The latest theory about Wise and his companion is that their balloon descended in the night in the pines in the north of Michigan, where they are now either dead or maimed, wandering in search of an opening to lead them out of the wild forests.

The Secretary of the Interior has given the polygamous wife system of Mormonism another rap, by deciding that such wives will not be permitted to make homestead entries of the public lands, as such entries are not made in good faith for her exclusive use and benefit.

POSTMASTER NIX, of Blackville, South Carolina, was attacked the other day by a small party of Democrats in a store. The Globe-Democrat correspondent at Bunker Hill, Ill., thirty-two miles northeast of here, writes that he saw Wise's balloon pass there about 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. From this point the balloon took a course almost directly north, and was seen later in the evening about 10 miles away, between Bunker Hill and Carleville. There is a very wild and rugged region 15 to 20 miles in extent, known as the McCouper creek bottom, heavily timbered and almost uninhabited.

There appears to be the bare possibility that the balloon descended in this dense wilderness, and that the aeronauts may have been seriously injured they have not been able to get out. An expedition to explore this wild section of country may be organized.

Tally One for the Elkhorn Valley R. R. Co. The spirit of progress is surely abroad in the land. The evidence of it is not far to seek on every hand. Capital is seeking investment in all the old channels of business, and commerce is reviving everywhere. Such an impetus has been given in Nebraska that the next ten years will probably be startling in the rapidity of the development of our natural resources and the settling up of the country. There is nothing that we just now think of as more gratifying to Nebraska than the increase this season in her number of miles of railroad, bringing communities closer together, increasing their prosperity, and making their interests inseparable. The following note is the last sounded to the north of us, and shows enterprise. We congratulate Oakdale upon her good fortune:

OAKDALE, Oct. 3d, 79. E. V. R. R. bonds carried in Oakdale record. 143 for and 13 against. Eleven to one. Glory glow for one day. H. S. LOVREY.

Our Ticket. JUDGE AMASA COBB, Who received the unanimous vote of the convention will be elected his own successor. No extended notice of him is needed—he is already a member of the supreme court, and has given general satisfaction. He is able, honest, and attends faithfully to the duties of his office.

JNO. L. CARSON AND JOS. W. GANNETT, the former of Nemaha, the latter of Douglas county, are well qualified for the position. "Mr. Carson," says the Omaha Bee, "is one of the ablest and most successful business men in southern Nebraska, and Mr. Gannett's position as auditor-in-chief of the Union Pacific railway system, is within itself a guaranty of his superior business qualifications."

GEORGE W. POST, Who received such a strong endorsement from the Judicial Conference is, personally, an almost universal favorite throughout his district. The Democratic party will try hard enough to take votes away from him, but they will find the tables turned, and their candidate hopelessly defeated. Mr. Post will be his own successor.

STEPHEN S. ALLISTER. Our candidate for County Judge, was born at St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 11th 1849, and is consequently thirty years old. He is the youngest son of James McAllister, an old citizen, and a well-known and much respected man. Young McAllister came with his parents to Nebraska in 1858, into Platte county in 1860. In 1871 he began the study of law at the Iowa Law School, Iowa City, and was admitted to practice in the courts of Nebraska, at Columbus, in the year 1873. He has held the position of Police Judge in this city for four years, and Justice of the Peace upwards of three years, and in the exercise of the functions of those offices has given general, and so far as we know, universal satisfaction, showing ability, faithfulness and promptness. No man will doubt his ability to discharge the duties of the office with honor to himself and satisfaction to those who may have transactions with him. He is a man who can thoroughly be relied on,—of good habits, steady, careful, pains-taking, prompt and withal obliging and courteous. If elected to the office (which his political friends confidently expect) we predict that the people will be so well pleased with him that he will remain in it as long as he may desire to do so.

HARRY C. MAGOON, the candidate for Sheriff, is a farmer in the western part of the county, an ardent Republican, a man of strength and courage, and will make a good Sheriff. Harry was born at Lowell, Mass., Oct. 22d 1846; in 1855 went with his parents to Minnesota. It will be seen from this that he is a thoroughly western man. Being shot when the war of the Rebellion broke out he enlisted for the defence of the government, in the second Company of Minnesota sharpshooters, went immediately into the field, his company being attached to Col. Berdan's regiment. He was in 23 engagements. Was with Porter's corps at Hanover Court House; and all through the Peninsula campaign under McClellan—at Fair Oaks, Harrison's Landing, &c. Was with Hancock's famous corps, at Division headquarters as a sharp-shooter, and was slightly wounded three times. Was in the second Bull Run fight, at Gettysburg and South Mountain, and all the engagements of the army of the Potomac from its organization to its discharge, and was never in hospital but one week though wounded three times. On the 25th of August '64, when Hancock lost his corps on the Weldon R. R., Harry was captured by the Rebels, taken to Petersburg, then to Libby and to that death's pen, Salisbury, where he languished six months, and during which time, out of 8,000 prisoners, 5,498 died of starvation. He was exchanged the last of January, '65, and came home but only to raise a company to start back south again, when Lee's surrender was reported. Mr. Magoon came to Nebraska in 1872, and for the last six years has been Justice of the Peace in his precinct. We give Harry's history somewhat at length because voters wish to know, and because a special onslaught is to be made against him. His career shows Harry an ardent Republican, courageous, determined and active—just the kind of man for Sheriff; being, likewise, a man of very generous impulses, he will do all he may, legally, to mitigate the severity of the law against criminals and others.

DE. T. E. MITCHELL, the candidate for Coroner is in every way competent to fill the place for which he is nominated, being an accomplished surgeon of many years experience in the army and elsewhere, and an able physician. In case of the death or disability of the Sheriff, he would admirably perform the duties of that office.

JOHN W. EARLY, the candidate for Treasurer, was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, in 1844; passed his early youth as Buckeye boys usually do; when 17 he enlisted in the service against the Rebels, joining the 19th Ohio; was at Shiloh, Franklin, Stone River, and other engagements. After his time was out he re-enlisted in the 10th regiment, serving 2½ years, and was afterwards in the government employ until 1865. In '67 he came to Nebraska, Platte county, and engaged in farming for seven years, serving his county as commissioner. Since the Fall of 1873 he has been in the County Treasurer's office, either as Assistant or Deputy under Mr. Kummer, that old war Democrat who has held the position of County Treasurer for twenty years. Mr. Early has been trusted by Mr. Kummer with the business of the office, and is thoroughly versed with its duties in every particular. John is a very obliging, affable gentleman, and of course will be elected. There are yet several weeks of the campaign, and we will have something more to say of this office, and our candidate.

JOHN G. ROUTHON, for surveyor, is known to most of our Platte county readers as one of the best of men, and an excellent surveyor.

G. W. SHAFER, for County Commissioner, is a farmer, a man of good judgment who has the interests of the people at heart, and who would carefully guard the affairs of the county in that important office.

CHARLES A. BRINDLEY, candidate for Superintendent of Schools, is a young man, son of Charles Brindley, one of Platte county's oldest and most respected citizens. He has had about six years experience as teacher, and is very well qualified for the office. He is a man of steady habits, whose conduct will shame none of his friends; affable, agreeable, upright in his transactions, and will honor himself and the county in the office to which his friends will call him.

Six companies of Seventh infantry from the department of Dakota will arrive here sometime to-morrow morning and proceed to the front.

General Crook will arrive here to-morrow and will go forward and assume command of the expedition and will personally direct the movement of troops.

The awful silence at the front indicates that the worst may be expected, and grave fears are now entertained for the safety of Capt. Payne and his command.

Troops and supplies are being sent to the front with remarkable dispatch. Capt. Gillis, quartermaster, being the matter his personal attention.—Omaha Republican.

Forest Fires in New York. NEW YORK, October 3.—Forest fires are raging fearfully, destroying farm houses, barns and farm property. Some of the roads are impassable on account of fires. The loss cannot be estimated, nor can it be known how much damage will be done, as the wind has been blowing fearfully from the west for the last twenty-four hours.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 3.—The mangled body of James Heffernan, conductor on the Indianapolis and St. Louis railroad, was found early this morning at Masslet station, west of Terre Haute, on the Indianapolis and St. Louis railroad.
