions upon this class of business than ever existed in the state before. The measure passed without amendment, so will become a law without further action of the assembly.

The other bill is one by Buchanan, which provides for the creation of a building and loan department in Iowa. Its chief provision is for the appointment of an inspector by the governor and one deputy to oversee the building and loan business of the state. The vote on the final passage of the measure was 52 to 17.

One of the events in the legislature yesterday was the defeat of the five-mile limit bill by the house. This action was a surprise to the friends of the measure, who had counted on almost as large support as the bill had in the senate. The bill, on its final passage, received the following vote, 48 yeas and 41 nays, thus failing to receive a constitutional majority.

WORDY DUEL IN HOUSE.

Kentucky Politics Is Dragged Into Debate on Hawaiian Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—There was an exciting scene in the house yesterday as the climax of a discussion of the Kentucky situation, when Wheeler, a Kentucky Democrat, and Pugh, a Kentucky Republican, faced each other from opposite sides of the main aisle and engaged in a wordy duel. Pugh charged Wheeler with misrepresenting certain facts. He was laboring under great excitement. Wheeler showed admirable temper and, though quick to resent the fancied insult, awaited the explanation of Pugh, in which he disclaimed any intention of imputing to him personally a desire to distort the facts. Throughout the debate, which was precipitated by a speech of Boering, the other Republican member from Kentucky, there was a feeling of suppressed excitement. It was the first time the subject had been broached in the house and great interest was manifested. Lacey (Ia.) concluded the debate with a general denunciation of the Goebel election law. This incident overshadowed the other speeches on the Hawaiian bill, many of which were irrelevant.

QUAY CASE TO COME UP.

Wolcott Apologizes to Lodge, Restores Peace in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Peace was restored in the senate yesterday before the body convened and during the proceedings of the session there was only a reminder of the harsh language used just before adjournment Tuesday. The session opened with a lively and interesting discussion of the status of the Quay case, in the course of which Wolcott apologized for the language he had used Tuesday, disclaiming any intention of being offensive to anybody, least of all to his friend, Lodge.

The Colorado senator made a vehement and eloquent appeal for early action upon the Quay case. He was supported by other friends of Mr. Quay and it was decided finally to take up the case today under the unanimous consent agreement made on March 16. In accordance also with that agreement the Spooner bill was made the unfinished business, thereby bringing the Philippine question to a direct issue in the senate.

DYNAMITE AND FIRE.

Indiana Mob Blows Up Bridges and Burns Houses on Toll Pike.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., April 5.—One hundred and fifty masked men blew up two bridges and burned two toll houses on the Logansport and Burlington pike at midnight.

A family in one toll house moved out yesterday and the mob ordered the family in the other one to get out before the torch was applied. The road is the only toll pike in the county and protests have been directed against high toll and the alleged bad condition of the pike. The mob was well organized.

Vanderbilts in a Big Deal.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Herald says: According to statements made by Wall street interests in close touch with the Vanderbilt and Morgan factions, one of the first and most important results of the Vanderbilt-Morgan-Cassatt alliance for the joint control of eastern railroad systems will be the cementing of a new coal combination, which will include both the anthracite and bituminous companies and bind them together in a powerful trust that will have absolute control of the American coal trade.

Woman Burned to Death.

CENTREVILLE, Ia., April 5.—While Mrs. Martin Nelson, living one mile north of Numa, was tending a fire of trash and grass yesterday, her skirts caught fire and soon she was enveloped in flames, being so badly burned that she died last night.

Murder Trial at Creston.

CRESTON, Ia., April 5.—The Williams murder trial is the absorbing case now in progress in the district court. Dec. 4, 1899, Al Williams shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Tom Walsh at the former's farm while the officer was attempting to serve legal papers. The case will probably go to the jury this evening. Williams will attempt to show self defense, claiming that the deputy held a revolver in his hand and was coming toward him. J. W. Fuller, the only eye witness, declares that Walsh did not draw a revolver. The court room is crowded at every session.

Division in Catholic Circles.

DUBUQUE, April 5.—A serious division in Catholic circles seems likely over the naming of a successor to the late Archbishop Hennessy. Dr. Carroll of Dubuque, Archbishop Keane of Washington and Father McLaughlin of Clinton were nominated by the convocation of priests on March 15. Some days later the bishops nominated Bishop O'Gorman of Sioux Falls and Bishop Scanlan of Salt Lake. Yesterday the German priests of the diocese forwarded to Rome a protest against the appointment of Archbishop Keane. A projected meeting which is to arrange a division of the diocese has been forbidden by peremptory orders from Archbishop Martinelli, the apostolic delegate.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
