The relatives of the late widow

The relatives say that as the "services" of Jefferson D. were treasonable and consequently criminal, the bequest is against public policy, and is as illegal as if the will had stated that the consideration of the gift was murder, arson, or larcency committed by the legatee. It is an ingenious point, and it looks as though the courts will have do some tall dodging if they get around it, and permit Jeff to take the awag. If he is bereaved of the property by this flaw, he will wish he had not been so gushing when he drew that will for his patroness.-State Journ-
