Deception in politics don't pay.

New corn meal at Loveland & Ellis's.

Did you get your share of dust Saturday?

David Anderson has completed a new barn.

Mr. W. F. Kimelm of Osceola was in the city Friday.

Fred Coan, typist of the Norfolk Journal, is in the city.

Don't forget the Republican meeting to-morrow evening.

Read Bernard McGregg's business card in another column.

Eugene Blodgett has purchased his brother's threshing machine.

Mrs. Henry Scholze of Sherman precinct died Friday in childbirth.

O. A. Stearns is building an addition of 12x30 to his photograph rooms.

Every species of hardware at Wiggins's, prices away down, to suit the times.

E. C. Bond of Iowa passed through the city Thursday on his way to Utah.

G. W. Shaffer is in town yesterday, alive, but not so well as before the fire.

Herman Pieper is building a stable, 18x30 with a twelve foot shed attached, for cattle.

The foundation to the new Presbyterian church has been laid and the building is going up.

We have report in full of the S. S. Convention in this county, but too late for publication this week.

The Mannerher had a dance Saturday night at their ball opposite the Court House. A fair attendance.

It is rumored that on Saturday last Jas. Ducey lost all his grain and his dwelling-house by prairie fire.

Wm. Grant was in the city Monday and in reply to our inquiry for news, said emphatically "I have no bad news."

The Episcopal society will be held at Major Frank North's residence, the evening of the 30th inst. All are invited.

There is a growing disposition to prosecute to the uttermost limit of the law, persons who wantonly set out prairie fires.

Marshall Smith returned from the east the first of the week where he has been to purchase a new stock of goods and groceries.

C. A. Speice and H. J. Hudson left on the 13th inst., as representatives to the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F's., which met in session at Lincoln yesterday.

Mrs. Minnie Drake returned the first of the week from Chicago where she selected a general assortment of millinery goods for the Columbus market.

Franz English lost the stacks of twenty-five acres of wheat by prairie fire on circus day. H. V. Monette of the same neighborhood lost all this nursery stock.

Great attraction at Spring Lake Landing next Sunday at 3 p. m. "Lady of the Lake" is to go into the waters. Many people are expected there to witness the solemn event.

Mrs. H. P. Baker left the city yesterday for Golden City, Col., to join her husband, who has been there several days. We wish our young friends success in their new home.

Miss Thirza Smith, of New York, accompanied her brother, Marshall Smith on his return to this city. We learn that Miss Smith, if pleased with Neb., will make it her future home.

Mr. Courtright and wife of Mich., who have been in the State for a while past on a visit, started for home Thursday last. Mr. C. thought it not improbable that he would return.

The Presbyterian society held in the temporary church last week was a complete success. Another will be held in the same place on Wednesday evening of next week to which all are cordially invited.

Richard G. Dalton, in burning a fire-guard the other day, allowed the fire to get away from him. It burned up his stable, and all his hay, twenty tons. He had all he could do to save his four horses from the flames.

One of our subscribers hands us a recipe for the cure of the disease commonly called "hog cholera." Last year a great many hogs died in Nebraska, and it may be well for owners to make the experiment of this remedy.

T. C. Ryan, though a comparatively young man, is an old resident of Nebraska, and his interests are identified with those of Platte county. Let every Republican be at the polls on election day and see to it that every Republican vote in his precinct is cast for Ryan.

M. O'Toole, formerly of this place but recently of Anoka, Minn., returned to the county about two weeks since, and, with his family, has located on his farm in Sec. 2, Town 19, Stearns Prairie. He has built himself a good, frame house since he returned, and expects to make that his future home.

Rev. J. Q. A. Fleharty left last week for Beatrice to attend conference.

F. Brodfeuler, who has been sick for some time past, is reported as better.

Mary Albright, the tailoress, may now be found on 13th street opposite the post-office.

J. N. Reynolds, Esq., of Des Moines, Ia., has located in the city as an attorney at law.

Wm. Burgess, Esq., late U. S. Pawnee Agent, left the city Sunday, for Leavenworth, Kan.

Mrs. Jno. H. Johannes left the city Thursday for a few months' visit to her daughter in Omaha.

Judge I. N. Taylor of the Oakdale Pen and Pione, was in the city Thursday looking in good health.

Mr. Hudson sold a bunch of California grapes the other day weighing three pounds and a quarter.

Capt. Wadsworth left at the JOURNAL office last week a nice sample of pea-nuts grown in his lot in this city.

Wm. Draper says that Omaha is the best mutton market for Nebraska—a great deal better than the Chicago market.

Every Republican should turn out to-morrow evening to hear the speeches of Gen. Cowin, Mr. Hayward and Col. Chase.

Phil and Frank Cain and Howard Metz left the city Wednesday last for Philadelphia. Phil. expects to return in about a month.

"Dick" Rossiter is organizing a new "gang." All those who can keep a secret and march to music are requested to call at his office.

A race for $50 has been made between Lon. Clark's gray and a horse from Tekamah to come off at the race track on the bottom next Saturday.

One of our masons predicts that brick will sell here next year at $5 a thousand. If that is the case there will be more brick houses built than heretofore.

The attention of our local readers is called to the change in the R.R. time-table, which went into effect on Thursday last. You will find it on the first page.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kinney celebrated their tenth marriage anniversary last Monday evening. They caused a great surprise and had a good time.

Of course local politicians will read Mr. Gerhold's announcement. He feels justified in his course, by the manner in which he was treated at the Democratic convention.

J. D. Brewer has two eyes always open to the practical. He is now running his engine with wheat screenings. He hasn't any doubt that this country can produce plenty of engine fuel.

David Jones was held by Justice A. Rose on a charge of setting out prairie fire, and on refusal to give bail was sent to prison Saturday. A writ of habeas corpus was applied for and he will have a hearing today.

Luther and Major North and Chas. Morse returned Sunday from Chicago, where they had been with nineteen car-loads of fat cattle. They struck a low market for their cattle, but report a pleasant time at the Grand races.

The Sons of Temperance will give a dramatic entertainment shortly, (perhaps Oct. 25th), the play to be entitled "The People's Lawyer." Such entertainments are very commendable, in that they not only afford enjoyment to the public, but also tend to develop home talent.

Generous-minded and liberal-hearted, T. C. Ryan, an ardent Republican will be able to accomplish more in the legislature for Platte county than any Democrat could—a Republican feels at home in a body of Republicans, and as a matter of course, has more influence with them.

We learn of the following casualties by prairie fire in Boone county occurring since Saturday: John A. Greene on the Cedar, six stacks of wheat; W. W. Tolman, of St. Edwards, three stacks of wheat and one of oats; James Hudson, four stacks of grain; Joseph Rittel, three stacks of grain.

The entertainment given by the Cadets of Temperance at the old school building in this city last Saturday evening consisted of singing, recitations, dialogues and selections, were performed in a manner that reflected credit upon all engaged in the exercises and rendering the occasion very pleasant and enjoyable.

Vote for T. C. Ryan for representative of Platte county in the next legislature. As a man, he owes what he has of learning and means to his own exertions, and therefore understands and appreciates the needs of the people, and in the enactment of laws, will see to it that no harm comes to them through any fault of his.

We have several Democratic politicians who very pertinaciously button-hole Republican to vote for them and work for them, and who never show a Republican a favor. It is not necessary for us to be personal in this matter, but just think of this little paragraph the next time one of them approaches you, and tell him you do your own thinking.

Everything in the hardware line can be found at John Wiggins's, on 11th street. He recently received a car-load of stoves, a car-load of iron, two car-loads of nails, and has the finest line of heating stoves, with and without ovens, ever brought to the city.

Mr. A. Albrecht, the artist painter of this city, had on exhibition and competing for a prize at the State Fair, specimens of his skill in a couple of oil paintings, and was awarded the first premium of $15.00 over numerous competitors. This speaks well for Mr. A's skill as an artist and painter.

We most earnestly entreat our Nebraska readers to not set out prairie fires. Perhaps $30,000 worth of property has been destroyed within the last few days in this and Boone counties by fires, needlessly and carelessly set out. A few more heavy losses, and sufferers will become so reckless that it will not be safe for a man to be caught or proved, or as a "burner."

If the Republican majority in Nebraska were but one vote it might become important to know just exactly whether Frank Peculiar Burgess (the Republican-Democratic "Man up a tree" of the Era), would vote for Valentine or Davis. Under existing circumstances, it is not perhaps, so important as it might be, though we should feel very sorry if such a good Republican should desert to the political enemy, and put his heart where his treasure is.

Monday Morning a team attached to Jos. Bucher's wagon broke away from the man who was holding them by the bits near the depot, and ran down Eleventh street at the top of their speed. They brought up at the litching posts at the Cemetery without any injury to anything or anybody. At one time, while they were dashing down the street, it looked almost impossible for them to pass the people and the vehicles, without hurting some one, but fortunately they did.

Frank Peculiar Burgess, professor Republican business partner and scribbler for the Democratic paper of this place, betrays jealousy of his betters in a quarter-column article in the last Era, on the action of the delegation from this county to the late Republican State Convention. When Frank Peculiar can't have his own way, he is inclined to kick out of the traces. It would perhaps, be well enough for him to learn to submit to the inevitable popular will with what little grace he can muster.

A Congregational Church Furnishing Society was organized last week, of which Mrs. E. L. Sherman is president, Mrs. Benj. Spielman, and Mrs. A. A. Smith, vice presidents, Mrs. C. G. Hieck, secretary, Mrs. Dr. Polley, treasurer. The society will hold a church fair in a few weeks, probably Thanksgiving evening, to which all our citizens are invited to contribute. It is expected that the Congregational Society will build a new church this fall or winter for which a subscription will be circulated in a short time.

Memorandum of goods contributed by the ladies of Columbus for yellow fever sufferers, and forwarded to Dr. A. W. Mitchell, Director of the Howard Association, at Memphis, Tenn., by Mrs. J. R. Meagher, Sec'y Harmony Chapter No. 13, O. E. S.: Men's wear, shirts $3; drawers 4; coats 4; pants 4; overalls 1; boy's pants and jacket 7; ladies' and children's drawers 28; night dresses, large and small, 65; sheets, new and old, 42; pillow slips, new and old, 128; 1 bed quilt; 1 bed tick; children's waist 15; dress skirts 3; 1 table cloth; towels 4; poisonase 4; small dresses 2; vests 3; 39 pairs of stockings; other articles too numerous to mention, weight of box 408 pounds.

Prairie fires are raging northwest of the city along Shell Creek, in Lost Creek precinct, and Sunday evening were in the vicinity of the city as close as Pat Murray's place. Rumors of damage to all kinds of property, including live stock are rife, but up to going to press we have been unable to get particulars except as follows: Geo. Scheidel, barn, some farm implements, corn and hay, and a tenant upon the farm, whose name we did not learn, had a span of horses burned in the barn. From Thomas Rossiter we learn that James McDonald lost three stacks of hay and Pat Murray, two; G. W. Shaffer lost four stacks of wheat, and in fighting the fire, inhaled the flame, so that he has probably received a fatal injury—at least this is now reported.

No doubt S. L. Barrett, the Democratic candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, would like to be gratified by a large vote in this county from his Republican acquaintances. If Mr. Barrett had remained true to his first political love he might have been elected Sup't of Platte county and of the State, but we fail to see what claim he has upon the Republicans of old Platte for their votes. Not because he was once a Republican, surely, and certainly not because he is now a Democrat. There is absolutely no reason why Mr. Thompson should not receive the vote of every Republican. He has long and successfully been engaged in school work in this State, and has given universal satisfaction. The people of the State can rest assured, that under his next administration of schools affairs as under his last, no harm will come to those interested.

Police Court. F. J. Myer for sweeping paper in the street was fined 50 cts. and costs. C. A. Ham, for disturbing the peace was assessed by the judge $2 and costs.

M. Gross was arraigned on a charge of sweeping paper in the street, but was found not guilty.

Louis Peterson, for drunkenness, was fined $2 and costs.

Rudolf Smith for one plain drunk, was asked to contribute to the school fund, in the sum of $1, and pay costs of trial, which he did.

Pant Glaus was too careless about his lodging quarters and was found asleep on the street; was taxed $1 and costs.

Chas. Ritter for drunkenness and disorderly conduct was fined $4 and costs.

A Card.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14th, 1878. To the many kind friends and neighbors who have shown such wonderful kindness to the wife, and mother, whom we have this day laid to rest, our heartfelt thanks are due, for their ministrations during her protracted illness, and in following her to the grave. We can only say, may it be long ere the shadow shall cross your threshold, and we be enabled to reciprocate in kind.

S. J. EDWARDS, CELIA L. STILLMAN, CLEMANTINE FIELD.

Advertisement.

In consideration of the fact that I was builded out of the nomination for County Commissioner, and in view of the fact that my friends are persistent in their entreaties, I now offer myself as an independent candidate for the office of County Commissioner of District No. 1, Platte county. I ask all men, whether Republicans or Democrats, to consider well, and give me their votes, as a farmer, and therefore one well qualified to understand their interests.

WILLIAM GERHOLD.

Political Meeting.

Hon. M. L. Hayward, Judge John M. Thurston and Capt. J. C. Cowin will speak in this city, October 17, at 7 p. m. All are invited to attend and hear discussed the political issues of the day.

MARRIED.

BENSLY—MCALLISTER.—On Sunday, Oct. 13th, 1 p. m., at the Union House, Schuyler, by Judge H. C. Russell, Mr. W. Hensley, Esq., editor of the Columbus Era, and Maggie McAllister, both of this city.

We congratulate the happy couple, whose fortunes, for weal or woe, have thus been joined. Both of them being sensible, practical-minded and considerate, with a favoring Providence, their lives will be serene and useful.

DEATHS.

NORTON.—On last Saturday night, a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norton, of this city, aged 14 months.

EDWARDS.—At 3 o'clock Sunday morning last of dropsy, Mr. Lydia Edwards, wife of Solomon J. Edwards of this city, aged 38 years.

The deceased formerly resided at New Berlin, Chenango county, New York, at which place and at others where she was known, the intelligence of her decease will bring recollections of tender ministrations at the times of sickness and distress, the appeal for which she never disregarded when it was possible for her to respond.

Her last sickness, the effect of a complication of disorders, though painful in the extreme, and extending through a period of months of acute suffering, was borne by her with christian fortitude, almost entirely repressing manifestations of suffering through regard for the feelings of her family, and at the last, surrounded by her family, and sustained by the christian faith, she passed to her rest.

(City and New Berlin papers please copy.)
