

Communications to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Monday; if lengthy, on Thursday preceding issue-day.

Advertisements under this head 15 cts. a line first insertion, 10 cts. a line each subsequent insertion.

—Saw without wind on Sunday. —John Henry's little child is ill.

—Peter Martz lost two head of cattle last week. —Fred. Robar and wife are on a visit to Grand Island.

—Governor-elect Nance passed down the road Monday. —Rob. Pinson has lost four head of cattle by "the disease."

—Large lot of boxes and barrels cheap at Marshall Smith's. —Large lot of boxes and barrels cheap at Marshall Smith's.

—Kramers sold $100 worth of goods to one man last week. —F. W. Ott sells you toys cheaper than any one else in town.

—Charles Morrill, Esq., of Polk county was in the city Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Henry have been east the last fourteen days.

FOUND.—A pair of gloves. Call at this office and prove property. —J. C. Morrissey shipped eight car loads of hogs the last two weeks.

—A good Fanning Mill for $15 at John Wiggins's Hardware store. —Jno. Henry and wife of Fremont are visiting friends in the city.

—Wm. Ernst, living near Jackson, had two colts killed last week by the cars. —H. T. Bullard of the North Star Grocery is confined to his room by sickness.

—Gen. Hengler's advertisement of brick for sale appears in to-day's JOURNAL. —Mr. Brainard of the Boone Co. Argus was in the city several days last week.

—S. O. Raymond returned Wednesday last from his trip to Burlington, Iowa. —Choice Missouri Sorghum syrup best out, at Bullard & Smith's North Star Grocery.

—Fifteen dollars will buy you a good Fanning Mill at John Wiggins's Hardware store. —Of the last nine applicants, only two obtained certificates to teach school in Platte county.

—Our list of subscribers is receiving many accessions, and there is ever room for one more. —Hogs are a treacherous thing to deal in. The safe way is to buy on large margin, and sell quick.

—Don't pay two prices for gloves and mittens when you can get them at Marshall Smith's at cost price. —L. Kramer has recently employed Mr. George Haskins and M. Brady; this makes nine of a force.

—The new Presbyterian church building is enclosed, and we presume will soon be ready for occupancy. —M. Kramer of the New York Cheap Cash Store started for Chicago Thursday last to lay in a fresh supply of goods.

—The Era states that Miss Cynthia Rose, sister of Orlando Rose formerly of this city, died at Bellefontaine, Ohio, Dec. 6th. —Preaching at the M. E. church, to-day, next Sunday, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. in the evening, by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Fiehrer.

—W. H. Motter of David City is canvassing this city and county for Hill's Manual of Social and Business Forms. It is a good book. —W. C. McVayden of Boone Co. has sold his land there and purchased a tract on the Reservation on the "side" just west of Geneva.

—F. Gerber & Co. keep the best assortment of furniture and sell at the lowest prices. Give them a call at their new store on 11th street. —Melnyte is quite a genius—a nutting grater is his latest, and it will certainly do the business, just as easy as a coffee-mill will fulfill its duty.

—The Opera House was pretty well filled with attentive hearers on the occasion of Rev. Sherman's lecture on temperance Sabbath evening last. —Elsewhere we chronicle the birth of two boys in the city. We add here that the children, the mothers and likewise the fathers are doing admirably.

—G. H. Krause & Sons have established a branch hardware store at Rising, and Paul A. Krause went over on Tuesday to take charge of the business. —Geo. and Joseph Hengler returned from a deer hunt last week. If they weren't very successful in finding game, they did find a magnificent country.

—Chas. McCoy and Jno. Stuppel of this place have opened a meat market at Rising City, Butler county. They understand the business, and we wish them success. —Miss Binnie Glover will conduct a singing-school Friday evening next, at the M. E. Church. We hope that the lovers of music will give her proper encouragement.

—Large lot of boxes and barrels cheap at Marshall Smith's. —See F. W. Ott for your toys. He makes it a specialty to sell cheap.

—Don't sell or sow dirty grain any longer, when you can get a good Fanning Mill at Wiggins's Hardware store on 11th street, for $15.

—Pat. Murry has five hundred cords of wood for sale, the proceeds of his Reservation land purchase. He is delivering it by the car load.

—Platte county's Sup't. of Public Instruction claims that his corps of teachers excel in qualifications those of any other county along the line of the U. P. road, west of Omaha.

—The new Presbyterian church in this city will be opened for worship next Sabbath, Dec. 15th. Morning service at 10 o'clock, evening at 7, by Rev. R. Christion. The public are cordially invited.

—On motion of E. J. Baker, the city printing is to be let to the Columbus Era, for the present. "THE JOURNAL's" bill since June 1877, was $15.22; the statute rates would have been twenty cents as much.

—Our pork dealers shipped fourteen cars of fat hogs last week—Anderson, six, Morrissey, four, Henry, two, Baker & Gillett, two. All merchantable hogs in this section will soon be marketed.

—A telegram here Sunday night stated that the post-office at Schuyler, with the grocery in the same building, together with J. T. Clarkson's hardware store was burned. We have not ascertained the amount of loss.

—David City complains of discrimination by the O. & R. V. R. R. in favor of the new town, Rising. A short time ago they had no railroad and voted hogs. Now they have one, but are ready to vote bonds to a second one.

—John McMahon, the night-watchman arrested Thos. Thornton last Sunday morning between one and two o'clock. He was making toward the river and wasn't going straight home. The Police Judge fined him $1.00 and costs.

—Quarterly conference of the Latter-day Saints, next Saturday and Sabbath, at their church in this city. Meetings, 7 p. m., Saturday, and on the Sabbath, 11 a. m., and 3 p. m. Services conducted by G. W. Galley, president of the Conference.

—The Loske brothers brought in several wagon trains of hogs last week. Henry's were the heaviest, and we believe the best that have been brought to this market this season, the twenty-eight averaging 422 pounds. J. C. Morrissey got them.

—The Library and Reading-Room Association perfected an organization last week, by the election of Wm. Burgess, Pres.; D. D. Wadsworth, Mr. Fifield and G. W. Hammond, Treas.; Rev. E. L. Sherman, Sec'y.

—We are informed that a writ of mandamus was to be applied for yesterday before his Honor, G. W. Post, at Osceola, to compel the City Council of Columbus to withhold liquor license from certain parties applying who, it is alleged, have not complied with the law.

—Billy Keller reports his "string" of trotters as all in fine condition. "Boston Davis" who has been "laid on the shelf" for the last two months is again on the road, and Billy says he will make the "boys" think there is a "mud storm" if they try to follow him the balance of the winter.

—Of course you are preparing to spend a few dollars, more or less, for the surprises of Santa Claus, and you want to know the place where you can find a full supply of holiday goods at lowest prices. Try F. W. Ott, near the old post-office, one door south of Brodteubner's jewelry store.

—He has trumpets and drums, bugles and mouth organs, dolls and animals of all kinds, pencils and albums, pens and inkstands, and a thousand things besides, all cheap for cash. "Who has all them," says Miss Curiosity and Master Eager. Why F. W. Ott, of course.

—Major D. Cunningham, of Cadiz, Ohio, made his second business visit to Neb., last week. We had a very pleasant interview with him in this city on the evening of the 5th inst. He left on the early morning train on the 6th and will make a brief stop at Schuyler and Fremont and then return home.

—As a general rule the weather continues good, and everybody is on the move. The roads are splendid, and farmers keep them occupied in bringing their grain, hogs and cattle to the Columbus market. The town is thronged every day, Sundays excepted, with people engaged in disposing of their marketable articles.

—Darwinism, or Are Men the Descendants of Apes and Monkeys, or of Adam and Eve? Rev. Robt. Christion, formerly lecturer to "The Christian Evidence Society of London," will deliver a lecture on the above subject, in the new Presbyterian church, Sabbath evening next, the 15th inst. The thinking men of all creeds and of no creed, are respectfully invited. Admission free, but a special collection will be taken at the close of the lecture in aid of the building fund of the church. Citizens, turn out and hear the subject of your ancestry discussed, and help a good cause.

—We have blank note books, for sale, in books of 100 each, suitable for threshers, mechanics and others for work and labor; also the common form, and the note "payable at Columbus State Bank." Also receipts in book form. M. K. Turner & Co.

—The proposition of voting bonds to the Omaha & Republican Valley Railroad by Polk county came up on the 6th inst., resulting in favor of the bonds by a vote of 766 for and 322 against, giving 122 more than were necessary to carry the bonds. The friends of the road are jubilant, as it will doubtless secure for Polk county a railroad.

—Don't you forget it that Gustave Hellborn is now permanently located on Nebraska Avenue opposite the Clothier House, and that he keeps a first-class stock of gentlemen's wear, which he is selling at low rates. If you are in need of a suit or part of a suit give him a call. You will find him always on hand and attentive to business.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a neck-tie party, Old Folks concert, and supper on Wednesday evening, the 18th inst., at the new Presbyterian Church. Each lady attending is requested to prepare two neck-ties of the same material; one to be worn by her, the other to be placed in a sealed envelope and handed to the door-keeper. A good time is expected. All are cordially invited to attend.

—From the Butler Co. Republican we learn that Wm. Ogburn, recently in the employ of Frank Ball, accidentally shot himself on Thanksgiving day while pulling a gun, muzzled end, towards him. The top of his head was blown off. He was 21 years old, and came from Jasper county, Iowa, last July. Joseph Joley and Wm. Wolfe were arrested for stealing horses from Missouri. One of the animals was found with them.

—The Jubilee Singers performed at the Opera House last Thursday evening. They sang the old songs of the plantation and camp-meeting as they learned them in childhood, with much feeling and enthusiasm, and as we thought with much harmony for that sort of music. We regret that we could not distinctly catch the full sentiment of the pieces rendered, and whether it was the fault of the hall or the imperfect enunciation of the singers we don't know, but we know that our enjoyment would have been greater had it been otherwise.

—G. W. Shaffer was in the city Saturday. He recently lost a steer by "the disease" common to stock this fall. He opened it after death, and found the appearance just as described recently in the JOURNAL by Mr. J. H. Reed. Mr. Shaffer says that the appearances are identical with those produced by the dry murrain, many cases of which he has seen in the east. He says that he never heard there of but one remedy, which was applied only as a last resort, and relief or death was sure to follow quickly. That is, take a bottle containing one pint of strong vinegar, put into it a piece of white chalk about half the size of a hen's egg, stir it but once (as oftener may burst the bottle), and pour it down the animal's throat.

—We saw it in all of our exchanges and we thought it was a pretty good joke, but for the life of us we couldn't see anything so very funny about it. It began by saying—"A correspondent writing from Columbus, Neb., says"—and then follows a description of a cyclone at Lone Tree and Clark's several years since, and a vivid picture it is of a massive black cloud extending a whirling finger toward the earth, and sweeping with great fury whatever came before it,—and then of Jennie, a working girl in a hotel, stepping to the door to see what was going on when, "as she did so she was caught from the doorway by the whirling wind and carried over the house, turning round and round in the air as she went and after approaching the ground on the other side she again arose and was taken by the whirling wind over the stores and dwellings a distance of three-fourths of a mile, being lowered so that her feet could touch the ground as many as eight times during the trip. Exhausted, but in an erect position she was at last lowered to the earth as lightly as a feather would fall, having received no material injury, though almost frantic with fright. The storm proceeded on its way, leaving her in sight of the town, and in half an hour she again put in an appearance at the hotel where anxious friends were bewailing her sudden and mysterious departure." These are the words of the faithful chronicler, and we had read them "over and over again," until we could almost repeat them verbatim, and the mental picture was very strongly imprinted in the memory. We have kind friends afar off, however, who do not forget us, and from some of these we have received copies of newspapers containing this identical bit of vivid description, marked for our particular benefit, and to add all in our care a man Saturday with a Michigan paper marked pretty much in the same way, and the self-same Jennie flying and whirling through the air. If this thing accomplishes no other good, it will at least advertise the name of Columbus, Neb.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN JOURNAL:—I see that C. L. Hill, the book-seller, is unduly exercised in the interest of the dear people in regard to which text-books they shall use in the schools, and has published a communication from the State Superintendent calling their attention to the State list of text-books. This is not news to the school officers, nor to the people in general, for this list has been the legal one for the last ten years, and is published on every blank report sent to school officers. But nine-tenths of the districts in the State have adopted either the legal list. Now if this law was strictly enforced every one of these districts would have to buy new books. But this law never can nor never will be enforced from the fact that it is now impracticable, and arbitrary. It defines what the child must study no matter what the desire of the parent may be. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Hill both know, and must admit, that the last ten years many text-books have been published far superior to many on the state list, and this law, if enforced, prevents their adoption no matter what their merits may be. In conclusion I will say that every one can see that self-complacency of the State Superintendent in this action, and this he will not deny. He has books to sell and is jealous of those who can sell them cheaper.

Truly yours, S. L. BARRETT.

A CARD. We desire to thus publicly express our gratitude to kind friends for their services in our behalf during the funeral services of our little Annie, and especially to those little girls, her former playmates, for their remembrance of her and the beautiful bouquet of flowers, emblems of the climate to which she has gone.

S. O. J. RAYMOND.

Notice. It is urgently requested that all comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic be present at their hall on Friday evening next (Dec. 13th), for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

DEATHS. RAYMOND—Thursday, December 5, 1878, of typhoid fever, Anna, daughter of Wm. Raymond, aged five years.

MAGOON—Died, at Lincoln, on the morning of Nov. 25th, Dana Magoon, late of Watsville, in this county, in the 25th year of his age.

Mr. Magoon had been for several years well known in this county as a young man of eminent worth and promise. His powers of body and mind were such as promised an energetic activity of many years in the fulfillment of those earnest purposes of Christian benevolence to which he had dedicated himself. But it has seemed otherwise to the Master of the Vineyard, who knows better than we in which world His people can do Him most effectual service, and whether their presence or their memory can accomplish most in His royal heritage.

Mr. Magoon, who came into the State with his widowed mother, Mrs. Mehlita Magoon, now matron of the Agricultural Department of the University, as the fourth of a family of six, of whom Mr. H. C. Magoon and Mrs. J. R. West still reside among us) after having taken measures for securing his homestead, engaged school labor in Kansas, as the agent of the Am. S. Union; and then went to Oberlin, Ohio, as a student of theology, expecting in due time, to enter the Christian ministry. But his athletic frame, accustomed to active exercise, appears to have been unable to bear the strain of study to which he applied himself with only too much of the steadfast earnestness of his character. Besides, his travels in Kansas seem to have imbued his frame with so much of the poison of that insubstantial region, that although his last illness, so far as the signs of impending dissolution were only too plainly written on his frame, nevertheless he who knew and loved him hoped against hope, and after he left us for his mother's home at Lincoln, he was hardly willing to inquire, until, sooner than even our fears had indicated, the intelligence came that he was no more. He was only confined to his bed two days. His mother, seeing the last hour imminent, asked him if he feared to go. With a smile of peace he answered: "Oh, no! I have trusted in the Lord too long to fear now." And so, as if sleeping, he passed away. And in Christ we know that indeed he "is not dead, but sleepeth."

From my knowledge of Mr. Dana Magoon—having been for some time his pastor—I should say that the most conspicuous qualities of his character were mainly modesty, steadfast earnestness, and singular sweetness of disposition, all brought under the unwavering service of Christian faith and love. It is an honor to Platte county to have numbered him among its citizens, and to have been able to present him to Christ as a pledge, that, through his last moments, he was the deepest self-dedication to the interests of his immortal kingdom was to be found within her borders.

If life be not in length of days, In silvered locks, and furrowed brow, But living to the Saviour's praise, How few have lived so long as those.

TO SMOKERS. FIVE-CENT CIGARS. Made by good-looking Cubans, with claw-hammer coats and white kid gloves, on black-walnut tables. By smoking these, you will attend church more regular, and drive fast horses, and you will be called "healthy, wealthy and wise."

Attention, Sheep Raisers! We have 15 head of thoroughbred Rams on hand, which we offer for sale, cheap—all long woolled, just what you want to cross with fine woolled sheep with to it pay.

L. Kramer has just received large additions to his already immense stock of goods, in clothing, hats, and shoes, and is offering a good assortment of goods at low prices. He has the largest stock of goods in town; does business strictly on the one-price system, and it will pay you to give him a call.

The Tattersall Livestable is an excellent place to stop at when you are in town with a team. Good accommodations. Reasonable charges. On Olive street, one door south of Coolidge's hardware store. Try them.

Shotwell & Randall having purchased the meat market lately owned by Frank Gillett, is prepared to furnish, beef, pork, &c., equal to the best and at prices to suit the times.

Times are very hard, and the products that a farmer has for sale do not bring him his cost price, and to equalize the thing and buy your hardware in proportion to what you get for your wheat, you must buy of G. H. Krause & Sons.

Drake & Smith in Central Block have just received one of the finest lot of button dress goods, corsets, millinery goods and trimmings ever brought to Columbus. Call and see them.

Look Here. Mr. W. H. Motter is canvassing the city and county for one of the most complete works ever put before the public, Hill's "Indispensable" Manual. It treats of Penmanship, Short Hand Writing, Composition and Punctuation, Letter Writing, Book keeping, Etiquette, How to collect a debt, Parliamentary rules, How to write for the Press, Language of the Flowers and writing poetry. Besides all this it contains commercial and legal business Forms, State Laws, a Dictionary of Synonyms, Interest tables, and thousands of other things that are of the utmost importance to every man and woman. The book is handsomely bound in one large volume, quarto, 345 pages, printed on extra fine tinted paper and beautifully illustrated. Everybody needs it. Everybody buys it. When the agent calls upon you, be sure to procure a copy. It is worth many times its cost to any one.

Snack Thieves in the Neighborhood of Postville. Some pretty bold pilfering has been committed in the neighborhood of Postville. Some one or more scamp entered the cave of Mr. D. Thomas and helped themselves to potatoes.

Others, or the same ones, husked fifteen rows of corn for Mr. Wolf and Mr. Henrich, on Mr. Dearing's place, and took it away.

Some neighbors speak of giving such nightly visitors a warm reception in the shape of powder and "a little more grape," as General Taylor used to say.

To School Officers. The following letter from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to C. L. Hill of this place explains itself.

LINCOLN, NOV. 18, 1878. MR. C. L. HILL:—It is clearly illegal, as the law now stands, to introduce or use text books other than those on the accompanying list. This list I have not changed in any particular, and it is the only legal list. I regret that in many places changes of text books have been made in violation of law, since such changes frequently tend to add additional cost to our schools without any compensating advantage.

Yours truly, S. R. THOMPSON.

The State list accompanying the above letter can be seen at C. L. Hill's Book Store. Among other books the list contains Hillard's Readers, Guyot's Geographies, Harvey's Grammars, and Seavey's Histories.

Liver is King. The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. Sold by C. B. Stillman, Doland & Smith and A. Heintz, Columbus, Neb.
