

Communications to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Monday; if lengthy, on Thursdays preceding issue-day. Advertisements of whatever class, should be in hand by noon, Tuesdays.

Advertisements under this head 10 cts. a line first insertion, 10 cts. a line each subsequent insertion.

See the Plunketts to-night.

Last Sunday and Monday were beautiful days.

M. Kramer returned from the east last Friday.

Michigan Apples $3.25 a barrel at L. Cokburn's.

Rob. Curran of Polk Co., was in the city Saturday.

M. Schram came down from Plum Creek Saturday.

Wasn't the town alive Monday with political workers?

Gross Bros. received last week a carload of work horses.

Hon. Jno. T. Clark of Schuyler was in the city Saturday.

The natural roads in this vicinity are the best we ever saw.

We are informed that Grand Island has three night watchmen.

An unusual amount of wheat changed hands in this city Monday.

The sale of lands delinquent for taxes began Monday last at 10 o'clock.

The new post-office Woodburn is on the Loupe, ten miles from Jackson.

Church Fair at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Jno. Strasser and L. Kuhne were down from Jackson Saturday on business.

Flynn & Son have on hand 150,000 good, hard brick, which they wish to sell.

The force of facts is a practical logic which may be denied, but can not be disobeyed.

Real Yack Lace at 10 cents a yard at L. Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store.

Clark Conroy was in the city Saturday looking in excellent health and spirits, as usual.

Wm. Becker is putting up a new dwelling-house on 14th street, near his place of business.

Wanted.—An experienced farm hand. Apply soon at this office, with recommendations.

On Friday morning last thirty-three bulls from the Henry ranch were received at this place.

M. B. Reese passed through the city Saturday morning. He had been campaigning in the west.

Oyster Supper and Festival in connection with the Fair to be held in the Opera House next week.

Byron Millet on Friday returned from Lincoln where he was in attendance at the Supreme Court.

Episcopal Sociable at the residence of G. W. Hulst, Esq., Monday evening, Nov. 11th. All are invited.

J. P. Becker has lately been afflicted with rheumatism. It doesn't look natural to see him with a cane.

Rev. Sherman's lecture Sunday evening, on the Model Young Man, was listened to by a large audience.

Mr. Gordon C. Dimick left the city Sunday for Omaha, where he expects to find employment as a clerk.

Work is progressing on the new railroad bridge west of the city—across the slough east of the "big bridge."

Ed. Sheehan has the honor of putting up the first street lamp in the city—east at Charles Schroeder's foundry.

School begins in the new school house in Dist. No. 1, near J. H. Reed's residence, on Monday, November 13th.

Messrs. Smith & Drake have opened a nice stock of millinery goods at their new store on Thirtieth street.

Mr. Plunkett tells us that, excepting Columbus, he has not heard the people of Nebraska talk of "hard times."

A little daughter of Mr. R. Bullard of this city was reported very ill Monday morning, and not expected to recover.

Wm. Eimers opened his large new store on 13th street last Monday. His goods are not all here, but will be put in shortly.

Wild geese don't seem so plentiful in this vicinity as in former seasons; it must be owing to the mild winter north of us.

School begins in the new school building in Dist. No. 13, next Monday. A full attendance during school hours is requested.

A daughter of Mr. John Kelley has been quite ill with typhoid fever. We learn that she is improving and will with care recover.

Mrs. Henry Curtis of Butler county has been quite ill for some time past, but we learn that she is now improving and will recover.

What was formerly known as Stearns Prairie post-office has been changed to Grand Prairie, and Jas. McCleary appointed post-master.

G. W. Barnhart, son-in-law of G. C. Barnum, has been appointed U. P. R. agent at Jackson. George is one of the Company's stand-by's.

Plenty of free advice—at this particular juncture—relentless extortion—crying slaves—Boo-oo-oo-oo.—Big Boy up a Stump, in the Era.

O. P. Reed writes us that his return home has been delayed by the sickness of one of his children and also one of his horses. He will be home as soon as he can.

Free admittance to the church fair next week. Go yourself and take your neighbor.

A fine collection of paintings, chromos and engravings will be exhibited at the Fair next week.

The brick work on the Presbyterian church is completed. It will make a very nice building when finished.

Postle & Blackman have fourteen first-class farm horses for sale, cheap for cash, or on time with good security, or in exchange for cattle.

Wattsville has formed a Literary Society with H. C. Magoon president and Fred Zoll, secretary. Meetings are held every Saturday evening.

Will some Nebraska farmers' club give us, for publication, a method of getting rid of the sand burr, which threatens to be a great pest?

Extra attraction at the Opera House Nov. 13th and 14th. Go and see the fine display of fancy and useful articles. No charge at the door.

The Era says that Miss Mattie Reynolds, sister of Mrs. Longshore, arrived from the east Thursday last, and will visit her sister during the winter.

The name of Wolf P. O. has been changed to Postville, in honor of the Columbus Dep. P. M. John Elliott has been named as post-master.

Woodburn, a new post-office, has been established in this county and John Graham appointed post-master. Service will begin in about one week.

Lost.—A pair of beaver gloves that would be pleasant to have at this writing. The finder will confer a favor by leaving them at the JOURNAL office.

Drake & Smith are opening up a fine line of dress and millinery goods in Central Block. Call and see them.—Minnie S. Drake and Marshall Smith, proprietors.

Monday week the residence of James McClain near Postville was burned down, the fire originating at the chimney. The house was sod and the roof of slough grass.

C. E. Morse returned Thursday from the North Loupe country. He says that the prairie fires which swept that country this fall have proved very destructive of property.

Just received, a car-load of the old, reliable, Stoughton wagons and buggies, which will be sold cheap for or on time, at the Wind Mill and Pump House of A. W. Lawrence.

The Monitor Lodge K. of H., of this place have received a draft for $2,000 in payment of the insurance upon the life of P. B. Bonesteel, in favor of his wife Mrs. Kitty L. Bonesteel.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of J. C. Elliott in to-day's JOURNAL. His windmill is a good one, and he will be found an accommodating dealer. Give him a call.

David Anderson sold last week to A. J. Poppleton, of Omaha fifty head of two and three year old steers. These cattle will be fed near the Ekhorn, this winter, and then shipped to the Chicago market.

Gus G. Becker and J. N. Reynolds have arranged their office in the bank building very neatly, and Gus has the south side plastered with signs. If you want any insurance on your property go and see Gustavus.

The Knights of Honor met for the first time in their new hall last Saturday evening. The Knights of Pythias, who have subsided from the K. of H., held their first meeting at the same place to-morrow evening.

More than the usual interest was taken in the election yesterday. Everybody is beginning to recognize the fact that success in this county depends greatly upon personal solicitation, of candidates or their friends.

The Mayor and City Council appointed John McMahon at their Saturday evening meeting, as Night Watchman. We believe Mr. McMahon will make a faithful watchman, and strictly guard the property interests of our citizens.

Double establishments are getting to be quite common. George Wandell's saloon is to be enlarged by the addition of a billiard-hall on the north, and connected by an archway. This part is the new concrete building erected by Mr. C. H. Young.

Capt Wadsworth, in the south eastern part of the city, has sold his residence property to Mr. O. D. Brooks. Mr. Brooks intends to run a dairy and vegetable garden, and the Capt. is erecting a new dwelling on his lot in the city, south of the Opera House.

John Wagner had in the late fire at Stearns Prairie the wheat from 13 acres burned, and fortunately for Mr. Wagner he had his wheat insured with G. G. Becker, of this city, who being notified of the loss promptly adjusted the same, amount to about $75.00.

L. G. Freidley left on Sunday last for Philadelphia where he expects to pass the next two or three years in preparing himself for the practice of medicine. His sister Emma accompanies him as far as Davenport, where she will pass the winter visiting her sister.

Judge G. W. Post came in from the west Saturday morning and passed the Sabbath with his brother, A. M. Post, Esq. The Judge, as we learn from our western exchanges, has been doing effective work in that part of the State in advocating the principles of the Republican party. He is a genial, hearty man and works with vim.

Columbus Dramatic Society.

They Prove a Big Success in their First Effort.

On last Friday night the largest audience that has ever greeted any class of entertainment in this city, crowded the Opera House to witness the first performance of the Columbus Dramatic Society. The play chosen for the occasion was no simple comedy production, designed for amateurs, but a real drama by J. S. Jones, first produced at the National Theatre, Boston, in 1839, and was quite popular both in this country and England, the well-known comedian, John E. Owens making the character of "Solon Shingle" one of his specialties.

In order that those of our readers who did not have the pleasure of attending the entertainment, may be able to better judge of the capacity of our home talent for handling the drama, we will give a brief synopsis of the plot of the play, and append the cast of characters, as they appeared on the bills, with the noticeable features in each character.

Scene I, act I, opens in Boston in the counting-room of Hugh Winslow, a merchant, who has in his employ, as clerk, Chas. Odis, a young man who is the master of deception, a widowed mother and an only sister. Winslow attempts to bribe young Odis to perjure himself that he may cover his own tracks in fraud; fails, discharges him, and then attempts to accomplish his ruin through the instrumentality of a willing tool he finds in John Ellsley, another young man in his employ. This young man who can be bribed to almost any act of meanness, conceals the base intention of the employer to make his companion and friend appear a petty thief, and he is arrested and thrown into jail. In this diabolical work Winslow is actuated by a motive of revenge and in the present case of Odis, he is convicted him of forgery. From the accomplishment of his design, he is prevented by Robert Howard, the People's Lawyer, who, disguised as a mechanic, visits Winslow on business, witnesses the scene in the counting-room, when Charles is discharged, becomes interested in him, and also in his sister, appears in the court room at the trial in his true character, succeeds in clearing Chas. in the case of forgery, and in the happy denouement marries the woman he has won by his noble acts while disguised as a common mechanic.

THE CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Robert Howard, the People's Lawyer—a talented young lawyer, possessed of both moral and physical courage, pleading always in the cause of right and justice, was well received by Mr. Em. J. Potts.

Hugh Winslow, a merchant—artificial, cunning, revengeful and dishonest, will hesitate at no means to accomplish an object, except bloodshed, from which he is deterred through cowardice. This character in the play was well taken by Mr. J. W. Martin.

Solon Shingle, a country Teamster—a real yankee character, whose inseparable companion is his whip, which appears with him alike upon the stage and in the parlor, and is an excessive chaffer of tobacco. He is "down to" Boston on business, the nature of which is not made very clear, but consists chiefly in getting himself into all manner of ridiculous scrapes, and in his ignorance of city ways, he is in committing innumerable laughable blunders. This character is the life of the play, and it fell to the lot of Mr. Sam. Hunt to distinguish himself in it. The part was well needed the part played by noted actors say that his rendition was original and good.

Charles Odis, Winslow's Clerk—considered "A lie is a lie disguise it as you may," cannot be suspected of bribery. Mr. G. W. Phillips entered into the sentiment of the character, and in his indignant rejection of the overtures of the villain Winslow to become dishonest, and in the display of righteous wrath at his subsequent persecutions, did exceedingly well.

John Ellsley in Winslow's employ—a weak young spendthrift, devoid of principle, whose extravagances led him into all kinds of fraud upon his employer and others with whom he is connected—a ready tool in the hands of Winslow in forwarding his schemes. To Mr. Geo. Fairchild was allotted this character, who acted his part very especially so in his show of emotion and the remorse of a troubled conscience, during the manly plea of Robert Howard, for his (Ellsley's) young friend whose ruin would be accomplished by his perjury, and whose confession finally cleared him.

Tripper, an Attorney at Law—self confident, shrewd in his profession, who works for money and to win his case, regardless of justice; in the prosecution of young Odis. Mr. W. T. Ransdell in this character did very well.

Timid, a Lawyer—lacks nerve to assert and maintain his rights against his legal adversary. Mr. H. J. Briggs in this character did very well.

Mr. Odis, mother of Charles—the high-minded, educated, and refined woman, sees justly apparently proven upon her only son, but with the knowledge that her duty as a mother has been faithfully performed, and that her perjury has been firmly engraved in the character of her boy, accepts his emphatic avowal, "Mother, I am not guilty" with the answer, "I believe you." Miss Virginia Shannon acted this part with credit.

Grace, her Daughter—by Miss Flora M. Jamieson in the role of the loving daughter and sister, who considers poverty no disgrace, and is proud of strong and honest brother, was a complete success.

The remainder of the cast, appearing in the court scene, all of whom acquitted themselves with credit were as follows:

Thomas, a Policeman, Mr. H. P. Bower; John, a Porter and Clerk of the Court, Mr. R. S. Clark; Judge Foreman of the Jury, Mr. W. H. Lawrence.

Mr. Em. J. Potts, in his character scene was enthusiastically received by the audience as were the pantomime and tableaux exercises.

Criticism could be offered in many instances, which, no doubt, was apparent to the actors themselves, but it being the first appearance before a public for the majority of them, we forbear making any.

To Mr. Em. J. Potts falls the credit of the management, who with all concerned, may well feel flattered with the success of their first effort.

The Plunketts.

On Monday evening, this theatrical troupe, which has justly become a great favorite in the State, presented to a delighted audience, "St. Patrick's Eve" and "The Silent Woman." We have not space for an extended review of the play, but must content ourselves with saying that, it represents mainly, a brief courtship by two Irish lovers, one poor, Terrence O'Moore, the other rich, Bernard Cavanaugh, of a lovely, lively Irish maiden Kathleen, with proposals of marriage from each.

A diamond ring and a rich robe given to the young girl by Lord Cavanaugh's sister, seem to turn her head towards being a "lady," while her heart clings to "Teddy," the remainder of the play, up to the final scene is the wedded life of Kathleen and Cavanaugh, where she, as lady, has a fine mansion, a handsome wardrobe, plenty of servants, but is poor and miserable at heart, with only abuse and neglect from her husband, until finally he hires a villain to act her out of existence, and when the act is about to be accomplished, "Teddy" appears on the scene, kills everybody but Kathleen, but is himself arrested for murder, and is about to be hanged, when Kathleen awakens from her sleep and is frantically joyful to find it all a horrid dream.

With paroxysms of delight she accepts of her grove of ten acres, a very unique affair, closes the play. All the parts were very well sustained, and the play throughout was heartily applauded, and Carrie Finkett as "Kathleen," Will McKee, as Terrence and J. S. Overton as "Cavanaugh," deserve high praise for "holding the mirror up to nature."

To-night, (Wednesday) will be presented "The Celebrated Case," and we recommend all lovers of "the mimic world" to be present.

On Friday last we spent an hour at Jackson, six miles west of this city. The trade of Jackson is increasing. The dealers in grain are John Strasser, and L. Kuhne, and James Outwater, in connection with Mr. Kuhne. Mr. Kuhne is also proprietor of an excellent dry-goods store in the place. Chris Mahler keeps a hotel, and has recently put up a fine barn on his lot. We eat dinner at John Strasser's, and a better one no man need want, or ought to have. The farms between this and Jackson are all excellent, and some of them show first-class dwellings, with good barns and groves of trees. Mr. John Ernst, brother of Jacob's, told us that his grove of ten acres was ten years old, and that he now has more fire wood from it than he uses; Mr. Keller's place, Mr. Bean's, also the North's, Chas. Morse's, Arnold's and Barnum's show thrift, comfort, and industry in the warehouses of Kuhne and Strasser was of good quality. Ed. Newman teaches the public school there, and gives excellent satisfaction.

One would think by looking over the local page of our esteemed contemporary that the individual who had charge of it was able to see clearly but one personage in the world that deserved particular and marked attention, that personage being the humble individual whom our contemporary calls "Moses," otherwise known as the editor of the COLUMBUS JOURNAL. If it affords any sort of satisfaction to P. Peculiar Burgess, the professionally Republican sub-editor of our Democratic contemporary, we certainly think it is the duty of the editor of the most accommodating disposition in the world, and take a peculiar and nameless delight in seeing our beloved friends and fellow citizens enjoy themselves. And now, frankly, we advise our peculiar friend to endeavor to begin to cultivate a like happy disposition.

Election.

At this hour, 9 a. m., nothing definite has reached us. Columbus is not yet counted—will probably give Ryan 40 majority, Henry up the wards of 100, Loveland about the same.

Irish Shell creek is reported 22 majority for Crites.

Puller gives Gerhold a majority and Ryan a majority of five. Much interest was manifested in the election, but a good deal of scrapping was done. Columbus cast 375 votes, and there are about forty straight tickets on each side.

Mr. Charles Plunkett tells us that Columbus asks a higher license for entertainments than any other place he knows of in Nebraska. While the city of Philadelphia charges ten dollars a year, Columbus charges five dollars for each entertainment. Crites, in this State, collects a license of fifteen dollars a year from the proprietor of their Opera House, which is all the tax laid upon traveling entertainments. Mr. Plunkett spoke of this matter in no complaining spirit, however high he may regard it.

The old American Home is in position at the new site, corner of Olive street and Pacific Avenue, one square south of Henry's grocery. A commodious addition is to be put on the rear, and the whole fitted up in no complaining spirit, and occupied as a hotel, which kind of property seems to be very valuable in Columbus.

The Rev. Robert Christison expects to deliver a series of lectures on religious subjects in a few weeks for the benefit of his church here.

The series of nine lectures is very highly spoken of by those who have heard them, and our citizens may hold themselves in readiness for the enjoyment of a rare treat.

A Commendable Offer.

ME. EDITOR:—Having, by a kind Providence, been preserved against loss by fire, though in imminent danger, I wish to express my gratitude, and at the same time invite others to help, and therefore I will make the following offer: I will pay to the order of our honorable board of county commissioners $25 in produce for the relief of the sufferers by fire in our county provided thirty-nine others will do the same.

A. HENRICH.

Columbus Precinct Ticket.

At a caucus of Republicans held Monday forenoon, the following ticket was put in nomination: Assessor, A. H. Gibson; Road Supervisor, Dist. No. 1, Jacob Ernst; Road Supervisor, Dist. No. 11, John Huber; Judges of Election, George W. Galley, Ole Olson, John W. Martin; Clerks of Election, John G. Rouston, O. C. Shannon.

W. E. Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Congregation of the M. E. Church to-morrow, (Thursday) at 7 1/2 o'clock to discuss business of importance in connection with the church, also to provide for the support of the gospel. All are invited to attend.

FRANCIS KERR, Stewards.

[Communicated.]

The Era says that such a man as Crites should be sent to the legislature to erase from the statutes all the extraneous and ambiguous matters. Does the Era esteem Mr. Crites as efficient in law-making, as physicist, to a diseased and gorged stomach?

—David Anderson last week shipped to Omaha two cars of fat hogs, and will ship two cars more this week. Mr. Anderson informs us that the packing season has about commenced and that most of the country packing houses are now receiving hogs and paying from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 for their hogs.

The Democracy of Columbus

perpetrated in nomination the following ticket: Assessor, M. T. Kinney; Supervisor, No. 1, P. H. Griffin; No. 11, Wm. Lohr; Judges of Election, John Browner, Fred. Reimer, M. Weaver; Clerks of Election, D. Kavanaugh, Gus. A. Schroeder.

It is current news at this place that Craig & Clark, of Cadiz, Ohio, who own a township of land in Stanton county, Neb., which has been in litigation in the U. S. Court by a party claiming the whole under a tax-title, have been successful in the suit.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as Boscier's GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that uses it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by A. Heinz, C. B. Stillman and Doland & Smith.

Entry Notice.

Taken up on my premises, on Shell creek, Oct. 26th, 78, a sow about eight months old, black and white spotted, with both ears off, probably by dog bites. The owner can have her by paying expenses. 442-2. ANDREW MATTHIAS.

L. Kramer has just received large additions to his already immense stock of goods, in clothing, he is able to show some great bargains. He has the largest stock of goods in town; does business strictly on the one-price system, and it will pay you to give him a call.

Attention, Sheep Owners!

We have 15 head of thoroughbred Rams on hand, which we offer for sale, cheap—all long woolled, just what you want to cross with fine woolled sheep with to it pay. 441. GROSS BROS.

Meat Market.

Jacob Shotwell, having purchased the meat market lately owned by Frank Gillett, is prepared to furnish, beef, pork, &c., equal to the best and at prices to suit the times. 437x.

TATTERSALL.

The Tattersall Live Store is an excellent place to stop when you are in town with a team. Good accommodations. Reasonable charges. On Olive street, one door south of Coolidge's hardware store. Try them. 268x.

Nich. Winter Apples.

In a few days I will have a carload of the choicest, hand-picked, Michigan Winter Apples, which I will sell cheap for cash. L. COCKBURN.

Babies.

Nice assortment of Dolls and Doll-Babies at Ed. Fitzpatrick's book store. 42-4.

A lot of children's and Misses' trimmed hats for 50 cents at L. Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store. 438-6.

COLUMBUS MARKETS.

GRAIN, &c. Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

PRODUCE. Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted 3 50.

Wheat No. 1 35 1/2, No. 2 35, Rejected 34 1/2, Corn 15 1/2, Barley 15, Oats 15, Rye 20, Flour 25 1/2, Graham 25, Meal 20 1/2.

Butter 12 1/2, Eggs 12 1/2, Potatoes 15, Beans 15, Peas 15, Onions 25, Turnips 25, Beef 15, Pork 15, Lard 15.

LIVE STOCK. Fat Hogs 20, Fat Cows 25, Fat Calves 25, Veal 15, Hides, green salted