Try the "Little Fred" 5 cent cigars, the boss, at Doland's Columbus Drug Store. Lamb pays cash for all the good butter and eggs that come along, Second door north of post-office.

Mr. P. Goodwin, the death of whose child is reported in this issue, has two other children very sick. Hon. D. C. Loveland has been sick with an attack of fever and sore throat, but is now recovering.

A great many people are complaining of "colds," caused, doubtless, by the recent change in weather. Platte Centre has been substituted in place of Gould City for the name of the little village on Shell creek.

We saw Charlie Chapin of Albion Junction last week. He says the dance in the new depot was a nice affair. The Omaha H. E. District Conference will hold its session at Schuyler on the 25th, 26th and 27th of November.

Chas. Zeigler has been bailing hay at Monroe for the past three weeks. He says he has lots of work, and lots of fun. Corsets at 25 cents, and the celebrated cork corset can be found only at L. Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store.

Since Frankfort square has been decorated with a common board fence the City Hall looms up now more ghastly than before. There is a neat block of Sycamore wood at the Sausage factory of Petersen & Robinson that measures about four feet in diameter.

The divers new buildings, sidewalks and other improvements on 11th street, add greatly to the appearance of this busy thoroughfare. Thursday of last week Mr. John Tanshull removed the remains of his son Geo. Tanshull from his old home in Butler county, to the Columbus cemetery.

D. G. Parker recently from Illinois, has located in the city, and intends making Nebraska his future home. He renews his acquaintance with the JOURNAL. Frank Eaton's new boarding house on Nebraska Ave. is being repaired and fitted up in tasty style at quite an expense. Look out for his advertisement next week.

We are in receipt of a communication concerning the editor of the Volksblatt, which we can not publish because of its bitterly personal nature; besides, there is no signature.

Woolen socks 5 cents a pair at L. Kramer's. Will Rieky's cow had twin calves last week.

The Omaha Indians are still camped near the city. Look for the official election returns in another column.

Mrs. Newman of New York arrived in the city last week. Fancy box paper 15 cts. at Doland's Columbus Drug Store.

Geo. W. Hulst has ten car loads of baled hay ready to ship from Richland. J. E. Van Gilder, of Wilson, Colfax Co., ordered the JOURNAL last week.

Eva Clark, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is slowly improving. A new wagon bridge has been built across Elm creek on 4th street in Platte Centre.

J. E. Van Gilder, of Wilson, Colfax Co., ordered the JOURNAL last week. Eva Clark, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is slowly improving.

A new wagon bridge has been built across Elm creek on 4th street in Platte Centre. "Antelope Dick," of Genoa, was in the city Monday, en route to Topeka, Kas.

Columbus stock and grain dealers appear to be doing a good business now-a-days. You can buy your groceries cheaper at Lamb's than at any other place in Columbus.

Go to Wm. Bucher's, where you will always find, every day, good soap for free lunch. Palmer's Perfume in bulk, the best in the World, at Doland's Columbus Drug Store.

Platte Baker, of Genoa, and his estimable lady, were visiting friends in this city last week. The A. & N. R. R. is constructed as far as Seward, and daily trains running to that place.

Miss Serena Oleson commenced the winter term of school in Fitzpatrick's district, Monday. Al. Arnold returned from a hunt Friday with 8 geese, two of which weighed 24 pounds.

In the rendition of "Pinafore" by our home talent next week, we bespeak a brilliant success. Keating & Sullivan received a choice lot of blooded helters from northern Illinois on Monday.

John J. Sullivan, attorney at law, recently from Harvard, Illinois, intends locating in Columbus. Barker & Newman have a very good lot of long-wool lambs, probably as good as are in the State.

Lamb will pay the highest market price in cash for butter and eggs. Second door north of post-office. WANTED.—10,000 children to call at E. D. Fitzpatrick's, opposite the post office for their books and toys.

If you want a good barb-wire fence call on Coolidge and get the Kelly, steel barb-wire, the best in use. Go to Kramer's N. Y. Cheap Cash Store for new fall goods just received, at prices defying competition.

Col. Whitmorey and Nelson Millett went up to Nance County Monday to attend to some legal business. Jennie Tanshull was quite ill last week with scarlet fever. This is the second case which has occurred in the family.

A. Milles, of Creston, was in the city Wednesday. The JOURNAL will visit his home weekly till the 12th of November, '80. Andrew McKelvy, who has been very sick with bilious fever, was able to go to his home in Boone county last Friday.

Diphtheria is raging in Madison County. Six deaths are reported. The deer creek school has been closed on that account. J. P. Becker and E. J. Baker, were appointed by County Clerk Stauffer to canvass the votes of Platte county last week.

O. H. Archer, S. C. Longshore and A. N. Burgess returned from a goose hunt Monday with three geese, ducks and chickens. Thirteen lots have been sold in Platte Centre, and ground broken for seven buildings. The town is "booming" and everybody is happy.

Madame Demorest's reliable patterns are conceded to be the very best. Go to Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store and look at the catalogue and buy a pattern. Stock yards are in course of erection at Platte Centre by the U. P. Co. A. J. Arnold of the city expects to buy cattle and hogs at that place as soon as the yards are completed.

Rev. R. Christison, the former pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, has received and accepted a call of the church at North Bend, Wisconsin. He desires to continue to read the JOURNAL, and it was duly forwarded to him last week.

WANTED.—A girl to do good general house-work. Inquire at the residence of J. P. Becker. The "Pinafore" music is said to be very fine, and the Columbus singers are much pleased with it.

E. J. Baker and Aber Turner left Monday to witness the reception of General Grant at Chicago this week. Gerhard Shutte started yesterday on a business trip to Chicago, and Akron, O., thence to Wisconsin and home.

We met Steve Lang of Genoa last Saturday. He says they had a lively old time in Nance county on election day. Major Frank North starts for California next Monday for his health. He will be accompanied by his brother Luke.

Mail orders for goods or samples will have my most careful and prompt attention. L. Kramer, at the New York Cheap Cash Store. It is rumored that there is to be a livery stable erected on the west side of the new Congregational Church, and a saloon on the east.

Mr. Ennis Wise, of Omaha, desires to read the JOURNAL, too, which will be sent this week. Extra numbers of last week all exhausted by the demand. James Cushing's child was very low last week with an attack of congestion of the brain. Dr. Bonesteel is in attendance. Diphtheria cases in his charge are improving.

J. W. Early received a letter from his brother-in-law, S. M. Elder, of Ohio, Monday, which announces that his sister, the wife of Mr. Elder, is not expected to live. The tea party at the Presbyterian Church on last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings was both socially and financially a successful affair, the proceeds being about $50.

Major Christmas, of St. Anthony, this county, was in the city Thursday. He is a reader of the JOURNAL, and made arrangements to continue for some time to come. The original mixed paint is the Averill and it is the best. It costs no more to paint with it than with poor paint. For sale at Doland's Columbus Drug store at $1.50 per gallon.

H. S. Armstrong, of St. Edwards, was in the city Friday last and wanted the JOURNAL. None left to supply him. His paper will be forwarded this week on regular subscription. Mr. Parr expresses himself as much pleased with the "Pinafore" Caste and chorus, he says it is equal to any chorus he conducted in the eastern cities; quite a compliment for Columbus.

Messrs. Kersenbrock & Hengler are making extensive improvements at their brewery on 7th street. H. Prigge is doing the brick work—two large vaults inside of a brick wall two feet thick. There is thought to be a democratic gain in the county, but in the result of such a conglomerate election as our last, it is utterly impossible to judge accurately of gains and losses to either political party.

John Eimers met with an accident Sunday by cutting three of his fingers on a scythe blade as he was carefully walking along the street. Dr. Mitchell dressed the wound and pronounced it as not at all serious. We learn from a business man that there is a house of ill-fame in the city on North street, that should have rigid investigation by officers of the law, as it is a source of great annoyance to the people of that part of the city.

Rev. Thos. Bayne, former minister of the Congregational church of this city, has located at Gibbon, this State. He wants to see the JOURNAL, and his wish was complied with and the paper sent forward last week. "In this line of printing we have no equal west of Chicago."—Democrat.

The above equals, if it does not excel, "Jack," the printer, who "stood on his head on the top of the Plymouth church steeple." In the official election returns there were a few scattering votes polled that are omitted. Mahlon Clothier received 8 votes for sheriff. Dr. Rely 2 votes for coroner, M. W. Post 1 vote for supreme judge, and 2 votes were cast for bonds.

It is said that the A. & N. R. road is being built by machinery. The cars will soon be running to Columbus over this road, and it will be a day of general rejoicing when we see the smoke and hear the whistle of the first approaching iron-horse. Gus. Hellborn, merchant tailor, having just finished a large number of military suits for the Kummer Guards, is now prepared to furnish cheap winter suits of good material, put up by the very best of workmen. Shop opposite the Clothing House.

There is said to have been a fire set to the prairie grass on the Looking Glass, but we did not learn the particulars. It is rumored, however, that the one setting it out, is being pursued by people thereabouts with a view of hanging him. Sid. G. McCarty, of Aurora, Ill., has sent us a package of honey locust seed of the smooth-bark variety. Farmers desiring such seed can examine the same at this office, and may, if desired, supply themselves with the article from Mr. McCarty.

A gentleman from Platte Centre says that "Dick" Rossiter holds every office in the town. All right, "Dick." If you are going to forsake your friends and grow up with a new town, we can but wish you all kind of good things, and rich returns. Rev. C. G. Hullhorst informs us that a German class is about being organized for the sole purpose of teaching the German language to any and all who may desire to take lessons. Mr. Hullhorst will be the instructor of the class, at their solicitation.

Rumor has it that our County Clerk elect has been in a great state of mental anguish on account of his light majority in the late election; also, that on election day, for fear he was running behind, he talked of asking Colfax County to give him a lift. Too bad, John. Frederick Elias, of Dakota Twp., has bought property in Gerrard's addition, and has commenced the erection of a pork packing establishment which will be in operation in a few weeks. This is a commendable enterprise, and will be fully appreciated by our citizens.

We learn that Eugene Bacon, of Lost Creek, has lately lost his stable, out sheds, well tools, farm implement, two mares and a colt by fire. The fire originated by a lantern kicked over by a horse. Eugene is a hard working young man, and we are sorry to hear of him losing so heavily. Miss Mariana Burgess started to Carlisle, Penn., Saturday, having received an appointment as teacher in the Indian school under government control near that city. Miss Burgess has had years of experience in this peculiar business, and no doubt will give satisfaction there, as she ever has elsewhere.

J. H. Selden, who was attacked by Indians recently in Idaho, arrived in our city on Monday last week. Dr. Siggins was called to dress his wounds. Mr. S. made his escape by hiding in the brush and walking 70 miles to a settlement. The Indians stole 15 horses and a wagon from him. He was wounded in the hand. Maj. Wm. Burgess, of Genoa, was in the city last week. He reports that there were 201 votes polled in Nance county at the late election. On county seat Genoa had 93, Fullerton 53, and an intermediate point 15, so that no place having a majority the contest is not decided. On county offices the result varied, some from both sections being elected.

Paying homage to such a man as Grant shows a fearful retrograde of manhood and self-respect in the American people.—Democrat. Should the writer of the above hear of Jeff. Davis passing through Columbus with petticoats on, he undoubtedly would be the first man to meet, greet, kiss and embrace him. But poor Grant, how he has to suffer while the Democrat exists. Mrs. Page, of this city, and Madame Charlton Edholm, journalist of Omaha, called at the JOURNAL office last Thursday. Mrs. Edholm represents the Woman's Journal, Boston; The Nat. Prohibitionist, St. Louis; and Omaha Evening News, Omaha. Mr. Edholm for a short time resided in this city with Mr. Brodfehrer, and from this point went to St. Louis.

A traveling man from Omaha met with an accident that might have proved very serious, on the approach of the Loup bridge Friday evening. His team became frightened and one of them crowded it under the railing and it was hung, but was quickly cut loose, and put out of danger. No damage further than the breaking of his buggy tongue, and the horse losing a part of his hide. The man was little hurt. Another sociable was held in the school house in Dist. 13 of this city Friday evening. The teacher, Mr. H. L. McGinitie, is giving entire satisfaction in this school, and by his enterprise and ardent desire to please and instruct his pupils, is in return beloved by them. Recitations, dialogues, social communion, interspersed with violin music by Mr. McGinitie and organ accompaniments by Miss Mamie Hunneman, singing, &c., comprise the programmes of these sociables.

We called at the car of the Massachusetts excursionists, Saturday, and was agreeably received, and shown through the car by the proprietor, Mr. Jerome Marble. The coach in which these people are traveling is the most complete of its kind ever constructed. They have all the comforts and conveniences of a permanent dwelling—a drawing-room handsomely furnished, an upright piano, &c., and negro cooks and porters. They have been quite successful hunting, having killed 1500 prairie chickens, 2 deer, besides geese, rabbits, coyotes, &c. They have been on the road since the 9th of September, in which time the chickens have been very wild. The party consists of Jerome Marble, A. B. Kinney, Worcester; Ezra Burton wife and child, Lancaster; C. D. Kingman and wife, Middleboro; W. H. Hutchinson, Lyan; W. Nye, Jr., New Bedford; W. C. Reawick, wife and child, New York. They left for the east, Monday.

The new Congregational Hall is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. The lecture room and vestibule will be finished, it is hoped, this month, so as to be ready for occupancy the first Sabbath in December. The parlor and class rooms will be finished as soon as circumstances will admit, at which time a number of additional windows will be put in the building. The ladies have already purchased 14 1/2 dozen chairs, carpets and stove for the lecture room, and the young folks will see to chandeliers, &c. The Society will have occasion to rejoice when once settled in its new home.
