Messrs. Bullard & Smith are erecting an addition to their new business house on 11th street.

The melon season is about over, yet we saw Saturday in the Columbus market some choice ones.

Last Saturday was a very pleasant and beautiful day and a great many people were in the city.

James Mc Allister is erecting an additional building in the rear of his business place on 11th street.

Agreat many of our citizens are taking advantage of the low rates of travel to attend the State Fair.

Wm. Grant was fined $15 and costs Monday for an assault upon a very inoffensive youth, Robbie Saley.

The Era commends Judge Post and Dist. Atty Reese for the manner in which they dispatch business.

There will be a Presbyterian service at the church this (Wednesday) evening, 7 1/2 p. m. All are invited.

The delegates from Boone county are Chas. Voorhees, J. W. Kiley and F. M. Sackett, and are solid for L. Clark for State Treas.

Messrs. Hunneman & Tolman now have entire control of the mill at Waterville. Of course, as usual, they will make first-class flour.

Quarterly Conference Central Nebraska District Latter-day Saints Cedar Creek Antelope Co. Saturday and Sunday Sept. 28th and 29th.

Persons at a distance would scarcely believe the immense numbers of cattle now being shipped east over the U. P. railroad past this city.

Our Richmond letter was received too late for publication last week. We have made arrangements for regular letters from there, and our readers will find them full of interesting local items.

J. T. Lovering, Chaplain in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, is announced to lecture in Baker's Hall, this city, Friday evening, Sept. 27th. Everybody invited.

$3.75 will take you to Lincoln, admit you to the State Fair and bring you home again. Tickets can be had at the Depot until the departure of the eastern train on the 26th.

We could almost realize the other day that "Fun Alive" means, while J. O. Shannon related the circumstance of disposing of two large skunks, while attempting to remove an old floor.

Nine persons united in full membership with the M. E. Church last Sabbath, five at the Columbus charge in the morning and four at the Butler county appointment in the evening.

Loveland & Ellis are removing the Henry Gass building from Washington Avenue, opposite the Court House, to 11th street, one door east of Rieky's meat market, where it will be occupied by Samuel Gass.

Rev. J. Q. A. Fleharty will attend District Conference before his next regular day of services at this charge. We presume, however, that there will be preaching at the M. E. church, this city, next Sabbath week.

The Woman's Temperance Union meeting next Sabbath evening at the Congregational church. Short addresses will be made by some of the ladies of the Union and by ministers of the city. All are cordially invited.

John Wagner, of Stearns Prairie, was in the city Saturday for lumber to build a granary to store his wheat, and says he will sell only enough wheat, at present prices, to pay his debts, and will store the balance.

The Grand Dictator of the Knights of Honor of Neb. (W. B. Dale of this place) recently issued an appeal to the brethren for aid to the yellow-fever sufferers. Two lines of the appeal contain the substance of all true charity—"Contribute to the full extent of your ability and without delay."

Michael Mann, of Illinois, visited Platte county last week, and he was so well pleased with the country that he purchased of the B. & M. railroad company about a section of land in section 20, range 2, with two living springs on the tract, and his intention is to soon stock it with cattle. He can but succeed well with his enterprise.

J. O. Shannon has the contract for the erection of a new dwelling-house for Jas. Conway on Olive and 5th streets, this city.

Special Communication of Harmony Chapter No. 13, O. E. S. on Friday evening, Sept. 27th. By order of W. M., Maggie Meagher.

G. Scheidel and L. Stracker, of Lost Creek Precinct, will remove to this city about the 1st of October, and take possession of the Central Hotel on 13th street, recently kept by Wm. Speich, where they will continue to accommodate the traveling public.

From A. N. Briggs we learn that Fred. Warren of Butler county, raised sixteen acres of volunteer grass wheat, twenty-four bushels to the acre, and weighs 59 lbs. to the bushel. This variety of wheat seems extremely well adapted to Nebraska, and is the nicest we ever saw for harvesting.

J. W. Witchey, who resides south of the Loup, this county, showed us Monday a splendid lot of peaches which grew at his place, and which he had prepared to send to the State Fair. We can not doubt from this sample that that central Nebraska will obtain a premium on peaches this year.

On Saturday last the Monroe Farmer's Club held a picnic at Looking-glass bridge. There were about one hundred present, old and young, speeches were made by Rev. Cook and A. Rose, and essays read by E. D. Osborn, Mrs. Sarah Tyler and L. A. Hoopes. The chief amusements indulged in were croquet and swinging. Of course the baskets, filled with the good things of this world, were emptied with a relish.

On Friday last M. B. Reese, Dist. Atty., appointed A. E. Pinkney as Deputy Dist. Atty. for this county. We have not heard any of Arthur's legal efforts, but we have all confidence in Mr. Reese's ability to discern merit, and the appointment is no doubt due to this alone. Parties having State cases to conduct in Platte county, will call on Mr. Pinkney, who is authorized to push prosecutions at no cost for legal services to the prosecuting witness.

The concert and other exercises by the scholars attending Sunday school at the M. E. Church this city last Sabbath evening was a pleasant and enjoyable affair and was well attended. The singing, recitations and dialogue were very creditable to children so young, and speak well for their Superintendent and teachers as manifesting an unusual interest in the welfare of the children under their care by imparting useful, moral and religious instruction.

At the County Democratic Convention Saturday last, the delegates chosen to the State Convention were Jno. Stauffer, J. G. Higgins, J. E. North, Jno. H. Hines and Jno. P. Beam. How this delegation tallies with one appointed for same work, some time since, by the Democratic Central Committee, we don't know, as the general public has never been advised in regard to that peculiar and unique transaction, and we have no available private source of information, our Democratic brethren being pretty close-mouthed concerning it.

The hotel on 7th street, and Washington Avenue, now commonly known as the American House, is shortly to be removed to the corner of Olive street and Pacific Avenue, one square directly south of Henry Bro's grocery. Loveland & Ellis have the contract for removal and fitting up. It has not yet been determined, we believe, whether George Lehman will occupy it himself, but it will be fitted up in first-class style as a hotel. The old neighbors of the American House are congratulating themselves upon its removal, as, for the last few years, its "general-run" of occupants have not been of the most desirable.

It seems not to be generally known that the State Supt of Schools is required by law to "define the text-books to be used in the several schools in the State, lists of which shall be furnished to the County Superintendents, and then transmitted to the several District Boards within their jurisdiction." Such a list was made out in 1869 by Supt. S. D. Beals, and stands to-day the same as he left it, with the addition of Lippincott's Geographical Gazetteer and Biographical Dictionary and Youman's First Book in Botany. We are informed that Supt. Thompson has made no changes and no additions to the recommendations of his predecessors, notwithstanding the fact that publishing houses have been clamorous for change and have, doubtless, made him very liberal offers. There are several reasons why there should be uniformity in the State, reasons that will readily suggest themselves to every teacher, and to every parent who buys school books. We have not space to print the entire list, which doubtless can be had of the Co. Supt., on application. It contains Hillard's Readers, Worcester's Spellers, Guyot's Geography, French's Arithmetics, Harvey's Grammars, &c., &c.

Mr. Sapp, of Illinois, was in the city on Friday last; the bare mention that he had attended the Normal School at Hopdale, Ohio, brought up many pleasant recollections.

Henry Vogler called at this office Friday. He has lived in Iowa, Nebraska and California. Left Iowa and Nebraska on account of grasshoppers, and now he leaves California on account of Indians—and talks again of buying land in Neb. That is the way they all do—come back to Neb.

Mr. B. Hall, of Brinfield, Peoria county, Ill., was in the city last week. He is on a short trip taking a look at Nebraska, and is much pleased with the country. He shows his faith in the soil by selecting and locating 160 acres of land in the Cedar valley. He left for his home in Ill. on the morning train of the 19th inst.

Mr. C. H. Brooks, of Galva, Henry county, Ill., was on a trip last week through portions of Nebraska, and stopped off a day or two in our city. He informs us that he is much pleased with Nebraska, so much so that he has located 160 acres of land in the Cedar valley county, fifty or sixty miles west of this city. He started on the morning train of 19th inst., for his home in Ill.

Geo. N. Derry and family returned Saturday from their visit to Iowa, all in good health. Geo. leaves with a specimen of Iowa apples. He says that trees which were three feet high when he left Iowa some years ago are now large and are used as fence posts, and with barbed wire stretched between, make an excellent fence. He commends this method to farmers of Nebraska.

The Democracy of Columbus precinct held their second caucus for the season last Monday evening. The object of the meeting was to select a second set of precinct delegates to the second county convention to convene next Saturday, for the nomination of representative, commissioner, &c. The main question of contest seemed to be over Hensley and Crites for representative, each gentleman, we understand, having his ticket of delegates prepared, for which he was campaigning. Our informant is of the opinion that all, or about all the delegation chosen are for Hensley, their names being John Rieky, R. H. Henry, M. T. Kinney, E. D. Sheehan and E. L. Higgins. If this is so, Hon. Henry T. Sperry and the other rural leaders of the Democratic hosts had better look "a little awed," and bring up the rear battalions for their gallant leader, Crites.

George Reed, 12 years old, left his home near St. Edwards, Boone county, on last Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15, and has not been heard from since. When he left he had on a calico shirt, brown hat and brown duck over-hauls. He was sent on an errand by his father to some neighbor's house, and when night came, the boy failing to return, it is supposed that he has been encouraged to leave by someone. Any information concerning his whereabouts, will be happily rewarded by his grief-stricken father, I. H. REED, St. Edwards, Boone county, Nebraska.

P. S.—When last heard of, he was at Mr. Coffin's, on Sunday night last, one mile east of Genoa. Neighboring papers please copy.

To the Rescue! We earnestly appeal to the ladies of Platte county for contributions of clean underwear for children and adults of both sexes for yellow fever patients; consider nothing too old or worn, if clean, to make a change on a sick patient or bed. Leave your packages at Marshall Smith's store for packing. All contributions will be forwarded to the President of the Howard Association at Memphis.

At a special communication of Lebanon Lodge, No. 58, A. F. & A. M., held Sept. 18th, 1878, for that purpose, the following resolutions were adopted, on the death of Philip B. Bonesteel. WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to take from our midst, our beloved brother, Philip B. Bonesteel, and whereas, the Lebanon Lodge has sustained the loss of one of its most energetic and worthy members, and the community at large has sustained the loss of a member whose noble qualities as a member of our brotherhood, we deeply feel the loss of our brother, and we, the members of the Lebanon Lodge, do hereby extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and friends of our worthy brother, in this their sad affliction; and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved wife and relatives, and placed on the records of this Lodge; and that a copy be published in the Columbus papers for publication.

Resolved, That we tender to the widow and other relatives of our deceased brother, our hearty sympathy, in this their hour of affliction and sorrow. Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge; that the Lodge and working members be draped in mourning for thirty days; that a copy be furnished to the widow of the deceased, and that a copy be published in the city papers.

Resolved, That the members wear a badge of mourning for thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and placed on the records of the Chapter, and also that a copy be sent to each of the Columbus papers for publication.

Resolved, That this Chapter has lost a faithful and worthy member. Resolved, That the members wear the badge of mourning for thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and placed on the records of the Chapter, and also that a copy be sent to each of the Columbus papers for publication.
