

THE JOURNAL.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF PLATTE COUNTY.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1879.

Communications, to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Mondays; if lengthy, on Thursdays preceding issue-day. Advertisements, of whatever class, should be in hand by noon, Tuesday.

Advertisements under this head 10 cts. a line first insertion, 10 cts. a line each subsequent insertion.

Buggy tops at cost, at Becker's.
Want of decency is want of sense.

Money to loan at Becker & Price's.
The toma-hawk wire-band cutter at Coolidge's.

The Lindell House property in this city is for sale.
The Messrs. Gerrard have purchased a hay-press.

B. Teichner has put up a neat fence at his dwelling.
Dwelling house to rent. Call on L. Jaggi, at the Bank.

At Lamb's new store you will find goods at bottom prices for cash.
Henry Gass is putting up a neat dwelling-house on Washington Ave.

J. B. Deisman & Co. have purchased J. C. Morrissey's elevator at Rising.
Irwin & Wake have sold their establishment on 11th street to J. C. Parker.

Mrs. L. M. Salety will accept our thanks for a bouquet of nice fine flowers.
D. A. Lord purchased Mr. McWilliams' flock of sheep, including two goats.

The temperance folks passed a very enjoyable day Friday at Stevens' lake.
G. W. Stevens last Saturday placed us under renewed obligations for nice melons.

Morse & Cain are "setting up" their nobby lot of wagons and buggies. See them.
We are informed that work on the bridge over the Loup will be begun this week.

The finest stock of stationery in the city at Ed. Fitzpatrick's, opposite the post-office.
The business men of Columbus have always been very liberal patrons of newspapers.

Julius Rasmussen was tipped out of his wagon Sunday by a sudden turn of his horse.
Lamb pays cash for all the good butter and eggs that come along. Second door north of post-office.

Saturday evening's U. P. passenger train was the heaviest one of the summer, requiring two engines.
The game of base ball Monday resulted in a victory to the Independents against the A. & N's, 32 to 14.

W. T. Rickly has rented Wm. Lamb's old store-room, one door north of the post office for a meat market.
Dodge county will hold its seventh annual agricultural fair at Fremont, September 23d, 24th, 25th and 26th, 1879.

Don't you forget that Lynch & Hays, at their new store on Olive street, have a large assortment of choice teas.
With the five printing offices in Columbus they ought to be able to do all the printing necessary for this section of country.

The Episcopal social will be held Wednesday evening at the residence of G. G. Bowman, Esq. All are cordially invited.
Two Pawnees are here ready to go with the W. F. Cody's troupe on their annual tour of the States. They start next week.

T. A. Potts, of this city, placed on our table Saturday a nice bouquet of beautiful double flowers—white, pink, orange and yellow.
I buy Croquet sets cheaper, and sell them cheaper than any other man in Columbus. At Doland's Columbus Drug Store.

The Grebe hay-sweep, best thing in the business, for sale at Becker's. Can be seen at work on the farms of Wm. Stevens and J. H. Reed.
The surest road to wealth in Nebraska is by utilizing the natural product of the soil. We need more cattle and sheep to eat our grasses.

Hay is to be a good price here, even this winter, and it will doubtless pay every man who has a team to keep working hard while the sun shines.
A big storm threatened from the north Monday morning, but with a slight rain here, it blew over, leaving the sky covered with light clouds.

Rese Mills will please accept our thanks for the fine melons left at the JOURNAL office last week. Nebraska "fruit" is very excellent this year.
T. P. Coan of this city keeps the celebrated Hanna wagons, the cheapest and best in the market. The Hanna wagon is for sale at Genoa and Silver Creek.

It is supposed that the Columbus Volksblatt, by R. C. Lange, will make its appearance to-morrow. This will be the fifth living newspaper for Columbus.
HAY WANTED.—Bids will be received for putting up 75 tons of hay, and contract let to lowest bidder. See specifications at JOURNAL office. R. Cunningham.

—Buckboard for sale at Becker & Price's.
—Last Wednesday morning Jacob Lewis lost a stack of wheat by lightning.

—The passenger train on the U. P. Friday evening going west, was drawn by two engines.
—J. O. Shannon not long since saw a beautiful young mink, in the vicinity of his residence, in the city limits.

—A car-load of scrapers was standing on the track at the depot Monday morning. The U. P. extension through Platte county is to be put through.
—The original mixed paint is the Averill and it is the best. It costs no more to paint with it than with poor paint. For sale at Doland's Columbus Drug store at $1.50 per gallon.

—Rosa Mills has had a cancer entirely removed from her finger, and it is believed a permanent cure is effected. The cure was performed by Dr. Mills, her cousin, from Michigan.
—Brodfelner has been repairing a watch, sent down from Cheyenne, which is a curiosity in its way—its "weigh" being upwards of two lbs. Case and chain, of solid silver, weigh 19 oz.

—George Galley is using a mowing machine that he has had for sixteen years. This fall he replaced the mower-bar by one of the latest patterns, and the machine is now as good as new.
—H. W. Summers, who resides near Greenwood, Ia., was in the city last Thursday. He purchased two hundred head of young cattle of David Anderson, to take to his Iowa farm to fatten.

—Wagon springs, three sizes for 2500 to 4500 pound loads, for sale at Becker's. They save a wagon, there is less liability to breakage in rough places, and there is more comfort riding on the load.
—Will, Rickly, who was at Omaha recently, will soon provide himself with an engine to be used for various purposes in his meat business. He is thinking of erecting a brick building for his meat market.

—Spend your money at home for anything you can get here. Build up home manufactures. Let the money you pay out, circulate at home and you will be doubly benefited by its returning to you again.
—The Daily State Democrat published at Lincoln, Neb., by Yifquin & Meades, is before us. The managers show talent in its columns, and in a better cause we could more cheerfully wish them every success financially.

—Even the Era characterizes it as "the action of the Democratic Central Committee in prescribing a certain unheeded mode of procedure to be observed in the coming county convention. 'Unheard of mode' is convenient."
—"No man is too poor to take his home paper."—Era. Columbus men are assumed to be rich, for are there not five papers here, or does the Era mean to say that no man is too poor to take at least one, two, three or four of his home papers?

—School will commence in district No. 13, on Monday, Sept. 1st, with the following efficient corps of teachers: Mr. H. L. McGintie, Principal, Mrs. C. Field, Intermediate Department, Miss Annie Gilbert, Primary Department.
—We thought sure last Saturday that we had captured the last Walter Tostevin, who recently disappeared from Council Bluffs, but the young man assured us his name was Smith, and we had to give it up. He admitted however that he lived in Council Bluffs.

—A number of teams and work hands came down from Jackson and crossed the river at this place on last Wednesday, and passed up west to the line of the U. P. extension from Jackson, to continue grading the road north of the Loup in the direction of Madison.
—W. B. Dale of this city, has invented a nut-lock for use on railroad tracks, that exceeds anything yet invented for durability and cheapness. It would be bad faith to disclose the principle until our friend secures the patent, which he intends doing immediately.

—The first number of "The Cosmopolitan," a monthly, published at Sioux City, Iowa, by D. H. Talbot has been received. Competing with nine thousand papers in the United States leaves no idle time for the manager of "The Cosmopolitan." We wish the manager great success.
—C. S. Webster brought from his farm south of the Loup river last Saturday, some of the best melons we ever saw. Many thanks for the two left at this office,—one of them weighing twenty-six pounds. We agree with Mr. Webster, that they are equal if not superior, to any raised in New Jersey.

—The iron work on the front of Mr. Gluck's new building on 11th street, was furnished from the Foundry of this place. We are informed that besides being as good work as is done elsewhere, these castings cost no more. Those who are in need of such work, will find that they can save freight by buying here, as well as have the satisfaction of knowing that they are patronizing a home institution.

—"The republican party, pledged to disunion from the very first day of its birth, supported Lincoln." Columbus Democrat.
In the light of "twenty years' experience," comment is unnecessary.

—Peter Gallagher, engineer on a freight train of the U. P., met with a painful accident Monday evening near Jackson. In getting down from the engine his right foot was somehow caught under the wheel cutting off four toes—the great toe being left. He was brought to this city and had his wounds dressed by Dr. Mitchell.

—"Antelope Dick," of the Genoa Magnet, was in town Tuesday.
A. W. Doland returned home Saturday from a two week's business tour.

O. H. Archer left the city Thursday last, on a visit to home friends near Seward.
J. C. Hartwell, of the Clarksville Messenger, was in the city Saturday and gave us a pleasant call. Come again.

Rev. J. Q. A. Fleahy has been quite unwell the past week, and unable to fill his appointment last Sabbath.
John Wise returned from Lincoln Saturday. A very interesting letter will be found from him in to-day's JOURNAL.

S. L. Holman, Esq., and family will this week leave La Porte, Indiana, and locate permanently at Stanton, Neb.
Robt. Uhlig and wife returned home Friday, after an extended tour east. It looks natural to see Robt. on the streets again.

Mrs. A. A. Smith is rapidly recovering from her recent severe illness. Her friends speak in very high terms of praise of Dr. Bonesteel's treatment of her case.
Herman Oehrlich started from Hamburg on the 13th inst. and is expected home Friday or Saturday next. Geo. Wandell intends starting home Sept. 13th.

Mrs. G. H. Watson of this city, expects to leave the latter part of this week for Atchison, Kan., where her husband has been for some time past engaged in business.
Mr. Barker goes this week to Canada to purchase some blooded sheep. Any one in need of a mutton ram should see Mr. B. before he starts, and make arrangements with him to buy.

St. A. D. Balcombe of the U. S. Revenue service has been in the city several days. The Mayor is the same genial companion that he used to be when conducting the Omaha Republican.
L. G. Freiday and Brother returned home last week. Lou looks rather the worse for his recent illness, but is rapidly improving. He expects to return to his studies sometime during the fall.

Allie Rickly came up from Lincoln, arriving home Sunday. Work on the A. & N. road is proceeding at a lively rate, and is being well done. Very little iron has yet been laid, it seeming to be the intention of the management to wait until a long stretch is ready.

Brainard's Musical World. This popular musical monthly for August is on our table, and contains besides the usual large amount of interesting musical literature, including all the musical news of the day, the following choice new music: "The Little Spring Beside My Cabin Home," song and chorus by Geo. W. Perley; "Fatiniza," potpourri of melodies from this popular new opera, arranged for the piano by Jas. C. Macy; "Summer Nights Reverie," song without words by Oscar Kohler; "My Gentle Little Heart," rondo for young players, by Karl Mezz; "Break into Beautiful Blossoms," song and chorus by E. H. Winchell, and "Brighter Days Will Come," beautiful ballad by E. Leslie. These six pieces of new music cost $2.00 in usual sheet form, but can be obtained in this number of the World for only 15 cents. The MUSICAL WORLD is the oldest, largest and most successful musical journal in the United States, and is published by S. Brainard's Sons, of Cleveland, Chicago and Cincinnati at only $1.50 per year. Single copies will be mailed for 15 cents, containing $2.00 worth of music. The publishers will also send their large catalogue of music free on application. Address S. BRAINARD'S SONS, 158 State Street, Chicago, Ill.

Democracy. We purpose keeping up a record of local politics. We find that it is a good thing for the readers of the JOURNAL to know from what it is transpiring with both political parties here in Platte county. The contest for nomination this fall promises to be interesting at least, if not exciting and all-absorbing. The following from the Era is the body of resolutions adopted by the Committee. We suppose the last word should be "committee." We give these resolutions because they have been the subject of considerable comment: Resolved, That the County Convention nominate county officers by viva voce vote, and that we recommend that the delegates from the different precincts do not pledge themselves to any candidate. Resolved, That any candidate who shall give aid or assistance to the opposite party shall be stricken from the ticket by the Central Convention.

Personal.

Mrs. J. I. Paynter returned home Saturday.
Rob. Compton was in the city yesterday.
J. B. Wells returned Saturday from Colorado.
Barclay Jones goes to Santee Sioux Agency this week.

MARRIAGES. HABER—SKUTT—On the 23rd day of August, by B. Millett, J. P., John H. Haber and Miss Sarah L. Skutt.

DEATHS. WILLIAMS.—On Thursday, August 21st, 1879, Mr. John Williams, of Shell Creek. Mr. Williams was about 26 years old, and leaves a wife and seven children. His death was rather sudden and unexpected. Some years since he received a sun stroke, and being exposed for several days in the hot sun, and running a mower the day before his death, he might have received an other similar stroke. His remains were buried in this city last Saturday.
