domo. In fact, in the last hope of getting a bet down, the men with McKinley money offered luxuriant bets. One of those was an offer to bet any part of $1,000, at odds of 3 to 1, that McKinley would get 100,000 plurality in New York state.

Attempt to Mislead Firemen.

An anonymous circular has been issued, addressed to the firemen of the state, appealing to them to vote against P. N. Prout, republican candidate for attorney general, for the reason, as alleged, that "he was the introducer of senate file 139, which meant to repeal the tax now taxed against insurance companies to maintain fire departments."

This circular is a miserable rosbach, says a correspondent, calculated to deceive voters on the eve of election. Volunteer firemen will not be misled by a cowardly circular. The official records of their last annual meeting at Norfolk are the best evidence. The annual report of State President John L. Schick was unanimously adopted by the state association, and in that report, printed on page 19 of the official proceedings the insurance bill is discussed as follows:

"It is but fair to say in this connection that this bill, with a large number of others, was prepared by parties interested in the compilation of the statutes, and were what is known as 'curative measures,' and were represented to be bills to correct inaccuracies in the statutes, and to conform to decisions of the supreme court in constraining them. A number of these, including No. 139, were introduced by Senator Prout without investigation on his part, and upon the assurance that it was a curative bill only. As soon as Senator Prout's attention was called to the bill and the section it repealed he at once made a statement of the matter to the senate, and had the bill recommitted to the committee of the whole where on his statement and motion it was indefinitely postponed."

The report of the legislative committee was also unanimously adopted by the state firemen, and is printed on page 43 of the proceedings. This report says that "Mr. Prout agreed, and very gladly, to ask that the bill be withdrawn," as soon as he found out its nature.

The state firemen will accept their own records as the best evidence, in preference to an unsigned circular issued on the eve of election.

TWO ARE KILLED IN WRECK.

Train on the Great Northern Runs Into a Landslide Near Ballard.

Seattle, Oct. 25.—Train No. 16, 31 freight cars, east-bound, ran into a landslide last night near Ballard. Two men were killed and three badly injured. Ten cars were burned up and the locomotive demolished.

The killed: A. J. Creeper, engineer, and Roy Archer, a passenger.

The injured: Albert Michaelson, brakeman, ear torn off, hand burned and probably internally injured; A. L. Brindley, supply man, face and shoulders burned until nearly unrecognizable, probably internally injured, may die; D. J. Altman, fireman, slightly injured.

The train struck the landslide almost without warning and the engine and a number of cars were piled in a heap without the engineer having a chance to jump. The wreck took fire almost immediately.

BRYAN TOURS TWO STATES.

Democratic Candidate Spends Day in Delaware and Maryland.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 25.—Mr. Bryan made two speeches of some length in this city, after having made 17 other speeches during the day. Beginning at St. Michaels, on the eastern shore of Maryland, he spoke at Easton, Preston, Murlock, Vienna, Salisbury, Berlin, all of which places are in Maryland, and at Frankford, Georgetown, Kirkwood, and New Castle in Delaware.

The audiences of the day were as a rule fair sized and a majority of them were thoroughly appreciative. At a few of the stopping places in Delaware there was apparent lack of enthusiasm.

Strikers Hold Up Car.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 25.—Three hundred strikers held up a trolley car at Mahoney City that was carrying about 40 men to work at St. Nicholas colliery. John Fisher, a carpenter, who was on the car, resisted the efforts of the strikers to prevent him from going to work and he was severely beaten. All the others returned to their homes without a protest.

FIND NO TRACE OF ALVORD

Defaulter Has Dropped Completely Out of Sight.

MAY HAVE ENDED IT ALL.

Intimate Friends of the Absconding Note Teller of the First National Bank of New York Believe He Has Taken His Own Life.

New York, Oct. 25.—Cornelius L. Alvord, the defaulting teller of the First National bank, has not yet been arrested and it was said no news had been received of him. Mrs. Alvord left her home in Mount Vernon and came to this city yesterday morning.

Many personal friends of Alvord in Mount Vernon believe he has committed suicide. John H. Murphy, one of the banker's most intimate friends, said that he firmly believed that Alvord had taken his own life.

It was learned yesterday that when the Alvords went to Saratoga last summer they took with them all their horses and carriages. It took two cars to transport the outfit. The horses were blooded animals and the vehicles were all of the handsomest description. One set of harness alone is said to have cost $1,500 and everything about the stable equipment was on the same scale.

Vice President Hine of the First National bank, in answer to a number of questions put to him in regard to Alvord and the general situation, said that the bank had cleared up the whole matter of the defalcation to its own satisfaction. This was interpreted to mean that just how and when Alvord had taken the moneys had been discovered by the officials.

Banking men were disposed to believe today that probably Alvord managed to make his escape with several hundred thousand dollars. It is also thought that the Schreiber defalcation helped to uncover Alvord's. Being nervous over the notoriety given Schreiber, Alvord tried to cover up some of his matters and was exposed.

Three steamships left New York Saturday last, the day Alvord is known to have disappeared, on any one of which he might have booked a passage under an assumed name. These steamships were the Mexico, bound for Cuba, the Cap Erie, for Hamburg, and the Amsterdam, for Rotterdam.

The Mexico landed in Havana yesterday morning. Word was received by the detectives later that Alvord was not on board. When the other two ships arrive at their destinations every passenger will be examined and if Alvord is on board he cannot escape detection.

Iron Cage for Desperate Negro.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—An iron cage will be built in the criminal court room for Edward Rutliven, the negro, who will be placed on trial next Monday for the murder of Patrolman Shipp. Rutliven is a desperate man. At the time Shipp was killed he escaped from a score of policemen, who were pursuing him in a long, running pistol fight. If he had not been overcome by strategy he would doubtless have killed some of the men who later captured him in Indianapolis. The cage will be provided to prevent a tigerish outbreak on his part in the court room.

News From Ship Robert Dollar.

Port Townsend, Oct. 25.—The steam schooner San Pedro, arriving with 187 passengers from Cape Nome, brought news which will allay all fears as to the safety of the ship Robert Dollar. When the San Pedro left Nome, on the 12th inst., the Dollar was in the harbor and announcement of its sailing date had not then been given out. There is great competition at Nome for passenger traffic and the San Pedro people think the vessel was held over in order to fill up her accommodations.

Burglars Steal All the Funds In Sight.

Elkhorn, Neb., Oct. 25.—The postoffice and general merchandise store of Charles Witte was entered last night. The safe was blown open, a collection of old coins, valued at $200, $50 in postage stamps and notes amounting to $2,000 were taken. The tools used were taken from Komer Bros' blacksmith shop and entrance was gained by prying open the back door. No clue.

Big Fortune After Ill Luck.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 25.—Reginald Andrews, aged 22, received notice that he has been left sole heir to the estate of a great uncle in England worth $50,000. Andrews has been robbed by pickpockets in Chicago and assaulted by a maniac who killed one person and dangerously wounded three others in the ten months he has been in America.

Kansas Town Hard Hit.

Dunavon, Kan., Oct. 25.—This town was partially destroyed by fire yesterday. The business portion is a total loss, including Richardson's store and hotel, the postoffice building, three residences, steam laundry, grist mill, Yourley's manufacturing plant and contractor's shop and office. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Clara Barton Seriously Ill.

Galveston, Oct. 25.—Clara Barton is dangerously ill at her apartments at the Tremont hotel. Ever since her arrival in the city, about six weeks ago, she has been in ill health and at intervals, upon the advice of her physician, was compelled to remain in doors. Of late her illness has assumed a serious phase.

ROOSEVELT'S CAMPAIGN.

Finishes at Utica After an Eventful Day in His State.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Governor Roosevelt's third day of campaigning in New York state embraced several features not heretofore marked in his reception. At nearly every place at which he stopped there were huge crowds of people. In this city, instead of speech-making, the day's work ended with a review of an immense demonstration. This was entirely agreeable to Governor Roosevelt, who during the day had made nine speeches while traveling through three counties—Chenango, Madison and Oneida.

The second feature was the meeting here of the vice presidential candidate and Senator Dewey and the grouping together upon the stage in this city, within a period of three hours, of ex-Comptroller of the Currency Eckels, Senator Dewey and Governor Roosevelt. The third feature was a pre-concerted attempt at Rome to compel Governor Roosevelt to answer questions concerning the letter of Mayor Van Wyck, the prosecution of the ice trust, the prosecution of the alleged canal thieves and other questions.

That the attempt was preconcerted was assured from the fact that men in the crowd asked the questions, holding in their hands printed slips and on their failure to compel the candidate to answer numbers of these slips were thrown into his carriage. The governor positively declined to give any expression of opinion as to the circulars or their authorship or any of the questions.

TRIBUTE TO SHERMAN.

Many Prominent Men Attend Funeral Services of the Late Statesman at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In the capital of the nation, where his work had been accomplished, there gathered yesterday representatives of every government department and the representatives of many powers to pay homage to the memory of John Sherman. The funeral services held here were at the Sherman home on K street, where the aged statesman had spent the greater part of the past 50 years.

It was a notable gathering that filled the hallway and parlors of the residence, the most representative, perhaps, at any funeral here since the burial of General Lawton last spring, when much the same concourse of officials and diplomats gathered to honor the soldier dead as met in memory of the statesman whose services, thought in a different line, had been equally as distinguished.

After the services the funeral party left for Mansfield, O., on a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad.
