There will be union services held at the Presbyterian church on Thanksgiving day, at 10:30 a. m.

Lamb will pay the highest market price in cash for butter and eggs. Second door north of post-office.

M. Schram, Sr., and wife left for Chicago last week. Mrs. Schram goes to get treatment for her eyes.

John W. Early received word last week that one of his sisters, who lived in Pennsylvania, is deceased.

Post-office will be closed to-morrow, (Thanksgiving) the same as on Sundays, open from 11 to 12 m., and 4 to 6 p. m.

The Nebraska Wesleyan University at Osceola, Neb. has over 20 students for their first term, and others will enroll their names soon.

Pinafore will be sung again this Wednesday evening. The programme will be the same as heretofore, except that some comical songs will be added.

The Kummer Guards, have received an invitation to be present at a grand ball given by the Militia companies of Omaha, on the evening of Thanksgiving.

Morse & Cain have erected very pleasant quarters for their fine-blooded horses—an excellent suite of box stalls and a large yard for sunlight exercise.

Geo. Willard, of Genoa, was in the city, Saturday. He says the election excitement is about subsided, and things moving along in undisturbed progression.

Alvan Craig started yesterday on his way back to his home in the Buckeye State. He seems to have a little higher opinion of Nebraska at each succeeding visit.

C. A. Brindley will teach the winter term of school on Shell Creek, in Dist. No. 12. Charley has the reputation of being one of the best teachers in the county.

Madame Demorest's reliable patterns are conceded to be the very best. Go to Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store and look at the catalogue and buy a pattern.

Wm. Derr, of Seneca county, Ohio, was in the city, Saturday. He comes to Nebraska on a tour of observation. Such trips generally end in permanent settlement in this State.

We judge from the recent action taken with the election returns of Nance county that the county-seat question as well as the election of county officers will be decided in the courts.

A. E. Pinkney of Republican City, was in the city Monday and Tuesday. He reports that place as flourishing and will have an extension of the B. & M. R. completed in about two weeks. Arthur looks well.

An additional building is much needed at the M. E. Church in this city. The present building don't accommodate the audience, and many persons were turned away last Sabbath evening for want of room.

Complaint has been made to us of cattle and hogs running loose, damaging property and annoying citizens. Our officers should keep close watch and impound every head of stock running loose on the streets.

The new brick veneered residence of A. W. Lawrence is nearly finished. It is so arranged that it can be used for a business house also. It has a solid brick wall, two feet thick, extending nine feet below the surface.

John Rontson has surveyed that tract of land situated between Gerrard's corral and Seneca's stable, which will hereafter be known as Smith's addition. It consists of 20 acres, cut up into eight blocks.

Mr. John Fox was in the city yesterday and renewed his nine years acquaintance with the JOURNAL. He will soon commence business at Arcade, Polk county. He expects to do a general merchandise business.

John Eymann killed last Thursday on the farm of J. R. West, on Cherry creek, this county, a genuine Lynx. He exhibited the hide at the JOURNAL office Monday. The animal was about two feet high and four feet long.

When Wm. McAllister returned from his extended tour in the old country he brought two young parrots to this city and donated one of them to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Stephen McAllister, and the other to his mother.

The western-bound express was two hours late, Friday, and about ten hours late Saturday. The delay of Saturday was occasioned by a smash-up of two freight trains near Millard, the particulars of which we did not learn.

J. T. Allan, of Omaha, is employed by the U. P. company to adorn the depot premises. They will be beautified by evergreens and other ornamental trees, protected by an iron fence. It will be a fine park, so Mr. Allan tells us, when completed.

Complaint has been made of the disagreeable smell arising from the ditch of a slaughter-house in the southeastern part of the city. A nuisance of this kind, whence sickness and death may emanate, should be removed far enough into the suburbs to cause no complaint.

John Godfrey's dead and living poultry on last Saturday was a sight worth seeing. You can imagine how it looked when we tell you that on that day he shipped west 900 lbs. of dressed chickens and turkeys; that he purchased, the same day, 37 dozen chickens and 150 turkeys, the latter averaging 10 lbs. each when dressed, and that he had on hand Saturday evening 400 turkeys.

The "Pinafore" performance on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, under the auspices of the Royal Arcanum, was a successful achievement in every way, as rendered by our home combination under the superintendence of Prof. Parr.

H. P. Smith, as Sir Joseph, is simply faultless; George G. Bowman, as Ralph Rakestraw, is a good singer and acted well his part; E. J. Riser, or Dick Dead-eye, can't be beaten; "Potsy," as the Sargeant attending the "Lord of the waters," was a faithful officer, and appeared to be well drilled in handling his gun; Mrs. Bowman, the Captain's Daughter, Miss Spicer, First Cousin of Sir Joseph, and Miss Cain, or Little Buttercup, are very fine singers and need no commendation, and neither do "his sisters and his cousins and his aunts." Miss Grisell furnished music for the occasion. She is an unquestionably fine pianist. On the whole it was a rare treat. It will be reproduced this (Wednesday) evening, for the benefit of Prof. Parr. As the admission has been reduced to 25 cents, we predict a crowded house.

A warrant was issued by Byron Millett, J. P., on Friday, for the arrest of Benjamin DeLisle, on the charge of larceny of five boxes of cigars, $2 worth of glassware, and a revolver, the property of Helken & Seburg of this city, in October last. Sheriff Spielman went to Kearney, Friday, and brought the prisoner back, Saturday. The hearing took place before this justice, Monday afternoon. The testimony of a young lady friend of DeLisle's, who accompanied him as far as Central City on his western tour, figured conspicuously in the case. He was sentenced to board with Mr. Spielman for thirty days, that being the greatest penalty attached to the offence. He gave his young lady friend a parting smile, and took up cheerfully with his new quarters.

Those who compare the Platte county election returns of this year with those of last, cannot fail to notice the great difference between the results on the state ticket. For instance, Cobb's majority last year was two; this year there is a majority against him of 274; of course Wakely is more popular here than was Howe, but the figures on other candidates can not so readily be explained away. Mr. Kavanaugh claims that to himself and his party of Democrats is due the credit of the majority given this year in Platte to the Democratic state ticket. The JOURNAL regards it as a doubtful honor at the best.

Among the prominent foreign arrivals last week were John Weber, H. P. Chapman, E. Dempsey, John Whiteside, G. S. Farnsworth, G. W. Leyman, J. H. Queal, L. N. Fleeke, John G. Spencer, L. H. Ryder, Chicago; B. E. Fennel, Blair; C. A. Hann, H. Meyer, H. C. Fuller, C. Barber, J. Ward, P. B. Nichols, B. E. Tuglehard, Omaha; W. Lyman, Oskaloosa, Ia.; J. M. Lee, Waloo; M. E. Davis, Council Bluffs; A. Pollock, St. Louis; A. L. Brown, F. P. Puppion, New York; F. L. Smith, Quincy, Ill.

One who takes a very lively interest in horse matters, and who is well versed in the subject, says there are many things in favor of Fall colts. They come after the heaviest farm work has been done; the colts stand with its dam in the stall during winter, and learn to eat hay and grain; and when the rush of spring work comes, the mare is in good condition for it.

A. M. Guilford, formerly of Kentland, Ind., lately of Leadville, called at JOURNAL headquarters Monday. He went to Leadville more than a year ago, and gives a glowing description of the country and its future prospects. Mr. G. is brother-in-law to our townsman, H. P. Coolidge, with whom he is visiting a few days, on his way west.

Charles Schroeder, at the Foundry, will sell you pumps, pipe, points and fittings, either for drive or bored wells cheaper than others. Those purchasing of him will receive drive well license for $9.00 each. Special attention is given to repairs in pumps as well as on machinery and other work. None in the city have such facilities to do good work.

The Congregational church at Silver Creek, which was blown down in July last, has been rebuilt and the members of the church and everybody else in the vicinity, are invited to attend a social at the church on the evening of the 27th of November, for the benefit of the same. The church will be dedicated on the 7th of December.

"Pot" and "Kettle" call each other liars. This is occasioned by "Pot" selling John Early some democratic tickets. But if John succeeded in inducing some "black" republicans to vote that ticket, that is democratic gain. What's the matter with you, "Kettle"? Don't you want Republicans to vote your ticket?

On Monday, Wm. Gerhold was arrested on complaint for assault and battery, and had a hearing before Police Judge McAllister. The Judge requested him to contribute $3 to the school fund, and pay costs of the suit. He rather reluctantly complied with the request and departed.

In memory of Lizzie Goodwin, who died Nov. 7th, 1879.
Out in the wild, wide prairie,
We laid sweet Lizzie dear;
She was so bright and beautiful
To linger with us here.
Her grave is cold and lonely,
But 'er it gleams a star
Which seems to whisper to us,
"Our darling is not far."

But, oh! our weary hearts ache,
From early morn 'till night;
And never more it seemeth
Will our home be filled with light.
For we miss the low, sweet laughter
That our ears so oft did greet,
And we know that 'er again on earth
Shall we our loved one meet.

We know that now she wanders
On that calm and wondrous shore
Where sin and sorrow never come,
And parting is no more;
That angel hands are there laid,
In that realm beyond the sky
The seal of heavenly glory
That's worn by those on high.
J. M. McCas, Richland, Neb.
