—Call at the Picture Car on the Fair ground the 11th, 12th and 13th, for your pictures of all descriptions. Those are my last days in Columbus. H. C. Preston.

—Spooner and Bushel have entered into partnership. Geo. has so much work on hands that he is compelled to divide it with an other, and thus, according to the old adage, conquer it.

—Plows, plows, plows in great numbers are arriving at Gus. Lockner's preparatory to fall trade. If you want A. No. 1 article in that line, call on him. Satisfaction guaranteed.

—A car load of nails is on the road and expected in every day for G. H. Krause & Son's. They expect to sell lots of nails this fall, and invite every one who needs nails to call on them.

—Rev. Fleharty conducted the religious services at the M. E. Church last Sabbath and discussed the missionary and other benevolent enterprises of the church. He preaches at this church every other Sunday.

—There will be a dance at the Opera House, Thursday evening, after the Theater closes, for the benefit of the Agricultural Society of Platte county. Let all who love innocent, healthful amusement be present.

—The Monroe precinct farmers' club, at their meeting Sept. 7th, decided to have a pic-nic on the 21st of the month at Olaf Larson's grove, near the Looking glass bridge. The club meets at Chas. D. Tyler's, Sat'y, Oct. 1st.

—Bring your grain sacks to Schupbach & Schrœder, who for 65 cts. a dozen, will put on string fasteners which will enable you to tie and untie your sacks without taking your gloves off, and which will always be safe.

—We learn from Jacob Ripp that the pic-nic at Lynch's grove on Thursday last was well attended, and was a decided success, socially and financially,—the net proceeds being sixty dollars, which, we understand, is for the benefit of the church of that very popular young priest, Father Smith.

—G. H. Krause & Son's will get a car load of heating stoves about the 15th or 20th of this month. They will handle the best line of hard and soft coal base burners in the market.

—Hallam, on Section 18 of the U. P. Railroad has a dog. There is nothing strange in this. But the dog is a character. Each day, he chases the passenger train each way, the freight trains run too slow for him, and he shows contempt for them.

—Mr. Ryan of Logansport, Ind., and Eugene Eggleston of Sherman Precinct this county are being treated at the Medical & Surgical Institute, the former for bronchitis, the latter for jaundice. Patrick McNamara has been under treatment for necrosis of the ankle.

—On last Wednesday and Thursday over $12,000 was paid out in Columbus for cattle. Two hundred and fifty stears wers furnished W. P. Phillips of Lincoln by D. Anderson, and nearly 200 head sold by Baker & Gillet, to W. Myers of Elkhorn. Who doubts that Columbus is a great cattle market.

—Gus. A. Schrœder, having purchased David Schupbach's interest in the hardware store is now running alone, and at a good round gait, too. Gus. is well known to most of our readers as a straight-forward, business man, prompt and fair in his dealings. Give him a call.

—New goods constantly arriving at Pinkney & Brainard's drug-store on Nebraska Avenue, and a special assortment with corresponding prices for Fair week. Everybody is invited to drop in and buy what is needed, from powder for the teeth to medicine for the healing of the numerous diseases to which human flesh is heir.

—It ought not to be forgotten that Jno. N. Lawson is agent for the Racine and Victor patent school desks, and that school officers can buy them as cheap of him as of the manufacturers. One of these desks (we don't remember now, which one), is the best we ever saw—perforated seat and back, ink-fountain, lock on desk, &c. Give John a call. Patronize home enterprises.

—Messrs. Bullard & Smith insert an advertisement in this week's JOURNAL. Both of them have been in business in the city for some time past, are clever gentlemen to deal with, have secured considerable patronage, and are determined to have still more. Their specialty is to buy and sell all kinds of farm products. Give them a call.

—Messrs. Jaeggi & Schupbach have purchased of A. Henry his immense stock of lumber, and have opened out in business for themselves. Mr. Schupbach was formerly engaged with Mr. Henry and recently was Gus. Schroeder's partner in the hardware business. Mr. Jaeggi has for a long time been in the Columbus State Bank. Both are well known, and are good business men.

—Alf. N. Burgess, of the firm of A. N. Burgess & Co., takes pleasure in informing the citizens of Columbus and the surrounding world, that he has been figuring all summer during the quiet months, for your benefit, and he has been making arrangements so that he will be enabled to furnish Household furniture cheaper than ever. The goods will be rolling in and out, from now till Christmas at a lively rate, and you can never buy furniture in this city cheaper than you can at present or will the coming season.

—Capt. D. D. Wadsworth received a telegram Monday from John Godfrey of Laramie, stating that one of his children has died and would be buried at the cemetry in this city. We are informed that this makes the fifth child lost by Mr. Godfrey—two at Omaha, one here and two at Laramie. Mr. Godfrey, with the body of the child arrived here yesterday morning on the express. A large concaurse of friends of the family followed the remains to the cemetry.—The child was two years old and died of summer complaint.

—Attend the primaries next Saturday. Remember that the county convention will put in nomination a representative and a commissioner, besides selecting delegates to the State, Senatorial and float conventions. All these are important to you, because the persons chosen to represent the Republicans of Platte in these matters may bring an injury or a blessing. Besides, every intelligent voter owes it as a duty to the public, to maintain, to the best of his ability, his political principles, and use his endeavors to have them prevail. Selecting that political party which most nearly represents his general views, it becomes him to see that, through no fault of his, at least, the unworthy, or the incompetent has place and power as an official. As delegates, select good men who will think more of the general welfare than of private gain; men of sound judgment and practical good sense, then, having done your duty, you can feel assured that they will do theirs. Don't be of that class of persons, always more or less numerous, who growl at what has been done, and yet took no part or lot in the matter to make it otherwise. Having honestly done what you consider your duty, if you are defeated, bear your disappointment like a man, and prepare for an other conflict. Defeat is always better than a doubtful victory.

Personal.

—Mrs. V. Kummer is improving in health.

—Robert Uhlig returned Sunday from Chicago.

—Dr. Lewis of Albion was in the city yesterday.

—J. E. Tasker is engaged in town again, with A. Henry.

—A. J. Arnold returned from Grand Island Sunday.

—Miss Fred. Langhoff arrived yesterday from the west.

—Birney, son of F. Brodfeuhrer, is sick with typhoid fever.

—Judge G. W. Post was in the city Friday and Saturday.

—F. M. Sackett of Boone county was in the city yesterday.

—M. Schram of Plum creek spent the Sabbath at his old home.

—Jno. McCormick of Omaha passed west on the train Saturday.

—Horace Hudson is sick with Asthma—a very painful disease.

—D. A. Willard of the Boone Co. Argus was in the city Saturday on business.

—Hon. Loran Clark of Albion returned home from the city Monday morning.

—Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Jno. Lawson's mother, who has been seriously ill, is better.

—Our readers will notice M. B. Hoxie's name on the homestead notices for the first time.

—L. M. Saley and M. Welch start for Omaha Monday, to be in attendance at the U. S. Court.

—A. Nance, Esq., of Osceola, the chief candidate talked of by Republicans for Governor, was in the city Friday and Saturday.

—Geo. T. Spooner returned from Des Moines Saturday. His brother though at death's door, passed the crisis, and grew better.

—Maj. Frank North came in from the west yesterday morning, and Miss Stella now rejoices in a young antelope for a play-fellow.

—Israel Gluck returned from Chicago on Friday. The Garden City, he says, is lively and full of business, in fact was never better.

—E. Halliday of Batavia, Ill., the inventor of the oldest wind-mill in the United States, was in the city a couple of days last week. He is a lively gentleman of sixty years, whose bright, sharp eyes betoken wit and much, good humor and both of them in abundance.

—Col. Lewis Lewton and wife of Cadiz, Ohio, passed this city on the 8th inst., on the western bound train for their new home in California. Their numerous friends, readers of the JOURNAL at his old home, will be glad to know that they were in good health and excellent spirits at this point on their route.

—How much a cultivated taste will add to the pleasure of a home, planting flowers in the yard, decorating the grounds, loading the walls with pictures and statuary, keeping everything neat and clean, and, if these things are so commendable and make home-life so enjoyable, what shall we say of those grander mental and moral qualities in the father, mother, sister or brother, which irresistably draw all hearts toward them in beautiful homage? What an admirable tribute to the memory of one who long ago crossed the "border-land" did we hear the other day from the lips of a son whose judgment is remarkably free from personal bias,—"My mother never wronged me"! Would that all the mothers of the defenceless little ones were thus just.

Billy Marble.

Billy Marble, the popular comedian, will visit Columbus again, remaining this time only three nights, Sept. 12th, 13th, and 14th, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will present entirely new plays. Marble will appear during the engagement as O'Callahan, The Irish Doctor, and "Wool" in the great play of The Hidden Hand. The character of "Wool," the darkey, has been acted by Mr. Marble over five hundred times throughout the principal cities of the Union. Reserved seats now on sale at the Red Front Drug Store, opposite the post-office. Don't forget the dates, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 12th, 13th and 14th.

—Three horses were taken out of Chas. McIntyre's stable one night last week and put to a trial of their speed, on the race course in the bottom, south of the city. It seems that two of the horses were badly injured in the breast by running against a fence, one of them so severely that it is supposed it will not recover. It is now at Tiffany's stable, under treatment. The race was a decided "mistake" on the part of the managers, whoever they were. To break into a stable, take out three horses not your own, run them nearly to death, injure them seriously, only to see how fast they can run, and then not find out.

—The members of Columbia Rebekah Degree Lodge No, 11, are requested to meet in their hall, Thursday, the 19th day of September, at half-past seven o'clock, in the evening. One of the grand officers will be present, and important business transacted.

By order of lodge.

ALTA A. BAKER, Sect'y.

DIED.

BONESTEEL.—At Chicago, Sept. 8th 1878, at midnight, of quinzy, resulting in diptheria, Philip Benjamin Bonesteel, in the 29th year of his age.

The deceased left this city two weeks ago this morning, and was in Chicago on business, when he was taken ill with sore throat. His last letters to his wife and his brother Norris G., stated that he hoped to be up on Friday, and at home by the middle of the week. All other subsequent communications by letter and telegram were from Farwell & Co., of Chicago, telling of serious illness and requesting Mrs. Bonesteel to come, then of his death at the time stated.

Yesterday morning the following gentlemen went to Omaha to receive the remains of the deceased: J. P. Becker, on behalf of the Masons; J. B. Wells, for the Encampment; E. J. Baker, for the Odd Fellows' lodge; J. R. Meagher, for the Knights of Honor, and J. Rasmussen and D. Kavanaugh, on behalf of the Firemen. It is expected that they will arrive here at 1:30 P. M. to-day. The funeral will probably take place at four o'clock this afternoon, possibly not till to-morrow morning.

The deceased was born in Canada, Dec. 29th, 1849, and removed to Nebraska March, 1868; in 1870, with his elder brother, Norris G., he embarked in the dry-goods business in this city, and was thus engaged at the time of his death. In May 1875, he married Miss Kittie L. Dale, an estimable lady, who, with their little daughter, Pearl, are left to mourn the departure of a devoted husband and fond father. Words can not tell the agonizing grief of the stricken wife who was not permitted to be present to soothe the dying brow and catch the last beam of affection from the fading eyes so soon to be closed forever in death, and to feel the last fond pressure of the hand that was ever so bountiful to her and from which she had never known ought but kindness,—but such are the ways of Providence toward man; but faith, that faith which lays hold upon eternal life, and sees the ever-kind Father, through the storm of grief, the cloud of sorrow and the night of pain, and knows that all is well, all is well, will sustain her who mourns to-day, and bid her look forward to a re-union with her beloved in the happy Summer-land.

The members of his family are not alone in their grief, for the deceased had many, warm personal friends, and no enemy that we know of. The remarkable uniformity of his conduct, his good judgment, his gentlemanly bearing under all circumstances, and the thorough integrity of his character,—qualities always admirable—endeared him to a host of acquaintances, and especially to those who were near to him in business or social relations. He was one of the oldest members of the Odd Fellows' lodge of Columbus, having passed through all the different chairs, and at the time of his death, occupied the highest office in the lodge. He was likewise a member of the Masonic lodge of Columbus, and of the Knights of Honor, and an active member of the Fire Department, for some time its chief, and while his trip to Chicago was mainly one of business, he carried the certificate of the Department authorizing him to represent them at the Grand Tournament which took place in that city.

It is natural for us to grieve when Death comes in any shape, but when he comes so quickly, and hurriedly carries away one of our number so universally esteemed, as an exemplary citizen and business man, and one so fondly loved as husband, father, brother and friend, the clearest Faith and the strongest Hope can but look on our grief approvingly, and as becoming those who live in frail tenements, whose lives are as shadows upon the wall, and as a fond tribute to the memory of the departed whose spirit already occupies the house not made with hands.

Money Lost.

Monday evening, in Columbus, a pocket-book containing $35. A liberal reward will be given for its return to David Smith.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives, try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists in America.

Eye, Ear and Deformities.

One or more of the Surgeons of the Central Surgical Infirmary, of Indianapolis, Ind., will visit Columbus, professionally, at the best hotel, Friday, Sept. 20th and Schuyler Saturday Sept. 21st. All afflicted with any disease of the Eye or Ear, Catarrh, Cross Eyes, Club Foot, Spinal Curvature, Piles, Epilepsy or chronic diseases, can consult them free of charge. Artificial Eyes inserted. Remember the dates.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between C. D. and E. Clother, and Philip Cain, doing business under the name, style and firm, of Clother & Cain, at Columbus, Nebraska, was this day dissolved by mutual consent. All business up to date will be settled by Phillip Cain.
