new dress and cloak, and when she secures her hat, she's off to day and Sabbath-school.

-G. R. Nunnelly and lady called on the JOURNAL Saturday last. "Dick" has sold the Osceola Herald and will probably soon engage in another newspaper enterprise.

-Hon. M. B. Hoxie, of the Grand Island Land office, called on us Wednesday last. He had been to Washington lately, and gave us a graphic picture of affairs there. -- Atchison is said to be an excellent market for corn and wheat giving almost Chicago prices on account of competing lines of railroad, furnishing cheap transportation.

-The Literary Society at Lost Creek 'expect to engage a little in the theatrical business, intending to present "West Lynn," for the bonefit of the Society, Saturday, Feb.

21st. -J. Wolbach of New York City an old friend of M. Kramer's is in the city. He is a very intelligent gentleman, and is seeking a location in the west, with a view to mer-chaudizing. -S. C. Eley has removed to town with his family. M. L. Herrington, wife and sister-in-law arrived Thursday last from New York, and took possession of the farm recently purchased of Mr. Eley. Welcome.

-- The large corn sheller that J. C Elliott had on trial at J. C. Morrissey's elevator, shelled 1235 bushels and 30 pounds on Thursday last. Ben. Rochon kept the steam up. Efflott has these shellers for sale.

-Barker & Newman have 50 of the best Cottswold lambs in Nebraska., and perhaps there is not in the United States or Canada a finer lot owned by one party. Some of them have wool thirteen inches in length. -Hon. W. F. Kimmel is making preparations to take a trip to the mountaius for his health. He has suffered all fall and winter with constant attacks of asthma. He expects to start Monday .-- Osceola Record.

rusry is at hand. Among many things interesting to the general reader are included some strictures on Peter Birkhauser and Church

Howe, with reference to the State Grange. It looks as though Mc-Bride has set out to make it lively for somebody, with a purpose. -The Music Hall Association met on Saturday evening last and reelected the following officers : Board of Directors, V. Kummer, Wm. Hunneman, J. E. North, J. Stauffer, R. H. Henry ; Treas., C. Schroeder. The total receipts for the past year have been $702.90; smount paid on indebtedness, $250.10; expended for improvements, $220. The total indebtedness of the Association, including interest, is now $1,100. -The other day, while one of the numerous girl peddlers which board the trains at this point was getting off a car, the train being under headway, collided with the conductor. Fortunately for both the collision was slight, but one can readily imagine how dangerous the situation and how fatal had the main features been intensified. The truth is that the children should not be allowed to board the cars at all. -Chas. Morse returned from the East Friday morning with 17 horses. He describes the depth of mud in eastern lows and Illinois as fearful. He saw a light, closed carriage, drawn by two good horses, start from a depot, and so long as it went down hill they got along, but so soon as they began to go up grade, the lady occupants were compelled to get out at a street-crossing, and in the distance of one block, on a grade no heavier than at the Pruvn House, this city, the team stopped five times to rest.

> 14A. C. Turner of this office suff fered very severely on Monday from strangulated hernia. Drs. Mitchell & Martyn were called in the evening and gave their patient relief in a very few minutes. Dr. Mitchell tells us of a method of permanently curing hernia, by hypodermal injection which Will. Leach formerly of this near the part affected, causing a growth across the opening. He says the inventor has had a thousand

The railroad company calls the new station on the Valley "Platte," while the citizens call it Bellwood. The Republican thinks that "Bellwood" would be the more appropriate name inasmuch as there are already a number of towns in the state which have the cognomen "Platte," such as Platteville, North Platte, Platte Center, etc. But as the town is of vastly more importance than the name, we don't purpose to worry about it.
