

Communications, to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Mondays; if on Thursdays, preceding issue-day. Advertisements of whatever class, should be in hand by noon, Tuesdays.

Advertisements under this head 15 cts. a line first insertion, 10 cts. a line each subsequent insertion.

--Hear Billy Arlington. --B. & M. lands at Becker's. --Stall-fed beef at Randall's.

--Teas at auction opposite P. O. --Upholstered lounges cheap at Gerber's. --Lawrence's genuine Nebraska breaker.

--Lawrence's genuine Nebraska breaker. --Dwelling for Rent. Call at the Foundry. --Plenty of pumps, points, etc. at Colquhoun's.

--A heavy rain here Monday morning. WANTED--A good cook at the Nebraska House. --Boots and shoes at auction opposite post-office.

--Croquet sets cheap at A. W. Doland's drug-store. --For lounges of the latest styles and prices, go to Gerber's.

--Billy Arlington at the Opera House Thursday evening. --Cornet band's first concert to-night. A splendid programme.

--Several improvements in the Stevens addition to Columbus. --Prepared mustard by the quart or gallon, very cheap, at Geo. Rieder's.

--Call at Becker's and see the best Wagon on wheels, the celebrated "Fish." --Several colored persons from Canada have recently located in this city.

--Enthusiasm all along the line for the Lincoln & Northwestern road. --Call and examine J. M. Honnahan's new stock before purchasing elsewhere.

--Good growing weather. --Potash hails at Geo. Rieder's. --Maple syrup at Geo. Rieder's.

--Arlington will solve Life's Problem. --Remember the ladies' auction, Thursday.

--Hop around lively and get to the band dance to-night. --Don't forget the Ladies' auction, Thursday.

--Band concert and ball to-night at the Opera House. --Auction every day opposite the post-office.

WANTED--A girl to do housework. Inquire of Mrs. J. E. North. --Auction of dry goods opposite post-office every afternoon and evening.

--Sackett & Crouch, of the Albion mills, are as true as steel to their engagements. --Billy Arlington, the mirth-provoking Billy, must be heard to be appreciated.

--If you want to keep out flies and bugs, go to Hunneman's and order a screen door. --A Polander which would look like a young and very small alligator attracted some attention Saturday.

--The heavy rain in Columbus Sunday did not extend to Pat Murray's or to Shell Creek--so we hear. --"Whisky Triumphant," or "Who is Responsible?" will be Rev. Sherman's topic at the Opera House next Sunday evening.

--Billy Arlington, the great comedian and humorist, will appear at the Opera House next Thursday evening in Life's Problem. --The southern road which is now in view, built, will bring us another from the north which ought to be a third, independent line.

--The U. P. has probably got through with her Platte Co. surveys, but the people are immovable, and more and more will vote for the Lincoln & Northwestern bonds.

--Don't forget to call at the auction store opposite post-office for dry goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, ladies' and gents' neckwear, etc. Remember the place, opposite the P. O. --Miss Ada Millett placed upon our table last Saturday a choice collection of most beautiful flowers.

Callers on Monday admired them, and eastern men wondered that such rare colors should appear thus early in Nebraska.

--Lightning struck Mr. Knuble's dwelling-house in the southern part of the city Monday morning, punching a hole in the roof and knocking windows out, but doing no special damage except shocking the family.

--It is said that Columbus dealers are shipping hogs by way of Omaha to Atchison. With the proposed road they could go direct to Atchison and save to farmers the half a cent a pound that goes to the railroad by the present route.

--Wm. Becker sells the Pierrepont & Tuttle post-hole digger, "the best thing in the business." Three to one against the post auger and about ten to one against the spade. Don't invest in anything else till you see it.

--Messrs. Hunneman and Henry have been authorized, by the Music Hall Association, to contract for necessary scenery and fixtures to put the Hall in first-class shape. Mr. Fonda has the contract. He is an artist and theatrical expert.

--We are told that special inducements are being held out to some of our citizens between here and Jackson, by U. P. officials. If that is the game, it may as well be understood that it won't work well. Platte Co. farmers are not a gullible class.

--Barnum's horse, Peacock, weight 1700 lbs., has the best "action" of any large horse we know of. His walking gait is five miles an hour, and we judge his trotting is low down for his weight. Farmers who want large active horses will do well to call on Mr. Barnum.

--G. W. Westcott, who with his family came to Nebraska this spring, locating on the Rickly farm west of Jacob Ernest's, has finished planting 150 acres of corn, nearly all of which has been dragged the second time; he has, also, 50 acres of wheat and 15 of oats, besides one of potatoes--all of which look well. From appearance, he is determined to give Nebraska a thorough trial this year. Success to him.

--D. C. Loveland, we are informed, is at work throughout the county, against the Lincoln & Northwestern Railroad bond proposition. We should like to have him reconcile his present course with his avowed principles in his canvass for representative last Fall. For him, individually, we have the kindest of feelings, but when he undertakes to defeat a project of great importance and profit to the county, he should remember that his action is subject to the severest criticism. "Veritas," in a communication which we publish to-day, has something to say.

--In the storm Monday morning the mail-driver from Columbus to Genoa drove his team, attached to the back, into the barn at George Lehman's, out of the rain. While standing there lightning struck the roof, passing thence to the ground by way of a 2x4 scantling, upright, under the roof, beneath which the team was standing. Both horses were killed, and the driver and others in the immediate vicinity severely wounded. One of the horses, we are told, belonged to Lorenzo Clark, who had loaned him, for exercise, to John Huber. Later--The team was driven, not into, but to the south end of the barn. A steer, outside, was killed before the horses were. The driver's name is Cap. Whipple. Passengers, who had got out, were in the barn, and were not hurt.

--At R. Rossiter's place seven miles up the Loup, twelve lambs were killed the other day by wolves. Within the last two weeks six young ones have been caught. Where lambs are scarce the wolves will not object to spring pigs or even chickens.

A DOUBLE CRIME.

A Suicide and Almost an Uzorocide. Last Wednesday morning the city was startled by a report from Stearns prairie that Timothy Treacy, a well-known citizen of Platte Co., had attempted to kill his wife and then committed suicide. The facts, as since ascertained, are these: About nine months ago, Mr. Treacy had some disagreement with his wife and, we believe, his children also, since which time he has not lived with them.

His chief place of sojourn, as we are told, was Mr. Nickeman's, where he was stopping on the night of the 13th. Gentleman's is about 1/4 mile from Mr. McCleary's place, which latter is about 300 yds. from the home of Mrs. Treacy. Mrs. T. had lately purchased chickens from McCleary's, who are now at Omaha, and there being some setting hens among the number, she let them remain with her, and on every day would tend them. On the morning of the 14th she made her usual visit to the McCleary homestead, and was surprised there by Treacy's coming suddenly upon her. Having, since the separation, always had angry words with him when they happened to meet, she was frightened, and endeavored to escape. He had a Colt's navy revolver and fired all the six shots at her. He then took a small revolver, threw Mrs. Treacy down, put his foot upon her neck, fired a shot at her when the approach was being made along the road, frightened him and he ran to Gentleman's, telling him that he had shot his wife and he guessed he had killed her. Gentleman told him he would be hung for it; with that, Treacy went to the stable, and in a very short time the crack of a pistol was heard, and Mr. Treacy was found with a bullet through his heart--dead.

Three of the shots fired struck Mrs. T., two of them producing slight wounds, the third a serious one which Dr. Bonesteel regards as critical. Treacy was about fifty-five years old, and a resident of Platte county eight years.
