Madison county convention came off to-day at Madison, and settled the Hon. Frank Welch's hash, at least so far as Madison county is concerned. Frank came over from Norfolk with the Norfolk delegation, backed by two or three double-headers, which he had succeeded in packing, the U. S. land-office and the heft of the democratic politicians in the county. They swelled and puffed, and threatened the terrors of eternal misery to any that had the temerity to oppose his Honor. He lost the temporary organization, when they left the convention in rage. The convention proceeded to elect delegates to the State convention and the transaction of other business. Hon. W. M. Robertson has the solid delegation for Attorney General and Mr. Welch "nary." Robinson stock has advanced. Hurrah for Madison county!
