Presidential Electors

The Republican Judicial Convention. The Republican Judicial Convention.

The republican electors of the several counties of the Nuth judicial district of Nebraska are herrly called to meet in convention at Norfolk, Nebraska, June 21, 1900, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for district judge of said district and the selection of a judicial central committee and such other business as may properly be considered. The basis of representation is one delegate at large from each county and one delegate for each one hundred votes and major fraction thereof east for Ilon, M. B. Rosse, for judge of supreme court, at the election held in 1809. The several counties will be entitled to delegates as follows:

Antelope, 10: Knox, 12; Madison, 17; Pierce, 8; Wayne, 10.

It is recommended that no proxies be also

S; Wayne, 10.

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed but that the delegates present at the convention east the full vote of the delegation. By order of the central committee of the Ninth indical district of Nebraska.

JACK KOENIGSTEIN, JOHN R. HAYS,
Secretary, Chairman.

The iron mills in the vicinity of Cleveland, Ohio, have enough orders on hand now to keep them busy all of next year without the addition of any new ones. During Grover's term many of these factories were closed for want of work and the men were out of employment. The pessimists derive little comfort from these prosperity facts but the people do and are thankful. If the democrats can win this fall in the face of this great prosperity it will be one of the nine wonders of the world.

Charles H. Dietrich is a type of the German-Americans to whom this western country owes much for its present state of development and progress. They are the kind of people who "came to stay" and while many were oppressed with poverty upon their arrival here they have by, hard work and shrewd business management, acquired wealth in the goods of this world until they are now a great factor in the financial and business interests of the west. Their kind of management of affairs of state would lift it to the elevation now enjoyed by them as individuals-strong in business, strong in finance and strong in diplomacy.

The Sterling Sun says that the democrats of the First congressional district have elected the wealthiest man in Nebraska as a delegate for Bryan at the Kansas City convention. He is Joe Miles of Falls City, worth two million dollars or more. This is but another exhibition of democratic inconsistency They howl down wealth and plutocracy to the public but in their conventions fall over themselves to honor one of the decried class. They pose as the friends of the great common people and vet when they have emolument or honor to dispensense it is given to a man with a competence. They say one thing and do another. How they can hope to inis beyond comprehension.

Democrats assert that wages have been increased only about 10 per cent under the McKinley administration. This is untrue in the aggregate. for where there were thousands of mechanics and laborers out of employment during Grover's term, they are now practically all employed and this increase calls for a large addition to the that saw its birth, the United Norweamount of wages paid. A careful estimate by a bureau interested in manufactures and labor, shows that in 1895 there were $2,291,016,000 in wages paid, while in 1899 this amount was increased to $3,056,635,200 an increase of $765,619-200, or about 33 per cent. While many who held positions during both years did not secure an increase of more than 10 per cent, many who were making no wages increased 100 per cent and the average increase was therefore about one-third.

The Two Johns.

Fusion newspapers have been at great pains to represent John S. Robinson before their readers in terms of adulation and how little our philanthropy is apalmost sickening, and in the same issue to cry down John R. Hays, his republican opponent for congress in this distriet. The truth is that both men are without a doubt, able lawyers, scholars and gentlemen. There is a real contest their movements and see that stray on in this district and the fusionists will canines are properly slain. It costs a find it out before they get through. It will be determined not so much on the and slaughtered countless stray dogs. personal qualities of the two men as by for which service we have never col the public opinion of the merits of their respective political platforms.

If the fusion party in Nebraska, or anywhere, represents so great and en M'LEAN MEN GET NOTHING during principles why has it not attracted more men of striking ability to its ranks? In Nebraska you can almost count them on the fingers of one hand Why is it that the little town of Madison is called upon to furnish both a U. S. senator and a congressman, and both from the same law office? Is Allen, Robinson & Co. all there is of the fusion party in the north half of the state? Both are democrats and in the jungle of political vagaries. By and by the pop prop will give out and then where will Allen and Robinson be? Still seeking some paying office?-Wakefield Republican.

Columbus, O., June 14.-After a continuous session of over nine hours, the without populist support would be lost Democratic convention adjourned last night. It was a slate-smashing and a record-breaking convention. The Mo-Lean people said they were asking for nothing and they certainly got nothing. They helped those who have been opposing them to the places of party distinction and responsibility.

There was a notable absence of the McLean leaders here and very few of temporarily presiding, sent for a squad of police, ordering them to clear the nisles, knock down those who would not sit down and compel the disturbers to be silent. The police filed down the aisles and maintained order during the remainder of the convention.

The platform reaffirms the Chicago platform, denouncesi mperialism, trusts and monopolies and the gold standard bill and instructs the delegates to the pational convention for Bryan.

He Cashes Pay Checks.

New York pays its employees by check, and each pay day sees a great many men with their whole month's salary in their hand, but no money. Various bankers whose places of busito eash the city's checks, but they charge a commission, usually 10 cents on each $100.

The proprietor of a saloon near the city hall is willing to cash the checks without charging a commission, and on pay days his establishment is jammed with officials. He makes his profit on the increased sale of liquids at his bar, for no man after having his check cashed leaves the place without buying a drink. The proprietor of the establishment provides against the city pay day by drawing $25,000 from the bank and hiring a man to take entire charge of the check cashing business. Frequently the entire $25,000 is exchanged for checks. When this happens, the proprietor sends for more money. No city employee asks to have his pay check cashed and is not accommodated, and the extra pay day sales at the bar are a considerable feature of the year's trade.- New York Sun.

A Clever Dog.

There is more in a dog than man's philosophy accounts for. No theory of instinct-sometimes defined as a faculty prior to experience and independent reason-will explain some actions of a clever dog whose case is reported by a correspondent of the London Spectator:

I knew a dog in Ireland-a retriever who had been taught always to bring his own tin dish in his mouth, to be filled at the late dinner. For some reason his master wished to make a change and to feed him twice a day instead of once.

The dog resented this, and, when told to bring the dish, refused, and it could nowhere be found, on which his master spoke angrily to him and ordered him to bring the dish at once.

With drooping tail and sheepish exto be sent to this country by Uruguay, pression he went down the length of the garden and began scratching up the sell, where he had buried the bowl deep down to avoid having to bring it at an hour of which he did not ap-
