

FRIDAY FACTS.

Joe Fox was in the city yesterday from Creighton.

W. E. Quistad of Gross was a Norfolk visitor yesterday.

A. B. Campbell was a city visitor yesterday from Genoa.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Franse of West Point were city visitors yesterday.

C. H. Krahn has returned from Iowa, where he has been visiting his parents.

Mrs. Ruhlow and sister-in-law, Miss Ruhlow, of Pierce were shopping in the city yesterday.

The Huebner Seltzer company was in the city today on their way to Wayne, having played "Faust" at Pierce last night.

Paper is being put up for the Allen Heywood performance which will take place in the Auditorium the night of June 4th.

The Fair store has received and placed a large new refrigerator in which to keep butter and other perishable merchandise.

Superintendent O'Connor has gone to Petersburg to deliver the address to the graduating class of the High school today.

Mrs. Geo. Staphenhorst went to Tilden last night, called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Hattie Wathin, who formerly lived here.

A gang of workmen passed through the city today on their way to Beauford, Wyoming, where they will work on the railway improvements being carried on by the Union Pacific.

John Decker, recently a driver for the Sugar City cereal mills, returned from the east yesterday, and will visit here a few days before proceeding west where he will make his home.

The Y. M. C. L. social, which was held in the league rooms last evening, was very liberally patronized and those attending were very well pleased with the refreshments served.

About 50 or 60 delegates to the South Dakota convention passed through the city yesterday on their way home to the Black Hills country from Sioux Falls. The convention was one of the most harmonious ever held in the state.

John Bridgett expects to remove his family to Sioux City next week and Mrs. Bridgett will go to Wakefield to visit friends until that time. Mr. Bridgett is a fireman on the M. & O. and has been transferred to a run on the main line.

Ray Hayes has returned from his visit to Chicago, Minneapolis, Cedar Rapids and other points. He reports having had a very pleasant time. He saw the H. O. Whyman family at Aurora and states that they are getting along nicely.

The annual pilgrimage to the Yellow Banks by Norfolk pleasure seekers has commenced. Messrs. C. D. Jenkins, Frank Davenport, Al Degner and Sol Mayer formed the vanguard and went out yesterday to catch some fish. They had a good time—but the fish market has not been oppressed by over-production.

David Whitla of Battle Creek, chairman, and Jas. Nicholas of Madison, secretary of the republican county central committee were in town yesterday to decide on the matter of calling a meeting of the committee and have called it to meet in Battle Creek June 9th, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of transacting necessary business.

The knights of Damascus commandery No. 20, K. T., with their families, enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable time last evening on the occasion of the installation of officers of the commandery. After the installation a banquet was served in the hall adjoining, about 100 participating. There was also some speechmaking and dancing followed for those desiring that amusement, the Italian orchestra furnishing the music. The knights don't often start in for a good time, but when they do they make it one of thorough enjoyment both to themselves and their guests.

Wayne Herald: Last Friday evening D. C. Wilcox, who for some time has been despondent, decided to quit earthly cares and attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum. He sent one of his neighbors to procure the deadly drug, but the neighbor, suspecting that all was not right, got a physician to put up a dose of harmless stuff resembling laudanum. Wilcox took it but instead of passing into eternity he awoke in the morning to find himself in the presence of Sheriff Cherry who ushered the would-be before the board of insanity who ordered him to Norfolk, and he went.

J. I. Taminosian, a converted shakih is here from Omaha arranging to deliver a lecture in one of the churches. He is entirely undemonstrative and is editor of "Love and Peace," a religious periodical which he publishes in Omaha, and is also founder of the Love and Peace mission in that city. Mr. Taminosian is a fine appearing and intelligent looking gentleman and should be encouraged in his work. He was the Mohammedan bishop of St. Sophia Mosque and was the only evangelist in the Transmississippi exposition at Omaha in 1898. He has arranged to lecture in the Congregational church on Sunday evening, June 17th, and may lecture at the Baptist church Friday night although he has not yet completed the latter arrangements. He calls himself the Bible land evangelist and oriental lecturer.

The people of Norfolk will join with the News in welcoming Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baird as residents of this city and will unite with it in extending sincere and hearty congratulations. Since Mr. Baird's connection with the sugar factory at this place, he has won a large circle of friends and his promotion from chemist to manager of the institution has been rapid and deserved. He is progressive, trustworthy and an earnest worker in the interest of the company.

The following account of the ceremony is taken from the Grand Island Daily Independent published at the former home of the bride, and is very complimentary to her:

Promptly—and this means precisely—at the appointed hour this morning, 9:30 o'clock, the bridal party of the Hetzel-Baird nuptials marched to the altar of the St. Stephen's Episcopal church, where, the Rev. Arthur officiating, Miss Lulu Hetzel was united in bonds of wedlock to Mr. W. H. Baird. An informal reception followed at the home of the bride. The young couple left at twelve o'clock for Norfolk where they will make their home.

The church was quite well filled with the friends of the contracting parties long before the hour arrived. They found the same very tastefully decorated in green and white. Mr. Chas. McElroy and Mr. I. R. Alter, Jr. acted as ushers. The waiting friends were in the meantime listening to some choice selection by Mrs. R. J. Barr, organ, and Miss Pinder, violin. At the approach of the appointed minute the strains of Lohengrin announced the arrival of the bridal party. Miss Hetzel, lovely in a white silk mulle, trimmed with platings of the same material, with an exquisite point lace collar, and wearing a tulle veil fastened with margarites and carrying a bouquet of marquerites, came up one of the aisles upon the arm of her father, Mr. Geo. D. Hetzel. They were preceded by little Miss Dorcas Hogue, accompanied by Geo. Hetzel, Jr. Miss Hogue carried a white satin pillow, laid with brides roses, upon which was the ring. Mr. Baird, approached the chancel rail at the same moment from another aisle. Here the father gave away the bride. The couple proceeded to the altar where they took the solemn vows in as beautiful and impressive ceremony as has ever been witnessed by the then greatly moved audience. During the entire services subdued music greeted the ear. When the ceremony was completed and the bridal party and audience marched from the church a most stirring march pealed forth.

An informal reception was tendered to a number of invited guests at the home of the bride's parents just across the street. Here the decorations of green and white—as those arranged at the church by the Daughters of the King—were elaborate and very tasty. Maidenhair ferns and pinks were features of the artistic arrangement. A very dainty repast was served. Among the large array of beautiful and costly presents, particular mention might be made of that from the American Beet Sugar company, with which company the groom is connected in a responsible official capacity at the Norfolk plant. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Baird left over the Union Pacific for Norfolk, the bride attired in a handsome blue cheviot tailor made gown. At the depot shower upon shower of rice was good naturedly and gracefully received by the joyous bride and groom.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Goodrich of Manitou, Mrs. Clark of Denver, Mrs. Jay White of Lincoln, Mrs. Elliot of St. Louis, Mrs. Pennabaker of Omaha, Mr. Bundick of Norfolk, Mr. Wilmurding of Norfolk and several others. Mr. Baird was formerly a resident of this city, first connected as instructor with the High school, and then as chemist in the plant of the American Beet Sugar company in this city. Since then he has enjoyed several promotions. During his residence here he made a host of friends and won the confidence of the business community as he did of the officers of the company which he served. Miss Hetzel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Hetzel, is one of Grand Island's most favorably known young ladies, one who has the best wishes and the hearty congratulations of all who know her.

Details of old soldiers from Mathewson post No. 109, G. A. R., visited the different rooms of the public schools yesterday afternoon and gave the pupils short talks of a patriotic nature.

Charles Cohen was arrested this morning for violating the provisions of the bicycle ordinance while riding on the sidewalks of Norfolk avenue. He was assessed a fine of $1 and costs, which were paid.

The contract for erecting the new schoolhouse at Madison and wrecking the old one was let to Moore & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, for $11,400, the building to be completed in 100 days. J. B. Herman and Alex Morrison of this city were bidders on the contract.

Mrs. D. J. Koenigstein has gone to Lincoln, called there by the announcement that her mother, Mrs. E. S. Waldron, is dangerously ill. The many Norfolk friends of Mrs. Waldron will hope that her condition may not be as bad as feared and that she will soon be on the road to recovery.

Marshal Widaman complains that a large number of cows owned by residents of the city are allowed to run at large and states that they are responsible for much of the breakage in the sidewalks, besides the destruction of gardens and the mutilation of lawns. He threatens to impound the animals if they are not kept up.

J. I. Taminosian, the Bibleland evangelist, has consented to occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church tomorrow morning while Rev. W. H. Eaton is absent in Battle Creek, where he will deliver the sermon to the graduates of the High school. Mr. Taminosian will appear in his apostolical costume. He will speak in the Congregational church on Sunday, June 17th.

W. W. Hughes, general secretary of the Y. M. C. L., will leave about the first of June for Sioux City, where he will visit his parents for about a week and will then go to Chicago to be absent three months during which time he will take a course of study in the Y. M. C. L. work. The Y. M. C. L. work here will be placed in charge of a committee during his absence.

Mrs. George Reckard very pleasantly entertained a company of lady friends yesterday afternoon at her home on West Norfolk avenue. Mrs. S. F. Sharpless, Miss Fannie Norton and Miss Edith McClary assisted the hostess in details of the entertainment and the afternoon passed most satisfactorily to those concerned. The refreshments served were dainty and delicious.

The case in which the Krug Brewing company of Omaha is plaintiff and Bert Eberhart defendant was tried this morning before Judge Hayes. The company asks for the restitution of its property in which Mr. Eberhart runs a restaurant. The case was decided against the defendant and he at once gave notice of appeal to the district court, thus insuring him of possession of the building until that court convenes.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Macy returned last evening from Lincoln, where they attended the annual meeting of the state photographers' association. During the convention there was a contest among the ladies in attendance involving their capacity to drive a nail swiftly and properly. Mrs. Macy drove the nail in four seconds and won the prize—a mandarin. Other contestants were nearly as many minutes in accomplishing the feat as it took the winner seconds.

The result of the visit of Postoffice Inspector Swift to the Norfolk office is thus given in the Journal: "The first part of his investigation, ascertaining whether the office was entitled to the service, was satisfactory, the gross receipts for the last fiscal year being $10,101.69, and for the first ten months of the present fiscal year $8,724.83, so that if the receipts for May and June are to the average the free delivery requirement will be exceeded by upward of $800. The remainder of the investigation was not so satisfactory. No street names were posted at intersections, only a portion of the houses were numbered, and the sidewalks were in bad condition in many places. When these deficiencies are supplied and the postmaster certifies to the fact Mr. Swift will return and establish the service."

For a Summer Outing. The Rocky Mountain regions, reached via the Union Pacific, provide lavishly for the health of the invalid, and the pleasure of the tourist. The eclipse of the sun was watched this morning with considerable interest by the people of Norfolk, many of whom had supplied themselves with smoked glasses. About half of the sun's surface was obscured when the eclipse was at its best. The shadow commenced covering the sun about 7 o'clock and left it about 9.

At the time of the republican congressional convention of the Third district which placed in nomination John R. Hays of this city as candidate for congress, the choice of a chairman and secretary of the central committee was left with him. Mr. Hays has recently selected Bart Mapes of this city as chairman. His choice of secretary has not yet been announced.

The amount of precipitation this spring during April was about double that of a year ago, but thus far during May the record has not approached that made last year during the same month. During May, 1899, the precipitation was more than eight inches, a phenomenal record, while thus far during May, this year, the rainfall has been but little more than two inches. The average of the two months is perhaps about the same as last year.

Col. H. H. Rood, president and C. W. Kepler, secretary, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, have issued a notice of the tenth biennial reunion of the Society of Crocker's Iowa Brigade, which will be held at Keokuk, Iowa, September 26 and 27, next. Col. J. E. Simpson received word last night of the death of his old marching comrade during the war, Jacob H. Warneldorf, for many years a resident of Neligh, but during the past year making his home with his son-in-law at Kearney, where he died. His funeral will be held at Neligh Wednesday. The deceased was an attendant at the hospital for the insane for two years and is quite well known here, he having been regular in attendance at the Methodist church during that time. He was one of the few religious men who went into the army and preserved his religion until the end of the war often getting down on his knees, with the scenes of battle around, and praying for his family at home. The funeral will be on Decoration Day when Mr. Simpson delivers the address at Neligh.

The team of Dan B. Lee ran away yesterday afternoon with his light road-wagon in which was Mrs. Lee and son Floyd. They had been up to visit Mr. Lee's folks in the west part of town and were returning home when the team became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Lee was thrown out first and the tall cut again about three inches long in her left temple. The boy was thrown out shortly afterward and had quite a gash cut in the back of his head. Both were severely bruised and frightened. The boy recently had his leg broken while playing base ball and very fortunately his recent accident did not again hurt that injured member which has been healing nicely. Mr. Lee and his daughter rode their bicycles but were unable to catch up with the runaway horses in time to prevent the accident. The team ran down through Main street and finally were captured without doing much damage to themselves or the wagon.

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks MOTHER'S FRIEND is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers." Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. MOTHER'S FRIEND takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. ATLANTA, GA.
