The Bible in future will be read in the New Haven schools.

TRAVEL on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was suspended on the 16th. Damage to the road between Connetquot and Hinton, W. Va., is very heavy.

BURT TAYLOR, a notorious burglar of Chicago, was shot dead by a policeman on the 21st, while trying to escape from a house which he had just robbed.

It is stated that there are now 154 convicts in the penitentiary at Lincoln. We don't believe that this number is large for a new country.

O. B. DAVIS and George W. Keating, well known cattle thieves were found hanged near Spearfish, D. T., on the 18th. It was supposed to be the work of the vigilantes.

On the 17th inst., the jury in the case of Sears v. Conrad and others, on trial in the United States Court at Omaha, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $3,000.

Mrs. CASSIDY, of Bladenburg, Md., not long since gave birth to three girls and two boys, who are all living. This is the largest number, and the strangest case on record.

The recent election, held at Des Moines, to vote one per cent tax to aid the extension of the B. and Q. road from Knoxville to Des Moines resulted in 1,422 votes for, and but 296 against it.

News from Paris, under date of the 19th, states that it has been decided to prolong the exposition to the 20th of November, in order to give an opportunity for the sale of exhibits.

On the 17th inst., Ben. Butler was nominated for governor of Massachusetts. The Democrats proper nominated Richard D. Hubbard for governor, and adopted a soft-money platform.

PROTESTANTS and Catholics united at New Haven the other day for the re-establishment of devotional exercises in the public schools, and carried the question by a majority of 2,930 votes.

MAJOR GENERAL JAMES SHIELDS was the other day, at New York city, prostrated with a very severe attack of bronchitis, and spent a sleepless night. He was considered in a very critical condition.

At New Orleans on the 17th inst., there were 63 deaths and 223 new cases of yellow fever. At Memphis 101 deaths were reported since noon the day before. Mrs. J. W. Clark a nurse from Omaha, Neb., died on that morning.

A WONDERFUL curiosity has recently come to light in Pawnee County this State, a calf without a hair upon its body. It is now over three months old and weighs one hundred and seventy-five pounds. It was recently sold to parties at Omaha, for $165.

THE dreaded disease at New Orleans has assumed a somewhat milder form, and mortality is lessened, under date of the 20th inst. At Vicksburg, under same date, the fever had assumed a more virulent form. New cases are proving very fatal. At this place there is a tendency toward black vomit.

The recent hard storm struck the northern part of Michigan where considerable damage was done to property, at least fifteen hundred trees fell across the track of the Thomas and Southwestern railroad, besides doing considerable damage to buildings and property along the line.

A DISPATCH from Portland states that Gen. Howard has been gathering his captured and surrendered Indians at Camp McDermitt, and that they will amount to about one thousand. Gen. Howard recommends that they be taken to the Indian territory or to some other distant locality.

The recent rain storm which visited parts of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio was the most severe within the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant." The farmers in Harrison Co., Ohio, suffered heavy losses in corn crops, sheep, &c. From twenty to thirty bridges in the county were swept away.

The republican party is for honest money. It proposes that our financial system shall be secure. It is determined that the pledges of this nation shall be made good, and it cannot affiliate with any party that proposes to let down the national honor or to destroy our credit. It will not bargain for power. It will stand or fall on the basis of honesty.—Littell's Commercial.

A FEEL list of the number of deaths and new cases which had occurred from yellow fever, in many localities in the south reported to the 21st inst., show quite a decrease in the deaths, but no perceptible change in the number of new cases. At New Orleans the cases reported show a good average throughout the locality afflicted. From noon on the 21st, to 6 p. m. 12 deaths and 157 new cases.

Our Richmond Letter.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—A few Richmond items may not be out of place, as you have subscribers here and I will occasionally send news, if desirable. We were greatly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Phil Bonestell and tender our sincere condolence to his family. Columbus has lost one of her best citizens and one esteemed and liked by every one who had the pleasure of knowing him.

You may not have heard that at the Democratic convention on Friday last at Schuyler Mr. Jonas Welch, of Shell Creek Mill, was nominated for Representative, and as he is a very popular man with both parties, and well fitted for the position both as to ability and sterling honesty of character, we think he will probably be elected. It would be hard to find a better man for the position.

Our position is not turning out so well as expected on the average, though several have had a very respectable yield. In my next will give fuller reports, but as a rule we get more straw than grain so far.

It is a pity we cannot utilize our straw instead of burning it, and I'd hope to see some of our good water power adapted to paper making.

Quite a number of fruit trees set out this season, the most noticeable of the settlers out near us having been Mrs. P. Bell and Wm. Stevens; the latter is a very energetic farmer and has wonderfully improved his farm since owning it. He has a fine and thriving orchard, and this, with a really good house, wind-mill, good barn, etc., makes a very respectable land mark near us. May others be both able and willing to follow his example.

Mr. I. Eckelberry is putting up a new large stable and adding fruit trees to his farm; the spirit of improvement seems strong among us. We have another store, opened lately by the grain buyer H. Theinhardt, and if we get a depot (long promised at this point), Richland may yet be a thriving little town.

I should say Mrs. Eckelberry contemplates visiting her friends in the east this fall and though we shall greatly miss her, hope the trip may be a pleasant one.

Our friend Roderick McKinzie is happy again, being blessed with another addition to his family last week a fine, healthy boy.

Quite a number of our neighbors from Wilson precinct were in Omaha last week as defendants in the Sears case, but the trial is ended and they are back again. Verdict of the jury not yet known up to Saturday night. A very strong interest is taken here in the case, they sympathize entirely with the defendants. More anon.

Respectfully, TREBOR ENYAR.

REPUBLICAN CO. CONVENTION.

A Harmonious Meeting—List of Delegates—The Ticket Chosen.

Pursuant to call, the County Republican Convention was held at the Engine House Saturday last. The convention was called to order at 2:45 by M. K. Turner, chairman of the Central Committee and the objects of the convention stated by him. John Wise was selected as temporary chairman and B. Millett as temporary secretary. On motion, a committee on credentials was appointed by the chair, as follows: John Strasser, D. C. Loveland and N. French. After consultation they reported accredited delegates as follows: from Columbus precinct, Geo. W. Galley, G. W. Cloyer, D. C. Loveland, Byron Millett, J. W. Early and M. K. Turner; Woodville, N. French; Creston, S. J. Wheeler, R. M. Johnson; Butler, John Strasser and C. Meedel; Bismark, Herman Wilkin; Monroe, J. J. Bump, Wm. Matson, W. H. Cotton; Sherman, John Wise; Lost Creek, Edwin Hoare, G. W. Shaffer. The report of the committee was received and adopted, and afterwards the name of Joseph Stewart was added by the committee as delegate from Pleasant Valley.

G. W. Cloyer, G. W. Galley and W. H. Cotton were appointed a committee on permanent organization and reported recommending for permanent chairman, Byron Millett; secretary, Edwin Hoare. On motion the report was accepted and adopted and the committee discharged.

The chairman stated the objects of the convention, and appointed Cotton and French as tellers.

On motion of Cotton of Monroe, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates who shall be elected by this convention are hereby directed to support no candidate for state or national office, who is known to be identified with rings or combinations which mainly represent the interests of monopolies and wealthy corporations, as against the interest of the people generally.

Resolved, That it is very unjust and oppressive to the inhabitants of this state for the railroads to charge higher rates for carrying our wheat or other produce to market at this time of financial depression while labor and material of every kind are exceedingly cheap, and that we favor wholesome laws that will regulate and limit these charges.

The convention then proceeded to the election of delegates to the State convention, resulting in the choice of Edwin Hoare, B. Millett, J. W. Early and M. K. Turner, with alternates, J. J. Bump, John Strasser, G. W. Cloyer and N. French.

To the Judicial convention, the following delegates were chosen: M. K. Turner, B. Millett, G. W. Cloyer and M. Whitmoyer.

The balloting for Co. Commissioner was as follows: First ballot, Geo. W. Galley, 8; John Wise, 7; Herman Wilkin, 2; necessary to a choice, 9. Second ballot, John Wise, 9; G. W. Galley, 8; John Wise, having received a majority of the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the convention.

G. W. Galley introduced a resolution commending the public life of Lorenzo Crouse and instructing the delegation to vote for him for congressman. Some remarks were offered complimentary to Mr. Crouse, but unfavorable to limiting the action of the delegates selected, and the motion to adopt the resolution was lost.

On motion, the delegates chosen, and present at the several conventions were authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

The following named gentlemen were chosen as members of the Central Committee: D. C. Loveland, of Columbus, Chairman. For Columbus precinct,

M. K. Turner; Monroe, H. C. Magoon; Lost Creek, P. H. Kelley; Sherman, H. T. Leusche; Bismark, L. W. Temple; Creston, Silas H. Tucker; Woodville, H. A. Saunders.

On motion, the committee thus appointed were authorized to fill vacancies. Convention adjourned.

GENOA.

Hawkeye, also, See a General Truth, as well as a Fork of Antelope and the New Normal School.

DEAR JOURNAL:—Surely some specially happy affluents rested upon your editorial labors last week. On every page there is some selection better, and more thought-inspiring, than on the other ones. That science alone, concerning the heart rather than the head being an essential element of good society and conversation, is the concentrated essence of Christian truth touching the relations of the heart and the head. The head sums up the little we know fully; the heart takes cognizance of the infinitely greater truth which we only press. Not without reason, therefore, does the Bible call the whole inner man the heart; not, as we more weakly do, the feelings alone. You ought to print that sentence in small capitals and repeat it once a month for the next ten years.

The Messrs. Willard are making things lively in this, their new possession. They are bent on having a large hall here, which under the shelter of the gently-sloping bluffs, or, in time, crowning them with fair mansions, shall render classic the shores of the Beaver, and serenely command the valley of the Cedar and the upper Loup. Columbus, look to your laurels! We are meditating dire designs against your dignity.

Learning is rising coeval with the new city, in the shape of the Normal School, residing in the center, and I must think, more hopeful pupils, than used to fill its 120 feet of length. The teaching abilities of Prof. Charles D. Rakestraw, do not, I presume, stand in need of commendation at Columbus, and as to the intellectual furniture that lies behind his practical skill, there is required no better attestation than the Master's Degree of the University of Virginia, for those of us, at least, who know how much that means. I am not a graduate of that school myself, but I wish I was, meaning no disrespect to my own Alma Mater thereby. A man, you know, can have a double set of harness. We of the north Platte County, Nebraska, during his present brief visit, put this in our pipe and smoke it, ye chronic grumblers.—Lincoln Journal.

DR. JOHN A. WARDER, of Ohio, author of "Warder on Apples," who delivered a lecture on the subject of the Horticultural Society of Ohio County, last Thursday evening, declared that never, in any country, had his eyes seen, nor his palate tasted better, fairer, or more luscious fruit than he had himself picked from trees in the orchards of Otoe County, Nebraska, during his present brief visit. Put this in our pipe and smoke it, ye chronic grumblers.—Lincoln Journal.
